PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE
Beautiful flowers, music and sermons commemorated Mother's Day which was fittingly observed Sunday last. High commendation was given the Christian mothers and reference was made to mother's great opportunities and responsibilities and the wonderful results arising from their love and sacrifice. To many hearts came tender thoughts of dear ones, loved long since and lost awhile.

Rev. Mr. Wallace, Toronto, occupied the pulpit in the Hall and open for a call.

The Willing Helpers and W.M.S. will hold on Friday p.m. in the Hall, when a good attendance is requested. Lunch com. are Miss Mary McEachern, Mrs. H. R. McLean, Mrs. A. Carson, Mrs. D. McDougall.

Mr. John Nichol had the misfortune to lose his driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan and daughters, Beatrice and Isabel, of Swinton, visited Sunday at Jno Nichol's and attended service.

Mrs. Robt. Parslow had the misfortune to fall and break her arm.

Mrs. Donald and Miss May Stewart attended the funeral Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. H. McLean.

Mr. Hermie McLean has purchased a new Ford Coach.

Miss Eva Carson returned Saturday, after a week in Toronto.

Mr. Alfred Hincks and sisters Gladys and Beth visited Sunday at Mr. Neil McLeod's and attended service at Swinton.

The rain on Saturday is conceded to be the worst ever, a regular cloud burst. Rivers are again high, ruts cut into newly sown fields entailing lots of damage.

The Mother's Day service at St. Columba United on Sunday was duly observed. A mother's choir occupied the choir seats, whose rendering gave fine satisfaction to the audience (so we are told) and pleasure to the choir leader. Four 'mere' men helped to furnish the harmony in bass and tenor with them. The mothers have our warmest thanks for interest thus shown. The story of "The Quest" was read by one of the Sr. pupils, Miss Alice Reilly and that of "The Givers of Life" by Master Wallace McDermid. The choir contributed two selections.

The address by Rev. F. Sullivan on "The Golden Glimpses of Motherhood" was a fine masterly effort, emphasizing the first ten years of life as influencing for time and eternity. Mother's influence gave the same faithful and inspiring life to men. Good was shown by Deilah and others of more modern times, while others were made better by mother's influence—given by thousands of them. Many instances were quoted of such in our past recent years. The pupils occupied the front seats of the church, accompanied by their teachers. How shall we memorialize? Do it by our love to mother. The mother's apron strings were used as a simile to the great net work of rails stretching across the continent. We cannot discharge Mother's love.

Choir practice will be held on Friday evening this week when a good attendance is requested. New members heartily made welcome.

Mr. H. B. McLean recently made a purchase of 27 head of fine cattle, and is pasturing them on a nearby farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Darroch, Harrisburg, paid a short visit to their parents and they were accompanied by Miss McLaughlin, relative of Mr. and Mrs. F. McKinnon.

Messrs. Ernie McRae and S. J. Sheffield have gone to Orangeville to work at pavement work.

SWINTON PARK

We, in and around the Park this morning feel that we have sustained a great loss in the departure of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richardson from Berkeley—at least for the summer and for all time if satisfactory business arrangements can be made, as Mr. Richardson has timber interests in that locality.

Though we all wish Mr. and Mrs. Richardson success in their new home, we can assure them of a hearty welcome back to Swinton at any time.

For 55 years or more, Mr. Richardson has gone in and out among us and Mrs. Richardson since her marriage about 25 years ago. For them and their four daughters, there is a sincere friendship in the Park.

Since the departure of Rev. Mr. Cory on 1st of May, we have had very capable supply. On Sunday, 5th May, a Rev. Mr. Montgomery, on May 12th a Rev. Mr. Wallace, both as preachers. On Sunday next we expect to have Rev. Jas. Reede, Hillsburg, who has been appointed by the Presbytery as interim moderator and who will endeavor to make satisfactory arrangements for supply and settlement.

Mrs. Neil McLeod and Mrs. Neil Clark enjoyed a visit from their sister Mrs. McIntyre and other members of her family last week.

A number of our car agents are very obliging at present and several families are getting free rides in those beautiful new cars. The temptation is strong but in some cases the purse is weak.

Time has strangely changed, Mr. Editor, since you and I first came in to Grey County. Then a pair of good legs was considered all that was needed for any journey. Now legs are of little account as a means of locomotion. But whether we move slow or fast, we all move steadily on to that land where there

Bennett and Lapointe Figure in Debate

Littlest Attitude Prevails over House of Commons—Social Doings

Warm weather would speed up the crawling old political machine. It ambles along leisurely when the days are cool.

The Agricultural Com. is working hard. Two sessions a day and sometimes three keep the members of that committee jumping. How grain should be graded: the mixing of grain in elevators, and the whole highly technical grain business is being carefully looked into.

The Election Com. is reported to be considering a far-reaching reform in the conduct of elections. We will hear more of this when the report is made in the House.

Mr. Ward, M.P., for Dauphin, Man. did not drop the Bill dealing with the right of married women to establish domicile. He brought it up again on Tuesday night, when public bills were reached. Mr. Lapointe was unutterably opposed to it. Mr. Cahon of Montreal greatly feared legal complications, but sympathy for the Bill was shown by all parties and groups. It would easily have gone through had not the hour for private bills expired too soon. It will come up again. Mr. Lapointe and I rather lost our temper over it. Because a law was in operation in 1855 is to me a good reason why we should still be using it, if conditions have changed in the meantime. And who will deny that the whole position of woman has changed in the last 75 years?

Mr. Bennett's speech was so clear—and for once—so concise that quoting it gives the whole principle of the Bill:

"I am perfectly certain, unless we do this (pass the Bill) the very injury which the Minister of Justice desires to avoid, will continue unabated. We shall have people leaving Canada, going to the United States, to set up fictitious domicile, and secure with all the consequences incident thereto, and all the uncertainties as to the legitimacy of the offspring. That is a very serious matter."

Mr. Lapointe—"I would rather have the United States assume the responsibility than ourselves."

Mr. Bennett—"The Minister of Justice and I, differ in that regard. I would rather be a party to this legislation to give legality to the situation, than become a party to the scandals that now exist in regard to it. I am in favor of giving her that right to acquire a domicile, in order that her status, which is that of a single person, with respect and every obligation, property and existence, as a citizen, may be the same, for the purpose of domicile, for the purpose of securing a divorce."

Wednesday was devoted to discussion of speech—the boasted and treasured right of the people.

During the illness of His Majesty, the King, Arvo Vaara, editor of the Finnish paper, "Vapano," wrote an article on the probable cause of the King's death, and said that if he died it would make no difference to the conditions of the workers in Northern Ontario mines, that he ruled anyway. He said labor should have no capital, etc. He was charged to six mos. in jail and $1000.00 fine, or two years in jail if fine was not paid.

Later came the cancellation of certain licenses to Communist halls in Toronto. The instance of the polling of that city is the next the forcing of any language other than English in certain halls, under penalty of having their license cancelled. On the 1st of May steps were taken to prevent May-day celebrations in various cities.

Mr. Woodsworth, who has been bitterly attacked by the communists, contrasted the Canadian action with the complete freedom of speech, assembly and the press given the communists in Great Britain. The police of London protected the police against disturbance on May-day. He pointed out that the foreign element in this country, without political voice in why we should show them the utmost fairness.

Strangely enough, Col. Reginald Geary knew nothing of the retrograde step in Toronto over the ruling of the Chief of the debate was made by Mr. Malcolm Lang (Liberal.) "I think nothing tends more towards the good mine or any other big industry, than a good organization among the employees and one that, in its operation, merits the confidence of the management and the executive, so that, the Executive of the Labor or the management and to discuss around the table the conditions which they have to face in order to make a success of the enterprise in which they are all engaged. For some years past, the organization of the men employed in the mines of Northern Ontario, has not been kept intact. It has a good organization. They need to help themselves, without any organization preventing any spread of communism among peoples who come to our land from parts of Europe where conditions are different. They are left to fight their own battles, to look after themselves, without any organization to help them, and probably without the care, sympathy or assistance that they should have from their employer. It is not a wonder that some of them drift into the hands of these advocates who are endeavoring to spread communism throughout the land."

I took the ground that truth will endure and the sunlight of publicity will kill error.

Mrs. Robb had a small luncheon in their private apartment at the Cha-

Among the Churches

QUEEN ST. MISSION CIRCLE
Miss Clara McCrae entertained the Queen St. Mission Circle in her home, Thursday evening, May 9th, when about twenty five ladies were present and enjoyed an excellent program. Mrs. R. Padfield, president, presided over the meeting. Several hymns were sung and prayer offered by Mrs. (Rev.) Fiddes.

Miss Mary Metcalfe gave the Devotional reading "The Needle's Eye"; Misses Gertrude Glass and Genevieve Saunders showed considerable musical talent in a piano duet; Mrs. Mark Wilson treated her listeners to a beautiful sacred solo.

The speaker for the evening was Church (Rev.) Smith of Knox United Church, who gave an excellent report of the convention recently held in Toronto. Mrs. Smith proved herself an efficient delegate, with good faithfulness noting all that was going on at the convention, but by her fluent delivery making it so real and so very interesting to her hearers.

Mrs. Smith made it plain that it is only by as many Mission Circles and Auxiliaries as possible, not merely reaching their allocations but by going far beyond them, can we ever hope to make up the deficit in the total amount which is the great difficulty faced by mission leaders.

A hearty vote of thanks was given Mrs. Smith, Lunch and a social time closed the meeting.

KNOX W. M. S.
The May meeting of the W.M.S. of Knox United Church, met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Brown on Thursday, May 9th, with Mrs. Mather presiding. The meeting opened with the Doxology and the Lord's Prayer in unison. Then followed a brief service in memory of one of our former beloved members, Mrs. Parquharson, who passed to her reward a few days previously. Hymn 625 was sung and Psalm 23 read by Miss Belle McKenzie. A beautiful "In Memoriam," written by Miss Belle McKenzie, was read. Miss McKenzie's life and work, while she lived among us, of her many devoted interest in the Master's work, and her patience and cheerfulness in all her times of trouble. Truly of her it can be said "Her works do follow her." A few moments of silent prayer followed by hymn 607 and prayer by Mrs. Allan brought this service to a close.

Mrs. Stonehouse read the devotional leaflet "The Needle's Eye" which brought out the inheritance and sacredness of our stewardship. The roll call was answered by a text on help. Miss Margaret Hunter had the topic from the Study book, and gave a most interesting account of the difficulties and also of the many encouraging features of the missionaries' work. The paper was greatly enjoyed by the members. Mrs. Derby and Mrs. Ramage led in prayer and after hymn 582 was sung, Mrs. McKenzie gave the closing prayer. Mrs. Brown and her assistants served tea.

EARLY HISTORY OF WATERLOO CO. SENT US BY J. S. BLACK
The above comprises the territory of the Reeves, Deputy Reeves and the principals officials of Waterloo in 1850.

The territory is all composed of Townships—no cities, towns or villages are named. They were at that time few and far between.

Many of the present inhabitants of Waterloo, Wellington and Grey would be surprised at this bit of early history. The first meeting of the Council as so composed was held in Guelph on January 28, 1850. The next year Wellington and Grey were named and united for municipal purposes.
