DOWN TOPICS

Baby Carriage for Sale: In good condition. Apply at Review Office.

FOR SALE: A year old buck. Apply to John Cuff, R.R. 2, Durham.

J. Theodore Priest, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Priest, has recently accepted the position of Director of Music for Stratford Schools.

Mr. Murfin, expert in Herbs, will be at Hahn House, Durham, on Tuesday, Sept. 23rd. He has herbs for all diseases. See him when in town.

Eggs at four months and a half stage

Mr. Eldon Weppeler has the banner flock of Spring pullets to our knowledge. They are of the Buff Orpington class and commenced to lay their first eggs when four and a half months old.

Patients at Hospital

Mr. Leo Burke, Gleneig, is again a patient at Durham hospital, receiving treatment for his leg. Mrs. Leo Hinzinger of Neustadt, underwent an operation Saturday. Mr. Donald McDonald, Priceville, is also receiving treatment at this institution.

Where lies the blame?

Warren having an increase of three mills in the tax rate this year, making the total now 60 mills, the Canadian Echo begins to look round for a reason and places the blame on the County Council and the Board of Education. It is possible that both County Council and Department are a bit extravagant at times and they do not feel the direct responsibility to the people which local councils do, says the News-Record.

Black and Gold Markers

Ontario motorists will have more colorful license markers next year, the plates being black and gold, just like Quebec license plates of this year. Outside the color change, the only variation from this year's markers will be that the name of the province and the year will read "Ont. 1931" at the top of the marker. This year it was at the bottom and the police complained.

Fined for Intoxication

Four young men residing several miles east of Durham, appeared before Magistrate Laidlaw on Monday night, charged with being intoxicated in a public place. They had been taken in charge Saturday night by Constable Scott in Smith's garage and later were released until trial. They pleaded guilty and the minimum fine of $10 and costs was imposed upon each, $17 in all.

Corn Roast for Knox Choir

Knox United Choir were "corn-minded" on Tuesday night, when the members and a few friends enjoyed a corn roast on the banks of the Saugun at Darkies' Corners, east of town. The statistics as to the number of cobs eaten by each member, were not kept, so we cannot publish the records. A blazing camp fire and a harvest moon, made it a romantic spot, and a free and easy time was enjoyed by all.

A Close Call

Wednesday of this week Mr. Cornelius Mynehan of Hamilton, was admitted to Durham Hospital suffering from a broken limb above the knee. With a fellow traveller, they were on a fishing trip to points north of town. Descending the Rocky Hill, the car struck loose gravel, and veered, driver lost control and the car ran against a cable at the bridge. Had this strong cable not been there, the destination of these travellers would surely have been the river bed.

Division Court Sitings

Judge Owens of Walkerton presided over the Court on Tuesday last and had five suits before him.

Thos. McNiece vs. Oliver Maurer, arose out of a car accident in which the defendant proved in the wrong, and McNiece got claim and costs.

Ray vs. Stewart: This was an alleged breach of agreement as to dealing with crops. Action was dismissed with costs, but without prejudice to any action that plaintiff may be advised to bring for his share of the crops.

Gun vs. Symons: This was a claim for rent amounting to $158.10, but the Judge saw something irregular for his written comment was "no order made."

Vollett vs. Boyd: A note and balance of account, was the base of this suit. Defendant entered dispute in part and Prof. Vollett received a substantial part of his claim. Prof. Dr. was allowed $230 for witness fees.

Marshall-Yake: His Honor recognized the Plaintiff's claim and Def. was ordered to pay $5 monthly till claim and costs were settled.

Lawyers Henry, Grant of Walkerton and McQuarrie of Durham, conducted the examining of the contestants.

DURHAM GIRL WINS POPULARITY CONTEST

Miss Eva Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Adams of town, stenographer of the Livingstone's Music Store, Toronto, Ont., won first prize as the most popular business girl in North Toronto district, at the Mount Pleasant Inaugural Picnic, held at Erindale Tourist Camp, on Thursday, August 20th.

Death the Result of Knock from Ram

MRS. GRACE RICHTER

Early Monday morning at Durham Hospital, there passed away Mrs. Grace Richter, aged 67 years. Her death which comes as a great blow to her brother-in-law, Bert Ritchie, was brought about by very untimely circumstances. Early Saturday morning, Aug. 30, deceased was picking apples in the Ritchie orchard, when a ram belonging to Mr. Earl Vessie, strayed into this field and catching Mrs. Richter unawares, immediately used his horns with effect, knocking her down and otherwise abusing her. Her calls were heard at the barn, where Mr. Ritchie was milking, who came to her aid. At the time she felt that the shock was the damage done, but by noon her condition became worse and she was removed to hospital. The x-ray was applied and it revealed a fractured hip. It is not known what other complications resulted, but they were evidently of a serious nature for she passed out as above. Her death has brought sorrow to the Rocky section, for she was highly esteemed and respected.

Deceased was formerly Grace Ewen, daughter of the late John Ewen. Since the death 8 years ago of her sister, Mrs. Bert Ritchie, she entered the home and mothered the two sons and managed the household. Her unfortunate death is the cause for much regret.

The funeral was largely attended on Wednesday at Durham cemetery, where interment was made. Services were conducted by Rev. B. D. Armstrong and pall bearers were Messrs. Doug. Clark, D. Watson, Jas. Lawrence, Alex. Morton, Jas. Ewen, Jas. Vessie, Mrs. King of Toronto, who was present at the last rites to her sister.

McLaughlin's Garage Burglarized Thursday

Some daring thieves, probably the same gang who recently burglarized garages in Shelburne, Dundalk and Clatsworth, swooped down upon Geo. McLaughlin's garage here in the early hours of last Thursday morning, and escaped with clean heels. They entered the front door of garage and decamped from the rear door, breaking or forcing three locks to open doors which impeded their path, and nothing was known of it until Mr. McLaughlin and staff came to work at eight o'clock.

Approximately $400 to $500 of radio and auto supplies were stolen, including a large cabinet radio with battery, tubes, brake linings, bulbs, etc. This is the second occasion the garage was entered and rifled the first being a year ago. With no burglary insurance, it is a heavy loss for George, and it is to be hoped that these burglars are quickly tripped up. Prv. Constable McClevis was on hand Thursday and Sunday, but any detective work has yet proved fruitless.

The Review was informed upon good authority last week of the death of E. Lobstinger, the lad assaulted by ex-constable Beamish of Hanover. We have since been advised that this is incorrect and gladly report the fact.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cook returned from their wedding trip to Duluth, on Saturday last and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Faith, before taking up residence in Palmerston.

Inspiring Anniversary Services at Queen St. Church

Messages of Rev. T. Albert Moore, General Sec'y of United Church, drew light large congregations

That the Christian religion has given a high standard and moral tone to Canada's national life, was the keynote of two masterful discourses delivered by Rev. T. Albert Moore, D. D., General Sec'y of the United Church of Canada, at the Sabbath Anniversary services of Queen St. United Church. The revered servant of the church is still vigorous, despite advancing years and his earnest presentation of the gospel message illustrated by story, won the hearts and undivided attention of every listener.

At the morning service, Dr. Moore was in a reminiscent mood. He was delighted to again occupy the pulpit. He was stormstruck here before this church was built, was here in 1906 and 1915. He paid glowing tribute to the early settlers who hadn't much money but a high purpose. Not a family came to the Queen's Bush without a bible. They determined religion had to be interwoven in our national life, their faith and vision were boundless, and their ambition, devotion and sacrifices, won for us the liberties we enjoy to-day under the Christian religion.

The greatest challenge of our life is to be a Christian—we must stand by the eternal truth of God and resist the devil. He believed the youth of to-day compared favorably with those of any former generation. In closing he announced his text Heb. 12: 1, 2, and urged his auditors to let this anniversary be an incentive to renewed spiritual consecration and service in the upbuilding of the church.

With Knox congregation uniting for the evening service and other visitors, every possible seating space was filled and some were unable to gain entrance. Dr. Moore's message was from 2 Tim. 3:5 and it was a powerful presentation of the fact that religion is a power and a force. Many recognize it as a form but refuse to accept it as a force. The religious foundation laid by our forefathers had made Canadians respected all over the world. He narrated the religious origin of Dominion of Canada and stated that Canada owes a great debt to religion. In his closing remarks, he paid a tribute to church union, stating the main reason for the movement was to spread the gospel of Christ to every settler.

Splendid choir anthems were rendered at each service and in evening, Mrs. M. Beatty and Mr. Potter of Ferguson, gave a duet and the latter a solo in excellent voice.

Monday evening's program was given entirely by Fergus talent, the pupils of Mr. Smythe, organist and choir-master of St. Andrew's Church of that town. It was a very enjoyable evening. Fergus is to be congratulated on the calibre of its talent. Mr. Smythe had a busy evening at the piano and at all times gave sympathetic accompaniment. The numbers were all of a high order and to us, the chief charm lay in the fact that the rendition of solos was without music. This indicates the mastery of the song, enabling the singer to put his or her whole thought upon the expression. Too often a solo is sung with only a half knowledge of the words and a slave to the music. Most of the choir were soloists and assisting them was Thos. D. Muir, on violin, a promising student and Mrs. Mighton, elocutionist. The latter delighted the audience with her numbers, all new to Durham. Her voice is clear and distinct and every word is heard. The numbers were nicely varied in solos, duets and quartets, some of them dipping into Grand Opera popular airs. Those assisting were Mrs. W. G. Beatty, Mrs. W. Thompson, Mrs. T. D. Muir, Miss Norah Wilson, Mrs. Milton Beatty, Mrs. J. Greaves, Misses Ethel and Myrtle Mason, Messrs Octo Lovell, Don Johnston, Austin Porter, Mr. B. Ucc.

At the close of program the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, entertained the visiting talent to a supper in the schoolroom. Rev. Mr. Fiddes gave a few kindly words to the audience, stating how well the church had risen to the occasion in finances on this Anniversary occasion. $400 had been asked for on Sunday by the Board. They had received over that amount, as well as several promises yet to come. He felt it to be one of their best anniversaries, both from a literary and financial viewpoint.

Hunter's Hardware Changes Hands

The sale was completed last week end of the A. S. Hunter and Co. hardware stock and business to Mr. G. Rees Padfield, who for the past seven years has been employed there as manager of the store. Mayor O. S. Hunter who has had full charge of the business since the death of his father eight years ago, has in recent years devoted much of his time to his extensive seed business, but the destruction of his mill here nearly two years ago, crippled this flourishing local industry.

With the announcement a few weeks ago of J. and J. Hunter retiring from the mercantile business, the name Hunter will shortly be entirely removed from the business life of the town, where the three brothers, James, John and Arch. S., and later their sons W. S. and Oliver have been foremost in a long and honorable career of over fifty years. Mayor Hunter's great grandfather was Durham's first resident and ever since those bearing the name, have been prominent in furthering the town's welfare. The late A. S. Hunter formerly conducted a flour and feed business on west side of main street before he erected and opened up his fine hardware store opposite the Midway House, some twenty three years ago. Here the late Mr. Hunter, in partnership with his son Oliver, dealt in grain and seeds as well, and their marked business ability made a success of both branches. Mayor Hunter has not as yet made future plans, but will remain here for some time at least.

Mr. Padfield is a Mt. Forest boy and since his arrival here, has been an important cog in the success of the business. His geniality and obliging disposition have won many friends in town and country, and the business will not suffer in his hands. His announcement appears in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sharpe and daughter Maisie, all of Erin, were guests Wednesday of their cousins, Mrs. Thos. McGirr and Mrs. John Bell.

HYMENEAL

GRAHAM — LARKE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Larke of the Larke road, was an attractive setting for the marriage of their daughter, Frances Jean, and Mr. Donald L. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graham of Durham, on Monday, Sept. 1, 1930 at noon.

The Rev. John Verstraete read the service in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of shell pink chiffon made with a close-fitting bodice and flaring skirt. Her bouquet was of pink roses and swansonia. She was attended by Mrs. Thelma Key of Grand Rapids, cousin of the bride, who wore pale blue chiffon and carried pink roses. George Larke, brother of the bride, was groomsmen.

Margaret Elaine Pietz, niece of the bride, acted as ring bearer and wore pink organdie.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Larke wore brown chiffon velvet and carried pink roses. Miss Margaret Bonnie played the wedding march. Dinner followed the ceremony. A centrepiece of the bride's cake and sweet peas ornamented the table.

Among the social functions given in Mrs. Graham's honor was a luncheon given by the Edison employees at the Rio Vista Inn Mrs. Rita Hart and Mrs. Thelma Key were joint hostesses at a bridge party and miscellaneous shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham left by motor for the home of Mr. Graham's parents, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will be at home at 316 Dawson St., Sault Ste. Marie.—Sault Ste Marie Star

Baptist Mission Circle

The Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. F. Giles on Wednesday, Sept. 3rd. In absence of Pres. Mrs. Alex. Knisley, Mrs. Priest occupied the chair. The meeting was opened by "How firm a Foundation"; scripture reading was taken by Miss Grace Ritchie; Mrs. Priest led in prayer. The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved, the roll call was answered with a verse on "Joy", followed by a hymn "Jesus Lover of my soul". Mrs. Priest gave a short address also expressing her joy at being back among us once again. Several ladies took part in prayer, led by Mrs. Thos. McNiece. Miss Redford then rendered a fitting solo which was enjoyed. The meeting was closed by the repetition of the Lord's Prayer in unison. The hostess and assistants served a dainty lunch.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Breen returned home Saturday to Port Stanley, after a six weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Breen and Mrs. John McGowan and Bobby, spent Friday last with Fergus friends.

Deserving the Teaching Ranks

Miss Isabel Marshall, recent teacher at S. S. No. 7, Normanby, has left the pedagogical ranks to enter the Training School of Nurses at Hamilton General Hospital, entering in the fall class. Hon. Howard Ferguson has lost a good teacher among his ranks.

Mr. David Lamb was a visitor at Toronto Exhibition last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Lamb left on Friday morning for their home at Biggar, Sask., after spending two weeks at his parental home at Aberdeen.

Mrs. Leslie Watson of Dundalk, received the sad news last week of the death of her brother's wife, namely Mrs. Donald Ferguson of Toronto. Besides the husband four small children survive.

Mr. A. W. H. Lander was in Quebec last week end and this, attending the sessions of the Great West Life Insurance Co. Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Patterson of Durham visited her cousin, Mrs. Donald Brown over the week end, and greatly enjoyed the services in Westminster Church.—Mt. Forest Confederate.

Mr. and Mrs. John McQueen were with relatives at Stayner last week end and while in that district, took opportunity to visit the historic "Nancy" at Wasaga Beach.

Mrs. D. B. McFarlane returned on Monday after spending a week with relatives in Detroit and Flint, Mich. While in Detroit, she took advantage of an opportunity to take a special short course in dry cleaning.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moffat, of Wainwright, Alta., are in town again, renewing friendships with early folks and friends. Since his departure for the West a few years ago, his three brothers have joined the great majority and their remains now of the family, his sister, Mrs. H. J. McFadden. We haven't set our eyes on him yet, but know they still see Scotland's hills and dales in imagination, as only a Scotchman can.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graham are at the former's parental home, on the last lap of their wedding tour, which took them to Pembroke, Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto. The many friends of the groom in town hope for himself and bride, the happiest of futures.

Mr. Will Burgess of Sarnia, is visiting with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Graham.

Mr. Neil Shortreed, manager of the Bank of Commerce, Keswick, is at the parental home near Priceville, on his annual vacation. With his mother and sister Anna, they visited their cousin, Mrs. John Burgess Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Allan of Montreal, are holidaying with his parents here this week.

Miss Jean Baird returned to her home here last week from Regina after an absence of four years. She was engaged as stenographer for Mr. Gordon Findlay, an old Dromore boy, in the C.P.R. freight offices there.

Mr. A. E. Ilife of Vancouver, after an absence of 25 years, is renewing his youth, among his wife's relatives, the Lawrence family of Gleneig.

REV. JOHN GREENWOOD ASKED TO RETURN

The following clipping is taken from the Grayling, Mich. paper, and which tells its own story. We are pleased to see such evidences of appreciation.

"A pot luck supper was given the church board at Michelson Memorial Church Wednesday evening. This was the regular quarterly conference meeting with Dist. Supt. Dr. Glass in attendance.

Following the supper the business session was held. The Board was delighted with the reports from the various departments of the church. The report of the Sec'y and Treasurer showed the finances to be in a satisfactory condition, in spite of the general conditions throughout the country.

It will be pleasing to the Grayling public to know that at this time a call for the return of Mr. Greenwood as pastor of the church was extended by a unanimous vote of the board.

Mr. Greenwood has endeared himself more each year to not only his church people but to the community in general. His outstanding value as a citizen of this locality makes him then rendered a fitting solo which was enjoyed. The meeting was closed by the repetition of the Lord's Prayer in unison. The hostess and assistants served a dainty lunch.

High School Receives Large Grant

There are different grants,—some that please us and some that are otherwise. But it is granted that the School Secretary Grant of the High School Board received on Wednesday, was of the pleasing variety. This grant was in the form of a check from the Ontario Educational Dept. and is the highest yet received by this school. It was based on the salaries paid the staff, efficiency and general accommodation, equipment, etc., as found in the High School Inspector's report. That such a grant came to the town is gratifying, and the aim of the Board is to continue this high standard.

WE are pleased to announce the purchase of the Hardware business of A. S. Hunter & Co.

We appreciate the many courtesies extended to us the past seven years and hope to merit a continuance of your patronage through courteous treatment and honest values. Our motto will be "A Square Deal Always."
