PYROIL Lubricated Gasoline

The Gasoline that Lubricates the Valves and Upper Cylinders

"PYROILA" introduced into the heat ridden top of the motor with the gasoline, lubricates where no oil can exist. No motor heat can burn it nor wet gas wash it away.

"PYROIL B" added to the crankcase oil gives silky trouble free performance and practically abolishes repair bills.

"PYROIL" builds lubrication into the metal. It is rubbed into the bearing surfaces under pressure by the motor in action. It penetrates the microscopic pores and interstices of the metal as ink penetrates a blotter, filling them to a smooth, slippery, glassy surface which releases friction drag, increasing power and mileage.

KNOX CORNERS

There was no service or S. S. at Knox on Sunday on account of the funeral of the late Mrs Mead. Rev. Mr Honeyman assisted at the funeral service, at which almost the entire congregation from Knox attended. A good attendance at the Y.W.A. and Mission Band, held in the church on Saturday.

Miss Mary McAllister returned home from Toronto last week to spend some time at her home.

Miss Margaret Watson spent over the week end with London friends.

It is surely with London friends that we write of the death of Mrs Earl Mead, formerly Miss Carrie M. Wilton, which took place in Durham hospital on Friday morning last. The deceased was a member of Knox Church and a most faithful member of our choir for a number of years. Her kindly Christian spirit and willingness to help made her many friends and the very large funeral on Sunday told of the esteem in which she was held. She has gone home in the prime of life and the loved ones left behind, will sorely miss her. We cannot understand the Heavenly Father's dealing at times like this, but some time He will make it plain and we shall understand. We who are spared, should be ready for we know not how soon He may come for us. We join with the community in sympathy for the husband and father and brother, and the little children who cannot realize their great loss and to all other relatives and friends who mourn her passing.

Mrs Jas. Petty returned home on Monday having made a very quick recovery from her serious operation. Mrs Chas Drumm, Holstein, and her daughter, Mrs McLaughlin of Hamilton, visited Sunday at the Thompson home. Mr Thompson is very low at time of writing. A carload of members of our W.M.S., attended the anniversary celebration of the society at Burns Church, Rocky Saugeen on Wednesday last, and enjoyed it very much. The annual school picnic was held on the school grounds on Wednesday afternoon. A ball game and races were enjoyed by the scholars and the young people. A bountiful lunch was served at close. Much credit is due Miss Ford for its success. Mrs Andrew Marshall, of town has been visiting her brother Albert and family.

Mr and Mrs Wm Caldwell spent some days this week with Rev Harry Caldwell and family, Limehouse.

HOLSTEIN 6, PRICEVILLE 1

Holstein 1932 junior champions made a good start in 1933 campaign, when they won in Priceville Saturday. Priceville, a new addition to our grouping, though inexperienced in the game made a good showing and with more experience and practice, should make it interesting for Mildmay and Holstein. Anderson, McVicar and the Renwick brothers were best for Priceville with several others showing promise of development, while Holstein team had more conviction and team work through their previous experience. Gibson was the sharp-shooter with 3 goals, Irvin J. Patrick I. and Arnall I. Holstein tried out several subs or newcomers in Patton, L. Mercer, K. Ross, B. Fidler, and all fitted in well for their first game.

Priceville: McCormack, Renwick, Renwick, Anderson, McVicar, Frook, Watson, Reiley, Aldcorn, McLean, McDermid, Burnett, Aldcorn. Holstein: Christie, Sehenk, Fidler, Fidler, Cowan, Patton, Gibson, Alles, Patrick, Irvin, Arnall, Taylor, Ross, Mercer, Henderson. Referee, Eccles, Holstein.

HOLSTEIN 5, MILD MAY 1

Holstein Jrs won their second game of the schedule in Holstein Tuesday, when they defeated Mildmay by above score. Due to exam time, Mildmay had only 10 men and no subs., but Lyl Mercer played with Mildmay to give them a full team, leaving Holstein with one substitute.

The game was very even for the first ten minutes, with play mostly in centre field. At the ten minute mark Taylor scored when he placed one close to the upright. A few minutes later Gibson shot one that was too hot for the goalie to handle, Alles scoring on the rebound. Irvin scored the third on a pass from Gibson, and Gibson the fourth on a pass from Irvin, making score 4-0 at half time. The second half was more even, each team scoring one goal. Irvin of Holstein wrenched his right ankle shortly after the second half was underway, leaving the forward line disorganized. Schuett scored for Mildmay in the second half on a close-in shot, while Gibson scored on a bullet shot, on a pass out by a Mildmay player.

The team as a whole, played good ball, Christie making the hard shots look easy, while Schenk and Fidler blocked and cleared nicely.

Cowan at half kept Schuett of Mildmay well checked, while the forward line worked smoothly to beat the opposing defence, Gibson and Irvin playing nicely together.

HOLSTEIN: Christie, Sehenk, Fidler, Cowan, Ross, Patton, Taylor, Alles, Gibson, Irvin, Arnall, Fidler.

MILD MAY: Hiesche, Bergman, Schmalz, Zimmer, Filsinger, Schuett, Fedy, Weller, Schmidt, Fedy, Mercer. Referee—Eccles, Holstein.

Passing of Mrs Earl Mead Widely Mourned

A death that has brought much sorrow to the community south of Durham, combined with a sense of deep loss, was that of Mrs Earl M. Mead, who passed away in Durham Hospital early Friday morning last, in her 40th year. A week previous to death, she had given birth to a son, and as the days went on, hopes were high that mother and infant son would be spared. A Divine Providence had decreed it otherwise and claimed the mother after a short but serious relapse the day before death.

Mrs Mead was married in 1920 to Earl M. Mead, of the 3rd con, Egremont and it has since been a happy home. Previous to their marriage, she was Carrie Wilton, only daughter of James J. and the late Harriet Wilton. One little daughter, Mary Louise, and infant son, Robert Wilton, with the broken hearted husband, parents and brother, are left to mourn her demise. Deceased was born near Dromore, but in young womanhood came with parents to the home now occupied by her father on Gravel Road at Barber's Corners.

Here she identified herself with everything that was of a worthy nature and was a devoted member of Knox Church, Northmanby, serving in the choir and other organizations. On her marriage the young couple identified themselves with Varney Church, and here showed the same spirit of service.

Apart from church circles, Mrs. Mead was interested in current events and showed an aptitude for leadership. For a time she was secretary and later president of Varney Farm Women's Club and always was good judgment shown in her decisions.

The funeral on Sunday to Maplewood cemetery, testified in no small degree the depth of feeling and sorrow, at the passing of one so esteemed and respected, as well as sympathy for those who remain. There were over 160 cars in the cortege.

Rev. R. F. Mercer gave an earnest, helpful message taking as his theme, "Happy are they that die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them." He was assisted in the service by Rev. R. Honeyman, Dromore. One of her favorite hymns was sung at the service, "O Master let me walk with Thee." The other hymn was "Safe in the arms of Jesus." Mrs James A. Browne, Mrs T. V. Bell and Mrs And. Marshall sang, "Sometime we'll understand." Her casket was completely surrounded by beautiful floral tributes. The remains were carried by five cousins and a neighbor, Messrs Albert Wilton, Earl Smith, Frank Hopkins, Milford Hopkins, Wm J. Philp and Jos. Lennox.

Relatives present from a distance were Messrs Albert Wilton and Aldcorn, Mr and Mrs C. Clayton, Bad-jeros; Mr and Mrs Thos Wilton, Mr and Mrs M. Fraser, Dundalk, Mr and Mrs Peter Pettes, Mr and Mrs Stanley Smith and family, Mrs John Smith, Hopeville; Mr Frank Hopkins, Sr., Mr and Mrs Frank Hopkins, Jr., Mr and Mrs Milford Hopkins, Mr and Mrs Wm Philp, Mr and Mrs Alex. Nicholson, Dromore; Mr and Mrs J. Mather and family Holstein; Messrs Fred and Harry Matthews and Miss Isabel, Mr and Mrs Earl Smith and daughter Aubrey, Toronto; Miss Armitage and Miss Mable Hopkins, Toronto. Friends came from Harrison, Mt. Forest, Kincaidine, Hopeville and Dundalk.

SMITH — CARMOUNT

The marriage of Miss Florence Carmount, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Robert Carmount of Orchard, to Mr Ronald Smith, eldest son of Mr and Mrs A. Smith of Knox Corners, took place quietly on Saturday, June 24th, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. R. F. Mercer of Holstein, officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of powder blue georgette with panels of lace and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Miss Lillian Carmount, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a frock of pastel green crepe and carried pink and white peonies with baby's breath. The best man was Carlyle Smith, brother of the groom. After the ceremony, dinner was served to the immediate relatives at the bride's home, which was tastefully decorated in pink and white with baskets of blue.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon to be spent at Muskoka Lakes, and points north. The bride's traveling costume was a navy blue suit, with white accessories. Upon their return they will reside on the farm of groom, in Normandy.

The best wishes of their many friends are extended to the happy young couple.

"Never mind—we'll soon fix that"

Mrs. Hendry was in great distress. She had broken her spectacles and the prescription was at the optician's in the city.

"That means I can't go to the social tomorrow night," she said. "Whatever will I do?"

"Don't worry," Tom Hendry consoled her. "I'll just 'phone the optician right now and he can have a new pair here in tomorrow's mail."
