A number from Edge Hill line attended the funeral of the late J. S. Black: also from Priceville vicinity. When living at Pomona a few years ago, he said in a joky manner that he liked to keep as near the cemetery as possible.
Mrs Hill of Durham is not very well at present: she is in her 98th year. She is grandmother of Mrs Arthur Edge.

BUNESSAN

The Superior U.F.Y.P.O. Club met at the home of the 'Macfarlane' members on March 9, with 27 present. The meeting opened with community singing and the minutes of last meeting were heard and adopted. The roll call was answered by an Irish joke. An enjoyable piano solo was given by Miss Priest. A paper on 'Ireland and St Patrick' was prepared and read by Mrs D L McArthur. We listened to a talk from Miss Emma Oliver, telling about her trip to the Yukon last summer. Miss Oliver made us all feel as though we did wish we had been along. Miss Priest then favored us with a solo 'The Dear Little Shamrock' and responded with 'Killarney.' The Gazette, both humorous and instructive, was ably prepared and read by Miss Winnie Binnie. A short play entitled 'While you wait', was presented by three young lady members, viz: Elizabeth McGillivray, Margaret Macfarlane and Annabelle McArthur. The National Anthem closed the program. All took part in several contests, after which refreshments were served.

HOPEVILLE

Mr and Mrs W R Scott spent Monday with his parents, at Coma. The monthly institute meeting, to be held at Mrs Hockridge's last Wednesday, was postponed to Tuesday of this week, owing to storm and poor condition of roads last week. Mr Geo. Wale returned to his position in Toronto Friday after recuperating at home for a month. Mr Oliver Milner and bride, Miss Annale McLean, who were recently wed in Toronto, have been receiving the good wishes of many friends, while spending a few days of their honeymoon here.

Mrs R. Howells who visited with Mrs E E Hockridge, has returned to her home at Cedarville. After a long siege of illness, most of the time in Mt Forest Hosp., we are pleased to know Master Charlie Dyer is back home again and able to be out to play awhile. Mrs Will McKinney spent a few days with her mother, Mrs Andrew Rodgers.

The United W.M.S. are having a quilting at the home of Mrs Fred Sageman Wednesday. Pleased to know Mrs Wm McEachnie is now making good improvement tho' still in a weak condition. Mr and Mrs Will Reid and Miss Jessie Merchant, Yeovil, were visitors Saturday at W R Scott's. Miss Hilda Hockridge, Cedarville, spent over the week end with her aunt, Mrs E. Hockridge.

Mrs Gerald Glass and baby daughter, Toronto, are visiting her mother, Mrs J W Armstrong. A number have been more or less indisposed with flu, which seems to go hardest with small children. Baby Yvonne Christie has been quite sick a few days, but is now on the mend. Born on March 4th, at Western Hospital, Toronto, to Mr and Mrs. Bert Gillies, 110 Harcourt Ave., a daughter.

Mr Jno McEachnie was in Toronto closing a real estate deal—the exchange of his farm, the former Trout place, for two houses in the city. The Brant family, coming to take up residence here, will greatly aid in the repopulation of our rural district. In the family, eight children and son-in-law are the family. Farm life will certainly be a change but we hope they will be able to adapt themselves to it. At any rate we never hear tell of any unemployment on the farm, unless voluntary.

The whole community was shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Neenan Ivan Scott, age 1 year, 8 mos, son of Mr and Mrs W R Scott. The little fellow was seized with croup and pneumonia and in spite of all that could be done amid much suffering, he passed away on the evening of March 4th. With his parents two brothers, Alvin and Dalton, are left. The funeral service was held on March 6th, Mr G. Prosser having charge of service, taking his text from Matt 19: 14 'Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.' Two little girls, Annie May and Willa Jack upon request, sang 'Singing around the throne.' Interment was made in Ventry cemetery.
