score, but the lead was short-lived for Fergus quickly came back with 3, and thereafter held the upper hand, scoring 5 to 2 in third frame and 4 to 1 in the last.
Condition was what told for the victors, as in the last half, Durham boys could not keep pace with them, and failed to check as closely. Games have been few for the locals this year and it being over a month since their last one, Durham simply hadn't the staying power. McEachnie was great in the nets, making some startling saves, while Ries is strengthening the defence. The centre and home clicked well most of the game, but lagged at the close, while the visitors finished fresher.

Reinhart, in Walkerton, died in Walkerton hospital, Monday of last week from lock-jaw. An only surviving brother Jas. also an old-age pensioner, lives at Allan Park.

Auction Sale Prices
A large crowd attended the sale of W. H. Patterson on the town line, two miles north of Pricerville, recently. Cows brought from $29 to $50 and some yearlings brought $12.50 each. A binder brought $25, seed drill $12, cultivator $14.50, all in real good condition. Mr Patterson sold the 150 acre farm to Wm Campbell for $3,300 and is moving to Ceylon.

—"The most amazing coincidence I ever remember was on the eleventh day of the eleventh month and I lived in a house with number eleven on the door, and I backed the eleventh horse in a race."
"And the horse won, I suppose."
"Nothing of the kind. The beastly animal come in eleventh."

Dr Herbert Bruce new Lieutenant Governor

Ontario is again to have a Lieutenant Governor. The orders from Government and the wish of the new appointee, is that all unnecessary fads and frills be eliminated, that savor of expense. Dr. Bruce has let it also be known that there will be no interviews, so that waiting reporters will not be disappointed, or those who want sensationalism. The new occupants are highly regarded, the Doctor having done signal service for his country during the years of the Great War. We hope his tenure of office will be as agreeable to the public as his appointment has been.

THE SHELburne POST OFFICE CASE

It is the old story of political patronage working in and when this happens, not even a military man, who has served his country overseas and who is qualified to hold the position in every way, gets a square deal. The Shelburne Post Office affair bids fair to become another Simcoe Post Office scandal,—in fact it is one now. James Hill Kennedy, who by the way, is a son-in-law of Mr John Aldcorn of Swinton Park, and the man in question, is the victim of these political heaters. The Toronto Globe's editorial of Saturday last sizes up the matter fairly:

"Hon. Arthur Sauve has not yet chosen to tell Parliament, the Canadian Legion, or the country at large why he permitted, or perhaps perpetrated, a gross injustice in the case of the Shelburne postmaster."

A war veteran, James Hill Kennedy of Shelburne, was appointed Postmaster at Shelburne after regular examination by the Civil Service Commission. He was later ordered by the Post Office Department to report for duty on a specific date. Naturally, he resigned his civilian job in order to take up his duties at the Post Office. Mr Kennedy's employers filed his old position. But two days before the date he had been ordered to start work, the Postoffice cancelled its instructions. To this date no explanation has been made for the crude actions by Mr Sauve's Department. A resolution passed by the Provincial Convention of the Canadian Legion was ignored. There is of course, no mystery about the matter to those who know actually what occurred. Mr Sauve cannot tell Parliament that a war veteran was cheated out of his appointment because the hungry hounds of patronage had once again put decency to flight.

Apparently it is nothing to Mr. Sauve that the laws of Canada were flouted at Shelburne. Apparently his philosophy is that when the law interferes with machine politics, the law should be treated as a mere scrap of paper. Apparently, also, it is a matter of no importance that the lawlessness by the Postmaster General's Department not only deprived Mr Kennedy of his public appointment, but deprived him of his private position as well. At least, Mr Sauve has not stopped halfway."

TEACHERS' FEDERATION ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The 13th meeting of the organization known as the Federation of Women Teachers of Ontario, of S. E. Grey, was held in Flesherton, on Oct. 6th.

The president, Miss Mabel Leitmeir, Hanover, called for the minutes of last meeting to be read by the sec'y, Miss Esther Ries, Miss N. Fursman, one of the auditors, gave the auditors report. It was moved by Miss Fursman and seconded by Mrs Frost that the report be adopted. It was moved and seconded that the following officers be elected for the year 1932-1933: president, Miss Edna McHugh, Pricerville; vice pres., Miss E. Oliver; Secy Treas., Miss M. B. Hill.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary represent the S. Grey branch at O.E.A. next Easter. Car. The meeting adjourned after enrolling of members for coming year.

THERE'S A REASON (Flesherton Advance)

Forty-one teachers attending the Teachers' Convention at Flesherton, arrived in cars. Tell it not to the salary-reducing trustees! Mayhap, however, indulgent parents set up the time-saving vehicles.

Who wouldn't go in a motor to Flesherton with our present railway service! It takes a day to get there from Durham by rail.

The Newspaper Man
An editorial in a California paper says that after 15 years in the business a newspaperman becomes reconciled to the following facts: (1) He will always be regarded as some sort of freak; (2) that the favor he does will usually go unnoticed, but his mistakes never; (3) that when he gets in a crowd some one will say jocularly "Don't talk in front of So-and-so, he'll put it in the paper"; (4) that once a week someone will remark that "newspaper work must be fascinating."

Mrs T. Milligan Hostess
A most enjoyable afternoon was spent on Friday, when Mrs Thos Milligan was hostess to the Aberdeen W. I. for their October meeting, with Mrs Will Noble presiding. Fifteen members and fourteen visitors were present. The scripture was read by Mrs Wes Noble. It was decided not to send a delegate to the Toronto Convention in November.

A very interesting talk, containing much valuable information was given by Dr Grant of Durham, 'Health from a dental standpoint.' Dr Grant's address was greatly appreciated.

A couple of delightful instrumental duets by Mrs Shippam and Mrs Davie were much enjoyed. Miss Cleely Hopkins read a good poem, "Is it anybody's business," after which community singing was enjoyed, with Mrs Shippam at piano. The response to roll call was a pickle recipe.

During the social half hour which followed the National Anthem, the delicious refreshments were served by Mrs Milligan, assisted by Mrs W. Noble, Misses Jennie McDonald and Cleely Hopkins. There will be no November meeting and the December meeting will be at Mrs Geo. Twamley's, Friday, Dec. 2nd, when all are welcome.

Messrs John and Clark Morrison, accompanied by their sisters, Catherine and Annie Morrison, Dornoch, spent an evening recently with their cousins, the Misses Smith.

After spending the vacation at her home here, Miss Bessie F. Smith, R.N. left Wednesday to visit friends at Toronto and Niagara, N. Y. before returning to New York.

In the Presbyterian W.M.S. report published last week, the name "Mrs. Burgess" was printed by mistake as "keywoman". It should have been "Mrs. Derby."

Lunch was served, followed by a hearty vote of thanks to Mr and Mrs Fisher for use of their home.

THIRD NOTICE

"Third Notice!" Every editor has received them. The postmaster is not to blame for instance, there is a man by the name of—well say, Pat Dooley, who sent us three notices to stop his paper: he didn't want it any longer. We wondered what was the matter. On investigating our subscription list we found that Pat was short $9.75.

He never paid a cent and yet he stopped his paper as a matter of economy—to us. A few evenings ago we stepped into a church and Pat's clear tenor voice rang out in the song "Jesus paid it all." We may have been mistaken but his earnestness impressed us. The next day we sent him a receipt in full, begging his pardon for not knowing he had made an assignment of his liabilities to the Lord.—Hartney Star.

"I'll see if Ella can come"

The very day visitors were coming, Bob Emery's wife caught a bad chill. She tried to keep going, but it was obvious that she would have to go to bed.

"Now don't worry," Bob said, "Ella's only 30 miles away. I'll just get her on the telephone and see if she can't come and help us out."

Low evening rates on Station-to-Station calls begin 7:00 p.m. Still lower night rates at 8:30 p.m.

A few minutes later they had Ella's cheery promise. Once more, in an emergency, Long Distance had proved quick, dependable—and surprisingly inexpensive.

DOMINION OF CANADA BONDS 1932

On Monday, October 31, Canadians will have an opportunity to invest in a new issue of $80,000,000 Dominion of Canada Bonds. By buying these Bonds you will accomplish two things:

1. You will obtain the soundest investment available to Canadians, secured by the resources and integrity of the Dominion.
2. You will assist in further strengthening Canada's financial position, with favourable effect upon general business.

NOTWITHSTANDING the trying conditions which have prevailed during the past three years, Canada has established an enviable record of financing. For example, among other accomplishments, the Dominion has refinanced—before maturity and at a reduced interest rate—$640,000,000 of its public obligations, due in 1931, 1932, 1933 and 1934.

The new Dominion of Canada Bonds, which will bear 4% coupons, will be offered at a sufficient discount to provide an income yield in line with current interest rates. Within the last few months Great Britain and other countries have arranged important financial operations. In each case, these have met with marked success, investors having quickly recognized the trend toward lower interest rates.

The success of the new Canadian loan is important. It will further demonstrate the confidence of Canadians in their own country and this confidence will be reflected in the money markets of the world.

For national advantage—and for your individual benefit—plan now to buy Dominion of Canada 4% Bonds, 1932, when they are offered next Monday

This preliminary advertisement is published by THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE to enable Canadian investors to make arrangements to participate in this offering.
