Good Weather, Sermons, Music, Etc., at Anniversary

A fine turnout of the congregation of St. Columba, together with many appreciative friends of the Rev. S. G. McCormack and his amiable wife, were in attendance at church both morning and evening sessions.

At the evening service "Do thy diligence before winter comes" was the tendency in temporal affairs to have all gathered in and applied the advice to spiritual life to amend before the winter of life comes on.

The saddest of these is, it might have been.

Dilatation and putting off is too prevalent in the Christian life, until the signs of life are showing their approach, as well as the temporal signs of the falling little flakes.

Two fine sermons with every word clear and distinct.

The choir, 16 strong, (according to reports) acquitted themselves nobly in song and duet passages in the six anthems sung.

The Anthem Doroology alone, drew applause from one of the Session and one young lady present and perhaps others, so we are told.

A fine tribute to the veteran choir leader and hoped he may yet celebrate his diamond anniversary.

Fowl Supper and Concert

As one approached the basement of the church Monday evening, the aroma of chicken entered the nostrils and before leaving these same tables, no one could be blamed for being chicken minded.

The tables were laden with the season's bounty and here no "depression" was evident, unless it was from over-indulgence. The tables were filled many times and the quantity and quality appeared to fall not.

About 8:30, adjournment was made to the auditorium, where a musical and literary evening followed.

The choir of Wellington St United Church, Mt. Forest, were present, 32 strong, and left a splendid impression.

Their music was excellent as regards time, tonal qualities, precision in attack, etc. Solos were contributed by Mrs Gilstorf, Mrs Coutts Mr Tanner and Mr Gilstorf: recitation by Miss Trimble; violin solo, Mr Given.

As well there was a male quartet, who rendered "Larboard Watch" and as an encore, "A tall wife, a short wife": a ladies' quartet in "Kentucky Babe".

The choir as a body, rendered three anthems, "Praise ye the Lord": "Old King Cole" and "Land of Hope and Glory." They were splendid numbers and deserved the applause they received.

A unique feature of the choir was the number whose hair have become silver in its service, three of the number being over fifty years members and still going strong.

The pastor, Rev. Mr McDonald, was also present and spoke facetiously, as did the former pastor of St. Columba, Rev. Mr McCormack, now of Thornton.

Meeting old friends was always a pleasant task and his return to Priceville was in just the same environment as when he left, in a downpour of rain.

An orchestra from Flesheron, including a former Durham boy, Royden McDonald, on saxophone, piano and violin, was most enjoyable.

We were particularly pleased with the music the pianist got out of the piano.

Rev. Mr Bartlett, the pastor, made a tactful chairman and brought the evening to a close with the National Anthem.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to the family connection and to all other dear friends, for the many kind words and deeds, that were as stepping stones of pure gold, while I was striving to regain the road to good health after an operation at Durham Hospital.

Every sickness is certainly an ordeal to be dreaded and every hospital a place of suffering, but let us look at the bright side of the situation. I found Durham Hospital an ideal place, pure clear air and sunshine; picturesque scenery; the one sweet-toned church bell that called to worship each Sabbath—couldn't go but felt so much better to have received the invitation. The homelike atmosphere, the fine sense of humor, the personal interest and kind efficient service maintained by Miss Pettie and her staff, is deserving of highest praise.

HOPEVILLE

Mr Wm Riddell has been under her Dr's care, but pleased to hear he is improving.

Mrs W. Benham and daughters are visiting in Toronto.

Mrs C. Fettes, Durham Hospital, and Mrs Herb Greenwood, called on the former's sister, Mrs Neil McEachnie Sunday afternoon.

Miss A. M. Fettes, a visitor and Mrs J. Sinclair, a patient at the hospital the past three weeks, returned to their homes with her, the latter much improved in health.

SWINTON PARK

We are thankful to still be living in this rich locality, where for seventy years we have had no unemployment. Everyone is still busy and with the fine weather, fall work is getting fairly well done up.

This week, Geo Haw with a number of his neighbors, is busy filling up the approaches to the new bridge which is now open for traffic.

This bridge is expected to last as long as the present generation will need it. The course of the creek has been changed some and if it runs as long and as well as in the old course, everything will be well.

Howard Watson and Frank Grimes are putting a new roof on their stable. Mrs Watson unfortunately sprained her ankle one night last week, while out for a walk and has since suffered much pain.

Eddie Ferguson, south of the Park, who has lately been keeping batch on his farm, was taken suddenly ill on Friday night. On Saturday morning, Sam Wilson fortunately called in to see him and immediately called for Dr Platt, who is attending him.

Mrs Hardy, Sr., the friend of all in trouble, has since been waiting on him, with some other assistance. We hope Eddie may soon be better and that he will remember that it is not good for man to live alone.

Mr and Mrs Nell McLeod were in Hanover last Friday. While Nell attended the Grey and Bruce Insurance meeting, Mrs McLeod visited friends and enjoyed the day.

A number from the Park attended Anniversary services in Ventry on Sunday, also the fowl supper on Monday night and feel they got the worth of their money, both in eats and entertainment.

We in the Park, have had the pleasure of hearing four different ministers during October: 1st, Mr Miller, of Markdale; 2nd, Mr Cameron, a native of Prince Edward Island; 3rd, Mr Williams, a Scotchman by birth, but educated chiefly in Canada; 4th, Mr Townly, an Irishman by birth, but for a number of years a minister in Western Canada.

Next Sunday, a Rev. Mr Little is expected to preach. We surely enjoy the privilege of hearing these men expound in their own individual way the old, old story of salvation.
