"I have noticed," says the suburban Sage, "that those who talk most of the freedom and independence of a farmer's life, don't seem to be fond enough of freedom and independence to try it."—Shelburne Economist.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE
Mr Carrol and niece, Miss Elizabeth Mahr of New York, Mr and Mrs Manger and brother Richard Manzer of Toronto, are visiting at Mr and Mrs P. J. Halsey's.
Thos. Arrowsmith of Moosomin, Sask. is a visitor at W. H. Arrowsmith's.
The play of 'Dot, the Miner's Daughter', was given successfully on Friday evening last to a $67.00 audience, held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of St. Columba. Vocal music was given by Mrs H. B. McLean, Miss Louisa Watson and Mr. Cook of our own and by Miss Phyllis Shaw Port McNicoll. An instrumental selection on violin and piano was given by Mr and Mrs Shaw of the same place and a whistling selection by Mrs Bernell. Our M.P.P., Mr Farquhar Oliver, occupied the chair quite creditably.
The members of the Y.P.S. and others, journeyed to Owen Sound to Harrison Park on picnic bent on Saturday afternoon, to the number of about 40 or more.
Mr Dan McInnes and sister, Mrs. A. Leslie, were welcome visitors here over the week end, on a very creditable mission—promoting a bee to repair the fence and otherwise improve the last resting place of their loved ones in Smellie's cemetery. They are meeting successfully with help.
We are pleased to learn that Mrs. D. McMillan, (South Line) is improving some and resting easier. She is tenderly and lovingly waited upon by her two daughters, Mrs Braidon of Shelburne, (Vicky) also doing her full share. Dr Sneath, Dromore, is in attendance.
A youth of your town was seen early on Sunday morning putting up bills for a dance. Has he lost-all feeling of shame? This is a case deserving of prosecution.
Now that seeding operations are done, we would hope for a repairing of the highways that have been put up with for over a month now. It is a shame and disgrace to any civilized Township, perhaps the Post Office Dept. might help him, if they were made cognizant of it.
The services Sunday night touched upon the beauties and the wonderful works of nature, as portrayed in the beauties of the present as compared to the grey drab of winter. A conclusive proof of itself of the existence of a Great Creator.
Capt. Lambert of "Padre" fame is to preach in St Columba next Sunday, June 23rd, morning and evening services.
Mr Ed. Watson and family, Durham, were visitors at his brothers here. The latter this week is pulling down his woodshed and building greater, with Jas. Turner assisting.

IN DAYS OF YORE
15 YEARS AGO
From Review file, June 18, 1914
Born in Durham, on June 11th, to Mr and Mrs E. A. Hay, a son.
A pretty wedding took place at Varney, on June 10th, when Miss Eva Mary Blyth, daughter of Mr and Mrs J. W. Blyth, became the bride of Mr Cameron Lauder.
A successful barn raising was held at Mr Robt. Noble's, three miles north of town, when 90 men participated in the event. John McGill and Thos. G. Lauder were captains for the raising and the race was exciting. Lauder winning by only 30 seconds.
Holstein corr: The stress of examination days is now with many of the students, while some have already finished. Last week writing on the Lower School Entrance to Normal exams were Berta Roberts, Irene Rice, Earl Hunter and Clinton Main and next week Bert Eccles visited in the Upper Normal School Entrance and Percy Ross writes on the entrance to the Faculty of Education. Six High School Entrance scholars are writing this week: Irene Drummond, Victoria Cameron, Mabel Reid are in Durham for the test and Harold Baird, Florence and Willie Main in Mt Forest.
Holstein friends will be interested in learning of the marriage of Dr A. Brown, of Vancouver, formerly of Holstein to a Miss Perkins of that city the event taking place on June 14th.

25 YEARS AGO
From Review file June 16, 1904
Not many families does such a mixture of sentiment come in brief time as befel the family of Mr Thos. Swallow last week. Wednesday there was the glad assembly to witness the nuptials of one member: Friday there was the mourning group round the death bed of another. The marriage was that of Miss Mable Swallow. Her sister, Miss Lydia attended the wedding on a Wednesday, which took place at the home of another sister, Mrs Wixon at Ingersol. Thursday and on Friday morning the end came—the excitement of the wedding no doubt inducing heart failure.
Mr A. W. Hunter has been receiving many congratulations on the brilliant work he has done on his examinations at McGill. He takes honors in every subject and stands seventh of a class of over 100. Mr. Walter Park has completed his 4th year and passed successfully and is now a full fledged M. D.
Glenelg Council minutes: Arrow-smith—McMillan: That as soon as the House of Refuge is ready to receive inmates, this Council stop payments to those on the charity list.
There is one citizen in our midst, who we have much reason to be proud of, for his ability to bring everything he undertakes to a proper finish and that is our enterprising hardware merchant, W. Black. Owing to some misunderstanding a year and a half since, between Samuel Wright and Henry Parker, the brickyard ceased operation and remained in that position until this week. Seeing the great need of a brick yard here, on April 25th, Mr Black purchased the plant, solely with the intention of getting the business started and on June 13, closed the purchase deal with Mr Walker of London, who comes here recommended by experts,
