Provide a Splendid Supper

The Women's Guild of Trinity Church were unfortunate in the brand of weather that came their way for their annual fowl supper last Thursday. Next year they will consult J. B. Bowes, the weather prophet, before selecting a date. But bad and all as the wind blew and flakes fell, Thursday, the ladies' reputation for giving a real supper overcame the weather barricades and a surprisingly large number turned out to Knox Church basement where the supper was given. The managing committee had procured thirty three geese and several chickens and these with several more donations, disappeared. The plates were beautifully filled and repeat orders were unnecessary. During the progress of the supper, the Blue Bell orchestra furnished delightful music. The Ladies' Guild will have a small balance to the good.

Dance hurt by the Storm

The dances put on this season for the benefit of the Red Cross Hospital have run against hard luck. The first scheduled to take place came on the evening after Durham's big fire and few could enter into the spirit of the dance. The second billed for last Friday night, ran against the worst snow storm of the season and interfered greatly with attendance. The Wingham 6-piece orchestra was there and supplied peppy music and all arrangements were perfect for a large time. The Durham Furniture Co. showroom floor is in a class by itself for a function of this nature and it is to be hoped that better results will reward the efforts of the committee in future. Expenses will be met but nothing to the good.

Wore Shawl 80 Years Old

The Toronto Daily Globe on Thursday last had an interesting 'cut' of ten ladies who appeared before the camera in flowing shawls, the fourth in line being Mrs. J. F. Giles of Durham. It is a pity the camera could not also produce the shades of these shawls for their colors were as numerous as those that appeared in Jacob's coat. It was a competition in old fashioned shawls worn by Women's Institute members attending the Provincial Convention in Toronto. That the popular shawl of half a century ago is still treasured as an heirloom is evident, for there were no less than one hundred and three shawls in the competition, ranging from 40 to over 100 years old. Mrs. J. F. Giles and Miss Margaret McGirr delegates from Durham Branch, were two of the number and to Mrs. Giles fell the honor of winning fourth place in the line up and $1.00. Her beautiful Paisley shawl came from her grandmother and is at least 80 years old.

Snow and More Snow

Rural Couriers fail to make their Rounds Saturday.—All Car Traffic at a standstill.—J. B. Bowes, the weather Prophet is justified in predicting Winter being ushered in on Nov. 27.

Rarely in this climate have we had such an abundant snowfall at this time of year as has been dealt out to us for the past week. Beginning on Nov. 27th, it has snowed more or less every day since, till now, Dec. 3rd, there is a depth of between two and three feet, with drifts here and there as much more. Temperatures have ranged from zero to 20 deg. above and roads are heavy. Durham is in the snow belt and will have to abide by its geographical situation. Dundalk and district has been digging itself out ever since Thursday last. Never before has the C.P.R. been compelled to use its snow plows so early, but this was done to keep the line open from Owen Sound to Sauguenet. All traffic has ceased between Owen Sound and Durham, and the local garagemen had a busy time Saturday towing into town sick and stranded cars.

The condition of the roads was such Friday last that Clerk Hector McDonald of Glenelg, decided that Saturday might be better and couldn't be much worse for delivery of the ballots for the various polling booths in the Township for voting purposes Monday. But Saturday was much worse and impossible to get around, hence Glenelg electors have to wait another week to know who their 1930 Council will be.

As usual, the story of hardship and trials of the sailors on the Great Lakes is a sad one. Six men were lost and eighteen rescued from the steamer Kicwa, after the flax loaded boat sank to the bottom in shallow water near Grand Marais, Mich. on Saturday night. On Sunday word was received that the crew of 20 men of the steamer Sarnadoc, on ground at Main Duck Islands, on eastern tip of Prince Edward County. It has since been removed, the crew being taken to Prescott. The Sarnadoc is badly smashed up.

Deceased took a deep interest in the business of the town in his official duties and during his illness his mind was still clear to give information and directions regarding affairs at his office.

W. B. was a kindly soul and has left many friends behind him. In his daily work he was always cool-headed and dependable, and regular as a clock in his hours to and from his office.

His son Robert, niece Miss Lilian Sutherland and nephew, Munro Sutherland, Inspector of the Bank of Commerce, Toronto attended the funeral. A brother John in Sarnia survives him.

The late Mr. Vollet was the oldest member of Grey Lodge I. O. O. F. and joined the lodge 53 years ago at the same time as Magistrate Laidlaw who is yet an active member. In his younger days, he was a great interest in Oddfellowship and maintained it until his death, though not attending the past few years owing to advancing years. He was a Past Grand of Grey Lodge.

Until the past couple of years he was a regular worshipper at the Church of England, the hill climb being too much for him in recent months.

The funeral service was held at the home here Friday afternoon in charge of the rector, Rev. E. Hayes. The day was stormy but the house was filled with friends who paid their last respects to the memory of the departed. The service was under I. O. O. F. auspices and over twenty brethren were present who accompanied the remains to Trinity Church cemetery, where the service was conducted by Noble Grand, Thos. Bell and Bro. Hayes following the usual service. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful and included wreaths from Durham I. O. O. F. Lodge and Town Council.

Was Seventy Five Years Resident in Durham

W. B. VOLLET

As was briefly mentioned last week the death of W. B. Vollet, town clerk, took place in his 88th year, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 27th, after a few weeks' illness. He continued at his duties until the end of October, since when he has been confined to bed, faithfully waited upon by his only daughter, Miss Sarah. He suffered no pain but had been very sleepy the last week or two and slept peacefully away, the machinery of life being worn out.

Deceased was born in Toronto in 1842, and when 7 years of age went with his parents to Yonkers, N.Y. After three years they came to Toronto for two years more and in 1854 moved to Durham where he took up farming to Guelph, a common thing pre-railway days. A few years after this he took up carpenter work, becoming quite proficient. He cleared the well known lot he lived on, built his own house 60 years ago and a couple years previously married Miss Mary Sutherland who predeceased him five years ago. To this happy union were born two sons and one daughter: Robert in Hamilton; John in Vancouver and Miss Sarah at home, well known in musical circles.

He was a good pianist and on 4th March 1902, was appointed, Town Clerk of Durham, succeeding the late Wm Anderson, whose position he filled efficiently and held it until his death.

Deceased took a deep interest in the business of the town in his official duties and during his illness his mind was still clear to give information and directions regarding affairs at his office.

W. B. was a kindly soul and has left many friends behind him. In his daily work he was always cool-headed and dependable, and regular as a clock in his hours to and from his office.

His son Robert, niece Miss Lilian Sutherland and nephew, Munro Sutherland, Inspector of the Bank of Commerce, Toronto attended the funeral. A brother John in Sarnia survives him.

Bentinck Elected New Municipal Rulers

Despite the snow filled roads over the Township, a good vote was polled Monday, when next year's Council was decided. The roads were broken in the forenoon and the last of the ballot boxes delivered; then in afternoon, the bulk of the vote was cast. There were 782 votes polled for the Reeveship and 43 less for Deputy Reeve.

That a strong come-back is always possible was proven in both contests. Ex Reeve D. J. McDonald, who lost to Reeve Herb Hunt two years ago, was returned for 1930 by a good majority, 78, over a strong candidate, Deputy Reeve Geo. Magwood, who was aspiring for higher honors. Magwood won the three polls at south of Township, his own by the banner lead of 107, but McDonald captured the other five wards by commanding majorities. Mr. McDonald was particularly pleased with his vote in Lamlash ward, 402 to 28, while Elmwood and Louise also furnished strong support. Without belittling any other candidates, he is doubtless the best posted man in the township in municipal matters.

It was a tight-heat for Deputy, the veteran ex-Deputy Robt. Grierson coming in ahead by only 5 votes over Councillor Alex Hopkins, who was out for a higher seat.

For the Council seats, the two present councillors again in the field—C. Bailey and R. McCaslin headed the poll, while Jas Turnbull came a good third, quite a distance ahead of the fourth contestant, Mr. Turnbull, who is well pleased with his big vote in home ward, Hutton Hill and two neighboring ones, Abercrom and Allan Park. He topped the poll in all three, McCaslin did in two others and Bailey in three.

Bentinck Township electors knew who they were voting for when they waded through drifts to reach the polls.

After a good two year holiday, Reeve McDonald is again in harness, ready to serve his township.

It would appear that Chas. Bailey must have other qualifications than that of being able to swear well as the Chesley Enterprises states, judging by the vote he polled Monday.

The new Council are also an old Council, for every man elected knows how and what it is to arbitrate over a council table.

George Magwood, runner up for the Reeveship, has the satisfaction of knowing he is strongly backed in his home poll, Campbell's Corners.

The men who "didn't get there" will content themselves with watching on from afar and will abide by the decisions made instead of forming them.

Mr. John H. Hunter leaves this Friday for Vancouver, where on the 11th inst. he sails with the Dominion Lawn Bowlers' Association party for a winter's itinerary of sport and travel. The first point of contact is the Hawaiian Islands, Fiji Islands, etc. and land in Auckland, New Zealand on Dec. 30th. They do these islands before sailing for Australia where a full round of cities are visited showing these southerners how the men of the northern zone bowl. The program is full up to March when the party sail for Canada and home. We wish Mr. Hunter a most pleasant trip and safe return. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Russell and Mr. Steele, all of Fergus, are also of the party.
