The lawn social Monday on the Manse grounds was a decided success, a large crowd assembling. On the grounds games were enjoyed. Cake and ice cream was served. A splendid program was heard in the Hall.

Rev Mr Purcell, Flesherston, very ably acted as chairman and told many jokes that caused much laughter. The choir gave a couple of anthems: readings were given by Jessie Nichol and Wm McKenzie; piano duets by Misses Jean and Almada Hineck, Annie and Donald McLeod; solo by Miss Mary McCannel, Toronto; duet by Gordon and Alex McCannel.

A rousing debate was then given: the affirmative was taken by Clifford Hineck and Wilha McCaig and the negative defended by Esther McLean and Murray Nichol. The Judges were Rev Mr Corry, Herb and Allan McInnis and gave the decision to the affirmative side. Many good points were brought out on both sides. The prize was given by Miss Mary McCannel and Mr Fred Knox. "The Proposal" Miss Marjory McLeod accompanied on piano. Robt Black on violin and Miss McPhail, Toronto, gave several selections and much enjoyed. Miss McPhail also gave an instrumental, "The Burning of Rome". The proceeds were $38.05.

Following an operation at Guelph Hospital, another of our good pioneers, John Plester, passed away Aug. 9th, at 78 years. With his wife, who was a member of the Ferris family, he spent the best of his days on lot 27 on 16, Egremont, where by hard work and thrift, they made for themselves and family a comfortable home. About 6 years ago his health began to fail from a weak heart and they gave up the active duties of the farm to their son George and went to live with other family members, but with a longing still to reside on the old homestead, Last Spring they built a nice little home and were comfortably settled. He was formerly a member of Salem United Church and they were most faithful and regular attendants. For years they drove a distance of over 5 miles to be present at a splendid example for the younger generation who are often absent from the place of worship and with so much quicker mode of travelling as well.

Surviving are his widow and a brother Thos. Michigan, who is getting very frail: five sons, Chas and James in the West; Will, Proton; John in Flesherston; George on homestead and three daughters, Mrs Matheva, Markdale; Mrs J. Ellis and Mrs Chas. Flesherston.

Mr Plester was highly respected and of sterling qualities and did his life work faithfully and well. The funeral service was held Monday to the accompaniment of the choir of the student body of the church. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Digwall, A McPhail, Geo Blyth, C Wheeler, Geo Love. Burial was made at Salem.

ffective hearers could listen to his message fairly well. We are sorry to hear of the accident which befel Mr Colin McMillan of the South Line, Artemesia, by being struck with the barn door during the high wind of last Monday. We hope to hear of him being none the worse soon.

Rev. Mr Armstrong is back again, and will occupy his own pulpit and the Baptist for a couple of Sundays. Mr Armstrong is faithful in visiting the sick and others and his visits are always appreciated.

Many thanks to the compositor for his very good manner of copying that old forsaken language, the Gaelic in last week's Review.

In Gaelic: "Corry math mor agad air son cho man": In English: "or many thanks to you for how correctly you put it down."

Mr and Mrs R T Cook, Detroit, are visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs W. J. Cook and other friends.

Greenwood and family, Grayling, Mich., and Mr Thos Greenwood and Miss Ethel, of town, spent a day last week with Mr and Mrs Chas. McClocklin.

Zion Wom Institute held their August meeting at the home of Mrs T. Glencross last Tuesday, when twenty three ladies were present. Mrs J. R. Edwards presided over the meeting in the absence of the Pres., Mrs W. R. Firth.

After the opening exercises, papers were given by Mrs W. J. Greenwood on "How to conduct a meeting and utilize the talents of each member" and Miss Glemny Firth prepared one on "Some problems of the country girl and how to solve them." A recitation was given by Miss Viola Neely and a demonstration on Salads by Mrs J. C. Cook and Miss Margaret Greenwood. There was also some community singing, brought the meeting to a close. Mrs. Glencross and daughters served a dainty lunch.

Zion's Annual Garden Party held last Thursday in E. R. Peart's field, across from the church, was bigger and better than ever, though all afternoon the showers kept hovering around till evening.

The ball game in the early part of the evening between Hutton Hill and Welbeck, was real exciting at times. The score was 23-15 in favor of H. Hill. After supper a lengthy program was given, Rev J W Greenwood acting as chairman. The program consisted of music by Messrs Monk Bros., Hanover; Zion orchestra and instrumental on accordion by Ern. Brigham, Allan Park; solos by Messrs Gordon Beaton and Will McFadden, Markdale; John Aitkens, Hanover and Miss Tara, Victoria.

Male Quartette, Hanover, gave some good numbers: folk dancing by the Marmain girls; readings by Misses Marion Lamont, Elmwood; Elsie Wilton, Durham; Lily Black: duet by the Misses Lennox, Egremont; short address by Messrs Allan Bell and J. P. Grant, Durham. God Save the King was sung at the close of program.

The only thing that marred the evening's entertainment was the accident that befel Smith Bros. truck en route out with the lights.

Students who propose to attend Durham High School during the session of 1920-21 are required to register, either in writing or in person, on or before Aug. 29th, in order to receive consideration in school accommodation and in the time table. For first, second and third year students, a mere statement that they purpose to attend is sufficient, fourth and fifth year students will state the subjects they wish to take up. The Principal will be in his office at the school building from 7.30 to 9 p. m., on Aug. 28th and 29th to receive registrations and to confer with parents or pupils who wish to consult with him.

We were pleased to listen to Rev. John Greenwood preach in the old Methodist Church. He has a fine manner of delivery with a little of the good old Methodist style which did not lessen his fine discourse. De-

SWINTON PARK

The death of John Plester, Sr. We are sorry to hear of the accident which took place Friday evening, caused some of the older people in this locality to think back for 50 years or more, when John lived a few years for a time where he found many lasting friendships. Since that, he has lived only a few miles away in New England, Egremont Tp. All express sympathy for the bereaved wife, now well advanced in years, and the family, all in homes of their own. But as you will have fallen detail from other sources, we will refrain from further comment.

We had a much needed rain Saturday last. Some had quite a shower of hail, but not doing great damage. Sam McMurdo's house was struck by lightning and considerable damage done but no one hurt.

There is a breathing spell this year between the hay harvest and the grain. Very little grain will be cut for a week yet.

On Monday, the 12th, quite a number attended the Black Knight celebration in Orangeville. Others respectfully attended Mr Plester's funeral. Then in the evening a number drove over to Priceville to the Presbyterian lawn social.

Mrs Garfield Anthony (Ruby Haw) and babe, from Toronto, are welcome visitors at the parental home here, Mr and Mrs Geo. Haw.

This is Old Home Week in the Park and many will be taking in the Orange Picnic Wednesday.

Born, on Aug. 13, to Mr and Mrs. Gordon Ferguson, a son. Heartiest congratulations.

Mrs Binnie Descendants Honor Forefathers

A little sketch of the founder of the Binnie clan in Canada comes in very suitably here:

Thos. Binnie was a son of George and Betty Veitch Binnie and born at Bonjardour, in the parish of Jedburgh, Scotland. Isabella Cranston was a daughter of Alexander and Jean Hunter Cranston and was born at Caverton Mill in the parish of Eckford, Scotland. They were married at Bishopscraig, Scotch Church, Scotland, March 16, 1849.

There were 9 children, four born at their first home at Stripend, Riccalton, (George, Alexander, Thomas, Elizabeth and Jane). Then they moved to Feanring Hall, across the English border in the Co. of Northumberland and three children born here, (Elizabeth, Isabella and Agnes.) They sailed from Glasgow in 1861 and arrived in Quebec nineteen days later. They came by train to Georgetown and walked six miles to Thos. Binnie's at Ballinfad. On 2nd July, 1861, they arrived by wagon and settled on their farm in Egremont. Of their nine children, just five remain: George, Thos. Elizabeth, (Mrs Thos. McGirr); Mary, (Mrs John Bell) and Rev. James, (Mrs John Bell).

The first two mentioned generations have all passed on: in the fourth there were 48, forty one living and in the fifth generation there are 72. Altogether with those who came into the family by marriage there are 147 living at present.

The late Thomas Binnie was a shepherd in Scotland. His father died when 10 years of age and he went to work as herd liddle. He was very interested in the education of his children and in all things in the community that were progressive. He was a trustee and later Secy Treas. of No. 1 School, Bunesan until his death.

In the early days when a minister was not available for services, Mr. Binnie would conduct a prayer service. He organized the first Sunday School in the community. In the great revival in Grey Co. in 1877 '78, he took a leading part and in his diary kept an account of the revival, which is among the family records. This revival left a lasting impression on those in touch with it.

In the family circle there was co-operation in all tasks. Lack of machinery meant that several hands were needed for mowing and raking and harvesting the fruits of the land. In the home singing by the family was encouraged and at family worship, this portion of Praise was led by Mrs Binnie. In later years nearly every member of the family belonged to a choir. Reading aloud was always a part of family life. Exploration, biography, history were the types of books read aloud and discussed. Newspapers were read and neighbors came in to hear the news.

Mr Binnie was the trusted counselor and advisor to many and his influence for good was very evident as the years went by. After a short illness he died on the Binnie homestead, March 31, 1893, Lot 2 and 3, Con 2, North Durham Road. Mr Geo. Whitmore now has this farm rented. Mrs Binnie passed away in Durham, on Dec. 21, 1904.

Going Home for Dinner

What Will Your Home-going Be Like Ten or Fifteen Years from Now?

The subject of the above sketch made proper preparation in youth by getting a thorough Business Education at the Northern Business College. This enabled him to meet the problems of life successfully and enjoy the fruits of his labors later on.

The subject of this sketch no doubt had a "good time" in his youth but he neglected to get the necessary education that would have helped him to get a lighter job at larger wages. How many young people have missed the good things of life by neglecting to get a little education in youth?

A nail will go no further than its head will let it. A young man or a young woman will go no further than his or her head will allow. People do not succeed by chance or by luck but by getting a practical education and using their knowledge.

The very best place to get up-to-date Business Education is the Northern Business College, Owen Sound, where thousands of young people have been educated for successful business careers.

HYMENEAL

CHAMBERS-McLEAN

The marriage of Flora B. McLean, second daughter of Mr Allan C. MacLean and the late Mrs MacLean, of Priceville, to Mr Donald Percy Chambers, second son of Mr and Mrs David Chambers of Carnarvon, Ont., was solemnized at Old St. Andrews United Church, Toronto, Rev. J. E. Monro, D. D. officiating.

The bride was becomingly attired in a French blue georgette gown with uneven hem line, gray hat and shoes to match. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and baby's breath and wore the gift of the groom—a silver fox fur. The bridesmaid, Miss Marjorie MacLean, sister of the bride, wore sand georgette with hat and shoes to match. She carried pink and white carnations and maiden hair fern. Mr John Shortreed, Priceville, was groomsmen. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a beige leather hand bag and to the best man white gold cut links.

After the ceremony, Mr and Mrs. Chambers left on a motor trip thru the United States, the bride traveling in a jade green ensemble. On their return they will reside at 98 Woodmount St., Toronto.
