IN MEMORIAM MacLachlan-In ever loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Alice Mcwho passed away Jan. 26. 1929, in Durham Hospital

She had no time to say farewell. She said good bye to none: The heavenly gates were opened wide And asilent voice said 'come.' Her life of unselfish devotion.

To me and to all in need.

Stands as a glorious example. To follow in thought, word and deed Always so good, unselfish and kind Few on this earth her equal we find: One of the best that God could send A true loving mother right to the end had a nature all could love her. her memory will never grow old.

Ever remembered by daughter Jean, Woodbridge.

In loving memory of Mrs Alice Mc Lachlan, who passed away Jan. 26, 1929, in Durham Hospital.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station

Tell Her The Number

-it saves money and time

Very often, in making a long distance call, you may not need to speak to a specific person. In such cases, just give the operator the NUMBER you want and tell her that "anyone there" will serve your purpose.

Even when you ask for a specific person it will pay you always to give the NUMBER, because calling by NUMBER # gets you the quickest possible connection often while you hold the line.

A splendid attendance marked the January meeting when the girl members provided the program, Mr Neil McFarlane presiding. The roll call was answered with the name of any man or woman in public life. Misses Emma Oliver and Annabelle MacArthur contributed readings. Misses B. MacGillivray and W. Binnie sang pleasing duet and responded to a hearty encore. After a fine, friendly send-off Tuesday, Mr Jas McKinnon returned to Mentana and Mr John McKinnon and his amiable wife to Peace River. The latter hailing "frae Glasca" is a fine conversationalist and is greatly enamored with Edinburgh, Sir Walter Scott's monument and that of Sir William Wallace's at Sterling and other scenes. We were delighted with the fine feeling which prevailed and the fine music given by Messrs ard McKeown, Colin McLean, Thos. McDougall on viclins, with Mrs H. Karstedt, Mrs Geo Cairns, Miss B.
