SECTIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITED CHURCH AT HANOVER

A W. M. S. Sectional Conference was held in Trinity United Church, Hanover on Monday last. Eight Auxiliaries comprised the district represented. The morning session which was ably presided over by Mrs. E. C. Murray, Fiesheron, was opened with devotional exercises conducted by Lamah Auxiliary. Reports were given by Presbyterian Secretaries on 'Christian Stewardship and Finance'; C.G.I.T. work; Mission Bands and Baby Bands and the discussion after each report was interesting and helpful. At the 1.45 session, devotional exercises were conducted by the Elmwood branch. The roll was called, each auxiliary responding by answering three questions in relation to their particular society. Mrs. Frank Rae, a member of the Dominion Bd., then addressed the meeting. She took as her text 'An Auxiliary in every congregation and every woman a member.' Miss Elizabeth Hawken, Wahstoa, Alta., now home on furlough, gave a vivid picture of the life and work of the missionary among the Ukrainian people and the advantages of the School Home in their midst. Miss G. Cass, (home from Korea), being in the audience, was called to the platform and spoke briefly. Mrs. Rae conducted a round table conference from which much information could be gleaned. A pleasing solo was rendered by Mrs. Graff, Hanover. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the 'Theme' song and prayer by the President, Mrs. W. D. Staples. Present from Durham were Misses M. Hunter, W. Blyth, M. McGirr, Mesdames Mortley, R. Ledingham, R. Twamley, H. McCrae, P. Gagnon, W. R. Alder, W. H. Smith, R. Smith, C. Klinec, T. E. Brown, J. N. Perdue, Jas. Mather, J. S. McIlraith.

THE TRUE SPORTSMAN—SIR THOS. LIPTON PASSES

Sir Thomas Lipton, the king of English yachting sports is dead, at the age of 80 years. While a friend of kings, he was also a friend of everybody, for he was the possessor of that kindly, democratic spirit, that is an open talisman to all hearts. His visits to America to race his beloved "Shamrock" yacht, made him as popular on this side of the water as in England. While not always a victor, he never became discouraged and showed himself at all times the true sportsman. Canada honors such men as he and Kaye Don.
