Clifford Brethren Install I.O.O.F. Officers

Thirteen was a lucky number when that many of the brethren of Clifford Lodge fraternized with Grey Lodge on Monday night, when their installation team, headed by Dist. Deputy Grand Master Walter Fulton, ably installed the local officers for the ensuing half-yearly term.

The newly elected officers are: J. F. Grand—Robt. Hughes; Noble Grand—Harry Falkingham; Vice Grand—Seth Trafford; Rec. Sec'y, B. Stonehouse; Fin. Sec'y, W. J. McGirr; Treasurer, A. C. Kinnee; R.S.N.G., T. Whitmore; L.S.N.G.—W. McDonald; Warden, Rev. E. Hayes; Conductor, W. Moore; R.S.S., R. Ledingham; L.S.S., Mack Graham; I. G. J. Tray.

nor: O.G., W. G. Ritchie; RSVG, Norman Ritchie; LSVG, Clarence McGirr; Chaplain, Wilfrid Thompson.

A pleasing feature of the night was the presentation of twenty five year veteran's jewels to Past Grands Wm J. and Chas Ritchie and Bro. W. J. McFadden. These were presented by Past Grands J. A. Graham, Robt. Hughes and Rev. W. H. Smith.

Following the ceremony, the ladies of Lady Grey Rebekah Lodge served a beautiful lunch and the social time was continued in speeches, song and music by visiting and local brethren, with Past Grand Rev. W. H. Smith presiding. Bro. Kelsey of Clifford, a 78-year old veteran and 54 years an Oddfellow, entertained with violin and mouth organ selections. There was a splendid turn out of the local brethren.

Depressions are like many others things, says the Shelburne Economist—the more you talk about them the worse they become.

PATRONIZE THE TOWN LIBRARY

Once the month of October sets in and longer evenings are ours, the mind takes up where the body leaves off. During summer months the outdoor life has the first appeal and call, but once the lengthening shadows creep in, we turn over a leaf and delve into a book. Who does not enjoy a good book? What about the story that fairly makes the eyes dance and hair bristle as the thrilling climax is brought to a close. So much for a detective story. Who does not love a book that brings out the wonderful story of the trials and struggles and later the crowning triumph of a great man? So much for biography. Who does not revel in the story of the opening up of the British nation and of its great political leaders and their ambitions? So much for history.

And so on. One could go on indefinitely. But just let us say that all these pleasures await you in our own Public Library. Here, there is as fine a range of books as may be found in many a town larger than Durham. The Town Council give an $800 grant annually for the upkeep of this institution, all for the benefit of the citizens. This is yours to enjoy. Why not make more use of it?

GOLD TUMBLES STILL

As foreshadowed last week, other countries which have stood out on the gold basis have had to follow the fall of the pound. Sweden and Norway have taken the plunge in order to check the rapid withdrawal of gold, and Denmark will follow. Countries that have recovered the gold basis on a new level, one which weighed out, either partially or altogether, all possessions of their people which consisted of promises to pay gold, may also be shaken. The early result should be a rise in prices and a speeding up of business. The problem which faces the financial world is what way can be found to act as a regulator of pressure, so that each denomination of current money will always represent the same value in human labor and in human needs. This system should be, and will soon be, international. It should be adopted by both silver and gold countries which could thus avoid the jars at present caused, by the varying values of silver in gold or gold in silver. The falling value in gold will cut wages and doles and incomes in a much fairer way than any arbitrary cuts can do it, and against which labor cannot raise the hue and cry of being robbed by wealth. The pay checks can read as before but now they will mean what they did when present rates of wages and doles and incomes were fixed. Instead of meaning much more than was intended. The trouble is that the become easy, but can easily become dangerous as the brakes have yet to be discovered.

THE ROLL CALL

DUNCAN LIVINGSTONE

On Thursday morning, Oct. 1st, there passed away a most respected and much beloved resident of the community, in the person of Duncan Livingstone, at the age of 81 years and 4 mos. The late Mr Livingstone was born in Mull, Argyshire, Scotland, in 1850, and some time later with his parents and other members of his family came to Canada, sailing from Glasgow.

The family first settled in Vaughan township, York Co., but remained there only 1 year, when they took up a homestead on lot 29, con 9, Bentnick. Mr Livingstone was one of the early residents of this place: when the family settled here, it was principally all bush, the deceased helping to clear the land and other work which fell to the early settlers. With his sister, Miss Christina, he lived most of his life on the farm, with the exception of a number of years in the west and by their many excellent qualities made many friends. Their home has always radiated generous hospitality.

Deceased was a faithful member of Crawford Presbyterian Church, latterly the United Church and regularly attended its services when in good health. In politics, he was an ardent Liberal.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, his pastor, Rev Mr Heeny, of the United Church, Elmwood and Crawford, preaching an eloquent and comforting sermon. The hymns chosen were 'Nearer my God to thee', and 'Asleep in Jesus'. The large concourse which attended the funeral and followed the remains to the cemetery, showed the high esteem in which he is held. The pall bearers were Arch. McDougall, Robt Twamley, A. C. McDonald, Edward Boyce, Dougald McDonald, Donald McDonald.

The beautiful floral tributes were carried by young men, representing the homes of relatives: Earl Livingstone, Jack Cameron, Jack McMeekin. Besides many friends and relatives from Durham, Hanover, Elmwood and Hampden, there were some from a longer distance: Mr and Mrs Geo. Flanagan, Mr and Mrs Thomas Grant, Mrs Brown, Owen Sound; Mr Nell McKinnon and daughter Annie, and Mrs Harrison, Shallow Lake; Mrs McGillivray and son Leslie, Mr and Mrs Jas Stumpson and son Alister, Mrs Stewart and Mr McLeod and Mr Murray McGillivray, Paisley; Mrs Cameron and sons Duncan and John, Mr Angus McPherson, Tiverton; Mrs McMeekin and son Jack, Miss Minnie Livingstone, Mr and Mrs McKinnon, Priceville; Mr and Mrs Hayward and Mrs Mepham, Hamilton; Wm Livingstone, London.

The deceased was a man much respected in the neighborhood for his straight-forward character and obliging disposition. To the sister, the sympathy of the community is extended most sincerely.

HYMENEAL

MacDonald — Wickens

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse, Flesherston, on Saturday evening Oct. 3, by Rev. Mr Scott, when Gladys T. Wickens, second daughter of Mr and Mrs John Wickens, Kimberley, was united in marriage to Mr Royden McDonald, eldest son of Mr and Mrs. Arthur MacDonald of Durham. The bride wore a lovely gown of emerald green georgette with thifton velvet, with matching accessories. Assisting her was Miss Gladys V. Mighton of Durham, in a lighter shade of green, with accessories to match. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr Willard A. MacDonald of Durham. Later Mr and Mrs MacDonald left on a motor trip to North Bay and other points and on their return will make their home in Flesherston.

Now that summer has passed on, leaving behind it memories of bowling greens and summer cottages, of blistered backs, of ice cream, clothes and one-piece bathing suits, this is a good place to wise-crack "that a bathing suit is a garment with no hooks but plenty of eyes."

WEPPLER — GERHARDT

A quiet wedding was solemnized at 12 noon on Saturday, Sept. 26, at St. Peter's Lutheran Church Parsonage, Neustadt, when Eldon Andrew Weppeler, son of Mr and Mrs Henry Weppeler of Glenelg, and Catherine (Katie) Emma Gerhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Henry Gerhardt, of near Ayton, were united in marriage by Rev. Edgar Milleville. There were no attendants. The bride looked charming, attired in pale blue crepe, with other matching accessories. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple motored to the home of the bride's parents, 10th con, Normandy, where a wedding dinner was served, and later left for New Dundee, near Kitchener, where a reception was tendered them that evening by the bride's sister, Mrs Norman Hilgart. Other points visited were Stratford, Mitchell and Toronto. The happy couple returned to Durham on Thursday evening, where they will take up residence, the groom being manager of the U.F.O. Co-operative store. On Monday evening of this week, another reception was tendered them at bride's parental home in Normandy.

The best of wishes are tendered the young couple by their many friends.

Of course, her friends did all they could to keep her cheerful — her room was a bower of roses — but how she looked forward to evening when Jack could sit by her and talk of his day at the office. Then came the news that he must leave town on business. She wondered how she could stand the wait until he came home. But Jack, wise fellow, knew how to bridge the gap.
