consider important and serious. They do not mention money matters. And the church desires that none should stay away from the meetings for lack of an offering. That is purely a secondary matter. There are none of the objectionable features of certain types of emotional evangelism. They believe in and are in league with the Power from on High.

Monday evening being Young People's night, Mr. Baisdon gave a stimulating address on "The Challenge of Big Things." On Tuesday evening Mr. Young presented "The Good Shepherd" in a very vivid and lucid sermon. On Wednesday night, Mr. Daniel clearly outlined "The Way of Salvation." All three are musical songs; Mr. Daniel has a wonderfully deep and pleasing voice. Having been for a time in the Sunny South and hearing the darkies sing their spirituals, Mr. Daniel favored his hearers with such negro spirituals as "Deep River," "Standin' in the need of Prayer," and "All God's children hab shoes." His other solos, together with the harmonious trios and duets, add considerably to the effectiveness of the services.

It is to be greatly regretted that the visit of these enthusiastic young men is of necessity so short. They will be holding only five more meetings: Thursday night, Friday night, and three great meetings on Sunday, June 4, 10, 31 a. m. and 7 p. m. in the Glenelg Centre Baptist Church. To all these services everyone is most cordially invited.

Durham Leads District by Defeating Alliston

With a 13 to 9 victory over Alliston, their strongest opponent in the Tri-County League here on Tuesday night, Durham lacrosse club assumed a clear lead at the top of the group standing, and assured themselves of a place in the play-offs.

Alliston fielded a husky, well-balanced team, who are reputed to be the class of their vicinity. They defeated Camp Borden 12 to 10 last Friday and Owen Sound 14 to 3 previously. Quite a number of supporters accompanied the team here. Durham played the same line-up as before, except that Lorne Ries replaced S. Rowe on defence.

The game was a ripper, especially in the third period, when several impromptu scraps broke out, and a procession of men of both teams filed in and out of the coop. It was a tough game to handle, but the referees, Bradley and Smith of Barrie, the latter Vice President of the League, were capable men and held the upper hand.

It was as speedy and close-checking box-lacrosse as ever was seen here, and in the first frame, Durham turned on the juice and had the visitors bewildered by their smart, snappy, passing attack, which produced 7 goals, the visitors counting 3. The second frame saw Durham count 3 more to 1 for Alliston, Dean getting two of Durham's, the latter on a brilliant lone effort when he eluded three or four checks.

That made it 10-4, but the visitors decided they had to get into the game and the heavy close checking was on, with a flow of penalties. Alliston had the better of the play-throughout the third and scored 4 to 1, almost all goals being won by Durham's failure to check the man shooting. After the first period the visitors had one or two men constantly guarding McDonald, Durham's sniper, but he eluded them in 2nd to score again on a neat pass from Dean. At end of 2nd, Becker was slashed across face, cutting open his upper lip. A very aggressive player, Durham felt his abatement, but he pluckily came back, bandaged up for last period. In 4th, Durham again went strong, with Alliston only 3 goals behind and added 2 more, Snell dodging four opponents to score the last. Alliston again counted and Dean shot a clever goal, only to have it disallowed because the referee had rung bell when ball bounced high a moment before and he thought it lost.

Durham will play the return game Friday night in Alliston.

Farmers' Half Holiday Last year West Luther Council attracted considerable comment from all over the province by its effort to establish Saturday afternoon as a weekly holiday throughout the summer months. The effort was attended with considerable success. This year the Township fathers hope for better things. At their last meeting the councillors passed a motion to continue the Saturday half-holiday and invited the co-operation of their fellow citizens. No one needs a weekly holiday more than the farmer.

"STOP LIGHTS" ARE NOT APPROVED SIGNALS A case of interest to all motorists was heard before Judge Morley in Division Court at Meaford, when His Honor ruled, that ordinary "stop lights" on cars are not approved signals to indicate left hand turns. Those Elliott of Euphrasia Twp. was suing Noble Arthur, Meaford, for $118.60, while Arthur had entered a counter claim for $120. The case arose out of an accident which happened just south of Collingwood on June 29th of last year. The evidence showed that Arthur had intended to turn left but that the only indication he had given of his intention, was to slow down, showing his "stop light." Elliott had thought he was going to stop and had attempted to pass him without blowing his horn. A collision resulted. After ascertaining from the Dept. of Highways that "stop lights" were not approved signals within the meaning of the section of the Traffic Highway Act, dealing with left hand turns, Judge Morley found Arthur and Elliott equally negligent. He accordingly awarded the plaintiff $59.30 and costs and the defendant $60 and witness fees.

Parliament Waxed Hot Over Redistribution Bill

MISS MACPAIL'S WEEKLY LETTER

Redistribution has occupied the whole time of the House since I last wrote. Rumours were afloat that Parliament was to prorogue at this fixed hour and that, but it did not and has not.

The "Elder statesmen" deliberated many hours, and were, I believe, able to iron out some of the difficulties, but not a sufficient number to end the debate. Charles Bishop writing in the Ottawa Citizen, sums up the whole situation amusingly: "The Dove of Peace which was fluttering around the House of Commons yesterday, flew out of the window last night. There was thunder and lightning and at the same time ominous rumblings within." And that was a week ago.

Mr. Motherwell's method of sticking his cane through the map has proved effective. His constituency was difficult to restore—restored it is true at the expense of another Saskatchewan constituency. The Hon. Robert Weir, Min. of Agriculture and the Rt. Hon. MacKenzie King had a warm interchange of complimentary statements. Mr. King took the ground that he had not been chivalrously treated, that the Government had deliberately sought to make his return as difficult as possible. Mr. Turnbull, the chairman of the Saskatchewan redistribution committee, was moved to ironic mirth at the talk of chivalry, reminding the House of the treatment given Mr. Meighen at Portage La Prairie.

The debate moved from Province to Province with only the members affected taking part in the debate and since the boundaries of ridings are known only to those who live in the locality, or who have studied intensively the map of one Province, the debate has been particularly uninteresting. The longest debate so far has been that concerning the redistribution of the Province of Quebec. Powerful speeches were made by Mr. Lapointe and Mr. Cardin. Mr. Lapointe stressed the importance in Quebec of the boundaries of the counties, municipalities and parishes. His argument was that this redistribution violates them all and charged that there was a determination on the part of the Government to give Liberals, making some seats perfectly safe for the Liberals, but diminishing the number in which they had a fighting chance. Mr. Pouliot made many forty minute speeches and all the time groups behind the scenes were trying to reach an agreement. There was some talk that the Prime Minister would make the final decision but this he evaded, standing instead behind the committee's report and endorsing it as one of reasonable equity. The Prime Minister's view is that reasonable justice is being done to the Opposition.

"Without going into the details, Mr. Chairman," Mr. Bennett said, "I must say that I have not reached the point where I believe that human nature is so constituted that those who for the moment are out of power, are unwilling to recognize that fact. In all sincerity may I say that while the Liberal party is in the ascendancy provincially and federally in point of the numbers of members from the Province of Quebec, in this Parliament there happens to be in power a Conservative administration. Is it not fair to say that Hon. gentlemen opposite must recognize that fact and recognize the further fact that when a choice has to be made in one of two given ways you must expect that choice to be made in the way that will be most advantageous to the party in power. Is that unfair? Is that not what has always happened in regard to anything?"

The Liberal Leader, Mr. Mackenzie King, came out definitely in favour of proportional representation. "I believe that the only true method of securing a representative Parliament is by a system of proportional representation properly worked out with regard to the Dominion as a whole." He went on to claim that during his time as Prime Minister, the Government had introduced a measure dealing with proportional representation in city constituencies, but the measure was not re-introduced because the government had not a majority in the Senate.

Immediately after 1921, Mr. W. C. Godd, who was then M. P. for Brant, urged Parliament to adopt proportional representation and he kept the urging up session after session. He was undoubtedly an authority on the subject: I recall when he finished speaking there was practically nothing left to be said, though in brief speeches the Southeast corner did support him. His constant hammering at the subject induced the government to introduce the bill of which Mr. King spoke, but that the Liberal government at that time was not particularly interested in the legislation is shown by the fact that the bill only got first reading.

There was nothing to prevent the measure being carried in the Commons since all our members would have supported it. It is to be hoped that by the time we get around to redistribution again public opinion will be strong enough to secure through Parliament proportional representation in thickly settled communities and a single transferable vote in any single-member constituencies left.

OBITUARY

The deceased lady had been ill for six weeks, but prior to this time she was very active and took a deep interest in all affairs of the community and the country at large. She read extensively and thus kept abreast of the times in spite of advancing years. She was a life-long member of the Methodist Church and later the Episcopalian Church and when the edifice erected at Northwood, her former home she was chosen to lay the corner stone. In Chatham she was closely associated with the work in the Park St. United Church in the Missionary Society and the Ladies' Aid, and she also was a valued member of the Sunshine Society of this city for many years.

Mrs. Stephens was born in Northwood, her parents being pioneers of this district. She had lived in and around Chatham all her life. At the age of 18 years, she was married to William Henry Stephens, farmer of the Northwood district. 33 years ago they came to this city, where they took up their residence on King St. W. Mr. Stephens passed away in 1908, after which Mrs. Stephens took up her residence at 178 Thames St. where she has since made her home.

Two children survive, Mr. Samuel Newcombe of Northwood and Mrs. C. D. Kent of this city. Also four grandchildren, Helen and Jack Newcombe and William and John Kent.

The funeral will be held Friday, from the residence of Mrs. Kent, to Maple Leaf cemetery.—Chatham News.

JOHN A. WILSON

(The following obituary carries interest to many in Egremont Twp., because of the fact the late Mr. Wilson was born and brought up in Egremont. His mother at the good age of 84 years, still enjoys fair health at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John C. Fairbairn.)

(From the Charlottetown Guardian, Prince Edward Island)

The very sudden death of John A. Wilson of Alberton, which occurred on April 27th, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, was a great shock to his family and to the community in general.

Mr. Wilson although not in robust health, was about attending to his duties the day previous, but was suddenly stricken and rushed to the hospital, where despite the best medical skill he passed away the next day.

Deceased was born in Egremont Twp., Ont., in 1874, and when a young man went to Edmonton, where he remained for about twenty years, carrying on an active business as a building contractor. He also held the positions of Building Inspector and Chief of the Fire Department of the city of Edmonton. Eleven years ago he moved to Alberton, P.E.I., and became interested in the fox industry, which he carried on very extensively up to the time of his death.

The late Mr. Wilson was a man of sterling qualities, a man who loved his home, his family and his work and his death has brought sorrow to a large circle. His cheerful disposition, Christian faith and high sense of honor will long be remembered by those who knew him best. He was a public-spirited citizen and always ready to do his part for the welfare of the town.

Those left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and devoted father, are his widow, formerly Marg. L. Champion, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Champion, and two daughters, Marion, a nurse-in-training at the P. E. I. hospital, in Charlottetown, and Isabel, attending Mount Allison University, Sackville; also his mother, Mrs. John Wilson, and one sister, Mrs. J. C. Fairbairn, both of Holstein and one brother Edward in Vermillion Alta.

Mr. Wilson was a member of the Alberton United Church and the funeral which was very largely attended, was conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. S. Weir, assisted by Rev. W. J. Phillips, interment being made in the Anglican cemetery. The members of Zetland Masonic Lodge attended in a body and conducted the last burial rites over their departed brother.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, bearing silent testimony of the love and esteem in which deceased was held by neighbors and friends.
