How to Keep Young

Forget disagreeable things. Keep your nerves well in hand and inflict them on no one.

Don't expect too much from your friends. Make whatever work comes to you congenial.

Relieve the miserable, and sympathize with the sorrowful. Remember that kind words and a smile cost nothing, but are priceless treasures to be discouraged.

Do unto others as you would like to be done by. And when old age comes there will be a halo of white around your head, but you will be loved by all.

HAPPINESS.

Half the world is on the wrong scent in the pursuit of happiness. They think it consists in having and getting and in being served by others.

How to play BRIDGE AUCTION and CONTRACT

by Wynne Ferguson Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

ARTICLE No. 18

No matter how long you have played Auction or Contract, something novel and interesting always is coming up.

CHILD need REGULATING?

CASTORIA WILL DO IT!

When your child needs regulating, remember this: the organs of babies and children are delicate. Little bowels must be gently urged—never forced.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT

"NO CASE AS BAD AS MINE"

Now 77—and Fitter Than at 50

HAS TAKEN KRUSCHEN FOR 22 YEARS

"I have been 6 years thinking of writing these few lines. It may seem strange, but I have been watching the papers this last 6 years to see if there was any case as bad as mine has been.

Now, if I live till next March I shall be 77. I have taken Kruschen Salts for over 22 years, and I am in good health—better now than the other side of 50.

Dog Show

Big dogs, little dogs, smooth dogs, hairy dogs, Gay dogs, dull dogs, devil-may-carey dogs...

One's got a first prize and one's been commended, and one's got nothing—no "does" look offended!

Don't they feel important? But of course they know that only very poor dogs get to Cruft's dog show!

Father likes a big dog that says "Wuff, wuff" Mother likes a wee dog that looks like a muff.

The children like a middle dog with ears just so, And all of them are waiting at Cruft's dog show.

I know another dog, just the right size, A bouncy little play-dog with bright brown eyes.

We think he's quite the nicest dog, as nice dogs go. Although you'll not be seeing "him" at Cruft's dog show.

What New York Is Wearing

BY ANNEBELLE WORTHINGTON.

Illustrated Dressmaking Lesson Furnished With Every Pattern.

Something for the junior and something exceedingly smart. It features the fashionable built-up waistline.

It used a spotted rayon crepe in marine blue and white. The little bodice so girlish, softly gathered into the neckband of lace, is of plain marine blue crepe.

It's quite as practical as it is smart. You'll find it so simple to make it. And the cost amazingly small.

Style No. 2785 is designed for sizes 10, 12, 14 and 16 years.

Can also be carried out effectively in sheer woolen, linen, crepe silk and novelty cottons.

Size 10 requires 1 1/2 yards 35-inch for blouse, with 1 1/2 yards 39-inch for skirt.

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plainly, giving number and size of such patterns as you want.

Enclose 20c in stamps or coin (coin preferred); wrap it carefully for each number, and address your order to Wilson Pattern Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto.

TROUBLE. When the hour of trouble comes to the mind or the body, or when the hour of death comes, that comes to high and low, then it is not what we have done for ourselves, but what we have done for others, that we think on most pleasantly.

Horace—"Was it a big wedding?" Clarke—"Yes. I got in line twice and kissed the bride and nobody noticed it."

Agent at the Door—"This book of Universal Knowledge will tell you everything you ought to know."

Man—"Don't need it, my wife tells me all that—and a lot more besides."

A young boy was told to write a sentence on the blackboard containing the words "horse sense." He wrote: "The man forgot to lock his stable door one night and he hadn't seen his horse since."

April comes in laughing, Laughing for a day; You may see her passing; "She has gone," they say.

April is but gathering Showers of fresh rain; Folding purple crocus, Opening it again.

April is as eerie As an elf at play; Catch her tune, my dearie, And you'll be as gay.

Utterly Worn-Out

Mrs. Fitzpatrick Tells How Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Made Her Well.

"I became run-down and unable to do my work for a family of seven, writes Mrs. W. P. Fitzpatrick, Marquette, Sask. 'I was told I had anemia, and I took treatment, but with very little improvement. Finally advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they had done her so much good. I have taken seven boxes. Today I'm tired feeling or weak spells. I can run upstairs without puffing. I sleep and eat well. My friends are astonished at my changed appearance and never fail to ask what I'm taking. My reply is: 'Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.'"

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually create an abundance of new red blood, which is the reason why they have given new vitality and strength to thousands of such nervously exhausted and overtired women. Equally helpful for growing girls. Try them. At your druggist's in the new glass container. 50c a package.

Begonias and Gloxinias 50 varieties of Tuberosus-Rooted Begonia Bulbs for garden, house and verandah. Pendulous Begonias, best hanging basket plant ever introduced. Owl Lafts Many people are too busy to be kind, yet there is no other business which pays such satisfactory dividends.

Mr. Gump—"In a few years more you'll be just like your mother." Mrs. Gump—"I hope so. She's a widow, you know."

A man has settled down to normal middle life when he's rather suffer in silence than seem conspicuous. "Teacher—"Define the word 'matrimony'." High School Youth—"Matrimony? That's not a word—that's a sentence."

The time of year is here when two golfers like to meet and relate their golfing achievements, neither one paying any attention to what the other is saying.

Wife (trying on hats)—"Do you like this one turned down?" Husband—"How much is it?" Wife—"Eleven dollars." Husband—"Yes, turn it down."

Many wise men would like to know how the fool, soon parted from his money, gets it in the first place.

Conductor—"You can't take that dog into the coach; you'll have to put him in the baggage car." Sweet Young Thing—"This is a mammal."

Conductor—"Well—all right—take him in; but he looks like a dog to me."

The charity that begins at home is that which covers a multitude of sins. The reason a man may have a smart looking overcoat and worn out trousers is because it's impossible to get new trousers in a restaurant. How we do appreciate good health—when we're sick. Some folks are so full of practical charity, there isn't room inside of 'em for human sympathy.
