'Fresh from the gardens'

Stunts Better Than

Trained Circus

"Bulls"

They understand they are free to found unguarded previously, travers-

More than 1000 elephants followed crossing of roads with danger as they formed groups hundreds strong be fore rushing over them. As soon as they had reached the ordinary fully reserved areas they ceased their refor defense. They were prepared to had now been taught was free territory for them. It is estimated that male elephants in Uganda are increasing at the rate of 1000 a year while.

agriculture, the land av ilable for sagacity. These elephants prefer to live alongside the natives and secure method of leading the officers of the til-"

move of the former by a better one.

True glory lies in the silent con-them is becoming less.

with the increase in population and er?"

Prince Foresaw German Defeat,

Rupprecht, Bavarian Heir, Anticipated Collapse of Army Before Armistice

of Bayaria, commander of the German constitutions for giving too much sixth army on the western front, has power to Prussia. He says on this recently published, in semewhat con- soint: densed form, his wartime diary. Rup. "With all the North's services it born?" precht was a competent soldier; not a cannot be denied that under its politimerely decorative army chief like the cal leadership Germany suffered the Crown Prince of Prussia, writes a greatest political catastrophe in her her mother!" Berlin correspondent. He exercised history." actual command and was regarded with respect by the real directors of Elephants Show troi of the General Staff and the High

He also possessed an independence of judgement which enabled him to Uganda Elephants Pull Clever ters in this house." see the errors committed by his superiors and to sense the German military failure at a time when the highest military authorities were still deceiving the public with predictions of victory and a profitable peace. now pretty generally grasping the Prince Foresaw Defeat policy being pursued toward them. An article in the "Vossische Zeistates the Game Warden's annual retung" notes and comments on some of the dairy's more striking entries. It port just received here. roam without molestation over large

"More then a year ahead I saw com- specified areas, whose boundaries ing everything that did come," he they quite understand, but that they wrote on November 1, 1918, to his must not cross certain roads to raid father, to whom during the war he the native farms in contiguous rehad imparted his hopes and cares in a gions, and that if these regulations long series of very detailed letters, are broken they are at once driven He recognized the causes of the break- back into their own territories. down-the declining strength of an i it is a common local joke that, evertaxed and decimated army and thanks to years of education on the the numerical superiority of the Al- part of the Came Wardens' Departlies, due to decisive American rein- ment, every elephant in the colony forcements. In these frank letters to carries a complete map of it in its his father there is no talk of a "stab head. Some, in fact most of them, in the back."

are now using this knowledge to avoid "On the centrary, "The bow was prohibited districts, but others use it bent so far that it finally broke, he to invest methods of circumventing wrote on September 30, 1918. Already the Game Warden. on June 1, 1918, when Ludendorff still These recalcitrant elephants send hoped to break through the French forward pilot bulls in advance of the front with his offensive, the Crown herd when about to raid farms and, Prince advised peace in a report to if driven back, generally allow a fort-Chanceller Hertling: 'Now we have night to elapse and then try again in trumps in our hand-later we shall the hope that the watcher has gone have none. away. In a recent case, however, different tactics were followed. After Clearly Visions Soissons Climax being detected and turned back in an "He was not deceived by the initial successes of the Soissons-Rheims of attempt to cross a main road into fensive in July, 1918: 'In the home some extensive shambas (farms), instead of waiting two weeks before try- time? press these last few days the battles tured as great German successes, on 3 miles to the west to a point which off-but she got hurt in an automobile glancing at Mrs. Raynor, and then,, at the offensive and on the defensive. I had evidently been prospected and find such deception of public opinion ing the road at a point where they had voluntary expression of excitement of the car." never before been known to cross, frightened the woman. an immediate peace proposal could stave off the catastrophe. He wrote: The general situation is more critical whole affair had been carefuly worked Eva?" than ever. The battalions of the regiments coming out of battle often It is also to be feared that under some ways gathers by a certain river, was thing special?" circumstance the enemy may succeed, purposely disturbed and it was noticed within a few days, in breaking through how they had learnt to associate the mind that frightens you so? I think, caped without serious injury but my sembles, and cute designs for the kidour front. An immediate peace proposal-even with great sacrifices-is nrgently required."

Knew Debacle Impended "On September 30 he saw that all was lost, although, as he pointed out, 'every one who expresses his opinion is regarded as a slacker and pessimist, a weakling and an inferior per-

Chew and Grow Thin

You know that certain foods furnish body energy without adding uncomfortable fat.

Sugar is one of these foods. supplying needed energy in concentrated form.

WRIGLEY'S gives you sugar and flavor. These ingredients dissolve in your mouth.

What pleasanter way of taking sugar?

ISSUE. No. 35-'29

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY His lawyers settled with her for a said, slowly, looking at Eva Turner. Doug'as Raynor is found shot very small sum-which she was ob- "Did he know it?"

CHAPTER XIII.

Eva's Story

bringing Miss Turner with him.

It was two days later that Dobbins

Mrs. Raynor, of polsoning Douglas |

Raynor, Miss Turne, at first denied it,

She told the tale of her acquaint-

"He spoiled my whole career," she through the heart in the early eve- liged to take because she had no way "I'm not sure. I think he suspected Flower Acres, his Long Island home. "And-was she-is she of a Standing over the dead man, pistol vengeful disposition?" in hand, is Malcolm Finley, former sweetheart of Raynor's wife, Nancy. -I don't know-" Eva Turner, Raynor's nurse, stands Nancy appears, white-raced and her senses and realized that she was self to him—and then he was fright- of Permanent Waving. (For ladies old, retired from the army as general terrified Orville Kent Nancy telling too much for her was fright-" 'What I have long weared has terrified. Orville Kent, Nancy's telling too much for her "daughter's" ened. He begged me, pleaded with who care.) happened sooner than I expected-the brother, comes in from the south good. decisive defeat. In two days we have side of the room. And then Ezra "I don't know anything abour it! I venge-to se him cringe and crawl lost 800 guns and the troops have no Goddard, friend of Finley; Miss Mat- will tell you nothing more!" she cried I'm not sure I really meant to kill him more power of resistance. They are tie, Raynor's sister, and others, en- angrily. Diary Reveals tired out and no longer a match for hime is official investigator. An "Give me her present address." the enemy's superior forces. Also autopsy reveals that Raynor also things are going badly on the other was being systematically poisoned fronts and we must be prepared for with arseric. Lionel Raynor, son of Good day." And Dobbins left her on." the very worst. It is urgently neces- Douglas Raynor by first marriage, without further word. sary to conclude peace at any price, comes to claim his father's estate. for we are as good as defenceless'." Now Dobbins, posing as a reporter, The Crown Prince also criticizes interviews Nurse Turner's mother in The former Crown Prince Rupprecht both the Welmar and the Bismarckian New York in hopes of learning more about her daughter. return in triumph to Flower Acres.

"Oh, publicity?" Where was Miss Turner When accused, in the presence of "Land! I don't know." Dobbins stared. "I thought you were and then, as further pressure was brought to bear, she cried out-"yes, The woman laughed outright. I did-I did try to put that man out "I'm only a hired mother. You know, of the world. But I didn't do it-his actresses and nurses and, oh, lots of wife shot and killed him!" girls-nice ones-have to have a And this story she stuck to. Remarkable Brains mother. Well, sometimes, not having a real one-they hire one. I'm a pro- ance with Douglas Raynor, admitting fessional mother. I have four daugh- it was twenty years ago. "Miss Turner is in luck to have se- said; "my whole life. I was a succured your services," he smiled, "but cessful singer, a favored chorus girl. -er-do ladies as-as mature as Miss My darling was greatly admired and Turner need a-a chaperon-?" I planned to become a professional "Not always," she smiled at him. dancer rather than a singer or an London.-Elephants in Uganda are "Eva is no chicken-but I've been her actress. I had a fine opportuity for

"I did try to put that man out of the world-but his wife shot and mother so long-she still keeps me advancement, and was about to ac-"Lemmesee.. Twenty years or midnight ride in his car. He drove

"Not all-she was on the stage first that man-" She paused a moment,

"Look here," she cried, 'who are "Yes, he did," Eva Turner reiteratare unnecessarily disturbed. Unless not take a dancing step. Of course, them and it was evident that the you anyway? What do you want of ed; "he gave me a push, and I should

"I think, Mrs. Morrison, did you say, twenty years?"

One herd, known as the Buyaga, has with a moaning wail that transformed feed from their farms, taking advant- self time and trouble for yourself, age of the desire of the Game War- Mrs. Morrison, if you answer my ques-dens' Department to drive them away tions. What was Miss Turner's name' to less populated areas without harm- as an acress? I know all actresses to hunt the sub-warden observing chorus girl-not an actress-she used them, and he had a very exciting time. her own name-Effic Talcott. She

This herd has also developed a was a nice girl and a good girl, un department along "selected" routes, "Until she fell into the clutches of times themselves, through water holes "Exactly that. He made love ry her-"

"Are you sure?"

tached three of their worst members "She didn't. When she was ing them. On one occasion they de- have assumed names."

which they do not even follow at other bad, unscrupulous mar."

this particular region where, at pre- he never saw her again!"

sent, the latter have countered every "He paid her expenses?"

"Was her name always Eva Turn-

Mrs. Morrison's face turned white.

"So it's come, has it?" she said,

cringing fear. "Are you a detective?"

"Yes, I am. Now, you'll save your-

"Yes-but he had promised to ma

"Yes-I suppose so-but it didn't even seem to me murder-it didn't even seem wrong. It seemed only justice toward the man who had wronged me, who had wrecked my life-who had tried to murder me! Right or wrong-that is what I came to Flower Acres determined to do." Miss Turner sat bolt upright in her

"Cold-blooded premeditation, then."

"And so you poisoned him," Nan

it. That was why he gave me a large re- sum of money-in securities-if would go away from here." "She is, indeed!-that is-why, no "He knew who you were, then? Dobbins asked.

The woman had suddenly come to "Not at first. But I revealed myme to go away. But that was my re--I don't know. I wanted to have him ill-suffering - frightened-and then, if my revenge became satiated-per-"Then I will find it out for myself, haps I should have stopped the pois-

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

MOLDED WAISTLINE

"How long have you been with the one I then had, when I went, at tering bow tie. Style No 212 is lovely arm is encircled with a silver brace- on the staff of Lord Roberts during Douglas Raynor's invitation, on a for afternoons made of georgette let. crepe in chartreuse green or flowered the machine himself-a swift road- chiffon. Other practical suggestions erweight tweed in wood-violet shade, printed cotton foulard. Pattern for a nod from the detective, she went this popular style can be han in sizes Dobbins' calm gave way, and his in- on, "that man tried to throw me out 16, 18, 20, years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires reserved in Canada by the Depart-41/2 yards of 40-inch material with 3/2 ment of the Interior under the Migrayard of 36-inch contrasting. Price 20 tory Birds Convention Act, which is cents or coin (coin preferred). Wrap the Federal law for the protection of

"Such as what? What have you in ditch by the side of the road. He es- delightful styles, in cluding smart enleg was broken in two places, and H dies

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plain-Miss Turner has reason to fear my I couldn't walk until after three ly, giving number and size of such questions, I cannot think she will ob- months in the hospital, and then three patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in stamps or coin (coin prefered; wrap

"I wish I had more time for reading and study," is a remark made by "Did I?" Eva Turner's eyes blazed. many homemakers. One housewife been notorious for many years for its her independent attitude to one of "I wanted to kill him-I wanted to put has increased her own leisure by the him to death by some slow, lingering use of an alarm clock. When she puts torture that would make him feel a food in the oven or on the stove, or little of the grief and despair that I starts some operation that must have her attention at a certain time, she "The only thing I felt I could take sets the alarm for that period. Then up was nursing. During my stay in she can take up her study with freethe hospital, I became interested in dom, for the clock always tells her that, and the nurses I met there were when she is needed. Some days the kind and helpful. So, when I was alarm hand travels the whole dial. able I took my training and became Those are the occasions when she is enabled to enter most joyously into "And all the time your heart was the ri h world of books and to trave

Three Things Three things-work, God, loveform a complete life.-Henry Drum

WHEN IN TORONTO EAT AND SLEEP AT SCHOLES HOTEL 40c Lunch or Supper a Specialty

Save the Price of Your Fare to Toronto

By Experts you visit Toronto don't

ROBERTSON'S of a Shur Wave Permanent Wave.

Bronze Hawks, One Inlaid With Gold, Discovered in Rifled Tomb in Beirut, Syria-The objects of seven miles north of Latakia, appear- General Horne commanding. ing to date back to the fourteenth or thirteenth century B.C. found accidentally a year ago have now been General Horne sent an historic mesexamined. A mission was sent out sage to General Sir Arthur Currie, by the French Academy of Inscrip commander of the Canadian Corps, in tions, headed by M. Schaeffer, cura which he said: tor of the Prehistoric and Gallo "I wish to express to you and the Roman Museums of Strasbourg, as troops under your command, my high sisted by M. Chenet of the French appreciation o fthe determined fight-The objects indicate that the north which the name is unknown, built on ground north and northwest of Camthe hill of Ras Shamra, in the terri- brai. Besides, the purely Syrian objects attached to these positions is shown and arms, which are the most numer. has employed and by the violence of ous, the mission found two bronze his counter-attacks during the last two hawks of purely Egyptian style, one days. Troops of no less than 12 hosof which is inlaid with gold, and also tile divisions have been engaged dura bronze statuette of a seated person ing this period in the attempt to stem with an Egyptian profile. Some examples of local art were cept another and better position than bodice has Vionnet neckline with flat-

Areas Reserved For Birds Forty bird sanctuaries have been Following the South African War

OST people rely on Aspirin to make short work of their headaches, but did you know it's just as effective in the worse pains from neuralgia or neuritis? Rheumatic pains, too. Don't suffer when Aspirin can bring such complete comfort without delay, and without harm; it does not affect the heart. In every package of Aspirin you will find proven directions with which everyone should be familiar. for they can spare much needless

Lord Horne Dies While on Moors

One of Britain's Most Famous Artillery Generals Collapses While Shooting on Estate at Stirkoke, Scotland

ARMY COMMANDER

London,-Great Britain mourns General Lord Horne of Stirkoke, famous first army commander in the Great manent Waves at the Reduced Rate War, who dropped dead on August 15th while shooting grouse on his estate in northern Scotland.

Gen. Lord Horne, who was 68 years cer for 46 years. He won a great reputation during the battle of the Somme, where he perfected the sys-Write for Booklet "W2" on the care tem of attack called the "creeping barrage." At the termination of the war, Lord Horne received $150,000 form Parliament as thanks for his services, and on Oct. 8, 1919, was created Baron Found by French Horne. The cause of his death was not known here. His Stirkoke estate is at Caithness, Scotland.

Canadian troops served under Lord Horne, or General Horne as he was then, during the critical days of 1918 when the Canadian corps played a gallant part in the closing drive of the a Great War. The Canadian Corps rifled tomb at Minet-el-Beida, about formed part of the First Army with

HISTORIC MESSAGE. Following the battle of Cambrai, ing of the Canadian troops during the ast five days. During this time Canof Phoenicia had close relations not adian troops, assisted by the 11th Dithe Bronze Age, but also with Egypt, vision and portions of the 56th Divihotep III held almost the whole of difficult manoeuvres of forcing the The tomp originally found formed of a determine denemy and have cappart of the necropolis of a town, of tured Bourlon Wood and the high

The importance which the enemy such as pottery and bronze utensils by the number of divisions which he the successful advance of the corps."

also found, including a line necklace Henry Sinclair Horne, created first the South African War, taking part in Lord Roberts' advance from Cape brevet lieutenant-colonel. For his service in the South African War he held the Queen's Medal and five clasps and the King's Medal and two clasps.

> he was promoted to Colonel and served on the staff at Aldershot. Later he was appointed inspector of artillery and in 1914 was sent to France in command o fthe 1st Army Corps artil-

UNDER KITCHENER

Distinguished service brought almost immediate recognition and he was promoted to the rank of Majorgiven command of the 2nd division During 1915 he went to Egypt under Lord Kitchener and participated in the defence of the Suez Canal, returning to France in '9'6 6in command of the 15th Corps, which was brought from Egypt. He was later raised to the command of the First Army. While in command of the First

Army in 1916 he took part in the openin gphases of the Battle of the Somme, and is generally credited with perfecting what was known as "the creeping barrage." So successful was his emplnmyoteof -V66 pstKRt his employment of his artillery that he was prominently mentioned in the despatches, and was created K.C.B. He was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-General in 191 and won commendation for the handling of troops under his command in engagements at Arras and Lens and in the repulse of the enemy effort early in A Scottish ciergyman had a parishioner who was a rabid politician with distinct democratic leanings. One day when the parson called, he was told of a new litter of kittens. "And do you think they'll be interested in politics?" " 'Deed yes, sir. They're Conservatives." The parson was surprised, and even more so on his next visit, for he was informed they were Liberals. "Why this change, John?" "Och," said the old fellow, with a wink. "They've had their eyes open since you were here last."

Oh, yes, our friendship is sublime And nicely we agree: I talk about her all the time

Permanent Waving

of $5.50. With or without appointment.

288 YONGE STREET, TORONTO

Art Treasures

Syria

tery of Bori el Kassab.

of agate, carnelian and pink quartz, Baron of Stirkoke for services during also a brestplate of gold, representing the Great War, was a distinguished the goddess Astarte standing with out figure in British military circles from stretched arms, holding a flower the time of the South African War. in each hand. A beautiful bronze He was born in February, 1861, and statuette, 81/2 inches high, war found, gained his liking for the army natur-An attractive printed silk crepe that representing Teshub, the Hittite war ally, his father being Major James simulates tuck-in type, a youthful god, on the march, wearing a high Horne, of Etirkoke. His life was idea of Paris. The fluttering box- cap. Both face and cap are plated his education was completed at Harplaited skirt, attached to hipband se- with gold, and the body is protected row and Woolwich. He received a cures slender silhouette. The molded by a silver corset. The armlets and commission in the Royal Artillery in

"Was she a trained nurse all that ster, and when we were on a long are wool jersey in pastel shade, feath- Minard's Liniment for Summer Colds His ability won him a promotion to migratory birds. There are also fifty-"I want to see her-I Iwant to talk side of the car. I also grabbed at his " We suggest that when you send for one public shooting grounds reserved

Later, as an experiment in control with her—why are you so alarmed?" arm, and that threw the steering gear this pattern, you enclose 10 cents ad- by the Dominion Government in Westtactics, a huge herd which, in May, aland upset, and we both landed in a hion Magazine. It's just filled with these latter areas in the open season.

it carefully) for each number, and never sent me a line of sympathy or address your order to Wilson Pattern Service, 73 West Adelaid St., Toronto. More Time For Study Dobbins asked, mildly.

"Incredible!" murmured Dobbins.

have fallen out but that I grabbed the could never dance again. I could walk that you all right-without a limp-but I could full of revenge toward Mr. Raynor?" farthest in the realm of thought. the dectective inquired.

"Yes, but I saw no way to gratify it. and swamps and black mud until they her, he led her astray, he ruined her, grew older, I rather forgot my hatred discourage the attentions of the game and at last he took her on a joy ride rangers. In fact, it has become a -there was an accident, and she work. Then, one day, by chance, I game of intelligence between the broke her leg-a bad compound fraccame across-I heard through another Game Warden and the elephants in ture. He took her to a hospital-and. dietitian. That is one of my specialties, and as I thought about old times all my hatred of the man came back to me-all my animosity revived, and I conceived a diabolical plan of com-"She always said so. She sued him ing here to be his dietitian-and pois--but he was too great and powerful Minard's Liniment for aching joints for her to have success of that sort, oning him while I prepared his food."

ject to them. But, one thing, first, more of recuperation at home. And You have known Miss Turner for- Mr. Raynor never came near me-"About that," the woman's face was encouragement-merely sent his secretary-or some man of business, to Patterns sent by an early mail. learn of my progress and to pay the "You felt revengeful for oll this?"

In fact, as the years went by, and I of him-and became absorbed in my nurse, that Mr. Raynor wanted a

September Rebuilding Nehemiah -The pea

A. THE SUR II. THE BUIL

HL THE OF

IV. A SOCIAL

cease by fore ly that the this time w travelers from in the two there in the Jerusalem al the gates the It was repor to the king's named Neher the patriotic and do what his fathers I. THE SURVEY

Nehemiah, news which h favorable opp quest to the have the s simple and gr erable part o 13: 4-31). Th the king obser ed the reason. tic of the car taxerxes that his favorite. had forbidde time before. pleased the k like Ezra, pro governors be west of the r them to furth and to keeper he give him ! the timber building. I once, ensinte and Tobiah, grieved then of the childr Evidently > quickly and morning he s build. But S laughed them II. THE BUILD The work of planned and families, the even the price ed, the found all sides at of ed. There work in to giving the

and indepen

ernor's plans

fect upon th of Judah (4