Mr. W. Armstrong from Tara, has purchased from Mr. Chas. McGillivray, the vacant lot opposite the Ford garage, at one time occupied by the old skating rink, and purposes erecting an up-to-date garage and service station thereon this spring, to cost $3000 to $4000. It will make quite an improvement to the property and extend the business district of the town.

Will Hold Old Time Soiree

Many members of Knox Ladies' Aid Society enjoyed themselves at a needlework tea on Tuesday, at the home of the president, Mrs. G. S. Kearney, when social chat and business relating to the Society, were intermingled. An old-time congregational soiree was planned for Thursday, March 9, at 6 p. m., to be held in the basement of church—all for the modest fee of 25c. The menu is to be such that the most critical epicurean will be delighted. Miss Elsie Kearney provided piano numbers: Miss W. Blyth and Mrs. C. McGillivray solos and Mrs. Sparling a reading. Light refreshments were served at close and the social hour gave great pleasure.

Barn Destroyed by Fire

The barn in rear of Traffic Officer C. Hodd's residence, in upper town, went up in flames last Thursday afternoon and is a total loss. It was used as a storehouse and garage, but fortunately there were no contents of great value to be consumed. Hot ashes had been dumped at west end of barn and with a strong wind blowing, a spark had probably been carried through crack, or eaten its way through boards to quickly combustible straw inside, for when first noticed flames were enveloping the interior from west end. The sheet metal roof prevented sparks and embers escaping, to endanger other barns and buildings nearby, before the fire brigade got two streams playing and they soon had the blaze in control. The structure was a well-built one, owned by Dan McAuliffe of Glenelg, and it carried a fair insurance.

THE ROLL CALL

MRS GORDON HASTIE

Many were the expressions of regret and sorrow, when it became known that Mrs. Gordon Hastie (nee Mary Campbell McKechnie) had passed away Wednesday last at the hospital at Watsonville, California. Death has been the outcome of a severe flu attack, which so weakened the patient down, that there was no resistance left to fight other complications that arose. Mrs. McKechnie left ten days previous to be at her daughter's bedside, and everything possible was done to stay the hand of death. But to no avail. Mrs. Hastie was 29 years of age.

In November 1931, deceased left the only home she ever had, for California, to be wedded to Gordon Hastie, son of the late Walter Hastie and Mrs. Hastie, of Holstein. They took up housekeeping at Watsonville and everything pointed to a long and happy marriage. But now happy memories but remain. She is deeply mourned by her husband, mother and brother Jack, in T. M. McFadden's drug store.

Mary was the possessor of a cheerful and winning personality and had the faculty of making friendships wherever she went. She was treasurer for some years of Knox United Auxiliary, and this Society forwarded to the bereaved home a telegram of condolence. Burial took place at Watsonville, Cal., on Friday last.

Premier Alex Sim Speaker Gov't Short Course Classes at 'Father and Son' Banquet in Durham are Completed

LITERARY MEETING The members of the Durham Short Course Classes in Home Economics and Agriculture, held their second literary meeting on Feb. 23rd at the pres. Miss Annabelle MacArthur occupied the chair and was responsible for the fine program following. After the usual preliminaries the program was introduced by a chorus, "There's a long, long trail." The minutes of last meeting were read and accepted. Then followed a comedy skit by three of the boys 'General Repairs' in the course of which Clarence Hargrave undertook a serious operation under the capable hands of Dr. Joe McCulloch and his able assistant, G. M. Leeson. A duet by Mrs. J. C. Hamilton and Mrs. C. M. Leeson was well rendered; a reading by Mrs. V. Blythe, was both humorous and interesting. The reading of the 'Gazette' by John Coutts claimed unusual attention and was well received; Miss Isabel Sharp gave a humorous recitation in her usual capable manner. A skit 'The arrival of Uncle' by 3 boys and 3 girls and read by Mrs. J. Hamilton, added to the variety of program: a solo by Miss Norma Gagnon was well rendered and quite appropriate. Chorus "She's just an all Canadian girl" closed the program. Mrs. M. Lowe, R. N., then gave her critics' report, in which she favorably commented on each number and applauded the talent shown in the production of the entire program. The National Anthem closed the meeting.

With Dr. J. F. Grant as toastmaster, a bright hour or two of toasts and addresses was in store. The first toast to the King, was responded to by singing the National Anthem. "The Church" was ably proposed and responded to by Geo. Almack and Rev. J. Billingsley. "Our Country" found in George Noble a good exponent, the response being singing "O Canada." Glen Lloyd proposed the toast to "the Fathers" and Mr. R. E. Richardson responded, proposing a toast to the sons. Robt Milne proposed "Our Mothers" to which Mrs. Almack suitably replied. "The Ontario Boys' Work Board" was proposed by Harold C. McKechnie and responded to by Premier Alex Sim, of Holstein, in the address of the night, his subject being "Training for Life."

In training for the race of life, we should have a definite plan. We must learn self-denial—as any athlete well knows, who must deny himself many things. It is the little things that count and life is made up of little things. "Have you a plan for your life?" he enquired. The best training for it, he was advised, is to live each day at its best. It is the simple choices, refusals and decisions that count. Everything in life is a decision: we're ever deciding between right and wrong. Do we hold the laws of health sacred as we should? Our thoughts mould our lives. What are our stray thoughts and actions? As a man thinketh, so is he. He challenged the boys to live as Jesus did—the supreme example of life.

The trouble with the world to-day may be summed up—selfishness. Selfish desires and interests prevail. Lloyd George says only two men in the world know where they're going—Stalin and Mussolini. What are we doing to advance Jesus as the Saviour of the world? to bring "Thy Kingdom come" on earth? The constitution of the 'Kingdom of God' is the sermon on the mount. Great changes must come in human hearts, not by laws, or the League of Nations. His closing words was a challenge to live and die the Christ life. Brief addresses by Rev. W. H. Smith and Rev. W. C. Almack followed and Glen Lloyd received a well-deserved tribute for his energy in promoting the banquet. A vote of thanks to the ladies then, "Auld Lang Syne" closed a well spent night.

BANQUET FEB. 24th

Friday evening, Feb 24th, the joint classes, together with their friends and their parents, gathered at a banquet in the basement of the Presbyterian Church. One hundred and thirty one sat down to a sumptuous supper that was indeed a credit to the ladies in charge and their assistants. The menu consisted of baked ham, with brown gravy, Potatoes; Vegetable combination; cabbage salad; apple pie and cheese; rolls and coffee. Between the various courses while the dishes were being removed and replaced, the classes under the chair leader, Mrs. C. M. Leeson and pianist Miss Norma Gagnon entertained with songs and yells, most of which were original and quite appropriate. Under the guidance of our capable toastmaster, Mr. G. M. Engel, the various toasts and responses were carried out with much success. Mr. Engel proposed the toast to "The King," responded to by the National Anthem. The toast to "Our Country" found its response in "O Canada" and beautifully responded to by Miss Marjorie Caldwell. The toast to "Our Guests" was proposed by Mr. Jack Coutts and responded to by ex-Warden Bell, Mayor W. H. Cress, Reeve W. S. Hunter, Rev. J. Armstrong and Billingsley. The toast to the "Agricultural Representative" was proposed by Miss Myrtle Lawrence and responded to by T. S. Cooper. "The Staff" toast was proposed by Mr. Joe McCulloch and responded to by Mrs. M. Lowe, Mrs. Joan Hamilton Shearer and G. M. Engel. The toast to the "Girls' Class" was proposed by Geo. McCulloch and responded to by Miss Marjorie Pickering. The toast to the "Boys' Class" was proposed by Miss Ethel Hargrave and responded to by

KNOX AUXILIARY MEET AT THE MANSE

Knox Auxiliary were entertained for their regular monthly meeting at the manse, on Monday evening, Feb. 27. The president, Mrs. C. McGillivray was in the chair. The meeting opened with devotional exercises, hymn "Just as I Am" and Mrs. Catton leading in prayer. The Devotional Study was taken by Mrs. (Rev.) Smith. The paper on Stewardship and Finance was given by Miss Barbara Ritchie. The chapter from the Study book, "A half century of Missions" was given by Mrs. Jas. McLachlan. Miss Alice Ramage rendered a solo "He was Despatched" from Handel's 'Messiah.' It was decided to have a Jig Saw Puzzle Social on Thursday evening, March 16, in schoolroom of church. A pleasant hour was spent in sewing for the sale. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. A. Ries, butcher for C. B. Lawrence for some time, has this week brought his wife and family over from Hanover and are occupying the Kinnee apartment, recently vacated by Mr and Mrs Lawrence, who have moved to their farm at Edge Hill.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. E. K. Hampson, Hamilton, the guest speaker of evening, gave an interesting and instructive address. Then came the presentation of prizes, with Miss Annabelle MacArthur receiving the prize for the Sewing Class; Miss Ethel Hargrave for the Nursing class; Miss Mary Moffat for the Cooking class; Mrs. J. C. Hamilton for General Proficiency. In the Boys' Class, Mr. Jasper Traynor received the prize in grain judging; Mr. Geo. Bailey for stock judging and Mr. McCulloch the General Proficiency prize. The singing of the National Anthem closed this part of the entertainment, and the party was getting late, the party made their way to the Town Hall, where a couple of hours were spent in dancing, music provided by Mr and Mrs Jack Teeter.

The banquet and the social hours after, were really a part of the class work and, as such, were necessarily confined to the members of the two classes, their friend and their parents. A number of new acquaintances were made during the classes in Durham and it is hoped, that through the various channels of the new organizations formed, these friendships may be strengthened and maintained. Every single member of both classes were over and it was with much regret that we bade our teachers adieu. We trust to be kept in touch with them and be favored by frequent visits from them.

Durham Tied Port Elgin in First of Junior Finals

Durham 2, Port Elgin 2, was the outcome of a stirring 60-minute battle in the first of the Junior finals in Port Elgin on Tuesday night. Tonight's game (Thursday) in Durham will decide the championship.

The contest was one of the how-to of the season. Referee M. Howke of Southampton, had a busy time waving the boys to the cooler and the home team drew the lion's share of the penalties.

With keen ice to start, a fast clip was set with several sensational attacks in the first 15 min. However Patton and Arnill stepped into the attackers with strong body checks, while the lakersides husky defence were equally effective. In the closing minutes however, McKay broke Durham defence and passed to Davidson in front of the nets, who beat Schutz for the first counter. Right after, Cottrill picked up a loose puck behind Durham net and slipped it in the corner, for No. 2, when Schutz thought a Durham player had it on the other side of net.

Durham scored once in first period and again in second, but neither was allowed, because a home goal umpire refused to admit puck had entered nets. After he was removed and substituted, Durham lads secured justice. Following a steady attack, Ed Patton unloosed a sensational rush and shot, to beat Jeffrey's cleanly to Durham's first.

That made it 2-1 for Port Elgin. The homesters failed to count again, but half way through third period, Elmer Tucker's drive found the nets and Durham had evened it up. Both teams finished cautiously, waiting for a break, but none appeared.

Davidson at centre, who played for both Southampton and Port Elgin this year was the Port's star performer, while McKay and Jeffrey were also good. Durham presented a well-balanced outfit, who played one of their smartest games. Arnill on defense, is now equal to the best of them and with Patton blocked many a charge. Lauder and Tucker were also prominent and the second line of N. Tucker, McGillivray and Lawrence, displayed the snappiest team play of the night, but were out-lucked in the goal-getting.

Durham—goal, Schutz; defense, Patton and Arnill; centre—Bojers; wings—Tucker and Lauder; alternates, McGillivray, Lawrence, N. Tucker, Goodchild.

Port Elgin—goal, Jeffrey; defense, McKay and Lamont; centre, Davidson; wings, McLean and McGillivray, alternates—McLean, Campbell, Cottrell and Schrank.

Erin Eliminated Durham in Senior Northern

Wednesday night saw Durham dropped from the Senior Northern Hockey semi-finals in the first round when Erin won a 6-1 contest at home. As Durham gained a 2-1 victory here in first match, the Southerners took the round 7-3. Erin will now probably be matched with Milverton and Paisley with Palmerston in semi-final struggles and the two victors play off, sometime before spring, we hope.

Trinity Church A.Y.P.A. Present Amusing Play

There were no dull moments on Tuesday night for a capacity audience in the Town Hall, when "Am I Intruding" was presented by a youthful dozen of the members of Trinity Church A. Y. P. A. That the comedy "went over big" may be attributed to the zip and zest the players put into their actions and lines, their clear enunciation and thorough training, they received, with Mrs. A. L. Baldwin as director.

As Jerry, the simple country youth, Rev. J. Billingsley kept the audience convulsed with laughter and the rest of the cast well fitted into their parts and staged many amusing scenes and sayings in the numerous comic (!) situations they ran into. There were no weak spots, whether as the hero, the lover, or loved ones, or the villain, they depicted their roles in a manner worthy of professionals. And this was only the debut for most of them!

The cast included: the housekeeper, Miss Emily Hunt; an adventurer, Lawr. Hopkins; Mr. Vane, the father, Reg. Steeds; his daughters, Misses Alma Kress, Anne Baldwin; a friend, Miss Jean Webster; their lovers—(Jerry) Rev. J. Billingsley, Don Knight, Jack Gagnon; Vane's niece, a writer—Miss Dorothy McFarlane; her secretary and lover—Robert Webster. Misses Orlinda Hahn and Marjorie Noble supplied music between the acts.

The Society will clear about $50.

Junior Northern Final Here To-night

Thursday night, March 2nd, will see the Junior Northern Championship decided in Durham rink. Holding Port Elgin to tie game at home, Durham's prospects for a second title are bright, still the local boys do not underestimate their stalwart opponents, and realize they will have a stern battle to gain and hold the lead. Raybould of Walkerton will be referee. Our Juniors are playing real hockey now and should draw a record crowd for 1933 for to-night's final league game of the season here. Here's success to them!

Have Seen Fifty Five Years of Wedded Life

Dr and Mrs A. C. Wolfe are growing old gracefully. While the health of Mrs Wolfe has not been the best of late, she is able to converse with all around her and nothing gives this couple more pleasure than to meet and entertain old friends. Sunday, Feb. 23rd, was the 55th wedding anniversary of Dr and Mrs Wolfe and was observed quietly. On Saturday evening, Rev. Walter C. Almack and several members of Queen Street United Church Board gathered at the house and presented them with a beautifully bound Hymnary and a large sheet of flowers and voiced their appreciation of their splendid active service they had always given their church. The Ladies' Aid, represented by Mrs G. Sparling and Mrs Robt Aljoe, called the same evening and presented them with a plaque and extended the good wishes of the society. Many friends have called in the last few days to extend congratulations.
