PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

MRS. JOHN MATHER
The passing away after a comparatively short season of sickness of Mrs. John Mather, cast a wave of sorrow over the community. She was universally loved and highly respected. With a friendly acknowledgment to all who were held in the highest esteem by all who knew her, as was testified by the large turnout at her funeral on Saturday last. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Moir, who spoke feelingly and appreciatively of the deceased, and commended all to look, as she had done, to her God and Saviour, an ever present help in time of trouble. Her husband died 32 years ago, leaving her with two sons, William, still on the homestead and Tommy, who paid the supreme sacrifice overseas, on Oct. 26, 1916, the anniversary of his parent's marriage. There is also a lone daughter, Lizzie, with whom she lived in town. Deceased's sisters are Mrs. Sharp, Hampden; Mrs. Harrison, Chatsworth; Mrs. Bailey, Haver and Miss Bella Laidlaw; one brother George and three sisters, Janet, Maggie and Bessie predeceased her.

Rev. Mr. McIvor also took part in the services by reading and in prayer. Mrs. Brawley, of Beeton, (Louise Watson) and Mrs. W. Watson and Mrs. Bryce of the Presbyterian Church, lent their aid in the choir, who sang softly and sweetly that impressive hymn "Nearer my God to Thee", while the last farewell look was being taken of the form of the one deceased.
Honorary pall-bearers were Mr. Ray McLean and Mr. W. F. Shackleton. Active pall-bearers: George Jacklin, Frank Jacklin, Chas McAllister, R. W. Vause, George L. Sharp, Wm. H. Mather, Thos. Cross, Robert Harrison, all nephews, but Mr. Vause.

There were sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Jas Mather, St. Columba, W.M.S., Mr. and Mrs. D. G. McLean, Olive and Harry; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Karstedt and Jane; Mr. and Mrs. Ray McLean.
Friends from a distance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jacklin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacklin, and Mrs. R. McKinnon of Chesley; Mrs. M. Lynn, Robt. Lynn, Mr. A. Park, Miss Bessie Laidlaw, Mrs. Gordon Smith and Mrs. W. Sharp of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Mather, Mrs. Mrs. Jas Mather, Mr. and Mrs. Chas McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Sharp, Durham; Mr. R. G. Harrison and Robert, Chatsworth; Mrs. John Ross, Weston; Mrs. Thos. Chase, Dundalk.

At the morning services Sunday, St. Columba worshippers were favored by Mrs. W. Brawley, of Beeton, with a fine solo in a clear sweet tone, devoid of tremolo and yet with splendid enunciation in "My Lord and My God". She again assisted at the evening service in the choir's voluntary. Through the prevailing colds, the choir is lacking the fine efficient voice of Mrs. H. B. McLean at the present time, while for ourselves, we were able to reach the "cellar" better than for many years. But in the words of the old song, we are hoping for "better times, when the Springtime comes, gentle Annie."

At the evening service, Rev. Mr. Moir spoke of the union of qualities in the character of Christ. His power was combined with gentleness, His enthusiasm with calmness, His suffering with joy. In Him, all the desirable characteristics of humanity were perfectly combined and He is the perfect example for all of us.
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McLean who have had their share (perhaps more than their share) of colds, are now progressing favorably and able for passing duties.
Miss Edna Brock too, under the Dr.'s care for a week with the prevailing cold, is again in attendance at the High School, Flesherston, much to the delight of admiring ones there.
We sympathize with those who were lately called up to mourn the loss of one dear to them. We ourselves feel the separation in the cutting off of many pleasant conversations in braid Scots between us.
We were pleased to meet with Mrs. D. G. McLean, on returning from a winter's stay in Toronto, with her daughter Olive, Mrs. H. Richardson.

SWINTON PARK

We are sorry to say that Mrs. John Reid, Egremont, is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Lane. Mrs. Reid has been over a year with the "Lanes", and in all that time in poor health yet generally able to be up and always busy with her needle. But last week this old lady slipped far down the brags of life, and little hope is held for her recovery. The other members of the family were called, Mrs. McRobb, Arthur; Mrs. Wm Coleridge, O. Sound; also Wm and Fleming Reid of Egremont, have been with their mother at times. Mrs. Coleridge is remaining to assist in waiting on the old lady.

We notice by a Moose Jaw paper of March 5th, the death of Douglas Ferguson, at the age of 81 years. He died on Saturday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. McEwen of Chestnut Ave. He was born in Ontario and has lived in Moose Jaw for the past ten years. The funeral was held on Monday to Rosedale cemetery, Rev. T. Hind and Rev. Dr. Wilson officiating. Mr. Ferguson was one of the real pioneers of Proton and lived for about 60 years on lot 2 con 18, if not born there, coming at a very early age, with parents, brothers and sisters. We believe he is the last of his family.

Mr. Ferguson was married to a Miss Ferguson of Minto township and to them were born five daughters and two sons. Mrs. Ferguson died in 1902. The youngest daughter, Agnes, wife of Robert Aldcorn, died in Moose Jaw in 1928. There are left to mourn two daughters and one son in the West, and two daughters and one son, yet in Ontario, but only Mary, Mrs. Leslie Watson, Dundalk, in this locality. Also a number of nieces and nephews, among them J. A. Ferguson of near Holstein; Chas Ferguson, con 22, Egremont.

Mr. Robt. Knox, Swinton Park, is spending some time at present with his daughter, Mrs. Wm Meads in Artemesia, at present.
Mr. Edgar McLeod has gone to Toronto for a few days.
James Sturrock is working in Riddell's mill at Hopeville this week.
Walter Knox is assisting John Hill in preparation for the building of a barn, at present.

Miss Jean Hill is visiting with Mrs. Wesley Heard, con 15, Proton.
Died: Harry can be found up an apple tree these days, busy pruning. Most of our farmers are among the maples, trying to catch the sap, but as yet, in this locality, there has not been much to catch and is mixed rain water. But one of these days there will be a rush.

Our churches in this locality were poorly attended last Sunday, weather and roads of course were not the best. Yet the ministers were able to come from Priceville. Were we lazy or indifferent? Communion on Easter Sunday in the Park, should call out a goodly number.

MERCHANT PRINCE, T. P. LOBLAW, HAS PASSED ON
Toronto and the Province of Ontario, are saddened over the death of a good man, T. P. Loblaw, President of the big Groceries that bore his name. His has been a remarkable career, rising to the head of a business known over the continent, the creation of his own dreams and success in the financial world did not spoil him; rather he felt his profits should be used as a trust for extending the good and true in this world. Lately he has been much in the public eye, through his vital contact with the famous Oxford Group and the changing outlook on life it had brought him. "It is this feeling," says the Toronto Daily Star, editorially, "that he had not reached the peak of his career, that he was capable of still greater things of benefit to the community, that his life was cut short at its most promising period, that intended enunciation in 'My Lord and My God'."

It is this feeling, that he had not reached the peak of his career, that he was capable of still greater things of benefit to the community, that his life was cut short at its most promising period, that intended enunciation in 'My Lord and My God'."

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO
From Review file, April 4, 1918
It what we hear is true, some farmers around Durham are more intent on sowing sweet clover than wheat. At this time of food crisis, it is nothing short of criminal to devote 50 or 60 acres, or even half of this to this crop, when the need for cereal crops are so great. We notice that steps are being taken in Wellington Co. to stimulate wheat production and we hope it is not too late to impress farmers in this district with the importance of patriotically coming to the rescue by devoting more acreage to spring wheat.
Mr. Wm Lawson has sold his 75 acre farm immediately north of town, together with all stock and implements to John W. McKechnie, who after two years of town life, will go back to the land.
Mr. Murray Smith, an old Durham boy, has been promoted to the management of the Standard Bank at Cambridge, and Percy McFarlane, well known here, from that place to Harrieston.

Having successfully completed his second year in dentistry, Arthur A. Bensus has returned to Poplar Hill, where he intends farming for the summer.
Miss Marion Marshall of Toronto Normal, is home for the vacation.
All single men placed by the Medical Board in Category B, who are in Class 1, are to be called to the colors this month, it is officially announced. "All A" men who did not receive partial or complete exemption are now in khaki. "B" category men who are fit for overseas service, other than those in the trenches and as more men are required for railway construction and various army services. The "B's" who are physically fit are this week being called. It is expected to have all exemption claims heard before end of April, as there are many fewer "B" men than there were "A's". There are about three or four dozen young men in town and immediate vicinity in this class, we understand.

Nurse Carmont has disposed of her private hospital on Countess St., to Mr. Peter Glen.
Yeovil; Last Wednesday one of the pleasant events of life occurred, at the home of Robert Nicholson, when his daughter Lizzie became the bride of James Bunston.
Holstein; Mr. Joe Bilton and family, are getting comfortably settled in their new home in the village.

25 YEARS AGO
From Review file, April 2, 1908
The announcement that 20,000 men would assemble in Quebec in July, to take part in the Tercentenary celebration going on this summer, Lieut. Torry has written to H. H. Miller, at Ottawa, with a view to finding out what chances a detachment from Durham might have.

Monday last an engine of the C.P.R. made its way on its way west, and we presume found the line open as the altitude fell. On the heights of Priceville 800 feet above Durham, the banks were many and heavy.
Born, at Cleveland on 23rd March, to Dr. and Mrs. Edward Lauder, a son.
Born, near Varney, on March 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Robt Pettigrew, twins, son and daughter.

On Sabbath, March 29, Rev. Mr. MacMahon completed ten years of service to the congregations of Priceville and Swinton Park.
Mr. Brad Jamieson is home at present and attending in part to his father's practice. Dr. McLaurin, we regret to hear is ill in Toronto.

Mr. Art Pickering, brother of Dr. Pickering, who played lacrosse on the Durham line-up for a month or so two years ago, intends going to Panama this summer to engage in construction work.

Dornoch; Tuesday, the cosy home of Wm Lochewe was the scene of an enthusiastic gathering, the occasion being the holding of a farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lochewe, prior to their departure for their new home in Western Canada.
Tuesday, March 24, over 40 of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Geo Smith, con 3, Glenelg, assembled at their home to say good-bye for the sake of 'Auld Lang Syne'. Mr. Smith has sold his farm and is moving away.

Hampden; Miss Lizzie Park returned to her home at Carlisle, after some five or six months at the Post Office. Lizzie is a constant cheerfulness has made her a great favorite at the Corners and she will be sadly missed.
At 11 a. m. Friday last, the Town Hall was crowded to the door with interested citizens assembled to witness the proceedings against about 50 voters of the town of Durham, alleged to have voted illegally. Among the number were Returning Officer Vollett who voted on the By-laws and two candidates to be elected. As he was unable to have justification. As he was unable to have justification. As he was unable to have justification.
