PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

A fine turn out graced St Columba Church on Easter Sunday, to hear Rev. J. A. Moir preach from the text, "Now is Christ risen from the dead."

His outstanding life, work and sacrifice was fully dwelt upon. It was necessary that the Disciples should know and believe in the living Christ, after the shock of His death, after His triumphant entry as an earthly king as they all thought,—the 500 being but a small proportion to the many who had seen Him. He came from the grave to the earth and ascended up into Heaven to His Father's right hand.

The choir, though crippled by colds, sang the voluntaries announced last week. At the evening service the text was "After that He appeared unto them in another form to two of them," illustrating how Christ adapts Himself to our needs.

The recently organized orchestra assisted in the hymns sung and also also played as an offering two musical selections "St Christopher" tune, as a violin solo, by Mrs G. Whyte, and "The Old Rugged Cross". The personnel of the orchestra was Mrs. G. Whyte, Stewart Muir, John McKechnie, Allie McInnes on violins; Miss Mary McKinnon, Mattie McConeg, guitars; Mrs J. C. Harrison on organ. It proved a fine drawing card.

The second, or alto, played by J. McKechnie was an admirable pleasing effect. Beautiful flowers by Mrs Fred Karstedt, decked the table.

While our two teachers are missed being on their holidays, their place is taken by Alick McLean, Allie McInnes, Misses Muir, Parslow, and Walters and Arthur Hutton and perhaps others.

Mrs Malcolm Cameron, a one-time resident here, is at present on a visit to Mrs D. G. McLean. Other visitors were Miss Doris McLean (one day) and Mrs J. Macfarlane (nee Anna Mary McLean) and Sadie McKinnon.

Mr and Mrs Ed. Watson and son Arthur, are at present on a visit to his mother, who is not feeling well. Mrs Brawley, Beeton, is still waiting on her mother.

Mr Gilvray McLean and friend, Tiverton and Miss Jean McLean, Toronto, spent the week end at Hector McLean's.

Mrs Fred Runciman and Mary, and Alroy McLean, Toronto were visitors at Mr Collin McLean's for Easter.

Mr Donnie McLean Toronto spent, Easter at his home here.

Mrs Meuser and Miss Marjorie, O. Sound, are visitors with Mr and Mrs A. McCuaig.

Mrs A. Richardson and family, J. Carson, Swinton Park: Miss Sadie Carson, Toronto: Mr and Mrs Wm. Wilson and baby Donald, Trenton, spent the week end at Alex Carson's.

The plastering of the new church is now completed.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed on Easter Sunday and a large crowd was present and listened to a fine Easter sermon by the pastor, Mr Melvor and Mrs Dan Campbell sang "The old rugged cross" very sweetly. Three new members were added to the roll: Alma McLean, Donalds McLeod and Mary Effie McPhail. At the evening service, Misses Nellie McLean and Monica Lambert sang in a duet, "Alone."

The young people presented their play "Civil Service" in Markdale Presbyterian church when a large crowd was present.

Mr Hugh McPherson had an auction sale last week. Geo Duncan wielded the hammer. Mr McPherson and sisters purpose moving to Ceylon shortly.

The Young People of SALEM CHURCH, PROTON will present their play "Mother Mine" in St. Columba Church, PRICEVILLE on Friday Evening, April 28 Admission, 25c and 10c.

SWINTON PARK

Owing to weather and road conditions last week, our budget failed to get away, so will send some of it now.

The most notable event was a birth on Sunday, April 9, when a daughter was born to Mr and Mrs George A. Black. Congratulations.

There was a great flow of sap the beginning of last week, keeping everyone busy. Much sweetness is the result.

On Sunday, April 9, in the absence of Dr Melvor, we had Mr John Y. Fraser of Knox College in the pulpit. He gave a splendid address on that old text "Because thou art like warm, neither hot nor cold, I will spue thee out of my mouth. We have on several occasions heard discourses on that text, but never, we think, brought out so clearly and applied to the attitude of the churches so fittingly, in our own case, and we think to many churches of the present day. Mr Fraser was not an en tire stranger here, he having preached here on occasions during vacancy. We were glad to meet him.

On Good Friday evening, Preparatory Services were held in the Park, with a small attendance. Easter Sunday the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed, when a very good congregation considering the roads were out, and enjoyed very much Dr Melvor's discourse on the crucifixion of Christ, also the resur- rection.

On Wednesday of this week the W. M. S. will meet in the church at 2 p. m. The Session and Managing Board will also meet on this occasion from an adjourned meeting on Sunday to discuss finances.

The young people of the community are at present endeavoring to organize a soft ball team, but claim young ladies are very scarce in this locality. We wish for them a good summer's clean sport. First learn the rules, then endeavor to play the game fair, always taking the umpire's word. We older people would wish you to win, but much better to lose sometimes without a frown, than to win unfairly.

We have just finished reading that wonderful book "Auld Lang Syne" by Ian MacLaren. Of course you have to be tainted with Scotch to fully enjoy it, especially if you were brought up with old folks who in their every-day life, used just these Scotch phrases and expressed those sentiments. We received it as a present on our 50th wedding anniversary, from friends and will gladly pass it on to our neighbors. It tells how to be good neighbors and also Christians. We hope to read it again as the years go by to bring to mind the teachings of our youth.

Mr and Mrs E. E. Cook and son Hugh, Durham, visited the first of the week with his parents, Mr and Mrs W. J. Cook.

Mr Archie Greenwood and Miss Muriel Brown, Bentinck, visited Sunday with Mr and Mrs H. C. Ritchie.

Mr and Mrs Jas Peart, Mrs J. J. Peart, Mrs Geo. Peart and son Robt. attended the reception on Friday night in honor of Mr and Mrs Ashley, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs J. Hudson, near Hanover.

Mr and Mrs A. S. Hastie and family, Durham, visited at W. J. Greenwood's and H. C. Ritchie's homes the first of week.

Misses Elsie and Isabel Mays, of Guelph, and Miss K. M. Firth, Durham, spent the holiday with Mr and Mrs Ben Mays.

Mr John McNally, Durham, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs Hugh McArthur.

Mr and Mrs Kenneth Vaughan and daughter Phyllis, Arthur, visited the first of week with Mrs H. Smith. Miss Rebecca Banks returned home, after a few weeks there.

The monthly meeting of the W. Institute met at the home of Mrs T. Glencross last Thursday, with 23 ladies present. The meeting opened with singing the Institute Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. After the business part of the meeting, community singing was enjoyed by all. A paper on the life of William Wainwright, was given by Clara Greenwood, followed by a duet by Mrs Arthur Robinson and Mrs Jas Peart. An instrumental was also given by Mrs Peart. The roll call was answered by giving your Christian name and a pet grumble. After the National Anthem, lunch was served by the hostess and assistants.

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file, April 18, 1918 Mr John Greenwood, divinity student, leaves this week for his appointment at Calais, Alta.

While coming down stairs, leading up to Dr Grant's office, little Jack, the three year old son of A. W. H. and Mrs Lauder, fell striking his chin against the stone base at bottom. This was somewhat rough and cut his chin to the bone for a length of two or three inches requiring several stitches.

Mr Robt Burnett has recently purchased a six cylinder McLaughlin Buick touring car through Agent N. P. McIntyre. Mr Jos Atkinson, Glenelg, has purchased a Chevrolet touring and Rex McGowan a large Chevrolet model 1290 runabout which he drove home factory at Oshawa.

Two more young men of this locality have been called up under the Military Service Act. Mr Geo. Arnett left for Toronto to report Wednesday and John Grady is to go in a few days.

Messrs Jos. McNally, Thos J. Wilson, W. H. Hunter, Thos Tucker, Roy Lawrence, Dav. Hooper, Edwin Wells, Irvine Anderson, John McKenzie are recent possessors of Ford cars.

Priceville: Pte Hector McDonald, writing somewhere from France, says he was still training on March 17. Though it was St Patrick's Day, he says there wasn't much shamrock to be put in his head gear.

While driving their runabout home-wards to Dromore Tuesday evening, Miss Mary Findlay, accompanied by Misses Florence Renwick and Gladys Eccles were very fortunate to escape serious, if not fatal injuries. They were passing W. Ferguson's place, about three miles west of Dromore, and Miss Findlay, who was driving, steered toward a better part of the road. The end of her glove caught the throttle lever, pulling it wide open, and the car leaped into the wide open, and the car leaped into the wide open, and the car leaped into the wide open.

Sorry to hear Mrs Thos Walton and Mrs And. Wiltshire are still bedfast. Improvement is very slow.

Mr and Mrs Harry Scott, son Jimmy, and Miss Beulah Burnett, spent Easter at home of his mother, Mrs. Jas. Scott and attended the church services in the village.

We understand Mr Neil McEachnie has rented Mr Geo. Scott's farm, on con 10, for this season.

Mrs Walter Benham, Eleanor and Betty, are spending the Eastertide with her three daughters in Toronto. We are glad to hear Mr MacPhail is receiving successful treatment and feeling better.

Very glad to hear Mr Walter Stewart is now on road to recovery from a severe illness. Nurse Arnett, Conn, and Miss M. Copeland are assisting in the home.

25 YEARS AGO

From Review file, April 13, 1908 At a meeting of Westminster congregation, Mount Forest, held last Thursday, a call was extended to Rev Wm Cooper, of Port Perry.

Born in Normanby, on 27th March, to Mr and Mrs Geo Marshall, a son Mr Calder on Tuesday last, held a successful 'At Home' in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs Finlay Graham, of Midland, who is a guest over the Easter vacation.

Mr Moore McPadden of Pickering, was in town and vicinity for a few days.

Mrs Alex McCormack, son and daughter Aberdeen, have moved into their new residence in Upper Town, the former Gordon property.

Messrs J. W. Crawford, Durham; W. L. Dixon Dromore and Mr and Mrs Lochhead, Dornoch, left last week for Sask. Three cars of settlers effects went with them.

Married, on 25th March, 1908, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev Henry Berry, Priceville, Mr. Thos. Harrison, Jr., of Egremont, to Miss Sarah Louisa, daughter of Mr. Abraham Hooper, esq., of Top Cliff, Glenelg.

Mr J. E. McIntosh, formerly of Mt Forest, is at present engaged installing the acetylene lights in town, which are giving entire satisfaction.

CANADIAN AUTHOR MAKES BIG HIT

The literary hit of the year has been made by Frederick Niven, an author residing near Nelson, B.C. whose novel entitled "Mrs. Barry" is described by "Compton Mackenzie in the Daily Mail as a profoundly moving book, and is hailed as a classic worthy to stand beside Sir James Barrie's "Margaret Ogilvy". Although Frederick Niven has a long list of books to his credit, and has always enjoyed a following among the critics, this is his first appearance among the "best sellers". He worked his way through Canada early this century, and at one time handled baggage and freight for the C. P. R. at Nelson, B.C. He eventually took up a small holding on Kootenay Lake twenty years ago, where he has secured excellent local colour for his western stories.

"Mrs. Barry" is a novel of life in Glasgow, where at one time Frederick Niven edited a newspaper.

Physicians Skill is Taxed

Little gray-eyed Philip gazes at you hopefully. Perhaps you can mend his damaged toy? Yes, that can soon be done—but to help mend his damaged lungs, his weakened little frame, is a work of far greater moment.

It will tax all the care and skill of the kindly doctors and nurses of the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptive Children to bring this about. However, there is hope even for Philip, as there is for so many other little children who are being cared for in all institutions.

Contributions to assist this great work are needed, however, and a gift of money from you will be most welcome. Please send it to G. A. Reid, 223 College St., Toronto 2.
