ROCKY SAUGEEN

The U.F.W.O. will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Herb Atkinson Friday of this week. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr and Mrs Thos Reay, and family, in the death of their son and brother Royden, which took place Saturday, 7th inst. The funeral was held Tuesday to Durham cemetery, amid many tokens of respect. Misses Islay McKechnie and Esther McLean spent the week end with Toronto friends. Miss Reta Vollett spent a few days with her friend, Miss Margaret McLean. Remember the Rocky Xmas Tree, which is to be held in the church on Tuesday night, Dec. 21. Sorry to hear Mrs Wm. Bell, has been under the Dr's care for the last week. We hope to hear of her recovery soon. Misses Blanche McKechnie, Glenrodden and Miss Jeany Clark, Zion, spent the week end with their cousin Miss Rena Clark.

Rev. H. Crickington preached his farewell sermon here Sunday morning when the church was filled to overflowing. During his pastorate here he has been efficient in every respect as a pastor, as a preacher of the gospel, and as a citizen. He has shown himself to be a Christian gentleman of the highest type and the best wishes of not only the members and adherents of the Church in which he ministered for over five years, but also of many other citizens and also of his brethren of the clergy, will accompany him to his new charge in Dixville, Quebec. At the close of his sermon, he expressed very kindly feelings to the members of his own congregation and to the host of friends from all denominations who treated him with such kindness. Good byes and hearty handshakes and good wishes concluded the pastorate, one marked by much good feeling.

The members of the congregation, Ladies' Aid, and Young Men's Class of Dixville Baptist Church gathered in the church Friday evening to bid farewell to Rev. H. Crickington and his amiable bride, who are leaving on Tuesday for Dixville, Quebec, where Rev. H. Crickington will assume the pastorate of the Dixville Baptist Church. Seldom has a pastor left his field of labor with more expressions of genuine regret by every society of the church. The chair was occupied by Mr Geo. Brown, who very briefly explained the cause of the gathering, and as one listened to the different addresses read, one could not help but feel that Mr Crickington had indeed endeared himself in the hearts of his people. The words of appreciation, esteem and regret rang true, reference being made to the excellent services rendered and wishing him and his fair bride continued success in his new field of labor.

Towards the close Mr. and Mrs. Crickington were called to the platform when they were made the joint recipients of a nicely-worded address made on behalf of the members and adherents, read by Mr Dan. McLean and presented with a purse of money by Mr Wm. Adlam. The Ladies' Aid also presented them with a set of military brushes and aeropack Mrs Fulton reading the address and Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs Coutts presenting the gifts. The Young Men's Class of thirteen members presented Mrs Crickington, their Sunday School teacher, with a teacher's bible. This presentation was made by Mr Elton Adlam and address read by Mr Geo. Brown. Then on Saturday evening they were presented with a purse of money from neighbors and friends. The presentation was made by Mrs A. Hastie and address read by Miss Blanche Boyce. Mr Crickington replied on behalf of himself and wife in a very appropriate manner, thanking all for the kindness shown him since coming in to their midst five years ago, and expressing sincere regret at their severance. He hoped the church would continue to prosper and the Kingdom of God be extended by means of the activities of the church. He referred to the kindness shown his departed wife, who was much loved by all, and as time went on, he chose one of the most highly esteemed Christian workers of the community. Refreshments were served at the close and "God be with you till we meet again" was sung.

CRAWFORD

On Saturday evening the neighbors met at the home of Mr Donald McDonald to bid adieu and to wish happiness, success and God's blessing upon Rev. and Mrs Crickington before their departure from our midst. Mr D. J. MacDonald occupied the chair in his usual capable manner, and in his address, he spoke very highly of Mrs. Crickington, whom he had known to be a fine type of Christian womanhood, and also of Mr Crickington who had always been a willing and faithful worker for the Kingdom of God both in the community and in the church during the five years of his pastorate at the Baptist Church, Mullock. Mr Alex. MacDonald and Mr. James McDougall also spoke similar kind words when called upon; Mrs. Hastie and Miss Blanche Boyce sang a duet, also Miss Nancy Boyd and brother Thomson. All joined in community singing which ended with "God be with you till we meet again". The following address was read by Miss Blanche Boyce and the presentation made by Mrs Andrew Hastie: Dear Mr and Mrs Crickington: It was with feelings of deep regret that we, your neighbors learned of your proposed departure from our community. Mrs. Crickington has grown up and lived among us, and have learned to love and admire her for her sterling qualities, her kindly sympathy and her readiness to do her part in everything that pertained to the welfare of the community. She has ever been willing to assist those of us who were in trouble or in need of assistance and we are assured that her absence will leave a blank that it will be very difficult to fill. In the years that Mr Crickington has been among us, we have grown to respect and honor him and we feel that his departure also will be a distinct loss to us. We could not allow you, Mr and Mrs Crickington, to leave us without expressing to you in words and also in some more tangible manner our feelings and we ask you to accept this purse as a slight token of the regard and esteem in which you are held. We hope that when you are far away and in another field of labor you will often remember the friends in Bentinck and sometimes return to visit us. Our earnest wish for you is that God's richest blessing may go with you to your new home and that the work you are permitted to do may abound and bring forth much fruit to the glory of God and the good of humanity. and also enjoy the bright moon light. Last Wednesday was farmers' day in town. This locality was well represented after being snowed in. Mr and Mrs Wm. Seim and children visited with Mr Milton Schenck's family last Wednesday. Miss Muriel Henderson, Hanover, spent the week end at her home here. Quite a number from this part attended the sale last Monday near Carlsruhe. Mr Harry Sam and bride left last Wednesday on their honeymoon, visiting friends in New Brunswick. Miss May Sharpe entertained her fellow-members of the Women's Institute and neighbors to a social evening last Friday night. All had a good time. The beef ring has been a thing of the past for some time this season. The chicken ring followed with the same result. Now the porker has a turn and not a few are having a supply slaughtered for home consumption. Mr Alf Cronin packed up his goods and chattels last Wednesday and moved nearer Neustadt. We were sorry to learn that a death had occurred in our neighborhood in the early hours of Monday morning, namely, Mrs Geo. Brusso who had been ill for the past four weeks or so with paralysis. The funeral will be held Thursday morning hence to Aytton cemetery.

A Challenge to Canadian Food Producers...

GREAT BRITAIN wants more Canadian foodstuffs. The plain fact is that the increase in trade in some of our food exports to the old country is not keeping pace with the growth of demand. Britain's markets are wide open to Canada. Because of the exhibitions of Canadian products, the activity of our Trade Commissioners, and the effects of our advertising, the British consumer is more familiar with these products than ever before, and consequently more inclined to buy. Good will in Great Britain towards Canadian products never has been at a higher point than now. All the facilities of transportation for all classes of products from Canada to Great Britain have been provided. Shall we Canadians overlook or neglect the opportunities for increased export trade which are thus laid before us? Just because domestic markets are good, shall we as producers be so short sighted as to fail to satisfy so large a market which is more favourably inclined towards our products than ever before?

Not yet is there among our producers an adequate realization of the opportunities for increased production which present conditions in the British markets afford. If you are a producer or dealer in foodstuffs, you can assist to your own profit in gaining a larger share of this market. Almost every community in this country stands to benefit. The result can be attained by: 1. Producing more of the kind of products the British consumer wants. 2. Keeping up a constant supply. 3. Maintaining quality standards. Through its Commercial Intelligence Service, this Department will render valuable assistance to any exporter. Our Trade Commissioners' Offices in Britain are especially well-equipped and strategically placed to handle any export problem on behalf of Canadian exporters. Enquiries regarding British Trade receive prompt attention. Write to the Commercial Intelligence Service, Ottawa.
