

Free Flowing Fertilizers

Here are four big reasons why we recommend C. I. L. Mixed Fertilizers to you:

First: Dry, free flowing, they end that costly nuisance, drill-clogging! . . . Save labour!

Second: When you need C. I. L. Mixed Fertilizers—that's when you get them! Drive up and get them—right out of stock!

Third: This prompt delivery service is less costly than the old-fashioned "order-and-wait" method. . . . Saves you actual dollars-and-cents, as well as valuable time!

Fourth: Made in Canada.

Ford Convertible Cabriolet

FOR summer motoring, for the dash to the club or for the shopping tour, thousands of women are choosing the new Ford convertible cabriolet, according to officials of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited.

This new model, illustrated above, combines the smart, youthful dash of the roadster and the snug, all-weather comfort and the exclusiveness of the coupe. The compact landau top can be raised or lowered easily and quickly. A wide substantial rumble seat and cow lights are included as standard equipment.

The top of tan material, rubber interlined, folds completely when lowered and lies flat back of the seat. Door windows, which fit snugly into the top, are in chrom-plated frames and may be raised to act as windshield wings when the top is lowered. When the top is up the rear curtain may be raised to permit conversation with passengers in the rumble seat. Bedford cord is used for upholstery and interior trimming.

HOW MUCH DID THE ELECTION COST YOU?

FOR EIGHT WEEKS members of our Government—past and potential—provided us with an interest-gripping, Dominion-wide exhibition of oratorical fistcuffs. In every constituency from Sydney to Vancouver, exponents of "Grit" and "Tory" policies harangued the voter with the pros and cons of Canada's status past, present and future.

In an earnest endeavor to grasp the essentials which would decide where his support should be placed, the Canadian householder listened to the leading orators of both parties all over the Dominion—through the newspapers.

Your local newspaper performs the function of bringing into your home, every week in the year, the outstanding items of interest in the world, but more particularly, the vital happenings in your own district and the intimate gossip of the doings of your neighbors.

HAMPDEN

A most welcome shower of rain fell on Sunday morning in these parts, the only one of its kind we have had for a month.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity have finished harvest and are now busy at another of those never-failing jobs that are found on the farm.

Mr Wm Seim is this week having the Hagedon ditching outfit draining the rear end of his farm toward the river.

Mrs Irvine Henderson and children, of Guelph, visited with friends here over the week end and holiday.

Mr Osborne Hickling attended the funeral of his aunt at Tara Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs Con Seim, Mr and Mrs Will Seim, Mr and Mrs Bert Rahn and Mr and Mrs Wm Ruland, also Mr and Mrs Albert Seim and Mr Clarence Seim of Hanover and Mr and Mrs Ted Kraft of Ayton, motored to Kitchener and attended the funeral of Mr Ervin Miller, a cousin, who formerly lived in these parts. Ervin was the eldest son of Mr and Mrs Louis Miller of the Miller and Seim sawmill and received his education at No. 8.

In his earlier days he had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which left him with a weak heart, which brought about his death in early manhood, leaving a young widow and baby boy scarcely two months old. Sympathy is extended to his parents and three sisters and brother all of Kitchener.

Miss L. Brimblecomb of Harrison, has resumed her duties at No. 8 this week with a large attendance.

Mr and Mrs Burrows Smith and children, Detroit, spent over the week end and holiday with their parents at Hampden and Holstein.

Mr and Mrs Langridge and children, also Mr and Mrs Schram and children, who have been holidaying here, left Monday for their homes in Toronto.

Mr Reuben Hancock and sister, Miss Gertrude of Maple Hill, visited with friends in the locality recently.

Mr and Mrs John Laidlaw of Pittsburgh, are spending their holidays at the Geddes home.

BLACK-EYED SUSANS
How lavishly they scatter their bright gold
Until the road-sides
Brave in sudden wealth,
Shake off their dusty drabness.
Surely now
The formal gardens,
Lying all around,
Will cease to boast
About their rich display
Of blue delphinium and rosy phlox.
Along the stretches of the highway,
Faces of sun-drenched gold
Smile gayly up.

Snell Connection Gather at Dromore

Reunite after Many Years

One of those family reunions that bring pleasant reminiscences to the fore, took place at the home of Mr. James and Miss Susan Snell, Dromore, on Thursday last. As the years increase, family responsibilities also increase and it is a hard matter to collect the many connections and ends of the family genealogical tree together to renew once again family interests and observations. Such has been the case at least in that of the Snell family of Dromore, and when a son of the pioneer parents was home from Saskatoon, — Dr Joseph Snell and wife (nee Mary Leask, a daughter of another Egremont pioneer), occasion was made for a family reunion.

Accordingly, on Thursday last, about thirty relatives gathered and the afternoon was spent in picnic fashion, on the lawn of the home, photos of the family being arranged for.

While a brief sketch of the parents of the five surviving children of the pioneer parents, Mr and Mrs Wm. Snell, may not be out of place, it cannot convey to the readers the stout heart and stouter will-power that was theirs, which enabled them to carry on in the face of many privations and dearth of necessities. They built their joyous life in order that we might enjoy our to-day.

William Snell was born in April 1828, at Burrington, Devonshire, England. He won his bride, Mary Isaac, who was born in 1827 at Chudleigh, also of Devonshire. They were married from her home and sailed a year later from Plymouth in 1854 for Canada and eight weeks were spent in crossing the ocean. They settled in Ancaster, Ont. where John, Sarah, (Mrs Geo. Binnie) and Miss Susanna were born. In 1860 they purchased land at Dromore, the homestead now owned by their son James. It was here that Joseph, James and Elizabeth Tucker and 23 years ago passed away.

The five remaining children of the late Wm and Mrs Snell were all present at the reunion, three of the nine grandchildren were absent and one of the twelve great grandchildren. Those absent were Mr and Mrs Wilmut Case (Mary Tucker) and daughter in Sask.; Mr and Mrs David Fox (Susie Tucker) of Campbellford, and Thos. H. Binnie of Toronto.

Mr McLuhan got water in No. 9 school yard at a depth of 102 feet and last Friday departed with his drilling outfit for Arthur.

Mr and Mrs Hutch were in Calderwood last Saturday, attending the funeral of the late Mr Witherow. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Mrs F. Watson, Toronto, is enjoying a holiday with her parents, Mr and Mrs R. Lawson, Durham, and Miss A. McPhail, M. P., spent a few hours last Friday in the homes of W. H. Rogers and A. Haas.

Mr and Mrs Alfred Haas are spending a few days with Toronto relatives, viewing the Exhibition.

Mr and Mrs Rob Haas' Labor Day guests are Mr and Mrs Arthur Robinson, Guelph. They also entertained recently Mr and Mrs Eric Sharp of South Bend.

Mrs Burrows Smith and children and Mr Boddy of Detroit, with Miss Nettie Byers, Hampden, called on us recently.

Mr and Mrs J.A. Mather, Bert and Fred, visited their cousin, Earl Mead at Varney last Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs Duncan Calder of Lisowel and Mrs John Calder, Mt Forest, attended the funeral of their cousin, the late Mrs John Calder, Priceville, last Wednesday and called on their aunt, Mrs Hugh Sinclair.

Rev. W. and Mrs McWilliams of Southampton and Mrs J. D. McPhee and Mrs Jack, Mt Forest, also attended the funeral of their cousin, at Priceville and visited at Chas McGillivray's.

Mr Murray McGillivray of Toronto, spent over the holiday with his parents here.

Mr John Long, Fergus, came home for the week end and holiday.

If the fine harvest weather continues, the grain will be nearly all in the barns Saturday night.

Mrs Philip, Sr. passed away early this morning, after a few hours illness with pneumonia. Funeral to-morrow from Holstein United Church to Amos cemetery. Obituary later.

It is too bad candidates in elections couldn't take out insurance against defeat. Many of them would be more content to be vanquished.

THE ROLL CALL

MRS JOHN CALDER
The death occurred on Monday, August 25th, of Mrs John Calder, at her home in North Egremont at the age of 54 years. Mrs Calder has been in poor health for several months and her death, though not unexpected, caused much sorrow in the community.

Mrs Calder was Christina, elder daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Nell McDonald. She married Mr Calder about 23 years ago and their home life was happy. They spent some years in Alaska but returned to their farm home here. There remain a sister and a brother, Mrs Wm McLeod near here and Mr Arch. McDonald in Portland, Oregon. A brother Angus passed away in 1916.

Mrs Calder was a devoted member of her church in Priceville and active in all good works. She had a kind, cheery, personality and will be sadly missed by a wide circle of friends. But in her home her loss is irreparable. The lonely husband, who cared so tenderly for her has the sympathy of all.

The funeral on Wednesday was very largely attended. The service was taken by Rev. W. H. Bartlett of St. Columba United Church, Priceville who had a comforting message. He was assisted by Rev Mr McWilliams of Southampton. There were some beautiful floral tributes. Friends from a distance were Miss Janet Calder of Toronto; Rev and Mrs McWilliams of Southampton; Mr and Mrs Duncan Calder and Mrs John Calder, near Mt. Mount Forest, and others. The pall bearers were cousins of deceased: A. McKinnon, Arch, Hector and Chas McDonald, Wm Leith and Jas Brown. Interment was made in McNeil's cemetery.
