Ice cream or a cool salad would seem more desirable but they would not express the Xmas spirit as fittingly as roast beef and plum pudding of old England. Shop windows in Australia and South Africa are usually decorated much like shops in Canada. There the red-garbed patriarchal Father Chrstmas showers toys to a bevy of wax children romping round in a highly artificial now storm. The snow storm effect is cunningly achieved by the lavish use of cotton wool carefully encrusted with luminous paint and miles of invisible string. Many of the children who delight in it have never

Christmas eve is just as trying for the parents in Australia as in Canada. KNOX W. M. S.

The annual meeting of the W. M. S. of Knox United Church, was held Temperance Sec'y, Mrs W. Derby in the schoolroom of the church on Press Sec'ys, Mrs J. J. Smith, Mrs. Thursday, Dec. 12. An invitation was extended to all the ladies of the Mission Band Leader, Miss M. J. Mccongregation, but owing to the clemency of the weather the attendance was not very large.

The meeting was opened with hymn Whitmore, the hearty appreciation of 174 and the Lord's Prayer in unison. After the reading of the minutes, etc. election of officers took place, at)the close of which a hearty vote) of thanks was tendered Mrs Jas Mather, the retiring President for her three years faithful service. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs Mather from Luke 2:8-20. Mrs McGirr led in prayer and hymn 552 was sung. The President then introduced the subject for study and we travelled in mind thru North China, South China and East China led by Mrs A.
