The members of the Women's In- stitute and their friends, will hold their annual At Home, in the A. Y. P. A. Rooms, on Thursday, March 2, at 8 p. m.

The Girls' Mission Circle of Knox United Church are holding a skating party at Durham rink this Thursday night, followed by a hot supper at the church parlors.

Hon Dr David Jamieson and Mrs. Jamieson, 166 Roxborough St., Toronto, opened their home last week for a tea under the auspices of the Women's Association of Rosedale Presby- terian Church.

The Allan Park U.F.W.O. held a Social Friday evening, Feb. 17, at the home of Mr and Mrs Harry Reay, Jr. The weather proved quite favorable and a good crowd turned out. The evening was spent in dancing and card-playing and lasted well into the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Caravanian Gypsies Chapter, I.O.D.E., struck a popular chord of feeling among the young people of the town, when they staged an old time community dance on Thursday last, at the mecca popular price of 25c entrance fee. There was a good crowd and a good time. The Teeter orchestra and Mr J. D. McAuliffe and Miss Elizabeth Harding supplied music for the dances. Refreshments were served at close and the party over at 1 a. m. $34 were the door receipts.

Fined on Assault Charge
Charged with assaulting Queen Line, of the local Chinese restaurant, Cyril Becker of town was brought before Magistrate Spreeman in Owen Sound on Monday on information laid by Chief Scott. It appears that Becker had come into the restaurant late one evening and engaged for key of toilet. The celestial refused and told him to go home, whereupon Becker struck him in the eye, badly injuring the optic, and he was badly injured by falling to the floor. Before the magistrate, Becker pleaded not guilty, but on hearing all the evidence, the bench decided otherwise, and imposed a fine of $15 and costs, totalling $31.50.

Splendid Social at Knox Church
The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Knox United Church staged a Saint Valentine Social on Monday night of this week. This was to have been held a week ago, but due to unfore- seen circumstances, had to be postponed. The schoolroom of church was nicely decorated with season's tokens and on small tables were placed crokinole boards, jig-saw puzzles, for those wanting amuse- ment that way. The jig saw puzzle tables were most popular by eager devotees trying to place the many curves into one harmonious whole. There were also Valentine games and an auction sale was conducted of the world's masterpieces (?) were dis- posed of by auctioneer P. Ramage. There was a delightful Irish sketch, "Bridget's Investment," in which Misses Helen Gerrie, Winnie Blyth, M. Koch and M. Mertley were charac- ters. A touching tableau was that of an aged Darby and Joan (Mrs Dan McCallum and Mrs Jas. McLachlan) sitting before a fireplace reminisc- ing while Mrs Clarence McGill rendered sweetly "Love's Old Sweet Song." Miss Winnie Blyth and Alice Ramage contributed a duet "The Sweetest Story ever Told" and Mrs R. M. Sparling and Miss M. Walker, B.A., gave timely readings. Rev. W. H. Smith was master of ceremonies and light refreshments were served at close.

Durham 2, Erin 1, in 1st Sr. Northern Semi-Final

A 1-goal lead was all Durham could accumulate here on Wednesday night in the first Senior Northern Semi-final play-off against Erin, last year's opponents. The mild evening meant sticky, slushy ice which prevented good hockey, and a great deal of bat- ting the puck up and down the ice prevailed to relieve scoring danger around the nets.

Erin team appears to be a stronger one than last year: they are good shots and nimble checkers. Sanders on the wing and Barbour in the nets looked to be most effective.

The visitors had slightly the best of the opening frame and scored the only goal, but Durham went strong all the second stanza. R. McGill tying the score with a close-in shot, while McArthur's drive on receiving Wil- son's perfect pass put Durham 1 up.

At start of third Durham almost scored twice and peppered Barbour in nets, but neither team was able to count again. Erin assumed the of- fensive toward the close and gave McDonald quite a bombardment, but he or the defence turned all aside.

The return game will be in Erin on Friday night and in their miniature rink, Durham will be extended to the limit to hold the lead and win the round.

THE ROLL CALL

MISS SARAH BROWN
The death took place in Hamilton, on Monday, Feb. 20, of a former set- tled resident of 2651 Cecil, Egrem- ont, in the person of Miss Sarah Brown. Deceased had made her home with her sisters, Mrs (Rev) J. Trux and Miss Maria, for some time, and since Christmas she has had thoughtful and careful attention from them. An attack of the flu so weak- ened the patient down, that there was little resistance left to battle other complications which developed. A daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Thos. Brown, she was one of a fam- ily of eight, two of whom have pre- viously died: Lizzie (Mrs G. Leith) and Mary (Mrs James Hamilton).

The surviving members are William, of Holstein; Thomas, Durham; Eliza- beth (Mrs Andrew Henry); Hestine; Alice (Mrs Trux); and Miss Maria, of Hamilton.

As one of the elder members of a pioneer Egremont family, deceased experienced many of the hardships incident to pioneer life. These she accomplished with a brave heart. Al- ways of a quiet and retiring nature, she also was the possessor of a lov- ing and kindly disposition and her friends will ever cherish kindly thoughts of her.

Many years ago, the parents and two daughters, Sarah and Maria moved to Holstein, where they lived until her removal to Hamilton, about five years ago.

The remains were brought to the home of Mrs. Andrew Henry, Holstein, from where service will be held this Wednesday, interment in Amos cem- etery, Brimore.

KNOX W. M. S. ORGANIZE A BABY AUXILIARY

The W. M. S. of Knox United Ch., met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Mc- Gill, on Thursday, Feb. 16. Mrs. Jas. Mather presided and the meeting opened by singing Hymn 493 and the Lord's Prayer. Among the many items of business, it was decided to have a Baby Band in connection with the cradle roll and to ask Mrs Scott to address our Society at the Easter meeting. Miss B. French of the Hills Indian Reserve, was chosen as the missionary for special prayer for the year. The bible reading, Psalm 95, was read by Mrs. Ledingham and Miss Isabel McKenzie, Herald for India, told something of Dr McKellar's ideas of that country. Hymn 625 was sung and Mrs W. Derby offered prayer. The Devotional leaflet, "The Woman in the Home" was read by Miss Isabel McGill after which was a duet by Mrs Sticecane and Miss Blythe, and given by enjoyed. The topic, "The early Mission of the Methodist and Con- gregational Churches in the West," was very ably taken by Miss Margar- et Hunter. Mrs Alder gave a talk on "Christian Stewardship", stressing the fact that Service was Stewardship. The Theme song was sung and Miss Margaret McGill gave closing pray- er. A missionary contest after the meeting was both interesting and in- structive.

Overwhelmed Palmerston in Jr. Semi-Final Round

Durham Juniors meet Port Elgin in Jr. Northern Finals next week

Palmerston proved easy opposition for Durham Juniors in their quest for Northern League honors, the locals winning by 6 to 1 in Palmerston Saturday, and 9 to 0 in the return game here Tuesday, making it 15-1 on the round.

Port Elgin recently won out over Walkerton in semi-final play-off, and Durham will now meet Port Elgin in the Junior Finals the first game in Port Elgin next Tuesday and last in Durham, Thursday, March 2nd.

This makes the third successive year Durham Juniors have been Northern League finalists. Two years ago they were champions, last year they lost out to Owen Sound Dairy team, and this year, while not over-con- fident, are hopeful of again landing the silverware.

In the game at Palmerston, Durham had no 6-1 margin on the play- book mere finish around the nets, and superior net-minding gave Durham a safe lead.

The second forward line of Law- rence, G. McGill and N. Tucker were used frequently and showed up well, McGill getting two goals. Bill Arnall played his best game this season, blocking well and gave the opposing players no chance to break through Patton played his usual game but showed signs of playing too much hock- ey for a lad his age. Bolger had his poke check working to perfection and broke up many plays at centre ice.

Elmer Tucker, who trails the left bears, had the goal-keeper guessing on his shots, and got his usual long- kick, hitting the top corner of net. Jack Lauder was right there at right wing and made many perfect passes out from the corner, but his mates failed to make goals of them. Good- child was not used much but when on showed up well.

Schutz played his usual game in the nets which is good enough. Jack would make any Junior goal keeper hunt for his berth, near or far.

The game was fairly rough. Dur- ham got only two penalties. Their motto was "Stay on the ice, take what you get and come up smiling." Palmerston got away with consider- able rough play which had a tenden- cy to slow the lighter Durham team up. However they weathered the storm and came out of the fray with a secure lead.

DURHAM 3, PALMERSTON 0

For the first period it looked as though the Durham game Tuesday night might be a much tighter contest. The visitors showed speed and check- ing ability and held Durham to one cor- ner, scored by E. Tucker on a long- range, first by Lauder on a penalty play, next by Bolger off Tucker's re- bound, and by Lawrence from a scramble, and last by Norman Tuck- er—a long drive. The third saw a more bulge the Palmerston nets, two by E. Tucker, one by Lawrence and one by Bolger on a neat passout from Lauder on a corner. Meanwhile Schutz blocked everything coming his way but had few difficult shots to handle.

Marsden at centre and Struke on wing were the visitors' best. The Palmerston team are well built and good skaters, but lack checking and the art of goal-getting. Their goals were not effective Tuesday, as he had some ligaments torn in his leg and the limb was stiff from being in a cast.

With the form displayed by Dur- ham lads, however, they were almost unbeatable. Seldom did the for- wards break past Patton and Arnall on defence, while the forwards re- vealed some smart team work and forward passing. Joe Raybould of Walkerton fame was referee and had an easy game to handle.

Durham: goal—Schutz: defence—Patton, Arnall; centre—Bolger; wings—E. Tucker, Lauder; subs—N. Tuc- ker, G. McGill, Bert Lawrence, Good- child.

Palmerston: goal—Dobbie: defence—Bridgford, Collins; centre—Mar- den; wings—Struke, English; subs—Barton, Fair, Horne, Farquharson.

He'd Successful Euchre
About a hundred of the sisters and brothers of the local Rebekah Lodge and their friends, enjoyed a night of progressive euchre in the I.O.O.F. lodge rooms Tuesday. Miss Bernice Whitmore captured the prize for the highest score among the ladies and W. J. McGill the men's prize. Lunch was served at close and almost $25 was realized.

Gov't Short Courses Have Proven Popular

The first regular meeting of the Durham Short Course Literary So- ciety, was held Friday, Feb. 17, from 3 to 4 o'clock, the pres. Mr Geo. Mc- Cullough in the chair.

The meeting was opened with a chorus by the joint classes. "It's a good time to get acquainted," fol- lowed by chairman's address in which he stressed the need of co-operation to make success. Miss Winnie Blyth then sang "When Irish Eyes are Smil- ing." Miss Annabel McArthur gave a Scotch reading, "The Hint," mouth- organ selection by Geo. Mighton, ac- companied by Jack Coutts on piano.

The reading of the Durham Short Course Gazette by Mrs Jno Hamilton showed considerable preparation and caused much laughter. Miss Norma Grogan then rendered a piano solo, followed by a pleasing solo by Mrs Joe McCallin. "When the organ played at twilight."

The debate "Resolved that a good natured slouch is preferable as a wife to a tidy grutch" was brimful of fun and pep. The affirmative was upheld by Misses Marjory Caldwell and Mabel Sharp; the negative side by Jasper Traynor and Geo. Bailey. The judges were Mrs Clarence Robinson, Miss Mary Moffat and Mr Engel, the lat- ter giving the decision in favor of the affirmative side.

A chorus entitled "The Bells of St Mary's" brought the program to a close. Mrs J. H. Shearer the acting critic for the meeting, gave her re- port which was very instructive. Af- ter the National Anthem the officers were elected for the coming week as follows:

Pres., Miss Annabel McArthur; Vice Pres., Lloyd Moody; Sec'y, Miss Mabel Sharp; Treasurer, Joe McCullough; Editor Gazette, Jack Cou's; Reporter for girls' class, Mrs C. Rob- inson; Press reporter, Miss W. Blyth

A boys' choir will be a feature of both services. The service will be followed by a "Father and Son" banquet on Monday evening, Feb. 27th, in Queen St. church schoolroom, when Alex. Sim, Boy Premier of Ontario, will be the guest speaker. Admission to banquet, men 35c; boys 30c, or father and son for 60c.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs W. J. Derby and Mrs. John McGill, South Bendick, have been visitors in town the past week with Mrs Jas. McDonald and other friends.

Misses Ward Koch and Donald Smith of St Catharines and Thorold, respectively, were week end guests at their homes here.

Mr Lorne Smith, Toronto, accompa- nied by his nieces, Miss Wilma Smith and Mr and Mrs Arch. Cle- ments, of the city, motored to Dur- ham Saturday, surprising the latter's parents. Miss Wilma is stenographer in Lorne's warehouse in the city.

Miss Amy Kelly, Toronto, was a week end guest of Mr and Mrs A. W. H. Lauder.

Mr Gordon McCree of the Faculty of Forestry, Toronto University, was home over the week end.

Mrs C. R. McIntosh, North Battle- ford, has left to spend a couple of weeks at Victoria, B. C.

Miss Olive Middleton and cousin, Nell Middleton, Toronto, visited at her home here over the week end.

Mr and Mrs J. F. Sumpton and daughter Audrey, Dauphin, Man. were visiting at Mrs Wm Ritchie's this week.

Mr Harry Kress, Toronto, son of Mr Geo. Kress, Hanover, formerly of Durham, has opened up a drug-store at Chatsworth, and with Mrs. Kress, has taken up residence there.

Miss Charlotte Patterson, Norman- by, was operated upon for appendi- citis Sunday at Durham Hospital.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mrs Elizabeth Haw, Swinton Park, announces the engagement of her daughter, Ethel Elizabeth, to Mr. Donald Alexander McConnell, young- est son of Mr and Mrs Angus Mc- Connell, Proton Station.

HOW THEY DO IT AT NORTH BATTLEFORD, SASK.

(North Battleford News) Last Saturday a miniature Bread War was waged in this city, starting with two loaves for five cents, the prices dropped to 1c a loaf; finishing up at closing time the price had dropped to five loaves for three cents. With milk at three cents a quart, bread and milk provided a cheap meal over the week end. The price on both these staple articles was back to normal early in the week.

FIRST HIGH SCHOOL CON- TEST PROGRAM HEARD

The fifth meeting of the Literary Society of Durham High School, was held on Feb 17. As was arranged at last meeting, the boys and girls were each to put on a literary meeting, to be judged and these judges to give their decision at the last meeting. The boys were responsible for Fri- day's program and the girls' literary will be heard March 3rd.

Friday's program proved a success. The president opened with a short address, minutes of last meeting read and adopted. The first program num- ber was a selection by the Glee Club, followed by a mandolin number by Victor Goodchild. A debate: "Re- solved that Communism as is being worked out in Russia to-day, tends more to social progress than the American social system," gained much interest. The affirmative side was up- held by George Almack and Gordon Grant; the negative by Ronald Rudd and Donald Knight. The judges' de- cision on the debate was given by Mr Pearsall, giving the decision to the negative side.

The orchestra rendered two good selections, followed by step dancing by Jas Armstrong and Jack Lauder. A speech by Allan McLean proved of great interest; Jim Henderson gave a piano solo and the boys' quartette sang a few songs. A pyramid of eight boys caused much excitement. After another Glee Club selection, the National Anthem and the school yell closed the meeting.

Grey and Bruce Officials Re-elected at Annual Meet'g

The 55th annual meeting of the Grey and Bruce Mutual Fire Insur- ance Co. was held at Hanover on Feb 21st. Mr John Mills was chair- man and Wm Ruttle, Secretary.

The Company had a good year. Mills presented the annual report, which was fully discussed. One item of expenditure was $523.80 paid for inspection of buildings, which it is believed was good business for the Company. It was found in one par- ticular case that a barn was insured for $1500 and after inspection, the amount was reduced to $500.

This same barn was burned by a thresh- ing machine, thus on the risk a direct saving of $1000 to the Company resulted. This was only one instance and the meeting fully endorsed this new departure by the Company. Great stress was laid on the careful handling of lanterns, especially in barns.

A Directors' meeting followed, those present being Doug. McKinnon, Angus McArthur, Jas Metcalfe, Henry Logie, Spence Nesbit, Herb Brichman, John Cooper, Neil McLeod, Robt. Parslow.

Those re-elected: Doug McKinnon as President; Angus McArthur, Vice President and W. Ruttle, Manager. Duncan McLean and W. J. Ford were appointed auditors. The five retiring Directors were reappointed, and Jas Metcalfe elected in place of the late Hugh McLean.

The directors of the Grey and Bruce have adopted a new method of dealing with the policy holders. They purpose visiting the holdings of mem- bers in order to offer suggestions for the better protection of property. It is felt that a good deal of fire loss can be overcome by a policy of hav- ing men accustomed to visit fire haz- ard, visit the properties in order to discover if such hazards exist and they will thus be able to render a service to both the policy holders and the company by suggesting safety methods.

As the company's statement points out: "Man has been fighting fire all through history. The fire demon is no respecter of persons. Fire hazards lurk concealed. The surest way to avoid fires is to hunt out and remove hidden dangers. Inspection is the best protection."

The Provincial executive of the On- tario Prohibition Union, will meet in Willard Hall, 29 Gerrard St. East, Toronto, at 10.30 a. m. on Wednesday, March 1st. This meeting will be of unusual importance and every mem- ber is urged to attend.

COL F. F. HUNTER HAS LARGE RATIO AUDIENCE

We were glad to dial on Tuesday evening to CFRB, Toronto and hear Col. F. Fraser Hunter's voice once more. The reception was splendid and not a word was lost. Col. Hunter is now director of Military Studies at University of Toronto and was speaking over the air on Tuesday as one of the "Canadian Personalities", put on by the National Council of Education. His topic of course, was on the future of India, as he sees it. There could have been no more au- thenticative man secured, for 24 years of service in the East with the British Imperial Army, has given him inside information that few receive. In his address on Tuesday, he stated that the battle of the future would not be in the House of Commons, but rather in the soul of India.

The A. O. T. S. Class held its regular meeting Monday in the base- ment of church. Mr Almack opened with prayer. Lucy Robbins read the scripture, followed by a piano solo by Kathleen Milne. Rev Mr Billing- sley was the guest speaker of the ev- ening and gave an interesting talk to the young people. The closing hymn and Missop benediction brought this part of evening to close. A social hour was spent and games played, followed by lunch.
