

PRICEVILLE

A Lantern Lecture will be given by Rev. James Reidie of Hillsburg, on "Scotland", at the McKinnon Hall, Priceville, on Thursday, May 29th, commencing at 8 p.m. See bills for admission.

A public meeting was held in the schoolhouse on Wednesday evening last, when lantern views were given by Dr. Marshall, dentist of Dundalk, with descriptions and remedial measures required in the prevention and treatment of obstreperous molars. During the day he had made an inspection of all the scholars grinding apparatus and found the following results—an alarming situation. No wonder the ache with such names applied to them or are the names the result of the ache?

No. of children examined 50
No. of children with defects 46
Percentage 92 1/2 per cent
No. with defects in temporary teeth 26
No. with defects in permanent teeth 24.

The Young People of St. Columba intend holding a lawn social on the Parsonage grounds Friday evening of this week. If weather not suitable it will be held in the church.

Another of those bi-weekly socials, was held in the Hall adjoining St. John's Roman Catholic church on Friday evening last when a large turn out of the surrounding youth and beauty enjoyed themselves to their heart's content. Your cor. was there on invitation of a ride and gave them incidentally a couple of songs. Mr. Wm Keating also favored with two songs and accompanied the orchestra of the Sharpe boys on a horn. A laughable skit was put on by 5 Markdale young men, introducing names of local celebrities throughout, good-naturedly. There were some "sweet" words in the act which could easily have been left out, to the betterment of the skit. G. J. Foy was interlocuter, a white man; Frank and Leonard Dorsey, Norman Hartley and D. Ryan were the colored gentlemen. A fine lunch was had at 12. A fine Hall. There were troubles by many getting home with their tin lizzies.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

Mrs Hector McDonald returned home after spending the winter in New York with her daughter, Mrs W Parslow.

Mr Garfield Whyte has purchased a new International tractor.

Mrs Isaac Pinkerton returned home after spending the winter months with her daughter in Montreal.

A number from here attended the dance at Hopeville and reported a good time.

Mr David Hincks is spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr Ray McLean has purchased a new Ford truck.

Mr D. Hincks, with Mr and Mrs A

L Hincks and Betty and Mrs Sara Mills visited Sunday at Angus Cannell's, Preton.

Mr David Hincks and Gladys visited Friday with Egremont friends.

Intended for last week Beautiful flowers, music and sermon commemorated Mother's Day, which was fittingly observed Sunday in the Hall. High commendation was given Christian mothers and reference was made to a mother's great opportunities and responsibilities and the wonderful results arising from their love and sacrifice. To many hearts came tender thoughts of loved ones.

Mr Allie McLean has purchased a Ford coach.

Mr and Mrs Neil McLeod and son Edgar of Swinton Park, visited the first of the week at David Hincks'.

Misses Audrey Warling, Fiesheron and Margaret McLean, spent the week end at Alex. Carson's.

Mr and Mrs Herb McInnis and family, Mr and Mrs D. Nichol, Margaret and Willie, Miss Kathleen McLean, visited at A. L. Hincks' last week.

Mr Jno. Stothard had the misfortune to lose one of his cattle with black leg.

Mr Innis McLean had his tonsils removed in Durham hospital and progressing favorably.

Mr and Mrs Herb McInnis visited Chatsworth friends recently.

Mr and Mrs Thos Tucker, Mr and Mrs Joe Dixon and Annie, visited recently at Henry Tucker's.

Miss Dorothy Carson returned to Toronto Friday after spending a month at her parents' home.

Miss Flora Campbell spent a day visiting her friend, Miss Margaret Stothard.

Miss Myrtle Moore, Proton, spent the week end with her friend, Miss Beth Hincks.

Miss Eille McCannel returned home after spending the past month with her sister, Mrs A. L. Hincks.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

This Monday, 19th May, quite cool and some frost last night. It is drizzling rain this morning.

Last Sunday was Anniversary Day in the Presbyterian Church, Durham, and Rev. Peter Nichol as the officiating preacher gave a fine sermon suitable for the occasion. Mr Nichol is one of the good old style preachers, who after taking out his text, preached an eloquent sermon, standing at the end of the pulpit in a calm manner delivering his message to a large audience who appreciated the sermons on the occasion.

Two or three cardracks from Priceville and vicinity were there, being Nichol's, McLean's and Campbell's, all good Presbyterians. Rev Mr Nichol was born and raised on the 2nd con, Glenelg on the old survey and by the passing of time he's beginning to descend the hill. But all his old time ability as a faithful preacher he still carries. We noticed many gray heads in church on Sunday, not from the effects of age, but naturally some get gray before they are half way in this journey of life.

It is a pleasure to the aged veteran when he is kindly greeted by the youth of both sexes. It makes them feel that they were young some scores of years ago, but yet kindly respected by the younger generation.

We thank Mr David McCrie, Victoria, B.C., for his kind words for our old time history. It will bring to his memory when we put up for the night at his comfortable home on the Normanby side. Mr McCrie had a farm on Glenelg side of the Garafraxa Road and for an excuse we went to deliver him his assessment paper and to secure a night's lodging. Mr and Mrs McCrie being good church members, attended a meeting in the Presbyterian Church and before leaving to attend same, Mrs. McCrie made us a good comfortable sleeping bed which I occupied before they got back. In the morning she missed nothing, but when the morning meal was over she found some of the abundance of good things missing which she with pleasure accepted the thanks of the partaker.

This Tuesday has a fine appearance the cool weather of the past week will be taking a change. The early sown fields are quite green and alfalfa hay could almost be cut on account of its rapid growth.

May is fast passing by but no mosquitos or flies seen yet. The 24th is next Saturday and some who will celebrate the day may be breaking the commandment of remembering the Sabbath day to keep it holy, before they are through with the celebration.

Mrs McCrie's father was one of the pioneers of the South Line, Glenelg, eighty years ago. The first stone house probably built in Glenelg, by the late Chas. Gray on the corner of the Garafraxa Road is now tumbled down and nothing to be seen but a heap of old stones. Mrs Hill whose home was south of Camp's Creek, is living yet, nearing her 100 mark.

Presbyterians being good protesters had a good attendance at their social on Monday night, despite the unfavorable evening. When I was a small boy I thought no other boy had such a good father. So every boy should think the same and every good member of the different branches of the church should think that his or her church as the best, not at depriving others to think the same of their branch.

SWINTON PARK

We in the Park are still trying to keep on in the usual way, but the rainy cold weather is very trying on the patience, especially in the middle of seeding. But as we can do nothing to better conditions we will just trust in Providence, knowing that if we do our part well we will have both seed time and harvest. General health is very good but we are sorry that Mr. Jas. Hay is not regaining health and strength as his many friends would like to see him do and most of the time compelled to stay in bed. We hope the sunny days ahead will help him to better health.

We were sorry to read in the Owen Sound paper last week of the death of a young man of promise, the son of Mr and Mrs Michael Norris, Markdale. Mrs Norris was formerly Miss Margaret Hannam of this place and her many old friends and acquaintances will sympathize with the family in their great sorrow.

Mrs Hardy and brother, G W Parslow, enjoyed a short visit last week from their cousin Miss Halpenny who for several years has been engaged in missionary work in the far north-west and is now home on furlough and attending college in Toronto.

She expects to resume her work on the Kolo Kreeka mission field in the fall.

The W. M. S. are holding their monthly meeting Tuesday of this week at 2.30 p.m. in the church when Mrs. Rev. Stewart, Priceville, will give a report of the Prov'l Presbyterial held in Toronto recently.

Mr and Mrs Edward Haw are spending a few days in Toronto at present.

Mr and Mrs W. J. McLeod of Lambton Mills, spent the week end with their respective parents here, G. W. Parslow's and Neil McLeod's.

Mr and Mrs Wm Priddle and children of Dundalk, spent Sunday with Fred Knox in the Park. Mr Priddle is an overseas chum of Fred's and is yet a sufferer from the Great War.

Mr and Mrs Ed. Heard and Mr and Mrs John Aldcorn visited in Shelburne Saturday evening.

Mr and Mrs Allen Joyce and children of Stratford, also Mr Percy Lawrence, Windsor, were recent visitors at the Hardy home here.

The Dramatic Club of the Park have been invited to present their play "Two days to get Married" at Eugenia shortly, but owing to the busy season, have not yet fully decided if they will accept.

A number from the Park attended the dance in Stewart's Hall, Hopeville last week. They did not see any rats on the way home but of course we have no government sale in this locality. Some of us envy the Durham ladies.

Price of Modesty

Little Marvin found a button in his salad. He remarked: "I suppose it fell off while the salad was dressing."

Calgary Gallery Dedicated to S. Alberta's Pioneer Mothers

Mr Lochie McKinnon, formerly of Priceville, makes the Gallery possible by donation of $10,000.

As an honor to pioneer Motherhood of Southern Alberta, Mr Lochie McKinnon, Calgary, but formerly a Grey boy and native of Priceville district, has carved his name in that city's roll of gratitude and honor for his magnificent gift. On Mother's Day, in Wesley United Church there, a large new gallery was dedicated to the above brave mothers, made possible by the gift of $10,000. There were two stipulations to go with the gift: (1) that the gallery be built well and (2) that it be dedicated to the pioneer mothers of Southern Alberta. Mr McKinnon, who as the pastor stated, "is a bashful young man of 65", is a pioneer himself of that country, and knows first hand the hardships and privations of these pioneer mothers. Referring to the gift from the pulpit, Mr Peacock stated Mr McKinnon as a man of few words and that he expected Mr McKinnon would be the most unhappy one in the congregation to receive this publicity for he did not want his name mentioned in connection with the gift.

Wesley Church has done the graceful thing in placing a tablet in the church to his memory. There were five mothers present who represented these pioneer mothers: one Mrs McDougall, who had the distinction of being the first white woman to enter Southern Alberta. Her husband was a missionary with the Indians and they were the only white people among that great tribe. Their first mission at Morley and Banff and their church is still standing, also a fine stone memorial on the side of the road, in memory of the McDougalls. Her husband died 13 years ago and his father, Rev Geo. McDougall lost his life in a blizzard. One other lady had the distinction of being the first white child born in Alberta. They were presented with flowers, also Mrs McKinnon.

Mr McKinnon is a cousin of Mrs. John Burgess and the Misses Annie and Julia Weir of town and a brother of Mrs Wm Aldcorn, Priceville and brother to Chas. McKinnon at Basano, Alta.

ATKINSON—in loving memory of darling George Orville, beloved son of Mr and Mrs Herbert Atkinson, who went to be with Jesus, just one year ago to-day, 24th May, 1929.

'He was only a sweet little roselbud, A dear little flower from birth, And God called him back to Heaven Before he was soiled on earth.'

—Ever remembered by father and mother and brother Clarence.

comparing our meetings with those in India, Miss McKellar said they always start on time and they emphasize the value of prayer, not giving. It seems that here one-fifth of the members do the work while the remainder say, "well done." There are 3,000,000 in Central India still unconverted.

Mr Rev. Fiddes was very present at the evening meeting, told of how Indian students who are educated in England and America, on their return to India, must suffer many hardships to re-enter the caste system in order to be of missionary help to the members.

Hymn 261 was sung and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs Fiddes. A social half hour was then spent.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

From Review Gyle May 15, 1905 Mr Jas Darling came home last week from School of Pharmacy and will be found around home for awhile.

Married on May 11, at the Manse, by Rev Dr Farquharson, Frank F. Hinds of Durham to Bella, daughter of Robt. Even, Bentinck.

The Presbyterian congregation was hastily called together on Monday forenoon last by an announcement at the services the day previous, to consider the advisability of purchasing the Parker residence for a manse, a definite offer of $2600 having been made to the committee. At this meeting a motion was made to empower the com. to secure the Parker residence at once.

Congratulations to Mr Grant McComb and Miss Peiffer who today, Wednesday, are entering the matrimonial union.

The Review extends a hearty welcome to Rev Mr Bice, the new rector of Trinity Church, who last week entered upon his duties here.

Welbeck: Mr Thos Pottar is keeping the mill humming these days turning out lumber at the rate of 5000 ft per day. He is talking of leasing Jas Welsh's farm for a lumber yard.

Back to the old county council after the present term. Mr Montefith has introduced a Bill in the Legislature to amend the Municipal Act by allowing Reeves and Deputy Reeves as formerly to compose County Councils. This will be sure to carry as the present way has not won popular favor.
