CRAWFORD

The Crawford-Louise Institute met for August at Mrs Gus Subject's home with 28 ladies present. The meeting opened with roll call and scripture reading by Miss Alice Subject. The roll-call on storing vegetables for winter use brought forth many excellent ways and recipes. The first topic was a splendid talk on Hygiene and Beauty Helps by Miss Lyne Fisher. To show their appreciation a hearty clap of hands was given. Mrs A Oppenauer, Detroit, (a sister of Miss Fisher) was present and gave a beneficial talk on the proper way to use a fever thermometer, its care and how to read it correctly. The meeting closed with the National Anthem and a social hour enjoyed during which Mrs Subject and daughters served a dainty lunch.

MONUMENT IN KINCARDINE DRAWS THE TOURISTS

(Kincardine Review)

When tourists stop in town the majority of them who are intent on "seeing the sights" always stop at the Second monument next to the Post Office to read the inscription and admire the column. It was in 1910 that Dr Solomon Secord passed away following a long and useful life. During his varied career he served as a surgeon in the Civil War, taking part with the Southern Company in Kincardine he won the esteem of all who knew him. The inscription on the monument, which was erected in 1912 by popular subscription testifies to the true greatness of the man "All that lived he loved and without regard for fee or reward he did his work for love of his work and for love of his fellows."

County Women's Institute Convene at Thornbury

Provincial President, Mrs Walker, of Bartonville, addresses Gathering - Mrs Sutton, Hanover, again County President. - Hanover will entertain the 1933 Convention.

The County Convention of Grey Women's Institute was held this year on Aug. 19, in Thornbury, and 170 delegates attended, coming from all sections of the County. The sessions were held in Grace United Church, and at the afternoon period, over 400 were in the audience to listen to addresses and hear of the activities of the Institute as a Provincial organization. The Convention was honored by the presence of the Provincial President, Mrs A. E. Walker, of Bartonville, who after conveying the greetings of the Dept. of Agriculture and the Provincial Board, told the ladies something of her trip abroad two years ago, as Women's Institute delegate to the first International Conference of Women's Institutes in Belgium.

The election of officers, which resulted in the re-election of the past year's executive, is as follows: President, Mrs Fred Sutton, Hanover; Sec'y, Mrs Thos Friezel, Bognor; Treas., Miss Florence Smith, Menford. In memory of the late Mrs James Gardner, O. Scund, first Grey Co. President of the organization and organizer of the third branch of the W. Institute in the world, Kemble, a little period was devoted to tribute and prayer. Later a motion was made by Mrs Harold Wilkinson, that the memory of Mrs Gardner be perpetuated by the singing of 'Faith of our Fathers' at the close of the County Convention each year and adopted. (Tribute was also paid another former Co. president, Mrs Easton, Aytou, who passed away recently.)

Thornbury Fund Closed - An important item of business was transacted at the morning session. A motion proposed by Mrs T. Young, that North Grey contribute no more money to the Thornbury donor fund until requested by the Bruce Co. Convention, was passed almost unanimously. A detailed report of the financing of Dr Fisher through the Thornbury branch of the W. I. was presented as received from Mrs W. J. Simpson. Mrs S's report expressed the doubt that the donor could be financed during the coming winter without the assistance of Grey. The Thornbury branch was particularly active and raised several substantial amounts. Contributions to the fund included $100 from Bruce Co council, $350.73 from Grey Co. branches, $15 from Bruce W. I., etc. The total receipts were $1,255.97, $1075 of which was paid to Dr Fisher in salary. Other expenditures brought the total to $1204.13. The cash on hand is $51.84. The feeling was generally expressed that the Thornbury dis. and its residents are fairly prosperous and able to support their own medical attendant. The passing of the resolution to send no more money until directly requested followed.

Excellent Addresses Heard - The concluding feature of the morning session was a delightful happy message. The speaker was Mrs C. Cook, of Zion, whose talk was "Helps to Happiness," referring to the search for happiness of Maeterlinck's beloved "Bluebird" characters. The speaker brought the quest for happiness and its success home to all her hearers. The first speaker of the afternoon session was Mrs H. Maxwell, Healthcote, whose interesting subject was "Our Dominant Mood." Our dominant mood, said the speaker, is the persistent element of our minds. We do not guard our minds as we should, cultivating moods of charity, thrift, sympathy, self-control, affection, and rejecting melancholy, obsession for personal adornment. Another excellent speaker was Mrs S. A. Morrison, Menford, whose subject was "The Value of Education." The theme had particular application at the present time, when owing to over-crowding of professions and lower monetary reward, parents are apt to curtail the education of their boys and girls. The disciplined life is the happy life. Another purpose of education is to develop talents. The world and its wonderful achievements open up before the student. All education falls short of its great destiny if it does not bring the pupil into touch with the Almighty.

Passes Resolution - Two resolutions from South Grey were passed, 1st, "Whereas the films shown are not what boys and girls budding into manhood and womanhood ought to see and whereas the robbing of banks and the shooting which follows must have a bad effect upon young minds, we, the members of South Grey Women's Institutes do petition the government that pictures shown on the screen be more strictly censored: that they be of British manufacture and that they have only a good moral in them: 2nd, "Resolved that Prohibition be granted whereas (a) many accidents have occurred: (b) many homes made desolate and hearts broken (c) many young lives ruined (d) girls are now drinking intoxicants as well as boys (e) it is a menace to life on public highways, we do respectfully appeal to the Ontario government that the above resolution be given consideration."

Mystery cruises, so popular out of New York, Southampton and other great ports, were ushered in on the British Columbia coast with the sailing of the coastal liner Princess Patricia, of the Canadian Pacific coastal service, to an unknown destination under sealed orders, recently. Close to 200 passengers were attracted by the trip.

Remove Restrictions - One of the direct benefits that will come to Canada as a result of the Imperial Conference, is that the abnoxious regulations and unnecessary restrictions on our cattle entering the British market are to be removed. There is no question but that Canadian cattle are as free from any disease as any in the world, yet in order to market them in the United Kingdom, they had before shipment to pass an examination, be accompanied on the voyage by a veterinary, and then undergo a period of quarantine landing in the Old Country. All this red tape and delay made it unprofitable to shippers. Now these restrictions being removed, it is estimated that a big cattle trade is assured Canada and that in the next year at least 100,000 head will be sent over, with increasing quantities in succeeding years.

We acknowledge with thanks a copy of "Twenty five years of Ontario's Mining History" sent us by and with the compliments of Hon. Chas. McCrea, Minister of Mines, Ont. Among mining men, Ontario's mining law is considered one of the best in the world and the advance in production since the middle of last century is simply wonderful. The figures run into the millions and are beyond our comprehension. We close with a quotation from the book, showing the value of one industry: "The gold mining industry, which is now Canada's greatest single producer of new wealth, gives employment in Ontario to more than one hundred thousand workers of all categories. Salaries and wages are in excess of fourteen million dollars, while capital invested is more than thirteen million dollars."

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE BLIND?

IMAGINE yourself to be blind and being asked to buy a motor car, or silverware, or clothing, or a pair of shoes, or a clock or a refrigerator, or a suite of furniture. Imagine yourself to be set down in a main office with stores on both sides of it, and being bidden to purchase the thing or things on your shopping list.

Being blind, you would not know what store or stores to enter; and even if you do find yourself in the right class of store, you wouldn't be able to select intelligently what you were bidden to buy. You wouldn't know anything about values. It would be cruel to send a blind person to do selective buying.

You would be like a blind person, when you start out to buy something, if there were no advertisements in the newspapers and magazines which you read.

Advertisements are like radio-visions: They enable you to see in your home what is in stores, what stores have, what you plan to buy; also, they give descriptions, tell you questions and answer many of your questions.

Pre-informed - In your home - about goods of desire, you can go shopping confidently - to know places of supply and you know how to examine the wanted article, and what to pay for it.

Advertisements save your time and safe-guard you against the danger of mischoice. What is advertised regularly, is trustworthy, and is good value.

BE guided by advertisements when you plan to spend money for things to wear, eat, to give your home easements and comforts to save your time, to increase the output of your own labor, or of your soil or flocks or herds or orchards; or to protect your life, your health, your property or money.

WHAT advertisers do and spend in this and in other newspapers to get your attention and savor should have your warm approval, for what may be expense to them represents economy for you.
