Shooting Match—Ducks, Geese and Turkeys on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, 1931, at Mike Kenny's, Glenelg.

A Real Estate Deal
A real estate deal took place last week between George Bell, Durham Road, Glenelg, and his aunt, Mrs. Geo. Binnie, N.D.R., of same Town-ship, when he purchased her 150 acre farm. George gets possession next Spring.

Geneva Presbyterian Church, Chesley, held their annual fowl supper on Thursday night last and despite depressed financial conditions, over 500 partook of goose and its accompaniments. The fowl of that neighborhood will rest easy for another year.

Three extra Photographs with each dozen from now until Christmas. Come early in the day. We develop and print any size film. Six prints for 25c. Reprints, 8 for 25c. We also enlarge snaps up to 8 x 10, 25c.

F. W. Kelsey, Durham.
The reputation of the Elgar Male Quartette, Waterloo, is too well known to use press notices, where they have appeared. They will be in Knox United Church, Durham, on Thursday evening, Nov. 5, assisted by Ruth Bechtel Whiting, entertainer. Admission 35c to all parts of the church auditorium.

At the Mothers' Allowance meeting, held recently at the Hahn House, A. E. Colgan of Markdale, was again elected chairman; W. J. Miller, Bog-nor, vice chairman; Mrs. Wm. Ding-wall, Hopeville, Sec'y; Mrs. J. B. Long, Meaford; John Mills, Hanover, and H. C. Brigham, Hanover, on the executive board.

Settled Satisfactorily
The motor case in Guelph last Friday, arising out of the accident of J. C. Howell's car, the plaintiff, and that of a Hamilton car, proved the driver of the latter car to be guilty of careless driving. He was assessed the costs of court which amounted to $75. Mr. Howell has also satisfactorily settled with the insurance company of Hamilton car for injury to his own car.

Clever at the Horse Shows
Stanley and Crawford Sharpe of Dornoch, have made a record for themselves in the Horseshoe tournaments at the Fall Fairs. They carried off four firsts and two seconds, having pitched against the best pitchers between Owen Sound and Arthur and received $29.60 in prizes. They took in the tournaments at Owen Sound, Chatsworth, Rocklyn, Markdale, Aytan and Durham.

Four Regular Agents Replaced
Taking effect Nov. 1, the C.P.R. stations at Proton, Priceville, Mono Road and Caledon will be relieved of their regular agents and caretaker agents placed in their stead. The agents at these points will be transferred to other points. Peter Still who has been stationed at Proton for a number of years, has received notice that he will be moved and will probably be stationed at Orangeville as assistant.

Interesting Series of Sermons
Rev. W. H. Smith, B.A., of Knox Church, has commenced a series of sermons on the men of the various countries of the world to-day and the leaders of Christian thought and purpose. Last Sunday evening, Kaw-gawa of Japan, was the theme of a wonderful address, showing the influence and light he radiates in his native country to-day. For six more weeks each Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Smith will deal with Mussolini Italy; Mustafa Kemal, Turkey; Ghandi of India; Lenin, of Russia; Masaryk, of Czechoslovakia.

Improving at Toronto General
The Review has received a letter from Miss Edna Browning in Toronto, giving first hand knowledge of her brother Will's condition, which we are pleased to publish for the benefit of his friends here: "His minor cuts and bruises are healing nicely and the right leg which was so very badly smashed, as far as we know is doing favorably. He is receiving the very best of care in the General Hospital and Dr. Murray, a very clever bone specialist, told mother that he would now be very disappointed if he was unable to save the leg. However it is going to take a long long time for things to right themselves. They put silver plates in his leg and if nature does its work we are hoping that in time his leg will become fairly strong again. There are a lot of dead bones which will gradually work their way through the flesh and of course that will take time and strength." Miss Edna has herself, been using her time to good advantage and this summer was successful in completing her subjects for her First Class certificate.

More Watermains Extension this Year

With funds for waterworks construction almost vanished, Durham Council on Monday night decided that no new services would be connected up this fall, other than work already started. There are other requests on hand, but as supplying these now will entail several hundred dollars more expense, no new work will be begun until revenue is being derived.

Coun. Smith reported Albert and Elgin Sts had been graded, but Lamb-ton St. west of C.N.R. track needed attention.

Coun. Whitmore reported the Fire Inspector as generally satisfied with test of new waterworks system.

Accounts were passed totalling over $3500 for pumps and other water-works supplies, in addition to the usual town accounts. The council plan to buy 10 meters to instal in furniture factory, creamery, hotels, garages, etc.

Arrangements are being made for the annual get-together of all the veterans afterwards. Refreshments will be served and a short program and sing-song dished up.

HALLOWEEN PRANKS WERE ALL INNOCENT FUN THIS YEAR

Saturday night last was the date when witches, goblins, and bold bad men were scheduled to make their appearance. It has become a night that people with removable veran-dah steps, loose fences or gates, etc, dread, for they inevitably changed resting places. But this year in Dur-ham few gates were lifted to our knowledge and beyond the painting and decorating of windows no damage to property was noted. Rather was it a night for the fancy dressed ladies and gents of the town, in-cluding a few darkey blondes, to parade the streets and the Fifth Ave. parade on this night on Main St. was the cynosure of many eyes. The homes too, were visited by many callers incognito, but the "candies, apples or damage" ultimatum was not so popular a threat as in former years. The boys and girls who were out, were on the whole, a well be-haved bunch and they got quite a kick from their night out.

Stage Successful Halloween Social

The Ladies' Aid of Queen Street Church put on a Halloween Social on Friday night last, and from a point of attendance as well as enjoyment of evening it was an unqualified suc-cess. Rev. Walter C. Almack, pastor, was chairman for the evening, but his duties were light. Piano du-ets were contributed by Mrs. Pad-field and Mrs. Stauffer and Mrs. Ship-pam and Mrs. Davis. The interest of the evening centred around the play prepared by the ladies, "A Rainy Day" which was a grotesque take-off of a Ladies' Aid meeting. The cast comprised Mesdames Knechtel, P. Gagnon, W. Almack, Calvin Kinnee, Joe McCaslin, Mark Wilson, Will Mc-Girr, Misses Phippen, P. Wolfe, Elis-abeth Kinnee, Etta Twamley. Mrs. H. Kress was accompanist for this rainy day meeting. Contests suitable to the season, were conducted by Mrs. Robbins and Miss Phippen. The base-ment was beautifully decorated in orange and black, the work of Mrs. Mack Saunders. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and whipped cream, doughnuts and tea, were served the gathering. $37 was taken at the door.

Remembrance Day, Public Holiday

Wednesday, Nov. 11th, which is now to be known as Remembrance Day, instead of Armistice Day, has been officially declared a public holiday. Durham Post Office will be closed that day, except after distribu-tion of afternoon mail.

His First Parish
Sunday last an unusually good crowd attended St. Peter's R. C. Church here, it being the first Sun-day on duty of Rev. Father Grace in his new parish, succeeding Rev. Father McHugh. Father Grace is a splendid platform speaker and he left a most favorable impression on his audience Sunday.

Masquerade Social at Aberdeen
The Aberdeen Women's Institute Branch were responsible for a pleas-ant masquerade social evening at Clark's schoolhouse on Friday last. The decorations were of pumpkin lantern faces, corn, fags and orange and black festoons, carrying out the Halloween idea of spooks and goblins. Miss Cicely Hopkins was hair-mistress of the evening and two amusing plays and violin music and dancing by Wellington, Wes and Miss Alfetta Noble made up the program. Most of the audience were masked and the fact that darkies, and all other gro-tesque characters intermingled freely with one another, shows that Aber-deen Branch ladies are ready to usher in the Brotherhood of Man. Lunch of sandwiches, pumpkin pie and tea closed the meeting. $5.80 was made on a 10c admission.

Royal Bank's new Premises Now Taking Shape
Picture Show Being Dismantled.

The former J. & J. Hunter general store is now in the hands of the car-penters and masons, who are busy transforming it into quarters suitable for bank premises, same to be oc-cupied by the Royal Bank. When this is done, Durham will be on a par with the cities in having their banks cornering the important intersection in the town. At the rear of the bank will be the new quarters of the Bell Telephone Co. and this also is under-going alterations.

A little further to the south in the one-time Mockler store property, the Veteran Star Theatre is being demol-ished by Mr. David Allen, owner. Small town theatres have had a precarious existence since the gov-ernment has set the clamp in regu-lations so tightly on them and most towns similar to Durham in size are now minus theatre. Mr. Allen will fit the building up for mercantile purposes.

DURHAM'S FIRST LOSS WAS IN HANOVER TUESDAY

After being undefeated in first schedule in Saugeen Lacrosse League, Durham lost their first start in 2nd schedule by 5 to 10 in Hanover, on Tuesday night. The game was rough and fast, but Durham did not play the snappy game throughout, of which they are capable. Hanover showed great strength, scoring 10 to 1 till near end of 3rd period, when Durham counted 3 straight and another in last period. R. L. Saunders of Durham and E. Devlin, Hanover, refereed. Hanover plays here Friday night, and there may be a different result.

KNOX MISSION CIRCLE

Knox Mission Circle held their regu-lar supper meeting at the home of Miss Winnie Blyth, with an attend-ance of 18. After opening hymn, Louise Jamieson led us in prayer, using the form of program given in a book by Mrs. Rush, a number of the girls gave the introduction and theme of study book of this year. "Korea, Land of the Dawn" by Dr. J. D. Vanbuskirk and also a biography of the authors of "Our share in Korea." The members taking part were Misses May Bratthwaite, Susie Bell, Shirley McIntyre, Jean Grant. Mrs. Alder spoke briefly about the pion-eer missionaries of Korea. A short sketch from the Blue Book about Korean people was given by Miss Norma Kelsey. Miss Helen Young, Miss Isabel Henderson, Miss Anna Ritchie.

An intelligence test dealing with the part of the books studied that evening was carried on by Mrs. Alder. The worship program closed by a scripture reading from Numbers by Mrs. Alder.

It was planned to have the next meeting in the church, inviting the women members. The President also announced that the girls who made some money for the Circle during the summer, bring it to next meeting and tell how same was made. The min-utes were read and adopted. Collec-tion amounted to $3.80. The Lord's Prayer and class text closed the meeting.
