HENDERSON'S BAKERY

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Miss Amy Dobson has returned to Toronto, after spending her vacation with her uncle, Mr. A. B. MacArthur, Town Line.

Master Clarence MacArthur, Priceville, is visiting with his aunt, Mrs. J. E. Dobson of Toronto.

St. Columba United congregation was favored with a solo by Mr. Jas. Milne of Owen Sound, brother of the Dr. of that name, but now of Flesher-ton. He was also organist for the day.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was held on Sunday last, when the largest congregation for some time, partook of the elements. The entire service was conducted religiously, solemnly and with fine decorum throughout. Rev. W. G. Bartlett gave a grand discourse in keeping with the occasion. At the morning service the subject of his sermon was "attend to your own business" or more rudely speaking nowadays, "mind your own business." He drew many morals from the text, chief among them attending to our soul's salvation. A good attendance turned out. Rev. Mr. Bartlett leaves this week on his holidays. The service will be taken on Aug. 10th by our own Miss Willa Patterson; on the 17th and 31st by Mr. Beecher Parkhouse, and on the 24th by Major J. M. McGillivray.

Visitors up over the holiday were Dr. Neil and Mrs. McKinnon and family; brother Bob and sisters Ella and Laura, Misses Doris McLean, Esther McInnis, Nellie McLean, Belle Weir.

A highly successful garden party was held on the school grounds on Monday, where the two football teams of Holstein and Cape Croker Indians, battled for supremacy. Tho' many a tumble resulted, the best of feeling prevailed throughout the game. Holstein won out on a 3 to 0 score. Mr. Wright, Flesher-ton, was referee.

The more sedentary game of faro shoes is not in it with football as far as onlookers are concerned. The crowd betook themselves to church which was filled to capacity, with chairs in aisles, where they listened to a fine program given by that versatile entertainer, Ralph Gordon, of Toronto. He gave samples of cartoons—some of which on being presented upside down, showed the reverse of the other. His jokes were splendid, his work as a conjuror or magician created surprise; as a ventriloquist, as a singer, or elocutionist, he was great, with emphasis on the "great".

Changing his voice to that of a woman's was remarkably well done. His "listening in" to the two radio talks of an auction sale and a description of a wedding was most humorous. An orchestra of three violins, 1 ukelele and piano, Messrs Alex McDonald, Alex McMillan and Jack McKechnie; Mr. W. McKechnie, Dakota, and Mrs. Alex McDonald, contributed many selections during the evening. A handsome sum was realized, total not known as yet.

We had the pleasure of a visit after church service of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fairbairn and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McGillivray, choristers of earlier days on the 12th con. Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blakeston of Stratford, were visitors in Priceville and vicinity over the week end.

At a recent meeting of the Session Miss Bertha James was appointed organist for the evening services at the United Church in place of Miss Alice Kelley, resigned.

Every hearer enjoyed the young preacher, Rev. John Bell, yesterday.

HOPEVILLE

Messrs Peter and Murray McEachnie, Geo. Wale, Toronto, spent over the holiday with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott and son, were recent visitors at Mrs. James Scott's.

Miss Sylvia Acheson, Inlet, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Earl Walton.

Miss Berta Webster and friends, Toronto, were over holiday visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webster.

Miss Harper, Mt. Forest, has returned from her holidays and is again staying with Mrs. McTaggart.

A number from here enjoyed the Anniversary services at Ventry on Sunday. The Melpal quartette was a rare treat.

Miss Willa Hockridge, Toronto, is holidaying at the home of her uncle, Mr. E. E. Hockridge.

Misses Bush and Geddes are conducting a two weeks Bible training course at Bethany chapel for children between ages of 7 and 14.

The August meeting of the local Institute will be held on the 13th inst. at home of Mrs. Geo. Wolsey. Roll call: My arthropod. Program: Historical research in charge of Mr. Chas. Wale; prize given for the best paper given by a grandmother on "My Girlhood days."

Mr. Alfred Dezell has had a radio installed in the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Dezell.

Misses Paxman, Toronto, are holiday visitors with their aunt Mrs. Minnie Paxman.

Mrs. A. Levitt and daughter, Toronto, were recent visitors at Mr. Jno. W. Armstrong's.

Hunting raspberries is one of the pastimes at present. Owing to dry weather they are not numerous this year.

While adjusting a belt on the Stone crusher last week, Mr. Joe Whiteman, foreman, Hanover, had the misfortune to have some ribs broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McEachnie; Mr. and Mrs. J. McEachnie, Priceville; Mr. and Mrs. Arch McEachnie and Nelson with Mr. and Mrs. W. Keith, Holstein and Mr. Chas. Keith, B.C. had a recent picnic party at Hamilton's Lake.

The United Church Anniversary will be held Aug. 17 at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. In the morning the Acheson quartette will give special numbers: in the evening the Buchanan quartette of Cedarville will be present. The following Monday evening, the 18th, a garden party will be held on church lawn. The Pearl Newton concert Co. have charge of program. Supper served from 6 to 8 p.m.

Mr. Jas. Wilson has greatly improved the appearance of his residence in erecting a front verandah.

ZION

Zion's re-opening service will be held Sunday Aug. 10, at 3 p.m. when Rev. John Bell will be the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tull, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shephard Windsor, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards. W. H. Edwards also spent the holiday at the parental home.

Miss May Hastie, Toronto, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Geo. E. Peart.

Mrs. Hanna and daughter Mrs. Adelaide, Mt. Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Will McFarlane and Mr. and Mrs. Russel McFarlane, visited Monday with Mrs. M. J. Davis.

The August Institute meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. Glen-cross Aug. 14th. The program is to be given by the girls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greenwood and Margaret spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Adams, Dromore.

Miss Ethel Greenwood, Durham, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chas. McClocklin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards, son Raymond and Mrs. Jos. Atkinson, visited recently at the Nelson home.

Mr. W. J. Greenwood accompanied Mr. Angus McIntosh this Tuesday to visit Molesworth friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McClocklin and family, sent the first of the week with the Campbell family at Welbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vaughan and Phyllis, visited recently with Mrs. M. Smith.

Don't forget Zion garden party on Monday, Aug. 11th at W. J. Greenwood's.

SWINTON PARK

We can't say we are enjoying this oppressive heat which we are experiencing throughout the section at present but are trying to keep cool. We are still looking upward believing that showers of blessing will come ere long to refresh the thirsty ground, and give the necessary finish to the splendid looking fields of grain.

This being Civic Holiday in towns and cities a great many of the absent ones are spending this week end at their old homes, always bringing with them a little of the spice of life and cheering up the old folks at home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blakeston, Stratford, also Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blakeston of Toronto, are visitors at the Hardy and Parslow homes at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Knox are enjoying the company of daughter Margaret and husband, Mr. Bowden of Toronto. They also enjoyed a visit last week from Mrs. Jane Knox and daughter Irene of Guelph.

Mrs. Ellen Parslow and Kathleen McMillan, R.N., are at Hugh McMillan's and Duncan McMillan at his home. Mr. Neil McMillan's, also Richard Hardy at his old home here.

While many are out berry picking and complaining of the heat and scarcity of the berries, many are rustling in James Hardy's pea patch and all agree that the peas are abundant and that Jimmy is exceedingly kind in allowing them so much freedom.

We have just read in the Radison News of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cameron at their home in Northern Sark. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron were married in Proton 50 yrs ago.

Mrs. Cameron was Catherine Spence. Over 40 yrs ago they resided on the farm now owned by Neil McLeod, west of the Park, later on lot 25 con. 21, Egremont. In 1913 they went west.

We had the pleasure of spending an evening in their home 7 years ago. Their family were all home for the celebration. About 50 guests were with them and an agreeable evening was spent. We all wish them years of enjoyment yet to come and an abundance of the good things of life in their declining years.

We enjoyed much a short visit from Mrs. Drennan and daughter of Batavia, N. Y. Mrs. Drennan was Belle Campbell of this place. Though many years absent she is still much interested in the place of her birth and the friends of her youth. They motored over; and are calling on relatives and acquaintances in several places. Miss Drennan is a capable chaffeur and interesting conversationalist.

The picnic under auspices of the Orange lodge of the Park which is on Thursday of this week, promises to be one of the best as an abundance of good talent has been secured. Will we meet you there?

Europe is full of tourists and we have found everything very dear. A glass of lemonade 20c, and 10c for service.

Margaret has called me twice for bed. I am sitting in the rotunda with orchestra playing and dancing going on, the loveliest gowned girls dancing with professional dancers.

I had a good cry over poor Winnie Noble's death.

We are all well and enjoying the trip, which will be over all too soon. We have stayed at wonderful hotels and dwell in marble halls. We have never seen a Canadian paper since we left. I have been more fortunate than the other girls, getting seven letters.

We had an audience with the Pope and were the only ones in our party, thanks to Miss McNamara and Father McHugh. But I thought I would never get to the top of the Vatican. I climbed so many stairs but was glad in the end I went.

guide pointed to something and a pigeon roosted on it. They have a bell tower here, the former one falling in. There is also the wonderful St. Mark's Church. From here we went to Lugarno and enjoyed it. Never saw such hydrangeas. They were all colors, blue, pink and cream. This is largely German and our beds all carried a feather tick.

Leaving here we went to Furka on the top of the Alps. We had a wonderful drive, winding up the mountains. Really sometimes you would think the driver would not have room to make the turn. We were 8000 ft. above sea level and many times above the clouds. The mountain tops were clad in snow. We stayed at a German-Swiss hotel and though we were so far up, we had electric light, splendid food and all conveniences. The sun shone all the way up, but when we arrived, were very cold, even if we wore cashmere hose, woolen vests and bloomers and a rug to roll ourselves in. This was on July 19.

Can you imagine? It stormed all night and we were three hours late leaving next morning on account of snow storm.

When we left Furka, we walked through an ice tunnel so blue you would think it was colored and I was quite nervous for if you stepped down you were gone hundreds of feet.

Later: We have just come in from seeing the Lions of Lucerne and we went in pouring rain but were well repaid. It is hewn out of a large rock, the lion lying down with the spear in its paw, on the shield of Switzerland. This, I think, tells of the time the soldiers defended Henry XVI to a man.

I had a good cry over poor Winnie Noble's death.
