PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

On Sunday last, Mr and Mrs W. Ramage were favored by a visit from a friendly chum of military days, Mr Mac Cameron of Chatsworth, accompanied by Mrs Cameron and son Allan, and Mrs Kerr, a singer of note with an excellent range of voice. Mr Cameron and Mrs Kerr gave a fine duet and also a fine solo by the latter, at the service here in the United Church. She was honored by being made the recipient of a handsome bouquet at the close of the service. Many were the eulogiums given to both for the fine music rendered. Mrs Cameron accompanied them on the organ. A hearty welcome will be extended to them on another visit.

"Might have been worse," is the verdict given on the occasion of a car collision on Friday evening, which befel Mr F. Reiley's car when side-swiped by a car driven by Wm. Meads, who was averting collision with another car. By quick action on Mr Reiley's part who swiftly swerved to the side, further damage was averted on the highway between Flesherton and Cayton.

In honor of Miss Esther C. McLean, whose wedding to Mr. Neil Norman, Dundalk, takes place on Saturday, Mrs R. G. Stewart entertained at "The Mansie." Priceville on Friday night, June 19, at a miscellaneous shower. The guests numbered about 38. A cupid contest was much enjoyed, the prize winners being Mrs D. Campbell, Miss Jessie Nichol and Mrs Jack Nichol.

Mrs A. Sutherland favored the company with a pleasing solo. During the evening two daintily dressed little girls, Betty Watson and Agnes McMillan presented the bride-elect with a lovely decorated wagon filled with gifts of every description and Miss McLean replied in a few well chosen remarks, the company then joining in singing "For she's a jolly good fellow."

Mock 'telegrams' were then read from some well-known people in Canada, after which Mrs H. B. McLean sang a delightful solo "When your hair is turned to silver, I will love you just the same."

Lunch was served by the hostess, and the good wishes of all for joy and happiness follow Miss McLean into the "united" state.

The atmosphere has changed considerably and the cool weather is appreciated after the extreme heat.

Mr Clifford Hincek has been engaged to teach in Clifford in the Continuation School.

Mr and Mrs A. L. Hincek and family visited friends in Proton first of the week. Mrs Angus McCannell returned home with them for a visit.

Sorry to hear that Mrs Kate McArthur isn't enjoying very good health. Hope she may soon be up and around again.

Mr Clifford and Beth Hincek returned home from Toronto Normal Sch. on Saturday night.

Miss Jean McLean returned to Toronto Saturday after spending a few holidays here.

Miss Catherine MacMillan, R. N., left first of the week to nurse in Dunville hospital.

and Mrs Hugh McLean, con 14, Proton, a son.
We are sorry to hear that Arch McKinnon of con 14, is not improving in health, also that Mrs McKinnon is a great sufferer. We hope that soon there may be an improvement.

We pitied very much in the warm days last week, those hard-working members of Parliament in Ottawa, and we thought if only they could change places with a like number of unemployed, for a few weeks, how they would enjoy it. And Bennett laughed!

Mr and Mrs Noble Wilson motored to Toronto last week and brought back with them, Mrs Wilson, Sr. for a short visit. This old lady still enjoys a fair measure of health. Mr and Mrs Peter McCrae, nee Bertha Wilson, and family, of Glen Morris, were week end visitors at the Wilson homes here.

HYMENEAL

HANNAM — DALES
A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Thursday, June 18, in the Church of Mary Immaculate, Chestow, which was decorated for the occasion with hydrangeas, iris and poinsettias of various shades, when Margaret Ann, daughter of Mr and Mrs Peter Dales, Caregill, became the bride of Richard Wilfrid, son of Mrs Hannam and the late Mr Richard J. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a two piece ensemble of poudre blue georgette with insets of radium lace and lace jacket, hat of the same shade, of fancy braid with drooping brim, and carried a bouquet of sweet heart roses, orange blossoms and maiden hair fern.

Preceding the bride was her bridesmaid, Miss Irene Hannam, sister of the groom, wearing a frock of canary crepe rib, dotted with pink and white. She carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was assisted by Mr Jos Dales, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, only immediate relatives being present. The table was daintily decorated with yellow roses and orange blossoms and was centred with a three-storey wedding cake.

Two small nieces of the bride, both sweetly attired in little pink frocks, Irene Love acting as flower girl, carrying an old-fashioned nosegay and Lorraine Campbell as ring bearer, made a pretty picture. Miss Jean McCannell, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music.

A wedding luncheon was afterwards served, the table centred with a wedding cake and decorated with roses.

Later the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Muskoka and other points, the bride travelling in a beige figured ensemble with hat, shoes and bag to match.

A host of good wishes follow Mr. and Mrs Hooper to their new home, 37 Pepplar Ave, Toronto.

It was a slaughter for the High Sch. Tuesday night, when the Furniture crew, who are playing snapper ball every time out, were easy victors by a 13-3 score. Two of H. S. regulars—Noble and Turnbull, were absent, but even with them, it is improbable they could have averted the defeat.

Each side pulled off a double play. The factory boys won by healthy wallops, McClyment and Tucker hitting homers, McClyment and Kress three-baggers, and Tucker and Becker doubles, 9 hits in all, to 4 singles for the High School.
