THE ROLL CALL

MRS GEORGE FIRTH

There died in Grand Valley Monday of this week at the home of her daughter Martha, (Mrs Hunt) an early resident of Genelev Township, in the person of Mrs George Firth. Had she lived until this September, she would have attained her 84th birthday. For most of the past winter, she has been an invalid, resulting from a slight paralytic stroke, and has been tenderly cared for by her daughter and sister, Miss Jane Ritchie.

Mrs Firth was the eldest child of the late William Ritchie pioneer resident of Genelev. Though born in Vaughan Tp.—where so many of Grey County's pioneers first saw the light of day, she came in childhood's years to the Ritchie clearance in No. 9 School Section today, shortly after coming to the present George Ritchie homestead at Edge Hill. Here she grew to womanhood and was married to the man of her choice by Rev Wm Park of Durham, in 1872. Their home thereafter was on the present John Firth farm at Edge Hill, until about 20 years ago, when they removed to the Jessopville district, Dufferin County. To them were born a family of seven children, two of whom are deceased, Will and Tena. The remaining members are Martha, (Mrs Hunt) and Ellen (Mrs Hale) of Grand Valley; Jack, of Shelburne; Joe, of Jessopville, and Dan of Newmarket.

Twelve or fourteen years ago, Mr. Firth passed away and she has since resided with members of her family. Mrs Firth possessed a bright and cheerful nature and was conversant of all that went on around her, and made it a delight to talk to. She was a lover of her family and family links and enjoyed coming in contact with old friends and relatives. Last year she was the oldest attendant at the annual Ritchie re-union in Holstein Park.

Her brothers and sisters surviving are George at Edge Hill; Mrs Moffat, Pinkerton; Mrs Arch Ector, Elbow, Sask.; and Miss Jane Ritchie, Durham. The remains were brought to Durham, where after service in the Anglican Church, Wednesday, the remains were laid beside those of her husband in Trinity Church cemetery.

PRICEVILLEITES ENJOY AN OUTING TO SHRINE AT MIDLAND

A pleasant trip was had by the Y. P. S. of St. Columba church on Saturday last, under the management of Principal F. Shackleton of Priceville Academy. The trip was had by way of Cuckoo Valley to Thornbury, thence to Wasaga Beach to Midland and to the Martyrs' Shrine near there, making the trip there in four hours and ten minutes with several short stops on the road.

The difference in growth of the crops were noted thru the valley earlier than here, and also the fine fruit bearing locality, leading up to Clarksburg.

Old memories were stirred within me as we sped over the beach where we tramped to Penetang shanties in the late fall of 1871. Nothing then but logs, limbs and roots washed up by the waves, now a famous resort, wonderful in its length of beach, and shallowness of its water far out. Passage over the river was then by boat, drawn by hand over hand, on a rope stretched across the river. Midland, one year later, was (in 1872) dropped in upon, when it contained five (what would be called shacks now) and a saw mill was being built close to the water's edge, where the logs were to be lifted by chain from the rafts floated in. What a contrast today!

Arriving at the shrine, lunch was had at the comfortable pavilion, with spring water flowing from a pipe nearby. In our visit to the Shrine, old historical memories were revived by the martyrdom of the Priests, 12 in number. Six of the twelve martyr Saints lived for some time at this first great centre of civilization, and Christianity in this province, where they ministered to the 20,000 Hurons living here then in the 17th century. (In the years 1639 to 1649.) The first five martyrs shed their blood in the vicinity of Fort Ste Marie (visited)—in Ontario, the other three near Arville, N. Y. In our visits through the buildings and grounds, we were graciously accompanied by His Grace ter Gladys was united in marriage to James Murray, Stratford. Mr Peter Matheson was in Owen Sound last week refereeing a lacrosse game between O. Sound and Southampton. Holstein: Will Seaman returned home from Omsa Saturday for a week's holiday before removing to Cheyenne, 500 miles farther west, to which place he has been promoted by the Union Pacific R. R. Co.

What looks like discrimination against small towns came to light recently thru the Meaford Public Utilities Commission, says the Mirror. The local commission applied to the department of highways for a refund of gasoline tax on gas bought for its use in fire trucks, but to be informed there would be no rebate as it applied only to cities and "separated towns" and Meaford does not come in either class. Now the Mirror asks why should a city get a rebate and a town of 2000 be refused? The commission has asked for an explanation and should have one. Further, if the alleged discrimination is a fact, there should be no delay in placing all municipalities on the same level.
