Durham Skating Rink

At a meeting of the shareholders of Durham Amusement Co. Ltd., held in Red Cross rooms on Tuesday night, unanimous approval was given to the motion to dispose of the skating rink and site and all tools belonging to it, to Mr Cameron Lauder, dairy-

The Amusement Co. was organized here in 1918, to retain the rink as a winter amusement centre for the town. Of the 115 shares outstanding, 94 were represented either in person or by proxy at the meeting. Almost all local shareholders were on hand. it being the largest attended gathering of the Co. on record, when the swan song was sung.

The various managements have given faithful service in past years, and provided skating and hockey entertainment for the youth of town and country, and formerly curling, as was their purpose. However the officials latterly have been wearying of their duties, and while the rink has been Poor Year Financially paying its way annually, it has brought no remuneration or dividends to the shareholders. It was felt that under private ownership, the rink to him at a sacrifice price, stipulating only that he has to retain it as a skating rink, in the deed of sale.
