PRICEVILLE VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

A meeting of former residents of Priceville and district, was held at the home of Mr and Mrs D J Gillies, Cowan Ave., Toronto, on Dec 9th, at which it was decided to form a Priceville Old Boys' and Girls' Association. Mr Gillies was elected President. It was planned the Association would hold a dance at the Apollo studio, 294 Brunswick ave., corner of Bloor St., Jan. 14. It is hoped that all ex-Pricevillians in the city will come and make their first meeting a success.

Keep in mind the Xmas concerts in St. Columba United Church this Friday evening, Dec 19 and Monday, Dec 22, in McKinnon Hall, when both concerts will be good.

Mr Margaret McFarlane is attending the U. O. convention in Toronto and visited friends.

Mr and Mrs Stanley Harrison, Dromore visited early in week at the latter's father, Mr D. Hincks.

Mr Watson, son of Mr and Mrs. Tom Watson, Egremont, has started a barbering business here. We wish him success.

Mr and Mrs Wm Hay of Swinton, visited Sunday at A L Hincks'.

A number from here took off Saturday P. m. and went to Fiesherston to see Sam. Claus, when a very large crowd was present. The children enjoyed seeing the old saint, dog races, cat shows, etc. Each child got an orange and a bag of candy and nuts.

Then on Friday and Saturday nights, the Xmas concert in High School was well attended from here. The pupils from here taking part were Edna Carson, Monica Lambert, Elda Frocks, Alma McLean, Isabel McMillan, John McKechnie.

The correspondent would be grateful to any reader who has news they would like to see, sent in. Either phone or write and we will be glad to oblige.

Mrs Robinson, Oshawa, is visiting her daughter, Mrs Herb McInnes.

The new saw mill is now all closed in, a fine locking structure, reflecting great credit upon the moving go-ahead spirit of the McArthur Bros.

The chopping mill, also new, installed by Mr Earl McLeod is doing a fine business and good work. Pow-ching is from a crude oil consuming machine.

Mr John Stohart leaves this Monday morning on a trip to Florida, taking his brother-in-law, Mr Donaldson there for a change of climate. They are going via Detroit.

Mrs Walter Turnbull is still keeping very ill, if anything weaker. We hope she may soon recover.

The school children are uniting very creditably for the Christmas tree ornaments to be given on the 19th at the United Church and the 22nd at the Presbyterian place of worship. A complete change of program is prepared and promised for the two events.

Mr Shackleton, principal, and Miss E. McHugh, lower form teacher, are the moving spirits and figuratively, whipping them into line.

A near conflagration occurred here one morning last week when it was discovered Mr Reilly's blacksmith shop was on fire, underneath the stairway, from some unaccountable source. Owing to density of smoke, it was impossible to enter until both doors were opened, thereby creating a movement of air. Willing hands of those who were aware, soon applied water. It is thought two minutes more it would have been hopeless to save.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Mission Band was held in the Hall, on the 13th. The officers for 1931 are as follows: President, Norman McInnes; Secretary, Margaret McLean; Treasurer, Tom Aldred; Look Out Com., Jamie Sutherland, Morley McInnes.

SWINTON PARK

We are enjoying real winter weather these days, which is if we remember, right in accordance with Mr Bowers' predictions, as he said first half of December not so mild.

On Friday night of last week, Miss Martin, teacher at Swamp College and her pupils entertained to a fine program and box social. The school was filled to capacity, the boxes sold like hot cakes under the hammer of Jack McConnell, but only one went over $2.

Miss Ritchie, teacher at Swinton, and pupils, are arranging for a concert in the Orange Hall Thursday evening, 13th Dec. We are sorry that some of the girls are sick and will not be able to have a full share in Christmas festivities. Also that Boothville school is closed this week on account of sickness in the section, their concert postponed. We wish for all those that are sick a speedy recovery, so that every child will be able to see Santa on or before Christmas, for he is sure coming now that there is sleighing.

We wish for Editor, staff and all readers of the Review a merry Christmas and many happy family reunions in remembrance of this, the only world-wide holiday. The people of this part of Proton, sympathize deeply with those who mourn the death of E. E. Hockridge, and especially for Mrs Hockridge, who we have all known so well in connection with her husband's affairs, they being active workers together for the welfare of all, both in church and other public affairs. The great gathering of people at the funeral Sunday was strong testimony of the esteem in which he was held, when both churches at Hopeville were filled during the service.

RICHARD HANNAM

And again on Sunday morning were we shocked by word from the telephone, that Mr Richard Hannam was dead. Mr Hannam was born just west of the office of J. Morrison, and here he lived, honored and respected by all, until 10 years ago, when he sold his farm here and bought one on the outskirts of Guelph where he and family since, have successfully run a dairy business. Only meagre details are at hand but cause of death was being gored by a bull on Friday last. He passed away during Saturday evening. Dick Hannam was greatly esteemed here as a true friend and neighbor, always ready to help, even to do a little more than his share. He gave of his best to this neighborhood, rejoicing with those who rejoiced and sympathized with all who were in trouble. There is left to mourn his wife, who was Catherine Duka of Glenelg, two daughters, Evelyn, now teaching at Toronto and Irene at home; two sons, Richard Jr., who has been his father's right hand for several years and partner in business and Herbert H., secretary in the office of J. Morrison, Toronto, and working in the interests of the Farmers' party in Ontario. Much sympathy is expressed for all by their neighbors here, in this their great sorrow. Old neighbors mourning his wife, who was Catherine Duka of Glenelg, two daughters, Evelyn, now teaching at Toronto and Irene at home; two sons, Richard Jr., who has been his father's right hand for several years and partner in business and Herbert H., secretary in the office of J.
