PRICEVILLE

Born, on Wed., Oct 19, to Mr and Mrs Arch McArthur, North line, a son. (stillborn.)

Married, on Friday, Oct 21, by Rev Dr McIvor, at the Manse, Priceville, Miss Mary Black, daughter of Mr Joe and the late Mrs Black of Swinton Park, to Walter Stewart of Hope-

Mrs Wm Hincks and baby Mary, George Robertson of Toronto. Rev G. spent a few days with her mother at Markdale. Mr and Mrs Albert McNally, Mr. and Mrs Wm Timmins and Miss Timmins, Traverston, visited Sunday at Mr Alex Carson's.

Misses Almeda and Jean Hincks spent the week end with Miss Ellen Parker, Flesherton.

Mr and Mrs Jno Haw, Mr and Mrs Ed Haw and baby, Swinton Park, along with other friends to the number of 25, enjoyed themselves with music and dancing at Wm Aldcorn's, one night last week.

Mr and Mrs A L Hincks visited Sunday at David Nichol's. The Willing Workers met on Monday at the Manse, with 15 ladies present. Arrangements were made to have a patriotic concert on Nov 11, in the Hall, when a silver collection will be taken. The hostess served a dainty lunch at close.

SALEM ANNIVERSARY

A very interesting service was held at the sister congregation of Salem. on the occasion of their Anniversary. when their favorite of a few years ago, Rev. Mr Prosser, preached ac ceptably to full congregations each service, where every word was listened to attentively. Rev. Bennett, Flesherton, at present supwith Priceville United, assisted at the afternoon service. The choir of St Columba here, 15 in number, led in the music and contributed two fine anthems at the afternoon service. evening service, the solo occurring in the anthem 'One day nearer Home' was beautifully rendered by Mrs I B. McLean. She also was one of quartette 'Heaven is my Home' with Miss Belle Weir, Thos Weir and W.

W. Ramage. Mrs Thos Weir accompanied on the organ throughout. The text from Matt 6: 17-21, where the originality and radicalism of Jesus was testified to by "never man spake as this man.' We are so set in our ways of life as not to be any better and accept in modern times a proper conception of God as a kind and loving Father, who was to be found anywhere in the grass, i trees, in the flowers, quoting "Solo-and groom at their home, when mon in all his glory,' The evening subject was from Mark 3:14, and spoke of Peter's impulsiveness at times, yet showed qualities of leadership and became steadfast and loyal to Christ and finally suffered martyrdom. Paul, tho' persecuter one time, became thru the help of Jesus, a devout worker for the cause of Christ. The church of Christ does not measure up to Christ's teaching in this day and generation. We were pleased to meet with many old friends of many years ago, and many new ones.
