Fenian veterans yet in Walkerton Through the death of the late Dixon in Walkerton, for 60 years Crown Attorney of Bruce, the Fenian in the town only two Fenian raid veterans of 1866, only Norman Robertson, treasurer and Major John Hen both past the four score. In no one left that played a part in the historic time. Mr. John Allan, to Messrs. Ham and Davetown, was one of the number served and still lives in Walkerton.

Lost Daughter by Scarlet Fever Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis (of Ritchie) of Alton, Ridge, Alton, some through a great trial, their whole family of four, as well as the mother were of one time with scarlet fever, tragedy of it is that their daughter and child, Bernice, 6 years, succumbed to the disease, Aug. 22nd. The second daughter also very low at the time but now thought to be out of Mrs. Davis is a daughter of M. Ritchie of town and their friends here sorrow with their sad bereavement.

The Country School Teacher The country school teacher, infinitely greater opportunity than the city school teacher. If she can like her job she can labor in the community with labor. Everybody knows her body looks up to her if she is boss. On the other hand is a staggering challenge if weak in the knees. There principal and superintendent enter her up, to cover over her and gently wait her on to more suitable berth. The privacy of the goldfish is hers a golden age for people to problems single handed. There are so few who want that—Exchange.

Chapter III Though several of the members of the camp were waylaid by a wrong sense of direction and suffered somewhat from pangs of hunger, they travelled on, strong in the faith that they would shortly rejoin their comrades. On their right flank lay the fields of golden grain and on their left the blue waters of Lake Huron. And whereas it was the first time they were privileged to behold the progress of the sons of Old Ontario. They ultimately reached another town, named Port Elgin and looking across the bay and surrounding beach they said to each other: "This is good; on this spot will we encamp and partake of refreshment. And on the campus of beach did they mingle freely and partook of each others meat and drank their wine.

Chapter IV As a result of the repast, many of the party did suffer grievously, though every man who partook of same paid tribute to the excellency of the viands. And they sojourned for some time in the land which found such favor in their sight. Accomplishing what they had set out to do, the sons and daughters of Durham returned to their former quarters that same evening.

HOPEVILLE

Miss C. Fettes, R. N., Durham, was a visitor with her sister, Mrs. Neil McEachnie. During the severe electric storm last Friday a.m., Shand Bros. had their best cow killed by lightning, while some nearby neighbors felt the shock. Mrs. F. Hardman is now making a slow recovery from her serious illness and all are thankful she is spared to her family of young children. Some members of the Webster and McEachnie families, motored to Toronto to attend the 'Ex'. Mr and Mrs Will Donald; Mr and Mrs Alexander, Conn, were visitors with the Scott families recently. Mr Jas Doig and family visited recently at his parental home in Midway. Miss Edith Fowler, Toronto, is holidaying with her mother, Mrs R. N. Fowler. Miss Hewitt, Toronto, has been visiting her friend, Mrs Jas Mitchell. Rev. E. A. Chesher is spending a while at his home at Port Hope. Mrs Geo. Riddell was at the home of her mother, Mrs Wallace, Woodbridge, all last week and was present at the funeral of her brother, Milton Wallace, who died in B. C. and was buried Saturday from his old home.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Misses Viola and Norma Johnston will return to Listowel the first of the week, after having spent three weeks with their parents, Mr and Mrs T. Johnston. Mr and Mrs F. Jasper, Mrs Hanlan and daughter and Mr M French from their Master, prior to their leaving for the foreign fields. They have just recently come home on furlough and report a very fine trip and a very quick one, reaching Toronto the morning of the 13th day after leaving Yokohama. Early last Friday morning, during the severe electrical storm, Duncan Sinclair's barn (on the former John Sinclair farm) was struck by lightning and destroyed with its contents of a hayloade, hay and lumber and smaller articles. The neighbors are sorry for the disaster.

A number from here attended the Orange picnic at Swinton Park. Mrs Rogers accompanied Mr and Mrs F. McCaw to Owen Sound last Friday, when they took Mr Arch McCaw to meet the boat going westward. Miss Annie Keith returned to Toronto last week after enjoying her summer holiday with her parents and brothers. Mr and Mrs C. Withrow and Elmer of Calderwood, visited her parents the first of week. Fred and Grant Crispin, South Bend spent a few days here with their grandparents.

Messrs P. Mutch and A. Irvin were in Waterloo last Saturday purchasing seats for No. 9 School. Mr and Mrs Dan Sinclair, Chatsworth and Miss Cassie Sinclair, of Keady, were recent guests of their cousins, Mrs H. Sinclair and Mrs. C. McGillivray. Last Tuesday, Mr and Mrs J. Lang of St. Marys, also Mrs Lang and Mrs Watson, Durham, visited Mr and Mrs D. Long. On Friday they visited Mrs Dave Gordon and daughter, Mrs Cousins of St. Marys. John was home from Toronto for the week end. Mr and Mrs H. Eckhardt of Top-Cliff accompanied by Miss Elsie Beaton and Mr C. Merritt, Buffalo, spent last Thursday evening with us.

YEovil

The remaining members of the former Yeovil congregation will be pleased to have the opportunity of seeing and hearing Rev. C. P. Holmes, at the Holstein United Church Anniversary Services on Sept. 15, as Mr and Mrs Holmes were much esteemed in this part of the circuit where they worked so faithfully for their Master, prior to their leaving for the foreign fields. They have just recently come home on furlough and report a very fine trip and a very quick one, reaching Toronto the morning of the 13th day after leaving Yokohama. Early last Friday morning, during the severe electrical storm, Duncan Sinclair's barn (on the former John Sinclair farm) was struck by lightning and destroyed with its contents of a hayloade, hay and lumber and smaller articles. DROMORE

This Week's Budget Miss May and Mr Jas. Ferguson have their two nieces, the Misses Tompkins, of Akron, Ohio, visiting them at present. Miss Florence Patterson's many friends around here are pleased to know that she will be able to come home Monday. Mr Will Isaac and Miss Jean Baird of Toronto, spent the week end around our burg. Master Wallace and Miss Evelyn Isaac returned with them after a three week holiday with their many friends in these parts. Mr and Mrs Robt Taylor and Mr. and Mrs Alex Drimble, spent the week end at Alma visiting Mr and Mrs Norman Drimble. Mrs McLean and son Earl and daughter Margaret motored up to Ames Saturday and erected a small tombstone for her late brother Dave Christie. The British and Foreign Bible Society Agent, occupied Amos pulpit on Sunday last and we will get a chance Sunday next to give to a good cause. Mr Will Isaac assisted the choir Sunday and rendered a beautiful solo. We are pleased to know that Dr. Sneath is still able to attend to his sick folk after his motor accident last Saturday. The Dr has been driving a car ever since there were motors around here and this we think, is his first accident. The Dr has been a very careful driver. Miss Margaret McLean is visiting her aunt, Mrs John McMurdo, while home visiting his grandpa, Mr Robt. Knox, Swinton Park. The Dromore W. I. are invited to Mrs W. Dingwall's, Hopeville on the 11th Sept, the Dromore ladies to provide the program, assisted by Dr. Sneath. We are pleased to report that Mrs Robt Keith got over her serious operation successfully. We hope that neither she nor Rob will have any more of these operations as they've had more than their share.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Special Anniversary Services will be held in Trinity United Church, in Holstein, Sunday, Sept. 15. Rev C. P. Holmes, missionary on furlough from Japan, and a former pastor of the church, will be present and conduct services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

TO WIN AT A BOWLING TOURNAMENT WEAR A SCOTCH TAM

John Joynt, the famous king of Lucknow, gives an annual prize at Lucknow Bowling Tourney. Dr Marr, of Ridgetown, brought a rink with him from his town and they won the Joynt trophy. The Dr's running, drawing and in-and-out wicks, were at once the admiration and despair of his opponents and was a big factor in winning the trophy. But credit also goes to the headgear he wore that day. It was a Tam O'Shanter which he purchased in Lucknow many years ago and caused much amusement and won great popularity by his assumed Scotch accent, which was about as well done as the curves of his bowling. Some of the Lucknow gentlemen present, declare Dr Marr the greatest bowling demon they ever met on the green. A Sure cure for Chicken Thieves Lucknow has been visited by a porcupine, which made so bold as to climb onto the verandah of Mr Reg. Smith's home there. The presence of the animal explained how some of Lucknow's dogs had come to have porcupine quills imbedded in their mouths and tongues. It would be a good-plan to engage this animal to act as watch dog in some of the chicken houses which have been visited in this locality lately.

McMurdo family, intend returning home this week. Some of our young men are thinking about taking in the Western Fair at London now.

Mrs. Robt. Keith left to-day, Monday for Durram Hospital to prepare for an operation on Wednesday. We hope it proves successful and that it will not be long until she will be back in her own home. Mr and Mrs Valentine Alles attended Ames Church on Sabbath last and spent the afternoon with their daughter, Mrs Arthur Renton. The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs Victor Adams last Thursday, when a good number were present. The many friends of Miss Florence Patterson are glad to know she is doing nicely after her recent operation.

In 1879 - and To-Day!

When the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise were guests at the old Queen's in Toronto, the telephone was in its infancy. To-day there are more telephones in the Royal York which occupies the old Queen's site, than there were then in all Canada. From his room in the mammoth hostelry to-day the Royal York guest may call anyone of the 1,000 telephones in the hotel, or any telephone in Canada, United States, Cuba, Mexico, Great Britain and almost any country in Europe. The facilities for quick and convenient communication are the last word in efficiency. They are the nerves of this great establishment.
