Splendid Exhibits and Weather at Egremont's Fair

With the usual fine weather prevailing, Egremont Ag. Society's annual fall fair at Holstein Wednesday was a most successful event.

The crowd was also there, but slightly less in numbers than last year, still the gate receipts approximated $200.00.

Horses and cattle were numerous and of good quality. It was no light task for a Judge to face no fewer than eight span of working horses and most of the other classes were well represented.

As usual, the cattle classes were well filled, sheep and swine also. An amusing stunt was a calf race, each calf led by some one, in the confidence of the calf, the leader to be under 12 years.

The exhibits in the Hall were fully up to the mark of the best of other years. Potatoes were never better, to say the least, fruit looked well and a monster pumpkin led the vegetables in size.

Mount Forest band were busily engaged during the day dispensing fine music.

It was a fine Show and officers and directors are to be congratulated. In evening, the Agricultural Hall was well filled and also on Monday night when the comedy, 'The Absent-Minded Bridgeman', was presented by Holstein Dramatic Society.

The Agricultural Society was favored with splendid weather for the first day of the Fair. There are so many exhibits in the Hall, that had there been many more, the Hall would have to be enlarged.

Rev Mr Leggett, Toronto, took the services in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Mr and Mrs R. Christie entertained Rev and Mrs Leggett while here.

Mrs Urquhart, Mrs Roberts, Mrs. Baum (Agnes Evans), of Detroit, are visiting Mrs Hostetter.

BUSINESS PROPOSITIONS

... your Farm and your Bank

TODAY, the up-to-date farmer considers his farm as much a business proposition as the manufacturer does his factory.

The bank likewise is a business organization—its principal function is the buying and selling of credit.

It buys credit from its depositors. To these people it owes its existence, and to them it owes its first duty—the protection of their savings.

The bank's further duty is to those of its customers to whom it sells credit.

The Bank of Montreal is always glad to receive, from the farmer and the business man, applications for loans. It welcomes these applications as a matter of every day business.
