The Women's Institute Summer Fries meeting was held in Zion Church on Thursday and the weather was disagreeable in the morning. The afternoon became bet- ter and there was a good attend- ance. Mrs Lowe, the Dep't speaker, of the spoke on 'Institute work.' The in- stitute Food on our lives and 'Patience' and 'Faith' and 'A- greableness as the secret of youth.' Discouragement is a disease.' PRICEVILLE & GLENELG We were reading of the new hymn book selection of hymns to be used in the United Church in future, when in readiness to be the praise part of the congregation. The selection made is very good and no objection could be found by any congregation to the selection made by the commit- tee. But on reading the selection made, we notice that the good old Psalms of David are few and far be- tween. There will be many of the old Presbyterian descendants who re- member when their forefathers some scores of years ago took delight in singing the old Psalms to the old tunes of that far away date. In a nearby United congregation we bring the memory of an old precursor of over 50 years as leader in an old Presbyterian church and another not far away who was that time occasion- ally. In the days of youth, when first called on to lead the praise part they probably with trembling voice sang the good old tune 'Martyrdom' to the 23rd Psalm. There was no book of Praise then, but the good old Psalms and Paraphrases sung by the leaders to the following tunes 'Col- ehill', 'Palerma', 'Evans', 'St Pauls', 'Bedford', 'St Andrews', 'Walsal', 'Pet- erboro', 'Arlington', 'St. Asaph', 'George's', 'Edinburgh', 'St. Asaph', 'Kilmarnock', 'Bangor', 'Desert' or 'West' 'Scarborough', 'Torwood' 'New Lydia' 'Ortonville'—the last two old favorites to the old precursors were omitted in the old praise books. The following Long Meter tunes were sung 'Duke St.', 'Old Hundred', 'Heb- ron', Portugal : Short meter tunes—'Watchman', 'Goldenhill', 'Boyston' and others. Did any one ever hear the tune of Robert Burns' 'Bonnie Bonnie Doon' is a solemn tune and the close of one of the Paraphrases. 'The hour of my departure comes. I hear the voice that calls me home.' 'Bonnie Doon' is a solemn tune and song to two verses of the old hymn. This old hymn in olden times was generally sung at funerals (not Bon- nie Doon) but generally by 'Old Hundred'.

When a youth going to school we remember a lesson 'Let dogs delight to bark and bite For God hath made them so, Let bears and lions growl and fight, For 'tis their nature so to do.' But children of one family should never disagree. We notice lately where a riot arose in one family. We received a letter from the Rev. Mr Sutherland, lately from Suther- landshire, Scotland. He states he is holding his own fairly well. He and family intend to leave for Ontario on July 1st and probably will strike for Priceville. Many will be pleased to meet with him at Priceville and vicinity.

The old Presbyterians of Priceville and Swinton Park are always sup- plied by good ministers—some for a call and probably will be taken in the near future. The Anniversary of Durham Pres- byterian Church was largely attend- ed on Sunday and listened to a fine speaker, Dr Drummond. Many were prevented from being there by uncon- trollable circumstances but their mem- ory of a far away date is as good as ever, when the old manner of religious service was of a true

This Monday morning, 20th May, has a fine appearance of the prom- ise of good seasonable weather to finish seeding this week. The past 10 days were unfavorable to sow- ing the continued showers and cool- ness of the weather. But faith in the promise given by Him who promised that seed time and harvest shall not fail, will be experienced by the till- ers of the soil and the promise will never fail if trust will be put by the many whose faith is almost failed by the doubts of the feeble minded, who are forgetting the promise. Mr and Mrs Donald McDougall and son John, paid a visit to the Mc- Dougall family are residents of the Old Durham Road, Artermesia, but formerly of the S. Line, Glenelg. Mr and Mrs Thos Nichol and Miss Donalds, teachers of No. 9, Glenelg, attended the Anniversary in the Presbyterian Church, Durham.

Those ailing for some time past are beginning to get better and we hope that the beautiful sunshine of the coming June will see all attending to the duties entered into by them. We see that the good writer from Swinton Park is complaining of an old conveyance which faithfully car- ried him on the past journey of his long experience of faithful service in his past journey of life, but by natural results, generally the effects of declining years, etc. We are told that our young M.P.P. F. R. Oliver, makes himself useful on the farm as well as on responsi- ble duties in Parliament House, at Toronto. He like another young man of his age, is not ashamed to wear overalls with patches on the knees, while following the plow or cultiva- tor on his father's farm. And we notice that our lady M.P., Agnes, is not ashamed to wear an old print dress while washing dishes at the old home and believes that whether on duty, next to godliness,—in the Parliament Bldgs at Ottawa, where she always endeavors to put her duties in force by telling 245 of the opposite sex of their place while the House is in session.

One evening lately, some of the friends of Mrs Ernest Greenwood, assembled at her new home, near Durham, in appreciation of her help- ful service at Bible Class teacher in Sunday School at Edge Hill and Mrs Greenwood thanked her in per- forming their good wishes to her in performing the duties of a Bible Class teacher.

Many will be pleased to have two holidays this week, by having the 24th and 25th. But no holidays for the tiller of the soil. A big crowd is expected to-night to partake of a good hot supper by the faithful ladies of the Presbyter- ian Church, Durham.

The Sec'y then gave an in- teresting report of the year's work and the financial statement was quite satisfactory. The officers for the following year are: President, Mrs W. R. Jack; Vice Pres., Mrs J. K. Edwards; Sec'y Treas., Miss K. May Firth; Directors: Mrs Hugh McArthur, Mrs J. C. Cook; Auditors, Misses C. Timmins and Margaret Greenwood. Mr Jas Pryde was taken to Dur- ham hospital last Thursday where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr Oswald Dingwall left Monday for Detroit, having severed his con- nection with the Royal Bank, Dun- dalk. Messrs Walton and Hugh Sinclair were visitors the first of the week at Mr R. Allen's, Riverview. Elder D. Cameron of the L.D.S., Toronto, was a week end visitor at the home of Mr Chas. Wale. Mr and Mrs Wm Scott and Mrs Kinsman were up from Conn attend- ing the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Pallister and stayed over the week end with members of family. On Sat- urday evening, friends of the United Church, Hopeville, met them at the home of Mr John Scott and present- ed Mr and Mrs W. Scott with a chair and an address of appreciation to which Mr Scott replied. A quiet social hour was spent with them. Rev. A. E. Chesher is making a good recovery from an attack of ap- pendicitis. Mr and Mrs Thos Walton were visitors with their daughter, Mrs W. Middleton, Mt Forest, over the week end. Miss Edna Webster is expected home from Detroit this week.

MRS. EDMUND PALLISTER On May 15th, there passed from the scenes of this life another pion- eer and highly respected resident of this vicinity, Mrs E. Pallister, aged 71 years. She was a daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Robt Scott, natives of Scotland, who settled in Protton in 1864. She naturally experi- enced all the ups and downs and hard work of pioneer life. She had been in failing health for about a year from an anemic condition, but able to get around. A few days before the end, she came to the home of her daugh- ter, Mrs Will Hendry for a little change and here she became serious- ly ill and in spite of loving care and the best medical attention passed a- way. She was a true Christian, won- an and to her death meant departing to be with Christ. She was a most faithful member of Bethany Alliance Tabernacle. She had a good know- ledge of the scriptures and the gift of prayer and was always ready to use her talents for God's glory. About 50 years ago she was mar- ried to Edmund Pallister who sur- vived and is in rather helpless con- dition from a stroke. One son Geo and wife with whom they resided; daughter, Mrs Will Hendry; six grandchildren: four brothers, Wm., Robt., John and Nichol Scott and two sisters, Mrs J. Christie and Mrs Jno. Scott, who feel the separation keenly. The funeral was held Friday from the home of her daughter, interment in Dundalk cemetery. In the absence of her pastor, Rev A. E. Chesher thro' illness, Mr Brooks, stationer at King's cote, conducted the service. Rev E. Annand, Dundalk, assisted. A fa- vorite hymn of deceased 'Redeemed' was sung as a duet by Mrs G. Christ- ie and Mrs Henry Christie. Beautiful floral offerings from immediate fam- ily circle and relatives and Bethany Miss. Society lay on the casket. Six nephews acted as pall bearers, W. R. Scott, G. Christie, J. Pallister, W. R. Palmer, G. R. Scott, Bert Scott. A number of Toronto relatives attend- ed the funeral.

District Speaker at Women's Institute Over forty ladies met at the home of Miss Annie Weir on Wednesday afternoon of last week. The new President, Miss Margaret McGillivray, in the chair and after the business was dealt with, called on the speaker Mrs M. E. Lowe, R. N., of Toronto to address the ladies. From her list of subjects Mrs Lowe spoke on 'Food as Health,' and 'Agreeableness is Life. Discouragement is a disease.' Mrs Lowe eulogized the work of the Women's Institute at home and abroad. This year, in conjunction with other Societies, the W. I. are endeavoring to do all that is pos- sible for crippled children. She said not to think anything incurable, un- til a competent surgeon on this trouble had been consulted. The Institute was helping finance such cases where funds were low. In dealing with the effect Food has on Health, Mrs Lowe intimated that happiness is health, and it was our duty to protect our own health and that of the community. Faith, hope and courage assists the general nu- trition of the body. Temper produces a poisonous toxin in the body which encourages dyspepsia. Do not carry the worries of the day to bed with you at night and review them there. Settle them before going to bed, for- get them and go to sleep. 'God's in His Heaven, all's right with the world', the speaker quoted. The need of oxygen and oxygen giving foods was dealt with, also the acid and alkaline foods. Among the alkaline foods are, lemons, water, fish, eggs, beans, peas, cereals, whole wheat bread, cream, butter, cheese, tomatoes, oranges and grapefruit. The iodine foods were found in egg yolk, green grapes, strawberries, bak- ed potatoes, salmon, pineapple, pears, peas and apples. Iodine protects the brain and nerves and the balance of grapefruit taken before retiring is good to promote sleep. Learn to relax, keep bright, always happy—never snappy, for Agreeableness is life. Discouragement is a disease. Mrs M. Knechtel delighted the audience with a solo "When the Robin Redbreast sings his Home Sweet Home." She was accompanied by Mrs H. Kress on piano. Lunch was served after the meet- ing by Miss Weir and executive. Mrs Adam Weir received many con- gratulations that afternoon, it being her eighty eighth birthday.
