PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Rev J. Moir, B. A. was able to attend services on Sunday last and on invitation of Rev. Mr Bennett came to the platform and expressed his gratitude to all for their kind expressions of sympathy, good wishes and prayers during his sickness at hospital. The congregation are glad to see him back.

Rev J. McIvor was unable to take the services Sunday owing to an attack of lumbago, got while helping the boys to make a rink. Mrs McIvor and Rev. Mr Sutherland filled the pulpit in the morning and the evening service was released.

We take pleasure in congratulating little Aileen Karstedt on winning the fine silver cup trophy with his handsome gold inlaid cover, donated by the T. Eaton Co., Toronto, for the greatest number of points, secured at the Rural School fair held at Flesherston, Armetice. It is a beauty and puts Priceville once more in the glitter.

We too, heard over the radio, referred to last week, the Rev. Wm. Allan, of Dovercourt Road Presbyterian Church commending his devotional exercises to the Town of Durham. We were absorbed in wonderment, why? At last we thought of it all at once. They perhaps required it. Eh, what?

In this connection too, the village of Elmwood, was commended to the throne of grace by the Raymer evening hour program Sunday night. Say, are we still in the Queen's Bush of long ago? It is very kind though.

The Y.P.S. of St Columba returned the kind visit of St John's young people on the 13th inst in Flesherston and provided the whole program. This included seven papers on various subjects: Temperance, Christ-ianism, observances of other lands and other literary subjects. We are glad to hear from that village that the good name of this town had not suffered by this loving neighborly exchange. A pleasant evening was there after spent in the usual pleasantries. The Ball held under the auspices of the newly organized Hockey Club, passed off very pleasantly in the Agricultural Hall. The severe cold and rather short advertising militated against its success financially.

Extensive preparations are being made for the Xmas entertainment, in St Columba, on Thursday, 22nd. A fine program is on the agenda. In addition to a youthful orchestra that will make their debut. The tree will be in evidence, lit and loaded as usual.

The tree in front of the monument has been planted, of fine dimensions 28 feet high. One of our hilarious and versatile young men with an aptitude for training, be they children or colts, tried to convince some of the opposite sex grown ups that the tree was a rock elm: with little success.

Fine musical selections are being prepared for the Sunday services by the choir of St Columba. Mr S. D. McLean went to Toronto for the winter months to be with her daughter, Mrs Richardson. Sorry to hear of the accident that befel our old time friend, Jas Turner, of Laurel, in having his arm broken at two places, it is said. In putting on a belt, his clothing caught on a set screw.

HOPEVILLE

Miss Helen Mitchell, Toronto, is spending over the winter season with her parents. We are glad Mrs. Mitchell is feeling better since her recent illness.

Mr Ainsworth McPhail took the 3rd stroke Monday forenoon and his hours of life are now numbered. He has had a rugged constitution to have stood the inroads of disease for such a length of time.

Mr and Mrs J. Sinclair and Wollerton, attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs Bell, Durham, Monday.

Mr and Mrs Albert Riddell and children, Ferguson, visited his mother, Mrs Jas Riddell. The 13 month old child of Mr and Mrs Geo. Pryde, has been very sick with double pneumonia, at the home of her brother, Walter Stewart. It is now progressing towards recovery.

The community of Hopeville send the season's greetings to editor and family, and all readers. We will all hope for prosperity.

The clerk was instructed to write Railway company objecting to removal of these crossings. Jno McKechnie's (Glenroaden) resignation as S. A. officer for north half of Glenelg, was received and accepted to take effect Dec. 31, 1932. By-law No 757 was passed, appointing W. N. Whitmore and John Boyd as school attendance officers for 1933 for the south and north half of the Tw'p respectively, at a salary of $10 each. Accounts for relief to persons requiring same were presented and paid, amounting to $30.12.

The Road Supt presented voucher No 11 for work performed on t'nskip roads, amounting to $311.15 which was accepted and payments ordered.

Statement $15; Clerk, 25c; $1.00; $2.00.

The Ball held under the auspices of the newly organized Hockey Club, passed off very pleasantly in the Agricultural Hall. The severe cold and rather short advertising militated against its success financially.

No action was taken regarding W. J. Cook's application for refund of dog tax, by reason of dog having died in July. After close of business, meeting with John McGirr in chair, brief remarks were made by members. Regret was expressed at parting with two members of 1932 council, Messrs McKechnie and Boyd. The Reeve thanked all members for co-operation and help in various ways during the year.

The council for 1932 adjourned. H. H. MacDonald, clerk

Death of Mrs John Bell Widely Mourned

Knox Church, Durham, from her earliest years, she was ever "diligent in business, serving the Lord." The missionary schemes of the church carried for her great interest and at the annual meeting of the Women's Missy's Society recently held, she was honored when the office of an 'Honorary President.' She was for many years in charge of the Christian Stewardship and Finance department of the Society and never failed an opportunity to bring before the members their obligations and responsibilities in the evangelism of heathen nations. At a meeting recently she gave expression to the trenchant statement in her speech there that 'we were only playing with Missions.'

Her interests were wide as were her friends and Knox church and community. Her death was a loss to her family and to the church. Surviving her are five sons and two daughters: Dr. Alex M., of Alvinston; Thomas, on the home farm; Rev. John, of Brandon, Manitoba; Miss Jessie, Toronto; George, on the former Binnie farm; Oscar, of Sioux Lookout, Northern Ont.; Miss Mary, teacher at U.S.S. No 1, Eg't and Normanby. Of a family of nine originally of the Binnie brothers and sisters, but three remain: Elizabeth, Mrs Thos Hall, Durham; Thos., of New Westminster, B. C.; Rev. James, of Toronto.

The funeral on Monday in Knox church, was a marked tribute to the memory of deceased, when the building was filled to capacity. Her pastor, Rev W. H. Smith conducted the service, basing his remarks on Prov-erbs 28:31: "Her children rise up and call her blessed." This, Mr Smith commented, "was the most beautiful tribute that could be paid to any mother." There was no word more gracious than "blessed." She was blessed in her home where she pointed the way of salvation; she was blessed in the work in that home, where the heart's love went into and where co-operation could not help but follow; her work was blessed in the community where hospitality and charity ever held out their hand. Finally, she was blessed in the Lord. She fully realized that the church played a supreme part in her life and the opportunity for service and sharing with others was the only ultimate goal in human endeavor for lasting happiness.

Miss Margaret Hunter, organist, rendered softly, suitable music and the hymns sung were favorites of deceased 'O God of Bethel' and 'The Sands of time are sinking.' Mr Chas Lang rendered with feeling the solo, "He wipes the tear from every eye."

The pall bearers were the five sons and a neighbor, Mr Robt McFadden. The latter is the only neighbor now in the Bell community who was residing there when Mrs Bell came to Pine Hill as a bride.

Relatives and friends present from a distance at the funeral were: Rev. James Binnie, Toronto; Jas. Binnie and sisters, Mrs McKinney and Mrs. Sharpp, Erin; Mrs R. Willett and Dr. Alex Willett, Toronto; Messrs Oscar Green and Stevens, Toronto; Mr and Mrs Jas Smith, Mr and Mrs John Stevenson, Holstein; James Bell, of Toronto; Mr and Mrs Alfred Hol-stock, Owen Sound; Mr and Mrs Jno McLean, Shelburne; Mr and Mrs N. McDougall and son Hubert, Mt Forest; Mr Geo. Huth, Stayner; Mr and Mrs Jno. Sinclair, Hopeville.

Floral tokens were from the family; W. M. S. Knox Church; Knox choir; S. S. No 9, Glenelg; Mr and Mrs Allan Bell; Mrs T. McGirr and daughters; nephews and nieces; Mrs Geo. Binnie and daughters; Mr and Mrs J. A. Rowland, Mr and Mrs J. S. McIlraith, Mr and Mrs Palmer Patterson, Mr and Mrs Gordon Grant, Earl Lawrence, Sioux Lookout; Mr. and Mrs E. Willett.

Mistress (angrily)—"Molly, I find you wore one of my ball gowns to a dance last evening. It's the worst piece of impudence I ever heard of. You ought to be ashamed of yourself." Molly (meekly)—"O! was nurn, of was: an me young man said as if oi ver wore sich an indecent dress in public again he'd break our engagement."

Here and There

Buildings which will house the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference at Regina next July and August are rapidly approaching completion and preparations are already being made for the extensive exhibits.

Canada's apple-growing belt is moving northward. Standard apples have been grown this year at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Beaverlodge, Alberta, which is 428 miles north of the international boundary between Canada and the United States.

Canada has entered the British West Africa market for tobacco with a trial shipment of 25 cases of Canadian-grown tobacco, recently. About 77 per cent of British West Africa tobacco has been secured from the United States under the new inter-empire preference.

National Fish Week between October 24-31 has been supported by the Canadian Pacific Railway since 1918 and this year was no exception. The company marked the celebration with special menu cards listing fish products of the sections of Canada through which the railway runs between Saint John, N.B. and Vancouver, British Columbia.

Canada lost one of its best-known and popular railroad officials, recently when Aitken, an assistant superintendent of the Bruce Division, Canadian Pacific Railway, dropped dead in Toronto on his way to his office. Mr. Aitken was 60 years of age and had spent 34 years in the company's service.

The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain was the scene of a wedding reception and breakfast at Quebec recently, following the marriage of Miss, Marthe St-Laurent, daughter of the president of the Canadian Bar Association, to Dr. Mathieu Samson. Five hundred guests filled past the wedding, assembly in the May-fair Lounge of the Empress.

Not forgetting his work as director-general of the National Flood Relief Commission in 1931, China has asked Sir John Hope Simpson, famous British organizer, to join his newly created National Economic Council. Sir John sailed recently aboard the Empress of Canada for Shanghai to wind up the flood relief commission affairs.

The United States Middle West and the Province of Quebec share honors as winners of the Canadian Pacific Bungalow Camps Fishing Trophies which have been awarded at French River, Nipigon River and Devils Gap. G. A. Hoffman, of Cleveland, had a 27 1/2 lb muscogee; C. O. Kalman, of St. Paul, Minn., had a 6 1/2 lb square tailed speckled trout; and O. C. Sclimmeyer, Westmount, Que., had a bass weighing 4 lbs., 14 ounces.

Leaving a money belt containing non-ferrous steamship and rail tickets and a cool thousand dollars or so in cash at his Vancouver hotel, Charles Clarke, Los Angeles, only discovered his loss after his ship, the Empress of Canada, had sailed from Vancouver. Wireless messages to the Canadian Pacific steamship general passenger agent resulted in warding by airplane in time to reach the vessel before she left Victoria. (875)

"The Sheaves that I Bring"

Poem quoted at late Mrs John Bell's funeral service at Knox Church, on Monday, Dec. 19, by Rev. W. H. Smith.

(The following beautiful poem was so in keeping with Rev. Mr Smith's funeral address, that we have asked for its publication.—Editor.)

"My life is so narrow, so narrow, en-veloped by four square walls. And ever across the threshold the shadow of duty falls. My eyes wander off to the hilltops, but ever my heart stoops down. In a passion of love for the babies that helplessly cling at my gown.

In the light of the new day dawning, I see an angelic band, And the fields that are white for the harvest, I am lured by a beckoning hand; But I have no place with the reapers, no part in the soul-stirring strife. I must stay with my babes by the hearth-stone and teach them the lesson of life.

I must answer their eager questions with God-given words of truth; I must guide them in ways of wisdom through childhood and early youth; I must nourish their souls and their bodies with infinite, watchful care. Take thought of the loaves and fishes and the raiment that they must wear.

Dear Lord, when I stand with the reapers before Thee at set of sun, When the sheaves of the harvest are gathered and life and its labor are done, I shall lay at Thy feet these my children, to my heart and my garments they cling; I may not go forth with the reapers—these are the sheaves that I bring."
