Rally Day Services in Local Sunday Schools

Various church schools arrange special programs for Sunday last

On Sunday afternoon and morning last, special services were observed in the Sunday Schools of Knox and Queen St. United Churches and the Presbyterian Church. This is the day set apart for the special observance of the Sunday School and its needs.

At Knox Church, many of the parents as well as children were present to participate in the program. Lantern slides were shown on the screen bearing on "Keeping School at Ireland Lake." The story was given by Mrs W. R. Alder. In this centre, which is a Hudson Bay trading Post in Northern Manitoba, the only white people are the missionary and his wife and school teacher. The rest are Indians. Miss Kathleen Milne also gave a missionary story.

At Queen St. Church the afternoon was a "Missionary Open Session." Japan was the country emphasized and the schoolroom was tastefully decorated along these lines. These missionary sessions are now held quarterly and something of interest is a missionary clock, which registers the progress being made in missionary allocation. One of its hands registers the objective set and the other what really is accomplished. The latter hand is now three quarters way round and prospects are bright for reaching the objective of $75 set for their S. School.

Mr W. Slack, Missy Sec'y, was chairman of ceremonies. Mrs Fiddes spoke on "Japan"; a solo "Japan" was given by Mrs Mark Wilson; duet, "Beautiful Japan" by Misses Gertrude Glass and Abbey McLean; Quartette, by Mr and Mrs H. McCrae and Mrs. and Mrs W. Glass; Japanese National Anthem by Misses Olivene Ylris and Mona McDonald.

The Presbyterian Rally Day Service was held before morning service and Mr Gordon Geddes, Supt., presided over the Rally Day program set apart by the Church. The special topic was "Why we should study the Bible" and was given by Rev. B. D. Armstrong.

At Edge Hill Union Sunday School Rally Day was also observed, many adults of the section turning out to enter into the spirit of the service. Mr Peter Ramage was present and gave an address on "In Quest of Others." Several of the scholars, Mary and Agnes Anderson, Dan Ritchie and Margaret and Dan Edge, gave readings and recitations. Mr John McGirr of No. 9, gave a short talk on proper Sabbath observance. The Supt. Mr. W. J. Ritchie, presided.

Steeple in Saugeen Cemetery. In a lovely corner of Saugeen cemetery, the late Arthur McClocklin was tenderly laid to rest last Friday, and "there are none so poor to do him reverence." It was a large assemblage which gathered at the home and looked for the last on the outline so well known in life. Rev. H. S. Fiddes, his pastor, conducted the funeral service, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. J. E. Peters of Meaford and Rev. W. H. Smith of Knox United Church. Friends present from a distance were Mr Fred McClocklin, Miss May McClocklin and brother Ted, Toronto; Mr and Mrs Mark Wilson and Mr and Mrs R. Thibadeau, Fiesherton; Mr and Mrs J. McMillan and Mrs J. Lenahan, O. Sound; Mr. and Mrs John Orchard, Mt. Forest, Nephews and friends carried the many floral tributes from house and at cemetery.

Falkingham-Gibson Nuptials.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs John H. Gibson, Albert St., Durham, a pretty wedding was solemnized at 12.30 noon on Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, when their eldest daughter, Ada Marie, became the bride of Newell Wray Falkingham, son of Mr and Mrs Newell Falkingham of North Egremont. Rev. H. S. Fiddes, her pastor, tied the nuptial knot when the wedding music was played by Mrs G. R. Padfield. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens and wedding bells in the drawing room and the young couple were attended on the occasion by her sister, Miss Irene Gibson and Mr Clarence Roseborough. About 25 guests were present.

The bride was prettily attired in light blue georgette and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. Her travelling gown was of rose beige, with hat and gloves to match. The bridesmaid wore a gown of peach georgette and carried a similar bouquet.

The happy couple and guests immediately after ceremony, sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner, graced by a four storey wedding cake. They received many beautiful and useful gifts, a number of which came from the bride's girl friends at a shower on Monday evening tendered her by Mrs Cliff Henry.

They left by motor on a few days' honeymoon to Toronto and Niagara Falls and will return in a few days, taking up residence in the home south of D. Kinnes' home on Garatrasa St. The Review joins many friends in wishing the young couple a happy life journey.

MISS A. C. MACPHAIL, M. P. IS HOMEWARD BOUND

After six weeks' absence from Canadian shores, Miss Agnes MacPhail, M. P., is at time of writing, on the high seas, bound for Canada and home. Friends here have received a cable from her to the effect that she is ready to enter the political fray after Oct. 7th. That she has lost none of her fighting campaign spirit, is evident, even after returning from scenes of peace and concord at Geneva, Switzerland, and her stimulus and help to the campaign of the U. F. O. candidate, F. R. Oliver, will be greatly enhanced.

Priceville Presbyterians Call a Minister

Priceville Presbyterian congregation held a meeting on Monday night last, when a hearty call was extended to Rev. Mr. Kennedy, who preached in Priceville and Swinton Park pulpits on Sept. 22nd. Mr Kennedy is a young man, a few years out from Scotland and his preaching of that day was very favorably commented upon. It is not as yet known if Mr. Kennedy will accept this call, but if it is favorably received, the induction service will follow shortly.

Eckhardt's Bell Ringers Here

Gordon Eckhardt's Concert Co., comprising Carmen Gay and her accomplished band of lady musicians, held forth to a full house in the Town Hall last Wednesday night. They are very versatile in performing on different instruments in orchestra work, though there is rather much sameness in some numbers. The bell ringing was good, also a couple amusing skits. The girls supplied music for a dance after in lower hall.

Burglars Apprehended

The culprits who rifled cash and merchandise from Taylor's store in Dromore, reported in our Dromore news last week, we are informed, been discovered to be three young men living in a town west of here, and it is alleged, one was found in Goderich wearing a sweater taken that night, the description of the stolen goods having been spread throughout the province. As yet, Mr Taylor has not recovered anything which was removed on that occasion.

Mattice is on the Transcontinental line, near Hearst and running into Fort Churchill on James Bay. They enjoyed canoe trips on the Misanabi River, which empties into Moose River and eventually into James Bay. The Dept. of Game and Fisheries of the Prov'l Gov't, recommended this section as a hunter's delight and they found it all as advertised to be.

Cake Prize went to Halifax

Mr and Mrs Thos. Henderson were in Toronto this week attending the Bakers' Convention. This year Tom again entered the cake competition in which he had captured highest honors the two previous years, but this time he did not get the award. Moir's of Halifax, the big chocolate manufacturers, were given first in the class he entered, that for Christmas cake, though the judge's decision did not give satisfaction. Tom says there were a number of fine cakes, superior to the prize winner and others who viewed them deemed Henderson's again the best. However he is not worrying, as former awards give his possession of the shield for this class.

A farmer going along the road with a rack on, dropped a long board on the road and the horse, a spirited animal, travelling at a good speed, suddenly shied at the obstacle and pitched them both out. Mr Park came off practically unhurt, but Mrs Park sustained a bad fracture of the left wrist and other very painful bruises.
