

Good Turns-A New Idea A new opportunity to perform that three boys from drowning in the Harmay call upon the services of the ed a tragedy. Scouts as messengers, furnace tend-

Home Service." Lone Scouts could very well do similar work and we suggest you get into touch with your local doctor and offer him your services for this pur-

A Strange Birthday Coincidence February 22nd again brought the To Scout John Wodle, age 15, 1st Girl Guide.

That there is too much spoon-feed- had been done. ing to-day, and that Scouting "helps boys to fend for themselves," was given as one of his reasons for supporting the Scout Movement by the Lord Mayor of Liverpool, Mr. John H. Inskip. "Scouting taught boys to be in life, instead of drifting," he de-

Awards For Gallantry

to know that ten awards were recent- and was in danger of drowning in the ly made to Scouts of this province for Napanee River. gallantry in saving life and property in many cases at very great risk. The highest award for gallantry is a Parklands Troop, and to Assistant bronze cross with a red ribbon. This Scoutmaster Ernest F. Ward, age 18, is only given where exceptional hero- 1st Parklands Troop. Scout O'Donohue ism has been shown or extraordinary saw a boy in difficulties in the river at not so great, a Silver Cross with a blue until A.S.M. Ward was able to reach Famous Auto Racer ribbon is awarded, whilst those who the scene and take the boy ashore. do exceptionally well in case of emergency, though without any great risk to themselves, receive a Gilt Cross. In other cases deserving of recognition.

Letters of Commendation are issued. The following is a list of the awards which have recently been made and which all Lonies will agree are deserving of special mention:

Silver Crosses

To Scout Bert Bryan, age 12, 26th London Troop. Rescued a small boy who had fallen down a disused well. where the current, due to recent age 18, 1st Kincardine Crew.. Rescued daily good turn has originated in Bed- bour Channel at Kincardine. Two of ford, where it has won the praise of the boys had gone to the rescue of a the community. The Scouts of the third, but were unequal to the task. 66th Troop have developed a plan The alarm reached MacLeod while he whereby they get into touch with the was several hundred yards away and local physicians whereby the latter his timely action undoubtedly prevent-Gilt Crosses-3 ers, or other service in the homes of the sick The boys call this "Sick-

To Rover Scout Angus K. MacLeod, Toronto 2.-"Lone E."

To Scout William Labute, age 17,

19th Border Cities Troop. Rescued a boy who had gone beyond his depth in the Detroit River at Walkerville. To Scout William Murrall, age 12, 1st Parklands Troop. Jumped off the breakwater at the mouth of the Etobicoke River and rescued a young girl who had fallen in.

strange coincidence of the common Bridgeburg Troop. Ran into house birthday of Lord and Lady Baden- where fire had started from a pan of Powell, World Chief Scout and Chief grease, took the burning pan, rushed through the back kitchen, and got it Liverpool's Lord Mayor on Scouting into the open before much damage

Certificates of Merit-2

To Scout Elmer Schlievert, age 15. 1st Galetta Troop. Heard sounds as if someone was in difficulty in the Mississippi River, ran to the shore, saw small child struggling in the water and

To Scout Waldemar Hill, age 16, 1st Newburgh Troop. Rescued a girl who had lost her presence of mind when Lone Scouts will be very interested she realized she was in deep water

Letters of Commendation-4 To Scout Jack O'Donohue, age 15, 1st

Eldorado Park, swam to his assistance For gallant deeds where the risk is and kept the boy's head above water

> It is under consideration that th Lone Scout Department organize an other camp during 1932 for registered Lone Scouts under the direction of officials of the Lone Scout Department Are you interested in this? If so, write to headquarters and register your name as a prospect for camp. You will have lots of fun, and learn a lot about Scouting, too. Membership in the Lone Scouts Ontario is open to all boys of this pro-To Scout Douglas Grantham, age 15, vince who are between 12 and 18 years 13th London Troop. Saw a girl strug- inclusive who are unable to become gling in the water of the Thames River | members of a regular troop. It is designed, particularly for Rural boys. storms was very swift. Went to her you would like further particulars. assistance and in spite of her strug- write to Lone Scout Department, Boy Scouts Association, 330 Bay Street,

Increase of Vehicles Causes Congestion in Narrow Streets

Moscow.-City authorities are almost daily faced with the problem of regulating the capital's ever-increasing street traffic. Although the number of vehicles is small, compared with the figures for other large capitals. more and more automobiles and trucks are honking and hooting their way through the narrow streets of the Soviet capital; and the congestion and confusion at crowded corners where automobiles, trucks, buses, street cars, horsedrawn cabs and wooden peasant carts all dispute the right of way with each other and with pedestrians are barbed wire, and 28 other items of Semaphores have now been installed! at many of the main crossings and the Muscovite police (or militiamen, as they are called) are endeavoring to $969,304; while during the year folperfect themselves in the art of directing traffic. The city Soviet at one force, these exports dropped to $310,time issued a draconic order to the 290. The farm implements under proeffect that all citizens had to walk hibition were cultivators, harrows, only on the right-hand side of the scarifiers, stump-jump plows, drills, street and could cross only at speci- reaper threshers and harvesters, and fied places, on pain of summary fines. horse-drawn hay rakes. While this ruling was allowed to fall into disuse because of the sheer im- ing and heating appliances to Auspossibility of enforcing it, there is tralia were $172,251 in the year just still a vigorous educational campaign previous to the imposition of prohibito dissuade Soviet citizens from walk- tion, and trade fell to $60,693 during ing on the street pavements or from the first 12 months that the prohibiexecuting perilous zigzag crossings tion was in force. Exports of Canawhich involve the dodging of half a dian confectionery to Australia for dozen different vehicles.

At the same time reckless chauf- $1,472. feurs who drive in the crowded streets of Moscow as if they were on country otherwise leviable were imposed as roads are being called to account, and from June 20, 1930. This surtax, the some who were found guilty of caus- Trade Commissioner reports, has been ing serious mishaps have been depriv- removed from various items of ined of their licenses and sentenced to terest to Canada, including wrapping terms of imprisonment.

Before Summer

Looking forward to the spring One puts up with anything. On this February day Though winds leap down the stree Wintry scourgings seem but play, And these later shafts of sleet -Sharper pointed than the first-And these later snows-the worst-Are as a half transparent blind Riddled by rays from sun behind. -Thomas Hardy. Poen's.

Soviet Russia Faced Canadian Trade is Benefitted 9-yr.-old English Child By Embargo Removal

By Traffic Problem Ottawa.—Several Australian import action by the Australian Government were cabled by D. H. Ross, Canadian new. Trade Commissioner in Australia, to the Department of Trade and Comditions for export of certain lines of Canadian manufacture benefiting by tariff preferences under the trade greement concluded last year between Canada and Australia.

The Australian prohibitions went in- in any way. to force on April 4, 1930, with a view to specially restricting non-essential imports. This import prohibition is enly. now repealed on agricultural implements, electrical cooking and heating appliances, electric smoothing irons, confectionery, dry batteries and cells, minor importance.

Canada's exports of agricultural implements to Australia during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1930, totalled lowing, when the prohibitions were in Canadian exports of electrical cookthese periods dropped from $16,558 to Surtaxes of 50 per cent. of the duty paper, paper bags, strawboard, furniture, unspecified wood manufactures. pianos, cordage, twines, and nine items of less importance.

----"Good gracious, Junior, I forgot to shake the bottle before a gave you that medicine." "Don't worry, mummy, I'll turn a few handsprings. 1-Chicago News.

Bog-"I got a real kick out of kissing Jane last night." Gog-"Any more than usual?" Bog-"Yea, the old man caught me."-Witt.

beat the stern fin of the dirigible Akron to the ground the other day, two men were painfully injured, considerable damage done to the ship and five congressmen passengers got

To Seek Buried Treasure

Daytona Beach, Fla .- Sir Malcolm Campbell, British sportsman, who has ravelled faster on and than any other person in history, hore; to climax a thrill packed career with a search for buried treasure in the Southern Pacific ccean. The desire is one of his obsessions.

The other is to drive an automobile at a speed of 300 mi'es per hour. He is confident both goals will be reached But just as important to Sir Mal.

colm as his racing aspirations, is treasure hunt on picturesque Cocos Island. He will seek the treasure of Lima, hidden by pirates 110 years ago. The temperament that drives Sir Malcolm seeking new records and new thrills already has endangered his life dozen times.

At the age of nine, May Goodwin, a little English girl living in Puteaux, a suburb of Paris, has written a neat and accurate letter in shorthand to a short- tion of Australia on June 30, 1931, was crossing the bridge.

Viewing Skaters

On a waterlogged margin of the habitable globe, in the early afternoon of time, our poor legs and feet, perfect flat. . . .

frozen fixity of the studio, but the free preservation of our country. poses that are possible to a body at once inflight and at rest. They are so fixed that the eye can follow and comprehend, yet with a slow play and change. And to enrich this change variation. It is not now the perking ister for Traffic, M. Frus Skotte. and twitching of the stuff, as in walk- This bridge will dispense with the fifty million. "Government figures Proves Shorthand Prodigy gently into the next. If artists were the continent. It will be 3,270 meters Premier Henry moved an amend We have become quite accustomed not the prisoners of custom, the edge long and will be, it is claimed, the ment to that introduced by W. E. N. to the various child musician marvels of the rink would be encircled by lengest in Europe. The cost is calcu- Sinclair, Opposition Leader, which actors, one being Miss Masson's broand mathematical wizards of tender sculptors modelling those forms in lated at 33,600,000 kroner or $8,- placed the Liberals in a position of ther: er," by D. S. MacColl.

---Australia's Population

hand enthusiast. He says it took his lit- 6,500,536, excluding full-blooded abortle daughter eight months to learn to iginals, according to Prof. L. F. Gib- Chinese Boycott Excludes write in this way and during this time lin, commonwealth statistician. The she did not interrupt her school work increase of population for the year 1931 there had been an increase of anese goods in China, Japanese trans- J. MacArthur, Northumberland; J. F. them. He touched a spring, and up The love of Heaven makes one heav- 1,064,802, an average annual gain of lations of standard occidental works Sangster, Glengarry; T. A. Murray, went the curtain again.

Forerunner of Spring

't's sure sign of spring when baseball uniforms come out of th balls. Members of the New York Girnts are shown selecting outfits for 1932 at their Los Angeles 'mining cuarters.

Passing Through the Panama Canal

For those who have experienced at Backed with high-peaked mountains, passage through the gigantic locks of the causeways to the locks, shortened the Panama Canal the following ex- and broadened by perspective, show cerpt from Elinor Mordaunt's "The like the top of an immense Christmas Venture Book" will recall vividly their cake, the tall white concrete pillars own sensation. She writes:

We pass into the lock through an dred wax bulbs under concrete shades, immense gateway, from which steel like candles set above them. The litside of the canal; the gates close, and lamps add a still more fantastic note special occasion when "Mr. Spences an amazing process begins.

In reality, of course, the water appropriate finish to the transit on a level with the crow's nest, appear, of their own powers. the top of it.

the barometer in the captain's cabin green of the vegetation is more than there was no doubt about it! sinks benath one's eyes, with a a trifle overdone, as are the exagger- HERBERT SPENCER'S CROQUET. pair above opens to admit us, is no with the pathetic remains of the heroic house: casional order.

Immigration in the Future La Patrie Montreal, (Ind.): Hon. W. A. Gordon, temporary Minister of Colonization and Immigration, has demolished the impression held by some that Canada, which, in consequence of the economic crisis, has hermetically sealed her doors to immigration, will adhere indefinitely to this policy and will only count in future for her num- lature last week was the denunciation bers on the slow natural growth of of M. F. Hepburn, Provincial Liberal her population. The exclusion of im- Leader, by Premier George S. Henry. migrants is imperative at the present | "This was caused," the Premier said, time, as they could not in existing con- "through Mr. Hepburn's attacks on the ditions find a subsistence in agricul- Ontario Hydro Power Commission and tion, discovered their use. It is but ture or industry. But when times get its administration, and the Premier better again, as they must do, Canada held that Mr. Hepburn founded his will have to take steps to increase her argument upon an anti-public ownerpopulation. When we are prosperous ship sheet published in Chicago."

$8,500,00 Bridge Proposed Linking Denmark-Continent

Copenhagen .- A bill empowering opposed to public ownership." and play there is the counterpoint of the building of a railway and vehicu- Premier Henry pointed out, as draperies. It echoes the movements lar traffic bridge across the Stor- glaring instance of misleading stateof the limbs, with the repetitions of strom, between Sealand and Falstar, ments, that the pamphlet referred to a canon, or with other freaks of fugal has been brought forward by the Min- had said that the cost of the Chippewa ing or dancing; it is a lingering wave railway ferry service across this show," said Mr. Henry, 'that the cost of the last impulsion, resolving itself waterway on Denmark's main route to was only seventy-six million."

across by the railway ferries. Motor- also pledges support to the efficient Canberra, Australia.—The popula- cars will be taxed moderately for service rendered by the Commission.

still find a great sale in the Chinese Renfrew North; and R. A. Baxter, "The audience, scarcely recovered market. The written language of South Oxford. Japan is so similar to that of China The Mortgage Relief Measure was curtain had fallen, gave one gasp of that most educated Chinese can read advanced to the Committee stage and amazement, and then broke into a it with no difficulty, and these Chinese it is hoped that the act will be en-

The Japanese are indefatigable 2nd. translators and American and Euro- Arthur Ellis, South Ottawa, intro- ed into the study of Professor Fleempean books are translated by the thou- duced an amendment to the Railway ing Jenkin, who was their host and Ottawa,-Forty-seven fiction publications formerly printed in the United fere with municipal authority within BROWNING AND THE GOWNS. States are now being printed, for their Canadian distribution, in Canada, according to a statement made by C. H. Cahan, Secretary of State, in the House of Commons, last week.

The estimated gain in revenue from September, 1931, to December, 1931, inclusive, is $17,500 on these fiction publications. The import duties on United States publications entering Canada for nearly thirty years. from Sept 1, 1931, to Jan. 31, 1932, was 206,806.72.

India's Vast Population

The population of India has in- Cutlet's Feast of 1960. creased about 19 per cent. since 1921 and is now 352,986,876, nearly three company the first table knife blade D.C.L. I have a gown too!' he said times that of the United States, ac- made of stainless steel. cording to preliminary returns of a recent census. Of this number, 181,921. Turkish Air Lines 914 are males and 171,064,962 females. The Hindus number 238,330,912, or 73 per cent. of the total, the Moslems 77,-13,928, the Silkhs 4,306,442, and the ernment has signed a contract with Another memory of childhood days is Teach self-denial, and make its prac- necting principal Anatolian cities.

with their lights, clusters of five hunof decoration to the scene. It is an rushing in from culverts rises, taking through an isthmus in itself fantastic of Hampstead Heath. She remembers us with it. But that is not in the least beyond all words, worked to their own him, she tells us in "Victorians Al!." what it seems like. Rather, the walls ends by men who, as it seems, could "in al fresco mood, sitting with a plate of the lock, the top of which has been scarcely have realized the magnitude on his knees, among the sand and the to sink very slowly down and down. Take it all in all, the whole effect salad, and arguing leasantly all the drawn under the water by some force of the Canal Zone is theatrical. The time as to whether the cethestic pleaswhich leaves us high on a level with islands are not islands at all, but the ures of a meal caten out-of-doors in the second of the Miraflores locks, and come to an end when the last of the s.y; and after the stroke was made drop to sea level: a perfectly clear lights go out, and the electrician, for he would take back his umbrellagreenish-indigo night with a full moon saking his engines, goes home to sup- often from the hands of one of our overhead. As I look back over the per and bed, leaving the night watch- very young and pretty aunts." length of the ship, the sight is extra- man seated on a little camp-stool in ordinarily fairylike, fantastic, and un- the center of this vast stage."-Elinor Mordaunt, in "The Venture Book." ********************

The Legislature In Brief

And if as action, skating is thus once more, the introduction of immi- Reading from this sheet Mr. Henry supreme, so is it also a spectacle. grants in sufficient numbers and of a showed that the Hepburn language Here are poses—no, not that, not the suitable kind will be essential to the coincided directly with the material contained in the Chicago publication which is termed "For the Use of Disin terested Citizens, Taxpayers and Other Organizations believing in the proficiency of private ownership and voting 'for" or "against" Hydro. During the last two years 45,000 pledges the Legislature anew to Hydro motorcars have been transported and to the principle of service at cost,

> Ten speakers took part in the debate on the Speech from the Throne. adding to the discussion on Hydro, the stage, with their feet meeting in They were: Wilfrid Heighington, Tor- a kind of triumphal arch in the centre, look to Tokyo for nearly all the trans- forced within the next two weeks and The two luckless actors leaped to vince. The measure does not intertheir boundaries.

Document on Stainless Steel is Locked up for Thirty Years

the stipulation that it is not to be read next day:

Harry Brearley, the discoverer of that stately, indeed; gravely amused; a material. It is in a sealed envelope, little deprecatory. Browning watched Shows a Big Increase which is not to be opened until the for a minute or two, then slipped out the Curtiss-Wright interests for estab- of "the lion-headed Sir James Y. lishment of commercial air lines con- Simpson, an old man, sitting in his tice pleasurable, and you will create A national society will be establish- in Queen Street. I can hear his words for the world a destiny more sublime ed for the purpose. American experts to me: 'Ye'll always remember, my

Playful Victorians

Somehow one cannot imagine Herbert Spencer taking part in a picale -not even a superior Victorian picnic, with a white tablecloth, knives and forks, and cup-custard sprinkled with nutmetg! But it seems that he did Miss Flora Masson, daughter of David Masson, the famous Victorian gates have rolled silently back into the the engines with their bright crimson journalist and biographer, recalls one the Philosopher" was brought along to join a family picnic under the pince pine-needles, eating cold lamb with tops of mountains pushing up through summer were of real assistance to the It seems as though a lifetime had the water; the mountains themselves digestion. We children, listeningpassed in this amazing process, while are cut to pattern, placed just so; the and eating gooseberry puffs—thought heavier weight of air. And yet, from ated madder and vermillon of the But this is not all; sometimes, too, the moment the great steel gates close cliffs. The machinery of the gigantic the Philosopher could be seen playing behind us, to the moment the second transformation scene left lying about, croquet in the garden of the Massons' more than thirty minutes in all. Not failure of Lesseps, suggests the idea "On hot days he would come prothe least surprising part of the whole that it has all been Lought there by vided with a large white umbrella, affair is the fact that no one appears trolleys, small enough because of the which he held over his head. When the to be doing anything whatever, apart primal flatness; that the valleys which moment came for him to play his from the pilot, who walks up and down open between the mountains are mere stroke, he would hard the umbrella the topmost bridge, barking out an oc- wings leading to the green-room, with to the person who happened to be nothing whatever at the back of them. standing nearest to him. 'Hold the um-Night has closed in before we pass We have the feeling that it all must brella! Hold the umbrella! he would

He loved the Masson children, and if he found them playing with their "air-balls" (good Victorian word!) or with battledores and shuttlecocks, he would join "quite pleasantly" in the game. But woe betide anyone who asked in his presence for "half-a-cup more tea." It would be a sure signal for a brilliant Spencerian dissertation on accuracy of expression; on the folly of speaking of "half-a-cup" when one meant a whole cup half full! In Edinburgh Miss Masson often used to see Robert Louise Stevenson who had not yet left for the South Seas. She remembers him as a slight boyish figure, with a very pale face and luminous eyes-a brilliant talker and ready to enter into any fun that was going on. On one occasion "he fell to disputing with a bigger and altogether more muscular member of the company as to which of the two could claim to have the larger girth of calf. Louis Stevenson was under the impression his own was the larger; and so in earnest was he, and se anxious to prove his case, that he actually fetched an inch-tape, and inveigled his muscular friend into kneeling on the drawing room carpet, while each, with much solemnity. measured the other's calf!"

STEVENSON'S LITTLE JOKE. R. L. S. was always to the fore when amature theatricals were being arranged, sometimes as actor, sometimes as stage manager. During one of their plays-a Greek tragedy-the curtain had fallen on a powerful and moving scene and the stage was left

"In a momentary reaction after so much unrelieved tragedy, these two, oblivious of their classic draperies, arms, performed a rapid war-dance. and then flung themselves on to oppo site ends of a couch at the back of onto-St. David's; Austin Smith, Essex; Louis Stevenson, who had been offi-Tokyo.—Despite the boycott on Jap- W. W. Staples, South Victoria; Fred ciating at the curtain, took one 'ook at from the tragic scene on which the will probably date back to February their feet, only to see the curtain fall again. R. L. S. was immediately call-Municipal Act which would vest in producer of the play. Afterwards he the Ontario Municipal Board all admitted that the Professor had given Forty-seven U.S. Periodicals powers to control and direct motor him "the very worst ten minutes I Now Published in Canada transportation systems in the pro- ever experienced in the whole course of my life!"

Miss Masson was in Edinburgh in 1884 for the University Tercentenary. Among the Massons' own guests were Robert Browning and Count Saffi, the friend of the patriot Mazzini. The evening before the ceremony Countess London.—A document of unusual in- Saffi brought her husband down in the terest has come into the possession of beautiful academic robes of Bologna the Cutlers Compay of Sheffield, with University in which he was to appear

"He was made to stand in the mid-It is an account of the discovery of die of the room, under the lights, as stainless steel, and has been given by she displayed him to us-looking of the room and came back putting on Mr. Barclay has also presented to the his own scarlet gown of the Oxford lightly, showing himself off."

Twenty years earlier Miss Masson then a small child, had seen Mazzini To Link Main Cities of the former Triumvir of Romeand had listened to the glowing words Beyoglu, Turk .-- The Turkish Gov- from under the drawing room table! arm-chair by the fireside in his house han ever issue the grain of the have arrived in Turkey to draw up dear, that ye've sat on the knee of the

Englis

Any languag tor or newly mysteries of t many a slip crouses the h tor gives a from the wir "What's the n Tokyo teems

this sign, "W era shop, " with foreigner neat little cal foreigners wh card reads: man stop rapi ing, 'Hi! H

get in trouble

pass him. Do

"Mornin'

away duck to-d Pidgin Engli inglorious care tile gibberish, tradespeople English.

Old Thoron Undergo

Paris.-The

of picturesque

to disappear. 000,300 has be

Millions D

"China's Yello channel chang ten cutting its Through the o willions of Ch Yellow River, Society says.