Former Glenelg Man Loses out on Potatoes

The following concerning a former resident of Glenelg Tp. now a baker in Chesley, appears in last week's Enterprise. Mrs Patterson is a daughter of Mrs. J. E. Atkinson, of Edge Hill.

At the sitting of the Division Court here last Thursday, the only case of public interest to come before Judge Owens, was the suit of J. E. Patterson, baker and grocer of Chesley, to recover $25 from Edgar Maurer of 7th con, Elderslie for frozen potatoes sold to Patterson. On Nov. 6, 1929, Maurer brought a load of potatoes to town and disposed of a quantity to Patterson at $1.05 per 90 lb bag, amounting to $22.85, for which he paid Maurer by check. Patterson sold one bag of the potatoes to Mrs Yeomans and another to Mrs McKelvie, both of this town. The purchasers claimed the potatoes were frozen and asked for their money back and Patterson returned to both what they had paid. He then went down to inspect the potatoes and found water on the outside of the bags of potatoes. Patterson promptly notified the managers of the town bank not to pay the check and wrote Maurer to come and take his potatoes away. Maurer came in and admitted the potatoes on the outside of the bags were frozen and offered to pick them over. $25 was a-ferred to him as the new price to be paid.

Patterson paid Maurer the amount agreed on in cash. Subsequently all the potatoes went bad and Patterson threw them out and sued for the return of his $25. C. H. Woods, solicitor for Patterson, argued before Judge Owens that the second transaction was a continuation of the first, namely, a sale by description with a warranty on Maurer's part that the potatoes were in fit condition after being picked over and were in a marketable condition and fit for use, but the judge ruled that in the second transaction Patterson was bound to inspect the potatoes at his own risk and not having done so, the case was dismissed with costs. The decision was strictly on a point of law and the lesson to be learned by the public is not to make a second bargain when making a deal until the first is satisfactorily adjusted. C. E. Start of Tara was solicitor for the defendant.

May Drill for Oil

Probability that oil will be located in the district between Teeswater and Wingham as predicted last summer, is being followed up by a Toronto firm, which has representatives in the area interviewing farmers and securing contracts to drill on their land. The representatives have not stated if they will drill or not, but are procuring the contracts so as to keep other firms out of the running. The contract calls for the owner of the land to receive every eighth barrel during two years of production.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST BIBLE CLASS

Such is the Men's Bible Class in Toronto, conducted from Sunday to Sunday by Denton Massey, President of Massey-Harris Co. Ltd. Six years ago in a small way it was organized and on Sunday last in Massey Hall, 2300 men gathered on the occasion of the sixth anniversary of its inauguration. What a tribute to the personnel and officials of the class, that such results can be also what a tribute to the leader and speaker, that he can draw, -yes, that is the word- 2300 men to hear something of the finer things of life. The influence behind the speaker for good is untold and he holds in the hollow of his hand, the moral welfare of this vast assemblage. Sunday last, Mr Massey dwelt on the sixth anniversary phase of the situation, but also stated their very success may be their undoing and warned his audience to be as zealous and active as they were in the early stages of the class.

But Mr Massey carries a larger radius of influence than his immediate class in Toronto. Each Sunday the radio broadcast sends it to thousands of homes, and there are those who 'listen in' who would not dream of entering a church door. The letters Mr Massey receives each week from his radio audience are indicative of the appreciation of his message.

J. C. Telford, O. Sound, Dies suddenly Friday

While Watching a game of Curling in Owen Sound rink, expires on chair. Manager of Sovereign Bank in Durham.—Well liked by all.

It came as a shock to many Durham friends to learn Saturday of the unexpected death of John C. Telford in Owen Sound the previous evening. He was sitting in the Grey curling rink watching his favorite game being played on the ice before him, when he expired without warning. Only when his friends looked into his silent countenance and noticed the color gone and that he had slumped slightly in his chair, did they realize that the final summons had come to him. He had skipped two games that day and the exertion had been too great. "J. C." or "Reddy," as he was popularly known, was well acquainted in Durham, having been manager of the Sovereign Bank here for two or three years about twenty five years ago. When the Sovereign was dissolved, he returned to Owen Sound, since when he has been chief accountant for Lemon Bros., wholesale grocers, now affiliated with National Grocers, Ltd. He was born at Annan, near Owen Sound, over sixty years ago, and was the son of the late W. P. Telford, ex M. P. for North Grey. He received his school education in Owen Sound, and joined the staff of the Bank of Hamilton there, later rising to the management in Chesley, Mt. Forest, Orangeville, Wingham and Jarvis. He was always recognized as a keen and competent business man, but it was as a sportsman that he was perhaps better known among his fellows and throughout the province. His reputation was more than local, as he had participated in all lines of good, clean, amateur sport all his life. He was unusually proficient in any sport he played and he displayed that true and upright spirit of sportsmanship, which endeared him equally to those who were associated with him as well as those who were his opponents. It can truly be said of him that he always "played the game." While he was just a very young man he displayed a love of the outdoor sports and he played association football, cricket, baseball, lawn tennis, lawn bowling, golf and played lacrosse with enthusiasm. He also was a member of the old Orangeville Dufferin club when the team won the championship of Ontario. He played Rugby football with the Hamilton Tigers years ago when they also carried off a championship, while his conquests on the lawn bowling greens and in the curling rinks of the province were too numerous to mention. He was a member of one of the Owen Sound rinks which captured the Ontario Tankard in 1917 and it was his intention to go to Toronto next week to skip a Tankard rink. He loved the game and was one of its ablest exponents in Owen Sound. He also took a keen interest in music and while in Durham, was a valued member of the bass section of the Presbyterian choir. In Owen Sound for years he was a member of the Division Street Church choir, going to the time of church union with the Presbyterians to St. Andrew's Church. He was president of that organization this year. He was also a valued member of the Orpheus Chorus which has a number of years delighted O. Sound audiences. He was a citizen of the highest type, and took an active interest in political affairs, and was a past president of the Liberal Association of North Grey, retiring from that position only three or four years ago. He was a bachelor and is survived by two brothers, W. P. Telford, ex M.P., Owen Sound and Robert Telford in the Customs Department at Ottawa and one sister, Miss Euphemia Telford, who resided with him in Owen Sound. The funeral was held Monday afternoon. After a private service, a public service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. F. Strachan in St. Andrew's Church.

264 Apply for Old Age Pension in Grey Co.

At Grey Co. Council last week the Old Age Pensions Board for 1930 was appointed as follows: Reeve W. L. Field, Collingwood Tp; Reeve S. H. Brees, Chesley; Deputy Reeve John Helges, Holland Tp.; Reeve Chas. Holm, Normanby Tp. and Co. Clerk Fred H. Rutherford. Reeve Corbett, Arden, who retired from the Board, declared that Dr David Jamieson, chairman of the Old Age Pensions Board of the Province, had recently told him that since the summer the work of the local Board had been perfectly satisfactory. The 1930 Old Age Pensions Board presented a report. Thirty seven applications were dealt with on Dec. 3, 4 and 5, 12 being passed, 24 held over for further information and one refused. On Jan. 21, 22 and 23, forty three applications were dealt with, 33 being passed, 5 held over for more information and 5 refused. During the year 264 applications have been dealt with.

O. S. Hospital asks larger Grant County Clerk F. H. Rutherford read a letter from the Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital Board, asking for a grant of $1,000 this year, the same grant that the county used to make some years ago. It was later cut to $500 but the Hospital Board stated that, owing to the present depression, having seriously affected the hospital's finances a larger grant would be needed this year. On a motion of Reeves McCauley and Mercer of Flesherton and Markdale respectively, the County Roads Com. was instructed to bring in an early report as to the advisability of paving Flesherton, Markdale and Meaford connecting links in 1931. The Council decided to ask the province for the usual grant for road work.

Salvation Army asks Relief Though the Council did not do much business Friday p.m. it had a busy morning. Staff Captain Forbes of the Salvation Army addressed the Council, urging that the Council grant $350 to the Army Shelter's London Rescue Home for unmarried mothers. Capt. Forbes gave the Council some details regarding the work of this Rescue home. Seven Grey Co. mothers were cared for last year, he stated. Mother and child are inmates of the home for approximately a year. During this time the upkeep amounts to $3 a week for a mother and child. The amount spent last year was approximately $14,000, while receipts totaled approximately $9,600. Capt. Forbes then urged the council to be generous in their grant. He answered a number of questions asked by members of the Council.

HENRY WISE WOOD RETIRES

At the age of 70, after almost 20 years as leader of the United Farmers of Alberta, a party which he himself founded and under democratic forms, controlled continuously from its inception, Henry Wise Wood of Calgary, has laid down the reins of leadership. Recently the annual convention of the body accepted his resignation and after receiving part of their constitution which would have forbidden it, appointed president in his stead, Robert Gardner, M. P., the leader of the United-Farmers-of-Alberta group in the Federal house. Mr Gardner is known to be an able economist, thinker and critic, whose speeches frequently adorn the pages of Hansard. At the short session of the present parliament before the Imperial Conference he was, with Mr. Weiszworth, the chief critic of the Bennett government's fiscal policies then enacted by steam-roller meth-

County Road Committee Now Three Members Only

At County Council last week, the sum of $55,000 was appropriated for maintenance and repairs of the county highways and $120,000 for construction work on these highways, making a total of $175,000 appropriated for county highways, the same sum as appropriated last year. A bill-law to authorize the Co. Treasurer to borrow $300,000 from the chartered banks of the city was given first and second readings. E. Reeves W. L. Taylor, Osprey, was appointed the County's representative on the Suburban area commission. In committee of the whole it was decided that $40,000 will be spent on suburban roads area this coming year, of which sum the province pays half, the city of Owen Sound one quarter and the county one quarter.

3 Elected to Co. Roads Co. The matter of the appointment of a County Roads Com. was next considered. Under the amended Highway Improvement Act this com. is to consist of either 3 or 5 members respectively and the Warden of the County, Reeve Field of Collingwood and Reeve Holm, Normanby, maintained that a Com. of 3 could do the work and the expense of this com. would be less than that of a com. of five. Council decided to appoint a com. of three, one to hold office for three years, one for two years and one for one year. In this manner a member will be appointed each year for a term of three years. Even if defeated in an election the member does not lose his seat on the committee. The Co. Roads com. elected are Reeve Thompson, of Euphrasia to serve 3 years, Reeve Corbett, Arden, 2 years and Reeve Hunter, of Egremont, 1 year. The Com. chose Reeve Thompson as chairman.

GREEN GROVE

Misses Laura and Selina Truax, of Mt Forest, spent a few days with Mr and Mrs Wm Lawrence.

DORNOCH

Wanted: By our local grocer, a person well informed on present-day conditions, to convince the buying public of Dornoch, that the so-called depression is over and now is the time to buy. Mr Cam McLean spent the week end with Mr Art McIntosh. Mr and Mrs Cliff Buechler spent Sunday at the parental home. Messrs Artie McIntosh and Howard Smith took a sleigh load of Dornoch fans to the game at Durham, Friday and report a good time, but for the return trip which developed into a sort of acrobatic and marathon test, a sort of survival of the fittest. Messrs Artie McIntosh, Cam McLean and A. D. McIntyre spent Saturday evening with Mr and Mrs Jas. Crutchley. Mr and Mrs Duncan Morrison spent Sunday afternoon with Mr and Mrs Colin McIntyre. The Dornoch Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society held their monthly meeting in the schoolroom of the church Monday. Mr Jas Vasey, Jr. spent a few days in Toronto lately. Mrs Totten is spending a few days with Mrs Jas. Sullivan before leaving for her home in Besteville, Sask.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

The U.F.W.O. will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs L. McLean on Feb. 13th. It is expected the ladies will hand in their coppers at this meeting. The losing side will put on a St Patrick's Day program next month. Mrs J. W. McKechnie and daughter Islay, were in attendance at the funeral of their cousin, Mrs Lynn, in Owen Sound Saturday. Mr and Mrs Neil McLean and family, were visitors Saturday with Mr and Mrs Andy Hastie, Crawford. Mr and Mrs Thos McClocklin spent an evening this week with Mr and Mrs L. McLean. Messrs Wm and Joe Crutchley were week end visitors with Markdale friends. Miss Corinne Lawrence was a recent visitor with Miss Margaret McLean. Our school was closed on Friday and fumigated as a precautionary measure against the fever. There has been no cases in the neighborhood and it is hoped it is stamped out in other sections now.

ZION

Miss M. E. Lyons spent the week end with her parents, at Harkaway. Miss Clara Greenwood, R.N. Owen Sound, is visiting at her home here. Mrs M. Smith returned home on Thursday after a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs Kenneth Vaughan, Arthur. Mr and Mrs Ed Cook, Palmerston; Mrs W. J. McPadden and Miss Gladys, Orange Valley, spent the week end with Mr and Mrs W. J. Cook. Mr and Mrs W. Clark and family, visited the first of week with Rocky friends. Mr W H Edwards spent the week end at the parental home. Mrs W. R. Jack attended the funeral of her cousin, Mrs Lynn of O. Sound last Saturday. Mr and Mrs Philip Harrison and daughter, Swinton Park, spent a day recently at the Nelson home. Glad to report that Mrs M. Black and Mr Willie Quillan are improving after their recent illness.

Rocky W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs Jas. Ewen, with an attendance of 9 members. The meeting was opened with prayer by the President, followed by hymn 262. The scripture reading was taken from Psalm 103. Mrs Vessie led in prayer after which hymn 657 was sung. The minutes of last meeting were read by Mrs McQuarrie in the absence of the Sec'y, Miss C. Fletcher. The roll call was taken and 9 members responded and collection amounted to $1.42. Mrs Vessie sang an appropriate solo. Two good papers were given by Mrs Ewen on 'The Light of Morning' and one by Mrs Vessie, on 'Capt John Coult's.' Mrs McQuarrie read an extract on Rev John Goforth. After the closing prayer, Mrs Ewen served refreshments. The next meeting of the Society will be held March 4, at home of Miss Helen Watson.

THE PROPHET JOB AND 1931 A long time ago there was a man by the name of Job—who went through a great deal of trouble. It was a testing time for him. He had many sheep, asses, camels, oxen and seven sons and three daughters, but bad times came upon him and he lost all of them. Then to make things worse he was smitten with sore boils from the soles of his feet unto the crown of his head. In his troubles people came to see him and told him it served him right. In to-day's language they told him his beliefs were wrong and that he shouldn't have bought an automobile or the extra hundred acres, or that his wife that new fangled washing machine. But through it all Job insisted that he was right and righteousness. He had had a hard time of it for a long period. But conditions eventually got better and he had twice as many oxen, sheep, asses and camels as he had before and was again blessed with seven sons and three daughters and lived to see his great-grandchildren. No matter what our troubles have been let us have courage and work for better things in 1931.—Kincardine News.
