

The Event of the Season!!

That Historic Pageant
"Mary Queen of Scots"
 To be given in the TOWN HALL, DURHAM,
 three nights;—Thursday, Friday, Monday
Nov. 14th, 15th and 18th

Under auspices Can. Greys' Chapter, I.O.D.E. and prepared and staged by Mrs. (Dr.) Farewell, Walkerton. Over 50 characters.

This beautiful Elizabethan Pageant reflects the brilliant court life of the 16th century and is based on the tragic career of the beautiful but unfortunate Mary Queen of Scots, who by her marriage to the Dauphin of France, had her feet practically touching the triple thrones of England, France and Scotland. She becomes the victims of intrigues and direful circumstances, that not only rob her of her crown, but lands her in prison and finally brings her to the headsman's block in the tower, where she pays the price of royalty with her life.

BRILLIANT COSTUMES AND STAGING.—SPLENDID MUSIC
 The many who saw the Confederation pageant two years ago at Durham Rink, under Mrs. Farewell's guidance, will be anxious to witness this performance, which is its equal, if not superior.

Admission to Pageant: Each night of date, 50c
 All seats reserved. Plan of Hall for each night at McFadden's Drug Store.

Mail Order reservations may be made by applying to Mrs. Guy Kearney, Durham, or Miss Alice M. Ramage, Sec'y. Can. Greys.

NORTH EGREMONT
 Mr Matt. Hooper is up north for a couple of weeks deer hunting.
 Mr John T. Brown spent Sunday with friends in Feversham.
 Mr Roy Lawrence has completed the last of the threshing this week in this part.
 Halloween was rather a busy night in this burg; a social at No 13 school, a miscellaneous shower at Mr Alfred Tucker's, for Miss Susie, a bride-to-be of this month. Some spent the evening taking off gates. One of the spooks lost a felt hat in the excitement. No reward offered as yet.
 Congratulations to F. R. Oliver, M. P. P. We are also proud of the big majority Egremont Tp. rolled up for Oliver this election. Some Conservatives told us last week we will not get anything in South Grey now. Well, we never got anything when there was a Conservy kick now.
 Mr and Mrs Wm Wilson, also Reg. Ramage, motored to Milverton Saturday last.

 Pricerville: On the farm of Duncan McDonald, Dur. Road, Glen, is some thing of a curiosity to the young men of to-day. Is it what they called in Gaelic, 'slocheil saibaidh', a place made on two high stumps cut long enough for the man to stand up on the log and another below. This was a way back 62 years ago when the writer's father and the late Peter McArthur had contracts of building the

 By advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that a new teacher is wanted at Vickers in Bentinck. Miss McCannell, No 10, Glenelg, has resigned and the trustees have engaged Mr D. McDonald for 1905.
 Mr Wm Marshall Jr, Normanby had his hand taken off in a threshing machine while oiling.
 Last Thursday Returning Officer Telford had before him at His Majesty's summons the voters of the Riding. These loyal subjects all came prepared for their duty and during the quiet hours from 12 to 2 the necessary papers were handed in and the necessary $200 deposited for Chas. McKinnon and Henry Horton Miller.
 Married, at the home of T. G. Lauder, on 19 Oct, when their daughter, Miss Louie Davidson was united in marriage to Mr Peter Matheson of town.
 Welbeck: Mr A. McKinnon was in our burg last week canvassing for his brother and said that during the hard years his brother Chas had furnished hay and straw to the farmers and lots of money he had not yet received. Well by we sending him to Ottawa won't pay for the hay and another thing we may have another hard winter and if we send Mr McKinnon away why we will be helpless and strawless. So it is up to us to keep Mr McKinnon at home—that is doing two good things at once. Send a good man to Ottawa and keep a good man home.
