

LITTLE GIRL, 10, EATS SO MUCH MOTHER AMAZED

My 10-year old daughter had no appetite. Then we gave her Vinol, and now she eats so much we are amazed.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

F. G. Karstedt's store is being nicely remodelled with commodious shelves ("whatever that is") and all that that implies.

Mr Lou Froom on business bent.

took morning train to Toronto Monday, returning same evening. Robt McConkey arrived home last week end after 3 weeks' absence at the hospital in Toronto, feeling fit and fine.

The last freshet has again taken away a portion of the dam here just to the west of the strong pier built last year some 12 or 14 ft in width.

It is planned to put a strong boom across which may serve the purpose of power until such time as the water gets low.

Mrs F. McKinnon is, we are glad to know, progressing very favorably toward recovery from her recent severe sickness.

Rev. F. Sullivan having received a call to Thistletown and Ebenezer, tendered his resignation at the close of the morning service Sunday, to take effect the end of June.

The sacrament announced for last Sunday was postponed until Easter Sunday on account of the rain prevailing here.

The banquet put on by the losing group of Y.P.S. will come off on Friday evening, all being well. Complimentary tickets have been issued to a few outsiders.

At time of writing we have another young winter set in and is cold. The snow set in Nov. 18 and has never left.

Mr Malcolm McDonald has gone to Toronto to apply for a position on the police force.

Mr John Stothard had a successful auction sale Thursday last when good prices were realized, John O'Neill, auctioneer.

Mr Neil McLean had the misfortune to lose his driver with pneumonia. Messrs Alfred and Clifford Hincks, of Holstein and Egremont, motored home for the week end.

Mr Alex Smith, Galt, motored up and attended his uncle, John Stothard's sale.

Mr Neil Calder, Egremont, visited at McCuaig's Thursday.

Mr Neil McLean has purchased a truck.

Mr Dan Campbell is sick in bed with the flu. Hope he may soon be up and around.

We are glad to report Mrs F. McKinnon improving and the nurses have left.

Hector McKinnon's many friends in Priceville are delighted to learn of the progress he is making at Ottawa.

For a number of years he has been an outstanding newspaper man in Toronto; his appointment to the advisory Tariff Board as Sec'y was a recognition of his ability and his knowledge of affairs pertaining to the tariff of the country.

His promotion to the Dept. of Finance is another step up the ladder of success and he has the hearty congratulations of his Priceville friends.

Misses Almada and Jean Hincks spent the week end at John Parker's, Flesherton.

Rev Mr Stewart called on some members of his congregation on the North line last week.

Mr Geo. Arrowsmith, Ceylon, is laying hardwood floors in Mr Earl McLeod's home.

Sympathy is expressed for Mrs. Spicer and family in the death of their mother and grandmother, Mrs H Stone of Ceylon, who passed away Saturday.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

Some time ago I saw a history of Glenelg Centre by the Baptists and now I am bringing them back to the time of their forefathers some 70 or more years ago.

Glenelg Centre at that time was composed of all highlanders and service was kept mostly every Sunday by the late Rev Robt. McIntyre in the old language, the Gaelic in Angus Beaton's old log house which would be always full to the utmost of the old highland race.

The young generation had the language of their fathers and mothers fluently. The feminine sex from 20 to 25 years of age were largely represented and took pride in their beautiful hair by having it in curls and observing the words that the hair is the crowning glory of the women.

They had old fashioned dresses down to their heels, a sensible fashion which they emulated from their good old mother.

The families represented at the service were McIntyres, McLellan's, Beaton's, McArthur's, Graham's, Cameron's, McDonald's, McCormick's, McGillivray's, Butters', McNab's, McKinnon's, McInnes', and others.

The majority of those far away representatives were old Presbyterians but after awhile many of the old church members changed their view and were immersed in the Saugen River.

There are none of those aged pioneers now to be found and their name and memory are alike known and unknown. They all had the ruling tongue, the English, fairly good but not too grammatical.

However if the Rev Mr Priest was pastor at that far away date they would eagerly endeavor to catch his sincere message and like good Highland Scotchmen, have both ears open to hear the good news delivered by a faithful pastor.

Those good old pioneers fought a good fight in entering the woods of Glenelg Centre some eighty years ago and when their earthly career was ended all they could say was there was a crown awaiting them

IN THE HOME OF MANY MANSTONS.

We take a walk across to the next line on con 4, N.D.R. Glenelg and call at the little hamlet called Pomona. Here we find a big church of the old Catholic kirk.

The congregation is a mixture of Highland Scotch and Irish and they worship harmoniously together under the faithful pastorate of Rev Father McHugh, the parish priest.

Like many congregations of olden times, the aged pioneers who fought the battles of life in the early history of the church have all passed away and their names can only be seen on the old marble slabs in the beautiful cemetery at Pomona.

But the younger generation have followed the footprints of their forefathers by being faithful in attendance at church each Sunday.

This Monday morning, 7th April, has a young winter appearance in having flurries of snow and cold and those in the sap business will have the privilege of getting some more before the end of the week.

Wood cutting is done on Edge Hill line and are preparing for their Spring work by getting their plows and cultivators in good order and some may first have to see Pete McLean in having him in his skillful manner weld two irons together.

It is sad to see the 'Roll Call' columns so full of those passing away week after week, chiefly of those in the prime of life.

In last week's Review we noticed the death of an old neighbor in the person of Donald McLeod, who was raised across the line fence from the old home of the writer on lot 43 con 1, N.D.R.

We knew him from childhood and could hardly think that he was in his 70th year. But the years fly by swiftly. We extend condolence to the sisters who are left to mourn the loss of their last brother.

We are pleased to hear of those ailing in Priceville and district are getting better while some are yet suffering but hope when the beautiful summer comes all will be out again.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs John Calder of Egremont, our niece, but hope she will soon be restored to her usual lively activity.

We paid a short visit to Mr and Mrs Arch'd McKinnon of S. Glenelg one day recently to see our brother, Donald McDonald who has been there for some time past and has the best of care by his good nephew and niece. He had a bad cold but is getting better. We were driven by our son Hector on the second good sleighing a week ago.

It would be a good act if all the different preachers in Durham would during the summer hold prayer meetings in the near vicinity of Edge Hill. It would be a change from the social gatherings of the long winter nights of the past.

We extend again to the Editor and our many friends our sincere thanks for their good wishes to us for our long life experience, sent to us on our birthday.

ONWARD

(This Week's Budget)

The snow went fast Saturday and Sunday, but Monday is cold with more snow falling.

Mr and Mrs Ed Dingwall spent an evening at Jas. Oliver's.

Mr and Mrs Turner visited last week with Jas Vause, Proton.

Miss Margaret McDougall left Saturday to visit her sister and other friends at Niagara Falls.

Mr and Mrs Jno. Meads and Miss Marg. McDougall spent an evening last week at A. Currie's.

Mr and Mrs Jno. Meads visited last week at Dundalk.

Miss Jean McCannel spent the week end with her parents at Proton. Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs Stone, especially the sorrowing husband, who is not very strong and up in years.

(Arrived too late for last week) Mrs Jas Turner and Mrs Jas Oliver spent an afternoon at Peter Mull's the first of week.

A number of the O.D.R. farmers have had their wood buzzed by Jno. Hegarth and son.

Mr Malcolm McDonald is spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Wm Meads visited the first of the week at Jas Turner's.

Miss Sadie Vause spent a few days with Priceville friends.

Miss Margaret McDougall is spending a couple of months with her parents and other friends.

Mr and Mrs L. Irving of Swinton Park visited at Wm Dingwall's last week.

Mr and Mrs Ed. Dingwall, visited at L. Fisher's, Flesherton last week. Mr Clifford Watters and sisters, Misses Beatrice and Mabel and Miss Jean McCannel spent an evening last week at Wm Mead's.

Mr and Mrs Donald McKinnon and family visited at Angus McCannel's last week.

Much sympathy is expressed to the parents, sisters and brothers and especially the sorrowing husband of the late Mrs Taylor of Flesherton in her recent death.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr H. C. Brant, Mr and Mrs Thos Davis and family, wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy extended in their recent bereavement, also for the beautiful floral tributes and the cars so kindly loaned.

SWINTON PARK.

We are accepting if not enjoying very much this cold and stormy 8th April and looking forward, knowing that it will soon be over and that seedtime and harvest is sure.

The winter has been long and trying, especially for those in poor health.

We were pleased to hear that Jas Hay who has been shut in all winter, was able to enjoy the sunshine on the fine days last week.

There is no unemployment at Swinton Park, neither is there anyone hungry. There are 5 old boys living in this section who were here when the first school was opened 67 years ago and in all these years there has been plenty of work also enough to eat. With comfortable lodgings what more do you want?

The ladies of Priceville gave the play 'Clubbing a husband' in the Park on March 28th. A very fair turn out and the people enjoyed it.

Mrs J. Aldcorn spent a day last week with her daughter, Mrs Kennedy in Shelburne who is recuperating after a serious operation in Orangeville Hosp.

Mr Jas Sturrock of the Park, has gone to work for Don, Campbell of Priceville. Mr Geo Watson has gone to Dundalk to learn the baking business.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the church here on Sunday at 2.30 p.m.

Miss Smith, teacher, has commenced extra lessons for those who may try the Entrance exams.

Mrs Wm Haw is not enjoying good health at present, also Mrs Neil McMillan is feeling the effects of the trying spring weather.

HOPEVILLE

Mr Mac Wilson, Toronto, visited his parents, Mr and Mrs Jas Wilson.

Mrs Robt Webster returned Saturday from her visit in Toronto.

Miss Bessie Wale spent a few days last week with Miss Laverne McEachnie.

Mrs A. Currie, Mt Forest, has been with her mother, Mrs McTaggart who has not been so well lately.

Mr Dalton Scott has been nursing a sprained wrist.

Mr Peter McEachnie intends going to Toronto on Wednesday where he has secured a job in a creamery.

Mrs Christie, Sr has been in very indifferent health all winter and now is suffering an attack of jaundice.

Mr and Mrs D S McDonald were recent visitors with Wm and Mrs. Philip, Dromore.

Several school children have been absent from their classes, also a number of the older residents have been under the weather of late with an epidemic of the flu. Most of the cases are of a mild type.

Mr Gordon Riddell has been under the Dr's care the past week with flu.

Mrs Mary Bittorf was taken seriously ill last week and went to Durham hospital to have an operation performed for an inward growth. As it was too late to be successful the operation was not performed.

Mrs Bittorf's friends are sorry to learn of her serious condition.

Many relatives and friends were sorry to hear of the sudden death on Apr. 7th after two days' illness from pneumonia of Fred Clark, Markdale, a former resident of here. Sympathy is extended to Mrs Clark, and to his brothers and sisters.
