NINETEEN TWENTY NINE

While there is bound to be a natural regret that the passing of the old year finds most of us with a lot of uncompleted plans and unrealized ambitions, there also comes a pleasant consolation that our labors and endeavors have not entirely been unrewarded.

We are glad that another New Year has arrived. It gives us an opportunity to express our appreciation for the kindness of our many friends. When we retrospect over last year's business, in which your co-operation played an important part—we are reminded that some obligations are laid upon us to carry on to greater achievements and more fully deserve your confidence and respect.

BRUCE CO. TELLS GREY CO. TO FIGHT IN THEIR OWN YARD

(Walkerton Bruce Times)

"That cases which arise in Grey and have all their local settings over the County border shouldn't be dragged into Bruce courts for the convenience of the counsel, and thus put the ratepayers of this county to the unwarranted expense of assembling juries, providing the constables and paying for all the paraphernalia that goes with a modern court, was in substance the protest that His Honor Judge Owens hurled across the County Court carpet at the December sessions here last week.

PIONEER OF BENTINCK PASSES AWAY LAST WEEK IN 82nd YEAR

The death took place on Wednesday night last on Lot 20 con 12, Bentinck, of Thomas Reid Hastie, at the age of 81 years. He was born in Dumfriesshire, Scotland and came to Canada with his parents when six months of age. His parents settled on the Hastie farm, lot 20 con 12, clearing the land, a few acres at a time, and the burning huge stacks of valuable cut timber to do so, now appears wasteful.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Arrived too late for last week meeting at the home of Mrs Herb Atkinson. The day was fine and there was a splendid attendance.

THE PIONEERS OF THE OLD SAUGEEN

Where we have gone, where we may go, No land we see, no place we have seen

But bear the mark of those we know The pioneers of the old Saugeen. Far from its banks in western camp, On city streets or prairie green.

The river runs, it sings its song, Of those who came with vision keen: The mother brave, the father strong— The pioneers of the old Saugeen

Runs in your blood and so in mine, With thoughts of better than has been The coming day, the fuller shrine— The pioneers of old Saugeen.

May you in your life's closing day Prove worthy of the world's esteem. As those for us who cleared the way, The pioneers of old Saugeen.

Mr Joe Burns is spending Xmas with his sister in Hamilton. Miss Marica Boyd, Toronto, is spending Xmas vacation with her grandmother, Mrs R. Banks.

Miss Kinnee's class gave a dialogue by the Trail Rangers, "A Shine Sir", and a chorus by same. The children were then given the treat from the Xmas Tree and an enjoyable evening brought to a close by singing the Doxology.

Durham Presbyterian S. S. held their annual concert on Wednesday night last and the night was of a stormy nature, a good gathering of parents and friends of children were out. Mrs G. Sharpe, Misses Julia Weir and Kathleen Firth were responsible for the training of the scholars and each and every number was heard with pleasure.

Among the Churches

The annual meeting of the W.M.S. of the Queen St. Church, was held in the church basement on Tuesday last.

The Pres., Mrs McCrae took charge of the first part of meeting. The hymns used were of a Xmas nature: 'Angels - from the realms of Glory', 'Silent Night', and 'It came upon the Midnight clear'.

The scriptural lesson was read by Mrs Groves. Mrs McCrae led in responsive reading. It was decided that we study the new study book next year 'From Jerusalem to Jerusalem'.

After singing 'Jesus shall Reign' Mr Fiddes presided, while election of officers took place. The annual report presented showed that their had been faithful and gratifying work done under the efficient and capable leadership of Mrs McCrae. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows:

President, Mrs Groves; 1st Vice Pres, Mrs McCrae; 2nd Vice Pres, Mrs Bender; Rec. Sec'y, Mrs Fiddes; Cor. Sec'y, Mrs Knechtel; Treas., Mrs B M Wilson; Sec'y Christian Stewardship, Mrs Gagnon; Strangers' Sec'y and Com., Mrs R. Smith, Mrs Wolfe and Mrs M Wilson; Associate Helpers' Sec'y, Mrs Spurling; asst, Mrs R. Aljoe; Supt of Supply work, Mrs Hopkins and Mrs Ylris; Pianist, Mrs Glass; Ass't pianist, Mrs M. Wilson; Finance Com., Mrs Gagnon; Stewards, Mrs Wolfe, Mrs Glass, Mrs Aljoe; Temp. Sec'y, Mrs Glass; Miss. Monthly Sec'y, Mrs Knechtel.

The Christmas concert of the Queen St. Church was held on Wednesday last. In spite of the very stormy weather there was a full attendance of scholars and the proceeds were gratifying. Rev Mr Fiddes was the chairman of evening. The scholars acquitted themselves admirably. There were three choruses by the school, with Miss Kinnee, S. S. pianist, accompanying. Each of the boys in the Primary class gave a recitation; the Primary girls sang 'Tiny Tots'; Miss N. Gagnon's class also gave a motion song 'Little Mothers'.
