New Teacher for Durham Staff
Durham Public School Board has engaged Miss Jessie Twamley, daughter of Mr and Mrs Robert Twamley, of town, as a teacher on the staff of the school, in one of the first grade rooms, to succeed Miss Elma Ball, resigned.

Waikerton Council has the Idea
Since Waikerton Town Council decided that hotel meals for transients are too expensive to keep up, they have reverted to a less expensive system. Chief Ferguson hands out to these visiting vagrants, one loaf of bread, six one quart of milk for total 15c. This has made a big difference in the town's crop of free tourists, to the former outlay of five a meal, and the town is noting the falling off of this trade as a result.

Town Girls defeated High School
Experience told on Wednesday night when Durham girls trimmed Durham H. S. in softball to the tune of 21 to 5. The teams were: Town—Christine McCulloch, pitcher; Sarah McCulloch, catcher; Winnie Blyth, Mrs J. McLachlan, Mrs B. Morlock, Barbara Ritchie, Myrtle Lawrence, Blanche Boyce, H. Moore. High School—Alma Kress and Anna Ritchie, pitchers; Mayple Armstrong, catcher; Violet Armstrong, Audrey Bell, E. Han Collinsen, Louise Jamieson, Gertrude Glass, Claire Traynor.

Chicken Thieves Again Busy
On Monday night, the chicken house of Mrs Arch. Thompson, Rocky Saugeen, was raided, the raiders making a complete get-away. Mrs. Thompson is not sure of the number gone, but estimates it to be about 20, most of them Plymouth Rocks. A number of them were in a crate near by, being fattened for market purposes and these were included in the number taken. There was no padlock on the door so the entry was an easy matter. Three years ago the same chicken house was raided and a similar number taken. The Thompsons have no clue but such sneak-thief work is bound to come to a head sooner or later.

Depositing Trout fry in Saugeen
In an effort to restore the Saugeen to its early fame as a trout stream, Councillor Roy Robertson of Walkerton, deposited 15,000 brown trout fry into the river at a spot where fingerlings can escape into some adjoining creeks should voracious pike attempt an attack on the colony. Mr Robertson has been importuning the Dominion Fisheries Dept. for the past year or so to restock the stream here, and finally his persistence brought results in a consignment of the species that the Dept. maintains will thrive lustily in such waters as the Saugeen. In a year or so this should be a good fishing ground, but in the meantime prosecutions will follow anybody caught removing trout from these waters less than 7 inches in length.—Walkerton Times.

Tenderly laid to Rest
The funeral of the late Mrs Mary E. Gun, widow of the late Dr. Jas. Gun, was held on Thursday afternoon last from her late residence. While the funeral was of a private nature, it allowed old friends of deceased and her family, to attend to pay their last respects to a lady who all revered for her sterling qualities of head and heart. It was gratifying to the family to have at this time, with them, deceased's former pastor, Rev. Dr. Wm. Farquharson, who accompanied her present pastor, Rev. B. D. Armstrong, over from Bruce Beach, where both are holidaying. Mrs Armstrong and Miss Jessie Farquharson were also with them. The pall bearers were all connections of the deceased and were her grandsons, Gordon and Russel Gun, Toronto; Dr Edward Lauder, Toronto; W. H. Lauder, Lt. Col. F. Hunter, D.S.O., O. S. Hunter, of Durham.

THE ROLL CALL

ARCHIE McLEAN

There passed his life eternal reward, on Monday, July 20, at Priceville, Arch McLean, age 60 years. For the past six months, deceased has been a sufferer from rheumatism, and since April has been bedfast. Despite medical skill and the best of home nursing, the boon of life was denied him and he passed away as above, deeply mourned by his family. Deceased has always been a resident or near resident of Priceville, having been born 1 1/4 miles south of the village. He was married about 34 years ago to Mary Ann Muir, a daughter of the late Duncan Muir. To them were born a family of four sons and one daughter, all at home, viz: Wreford, Earl, Neil, Donald and Alma. Also mourning his demise are his one sister, Mrs Ibbotson, Toronto, and six brothers, Colin, Donald, Jack and Malcolm of Priceville; Wm of Big Sandy, Montana and Sandy, of Watertown, South Dakota.

The funeral was held from his late residence Wednesday of this week, to McNeil's cemetery, conducted by Rev R. G. Stewart. The pall bearers were four brothers near by, Colin C. McLean, Angus McMillan, Chas McLean. The beautiful flowers were a silent testimony to deceased and consisted of a pillow from the family; a half circle from brothers; sprays from Colin McMillan, Mrs Duncan Muir, Mrs Wilfrid Watson, Miss M. McArthur. Flower bearers were: George and Cameron McLean, Hector Ibbotson, Donald Reiley.

C. R. ROBINSON

Charles Grant Robison who died recently in Edmonton, was born in Durham, and was well known throughout the province. He was President of the W. H. Clark & Co. Ltd., handling lumber, builders' supplies, mill work and plate glass, Edmonton. He was in his 60th year. He received his education in the public and high schools of Durham and O. Sound and graduated from Ottawa Normal School in 1895. For several years he taught schools in Ontario and later lectured at Duluth Business University. In 1904, he went to Edmonton and entered the firm of W. H. Clark & Co., Ltd. as secretary. He had been president since 1914 He was an Anglican in religion and was People's Warden in All Saints Cathedral, Edmonton. He was formerly a member of Edmonton Board of Trade and of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and a director of the Y.M.C.A. Surviving are his widow, formerly Miss Barbara McNabb, Toronto; one son, William, an undergraduate of Toronto University; one brother, John Robinson of Glenelg and four sisters, Mrs W. H. Clark, Edmonton; Mrs Geo. May, Saskatoon; Mrs Thos Flinn and Miss May Robison, both of Toronto. Interment was made in Edmonton.

Testing New Main
One of the pumps in the new pump house, north of Stone & Sand plant, was in operation last week, testing the new mains laid last winter. Several "leaks" developed which were pumped up to the standpipe. A good pressure was then revealed in upper town, when several hydrants were tested. Other mains have yet to be tried out. The standpipe will be filled probably some day this week and work in connecting services commenced.

Paving Progressing Well
The Dufferin Paving Co. are making good progress in laying the pavement towards Durham on No 6 highway, being now laid up to Orchard village, while the crest of the long hill, north of Orchard, has been removed. This will materially lessen the climb on both sides. The Co. also have the contract for paving four miles north of Durham this fall, and intend to have one of their two diggers at work north of town next week. By fall fair time, the pavement will probably be completed to town, giving us an all-paved highway to points south.

Held Successful Garden Party
Trinity Church Ladies' Guild, Durham, were unfortunate in running into a showery evening last Friday for their garden party, making postponement necessary until Monday night. Though the morning looked unpromising, the evening turned out fine, and a fair crowd assembled on the prettily decorated church grounds to enjoy the social time along with a splendid musical program by Hano-ver Band, About 20 strong, they furnished a real treat, to many music lovers with a most varied program, and rank among the best bands in the province. The tables, a general booth and fortune-telling tent, were all liberally patronized and the ladies will realize a fair amount, though not as much as last year.

Last Call comes Suddenly to Bentinck Farmer

Life and Death only a few minutes apart for Alex. Fletcher, of Bentinck

A shock that Aberdeen community in particular will feel for some time, was the startlingly sudden death, on Friday afternoon last of one of their most esteemed citizens and neighbors, Alexander Fletcher, in his 57th year. The last summons came in mid afternoon. On noting the approaching electrical storm, Mr Fletcher, who was working in the field, drove his team hurriedly to the stable, un hitched them and came forth to his house. It was fortunate that his sister Margaret had decided to remain home from the Branch Women's Institute meeting that day in the schoolhouse and it was she her brother addressed as he came in, washed his hands and sat on the kitchen sofa. It was simply on matters regarding the approaching storm and in a few moments, deceased was seen to incline to one side and all was over. It was a beautiful death, were it not for the sad hearts left behind. Medical aid was quickly summoned who pronounced it over exertion of the heart due to the approaching storm.

It is needless to state the shock to the community it was, who feel that one of their very best neighbors has gone from among them. The late Mr Fletcher was a son of the late Charles and Catherine Stewart Fletcher, who predeceased him 35 and 14 years ago, respectively. He was born on the farm on which he died, lot 24 on 3, Bentinck, and knew no other home. He was a steady, industrious and progressive farmer, and interested in everything that pertained to the welfare of his home and section. The loss of the brother to the sisters who formed the home circle, is very keen.

He is survived by five sisters, viz: (Julia); Mrs Chas McDougall, Calgary; (Cassie), Mrs Angus McKinnon of Castor, Alberta; (Mary), Mrs W. R. Riddell, Welbeck; (Robena), Mrs Wigg, Seaford; Misses Margaret and Charlotte at home. The funeral was largely attended to Rocky cemetery on Monday, Rev. Mr Armstrong, assisted by Rev Henley Crawford, having charge of services at house and graveside. Relatives present from a distance were Mr and Mrs Hugh Fletcher, Misses Margaret and Mary Fletcher, Mr Peter McKinnon, all of Paisley; Misses Jean and Ella McLean, Mr and Mrs Wm Muir, Gilbert Muir, Wm and Miss Muir, Mr and Mrs Wm Agnew, all of Chesley; Mr and Mrs Alex McMillan, Fleishcrton; Mrs John Murchison, Priceville; Robert Ferris and Wm Stewart, Swinton Park; Mrs Catherine Stewart, Proton Station. The pall bearers who carried the remains of their friend to his last resting place were Messrs Donald McLean, Arch McLean, Will McCracken, Albert Marshall, James McClelland, Malcolm McKechnie, Hugh McCormick, Peter McQuarrie. The floral contributions to worth of deceased, were beautiful and consisted of a pillow from sisters; sheafs from Mrs Dougall and Mrs McKinnon, Calgary; Mrs McLachlan and Miss Vida; Misses E. Cowan, Owen Sound; Aberdeen Women's Institute; Mr and Mrs Albert Marshall; Mr Albert Collebert, Hanover; Mr and Mrs Jas Heslett; Boys in Banks family, Glenoraud.

BARN AND CONTENTS DESTROYED NEAR PRICEVILLE

Mr Geo. Fisher who resides about a mile and a half from the village of Ceylon, towards Priceville, was lost his valuable barn by fire Sunday night, along with all its contents. How the fire occurred is a complete mystery to Mr Fisher. There was no electrical storm at the time and it was only when a man named Jack Boyce, a neighbor, saw flames issuing from the barn at 11.30 o'clock, that anyone was aware there was a fire there. He immediately ran to the house, woke the Fisher family who were sleeping, but by the time they were aroused the structure was a mass of flames and there was nothing that could be done to save it or its contents, and they just had to stand by and watch it burn to the ground. It was a spectacular fire and could be seen for many miles. The barn was insured to some extent, though the exact amount is unknown, but it will not cover the loss. Just now Mr Fisher feels his loss keenly, and the harvest is coming along fast, and provision will have to be made for storing his crop.

The scheduled game, Dufferin Paving at Furniture Co., which was postponed on Tuesday night owing to rain, will be played this Thursday evening.

Woods Sentenced and Fined for Operating Still

In last week's issue we reported the seizure of still, wum and a supply of contraband liquor at the home of Ben Woods, Egremont, and his subsequent trial at Owen Sound, on the charge of keeping liquor illegally, with fine of $100 and costs. Previous raids had been fruitless, but he was surprised Saturday, July 11, in the act of manufacturing on an extensive scale, presumably for sale, and all equipment confiscated.

The sequel took place last Friday and on Tuesday of this week, after action had been entered against Woods by Edward Floody, Dominion Revenue Preventive Officer, for operating a still in the Province of Ontario. The law now in force, passed at last session of the Legislature, provides a minimum fine of $200 and a minimum of one month jail term for conviction and this lightest possible sentence was imposed at his trial Tuesday by Magistrate Wm. Laidlaw. The maximum penalty is $2000 fine and a year's sentence.

Last Friday, Prov. Officer McClevis of Walkerton and Constable H. D. Scott of Durham, went to Mr Woods' home to make the arrest under this new charge, a warrant having been issued. Seeing the officers approaching the house, Woods slipped down clear and out through a window there when the officers had entered. Hiking across the field to the bush, during a severe lightning storm, Woods was noticed by the visitors, who quickly became his pursuers. In a boggy swamp, in the pouring rain, they caught up to him, took him into custody and served the $2000 bail, to appear for trial Tuesday, $1000 of it being furnished by Woods personally.

At his trial in Durham Police Court Revenue Officer Floody was present to prosecute, Mr Woods admitted making liquor the last eight years and offered no defense, pleaded guilty. The fine of $200 and $30 costs was paid forthwith, and Mr Woods conveyed that day to Owen Sound to commence his one month sentence.

Knox, Norby, has Good Anniversary Attendance

"The best yet," might be termed, in referring to the success of the Anniversary Services Sunday and Monday of Knox Presbyterian Ch., Normanby. Rev. Mr McCulloch, of Kincairdine, formerly of Harrison, gave thoughtful discourses Sunday morning and evening to a crowded church. A rare floral display of the section's bloom graced the choir rail and from which it was difficult to tear the eye away. The choir had prepared special music for the occasion and besides anthems at both services a duet was contributed in the morning by Mesdames C. McAlister and A. Marshall and a quartette in evening, by Misses Margaret Petty, Myrtle Marshall, Charlotte Patterson and Mrs Bert Barber.

Monday at Watson's schoolhouse, another large crowd assembled for the annual garden party. Rev Mr Honeyman was chairman and as well there were two other clergy to give speeches—the former pastor, Rev. Mr Purnell and Rev E. Hayes, Durham, who traced the different "garden parties" of Bible times. A male quartette from Mt Forest, was present, accompanied by Mr Gordon, who also contributed readings: the Bell quartette, Miss Hunter accompanying; Mr C. E. Graf, Durham, solos; Mrs Jas Leeson, Edith Hunter, Helen Hoy, readings; Messrs Queen, Elder and Rahn, instrumentalists.

Lunch was served at the close, $52 were the gate receipts.

FURN. CO. 15, HIGH SCHOOL 4

It was High School's off night last Saturday when the deciding game was played to break the tie for second place in 1st Schedule, the Hockey Club having previously coralled 1st place. The Furniture boys had an easy win, 15 to 4, counting 8 runs in 1st alone, when Hopkins' wildness in giving 5 walks and erratic fielding signified a High School blow up. The students threw wildly a gain in 4th and 5 more runs came in. Thereafter they played air-tight ball, but the damage was done. Furniture Co. played a steady game and made the best of their opportunities. They will meet the 2nd team of 2nd schedule in final play-offs next month.
