SYNOPSIS.

A party of neighbors, gathered at the some of Mrs. Willett and her daughter Violet turned to table tfpping for amusement. Seated around the table were Mrs. and Miss Willett, Mr. Duke, M Rycroft who dabbled in the psychic, Recald Garfield and Major Burnaby, For two months the Willetts had bee secupying the house of Captain Joseph Frevelyan, who had been unable to resist an offer of 12 guineas a month rent and had taken a small house for him elf at Exhampton, six miles distant. often." Major Burnaby, his friend for year occupied one of the five cottages Trevl yan built on land near his house. All hose seated at the table weres tartled when a "spirit" stated that Captain frevelyan had been murdered. Burnaby, worried, leaves and finds his friend lead. A man named James Pearson of London had registered at an Exsampton hotel the afternoon of the murfer, and taken the first train back to condon early the following morning.

HOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTLLMENT V.

"Why shouldn't I say twenty-five ast five that the Captain was murlered?" Major Burnaby demanded ruculently, "or twenty-five to six-"Twenty past four, for that matter?" Williamson. "Quite so, sir," said Inspector Naracett soothingly. He did not wish to antagonize the wajor just at this moment. He promsed himself that he would get to the ottom of the matter before the day was out.

"There's one thing that strikes me is curious, sir," he went on.

"Yes?" "This business of the letting of Sit aford House. I don't know what you hink about it, but it seems to me a urious thing to have happened." "If you ask me," said Burnaby, "it's dd, very odd." "That's your opinion?"

"It's everyone's opinion." In Sittaford?"

"In Sittaford and Exhampton, t The woman must be mad." "Well, I suppose there's no accoun ng for tastes," said the Inspector. "Very odd taste for a woman of books?" hat kind."

"You know the lady?"

"I know her? Why I was at he ouse when-" "When what?" asked Narracott he major came to an abrupt halt.

"Nothing," said Burnaby. Inspector Narracott looked at his seenly. There was something here he would have liked to get at. The maor's obvious confusion and embarassment did not escape him. He had seen on the point of saying-what?

"All in good time," said Narracott himself. "Now isn't the moment o rub him up the wrong way." Aloud he said innocently, "You were at Sittaford House, you say sir.

low long?"

"A couple of months."

The major was eager to escape the result of his imprudent words. nade him more loquacious than usual. "A widow lady with her daughter? "That's it."

"Does she give any reason for her

:hoice of resident?" "Well-"the major rubbed his nose luciously, "she talks a lot, she's that find of woman-beauties of natureout of the world-that sort of thing.

He paused rather helplessly. spector Narracott came to his rescue. "It didn't strike you as natural on er part."

le the nines-daughter's a smart. pretty girl. atural thing would be for them to be staying at the Ritz o. Claridges, or some other big hotel somewhere. You know the sort." Narracott nodded.

"They don't keep themselves to themselves, do they?" he asked. "You don't think they are-well-hiding?" Major Burnaby shook his head posi-

"Oh! no, nothing of that kind They're very sociable-a bit too soci able. I mean, in a little place like Sittaford, you can't have previous engagements, and when invitations are showered on you it's a bit awkward. They're exceedingly kind, hospitable people, but a bit too hospitable for English ideas."

"The colonial touch," said the In

"Yes, I suppose so."

"You've no reason to think they were previously acquainted with Caplain Trevelyan?"

"Sure they weren't."

"You seem very positive?" "Jee would have told me." "And you don't think their motive heuld have been-well-to scrape ac maintance with the captain?" This was clearly a new idea to th major. He pondered over it for some

"Well, I never thought of that, They were very gushing to him, certainly, Not that they got any change out of loc. But no, I think it was just usual manner. Over friendly,

You know, like colonials are." Captain Trevelyan built that, I understand?"

could be anything in the house itself to readhat was the attraction. It's a puzzle. "I Joseph Arthur Trevelyan, of Sit Yen to one, it's got nothing to do taford House, Sittaford, in the County with the case, but it just struck me as an odd coincidence. This house that Captain Trevelyan took, Hazelmoor, whose property was that?"

"Miss Larpent's, Middle-aged woman, she's gone to a boarding house at Cheltonham for the winter. Does every year. Usually shuts the house up, but lets it if she can, which isn't

There seemed nothing promising there. The inspector shook his head. "Williamsons were the agents, I understand?" he said.

"Their office is in Exhampton?" "Next door to Walters & Kirkwood." "Ah! then, perhaps, if you don't mind, major, we might just drop in on our way." The Major, who hah finished his breakfast some time ago, nodded assent and rose.

An alert looking young man rose to receive them in the office of Messrs.

"This is Inspector Narracott," the major said.

"I want some information that think you can give me," said the inspector. "I understand you put through this let of Sittaford House." "To Mrs. Willett? Yes, we did." "Can you give me full details, please, of how that came about. Did the lady apply personally, or by letup a file. "Yes, from the Carlton hundred and twenty-six. Hotel, London. "Did she mention Sittaford House by name?" to rent a house for the winter, it must this my will. be right on Dartmoor and have at of fact it was the only house in the whether given or received. neighborhood that at all fulfilled the circumstances I thought it worth cluding my collection of heads and Without Mrs. Willett seeing the session.

"She agreed to take it without seeing it, and signed the agreement. Then she came down her for one day. drove up to Sittaford, saw Captain The lady has been there now-about Trevelyan, arranged with him about piate and linen, etc., and saw over the house."

"She was quite satisfied?" She came in and said she was deighted with it."

The young man shrugged his shoul- wipe out the deficit.

he said, as they left. On reaching the offices of Messrs. empire in 1932, while the mother Walters & Kirkwood, they were told country made 19 per cent. of all her mostly working class folk who knew fashion of wearing local silk. Every And we shall aim to supplement the that Mr. Kirkwood had just arrived purchases in possessions. and they were shown into his room.

Mr. Kirkwood was an elderly man since the depression set in. In 1929 grocer seemed to amuse them, and "Greek silk!" with a benign expression. He was a France sold her colonies only 19 per they always addressed me by my She lifted it, disclosing petticoat, onable sort of woman. Dressed up native of Exhampton and has suc- cent. of her exports, instead of 30 title, each in his own special style. "Greek silk!" ceeded his father and grandfather in per cent., and she bought from them Their orders given to me over the She lifted that, and revealed an-He rose, put on his mourning face, stead of 19 per cent.

and shook hands with the major.

and Major Burnaby explained his basis and a third has tariff autonomy. be a successful grocer one must have Horton, "at which the guest of honor presence in a few succinct words. "You are in charge of the case, Inspector Narracott?"

"Yes, Mr. Kirkwood. In pursuance of my investigations, I have come to ask you for certain information." "I shall be happy to give you any information if it is proper for me to do so," said the lawyer. "It concerns the late Captain Trevelyan's will," said Narracott. "I understand the will is here in your of-

"That is so." "It was made some time ago?" "Five or six years ago, I cannot be sure of the exact date at the moment.' "I am anxious, Mr. Kirkwood, to know the contents of that will as soon as possible. It may have an important bearing on the case." "Indeed?" said the lawyer. "In deed! I should not have thought that, but naturally you know your own business best, Inspector. Wellhe glanced across at the other man. "Major Burnaby and myself are joint executors of the will. If he has no

"Then I see no reason why I should not accede to your request, Inspector." Taking up a speaking tube, he spoke a few words down it. In two or three minutes a clerk entered the room and "And nobody else has ever lived in laid a sealed envelope in front of the 1 mean, it's not been let before?" lawyer. Mr. Kirkwood drew out a large and important looking docu-"Never."
"Then it doesn't seem as though it ment, cleared his throat and began

A Lesson in War

Parisians are now instructed in the use of gas mask at the Invalides. Young and old are shown how to combat poison fumes.

of Devon, declare this to be my last "By letter. She wrote, let me see will and testament which I make this -" He opened a drawer and turn- thirteenth day of August nineteen

"(1) I appoint John Edward Burnaby of 1 The Cottages, Sittaford, and Frederick Kirkwood of Exhampton, "No, she merely said she wanted to be the executors and trustees of

"(2) I give to Robert Henry Evans, least eight bedrooms. Being near a who has served me long and faithrailway station or a town was of no fully, the sum of £100 (one hundred pounds) free of legacy duty for his "Was Sittafford House on your own benefit absolutely, provided that he is in my service at the time of my "No, it was not. But as a matter death and not under notice to leave

"(3) I give the said John Edward requirements. The lady mentioned in Burnaby, as a token of our friend- he said: her letter that she would be willing ship and of my affection and regard to go to twelve guineas, and in these for him, all my trophies of sport, inwhile writing to Captain Trevelyan pelts of big game, as well as any and asking whether he would con- challenge cups and prizes awarded to sider letting. He replied in the af- me in any department of sport and firmative, and we fixed the thing up." any spoils of the chase in my pos-

(To Be Continued.) ----

"Put Africa to Work," French Colonial Slogan Paris .- "Put Africa to work." This is the slogan of French colonial policy

The trade deficit of France proper recently reached 1,000,000,000 francs "And what did you think?" asked a month. Officials now look to the "My Life Story: From Archduke to chant, made up her mind to get into Inspector Narracott, eyeing him keen- colonial empire-the world's second largest-for increased business to Trade with the colonies has slump-"You learn never to be surprised ed less than has trade with foreign at anything in the house business," countries. Thirty per cent. of all French exports were bought by the These percentages have mounted only 11 per cent. of her purchases in counter still ring in my ears:

affair. Very shocking indeed. Poor includes 61,615,000 persons. One group troduce me to a good sausage?" is consolidated in the French tariff He looked inquiringly at Narracott scheme, another is on preferential ents-An Ex-Archduke-Etc. audience. A man arose and said: about these huge incomes that are being accumulated by individuals all $5,000) for himself?"

Pithy Anecdotes

"Certainly not," promptly responded Shaw. "Besides, my income more than a thousand pounds." I'll say it is.

than in anger:

"No, father," replied Georgie. "The teacher is the laziest. Whenever we have to work and write, he sits his chair, doing nothing."

On another occasion young G.B.S. sess." said to his father: teacher praised me this mcrning."

father. "What did he say?" "He said there might be boys still down on me and I had to shut up the germ outside the body. lazier than I," replied the young hope- shop." ful, triumphantly.

Shavian, even then, you see. you mustn't take him too seriously.

"When?" piped several voices. "At 8.35 in the morning," proudly plussed, Banaste glared indignantly at rosy tissue. asserted little Francois Thibault - the crowd. "What," he said, "you

"That isn't true," retorted one of

been a grocer.

he adds, "and my customers were ciety ladies of Athens should set the of something we have not perceived me for the archduke I once was. This stitch I have on is Greek silk." fact that an archduke had turned She patted her skirt and murmured the portion found by them.

other, "Greek silk!" "'Imperial Highness, give me two How far the demonstration woul Three tariffs systems prevail be- pints of milk,' or 'Archduke, be sure have gone (speculates Mr. Horton). "Good morning, Major Burnaby," tween France and her vast empire to keep me some fresh butter,' or do not know, for the King, evidently he said. "This in a very shocking which extends to all continents and 'Your Serene Highness, can you in- convinced, fled.

> But, sighs the former archduke, to ner at a legation," reminisces Mr was an American Congressman, a

Japan's "Suicide" Crater Explored

Lowered 1,250 feet into Miharayama "suicide" volcano, Tokuzo Iwata, Japanese scientist, found the bones of a suicide-one of 270 since January. Iwata's descent is the most sensational of its kind.

Of the Famous

George Bernard Shaw Incid-

One of the best stories about George Bernard Shaw-because it shows, as Miss Ishbel MacDonald put it, that "you mustn't take him too seriously"-has to do with a lecture he once gave in London on "Socialism After the War." At its conclusion, G.B.S. invited questions from the "Mr. Shaw, what is your thought over the world. Don't you agree that ro man should be allowed to retain more than one thousand pounds (then

When G.B.S. was a little shaverand going to school, his father remarked to him one day, more in sorrow

"Your teacher says that you are the laziest boy in the school. Is that

"Dad, you always tell people I am frankly confesses, "and I was never the conquest of leprosy has been an plane parts for many of the great air lazy. But you should have heard how more conscious of my lack than recently when, after I had slaved "Ah! that's right, my boy," beamed away as a small grocer in Vienna for the French writer, who when seven his coat and rolled up his shirt organism. years of age, was listening to some sleeves while the other man did likeof his school mates telling about their wise. birthdays. Joining the con ersation "Hold me back," roared Banaste to still in progress at George Washington

"I know when I was born."

turn their hands to all kinds of men- of Greece-a rather decent sort of ial jobs. The recent marriage of Leo- chap, one gathers. as the economic crisis becomes more pold Walfing, ex-archduke of Tuscany and former cousin of the old Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, recalls in those days was the King's Ball. A the fact that in his reminiscences, Greek lady, wife of a prosperous mer-Grocer," he says, not without pride, society. She gave her money and and victory less, we shall become orial for Eradication of Leprosy. It is the isolation and cultivation of the nearly a year, my creditors swooped Dr. Earle B. McKinley, dean George Washington University Medi-From "Histories Marseillaises," by cal School, and Dr. Malcolm H. Soule of the University of Michigan, are the

Washington.—Another step toward

Infuse six heaping teaspoonfuls

of "SALADA" Black Tea in a pint sized tea-pot. After six minutes strain and pour liquid into half-gallon container.

While hot, add a cup and a half of sugar and the juice of two lemons; then fill container with cold water. Do not refrigerate as tea will turn cloudy.

Serve as required, with an ice cube in each glass.

resh from the gardens'

Delicious Recipe for brains and "brains are a commodity Leprosy Germ Isolated;

which few royal personages pos-

thing terrible to him.'

The great social event at Athens

"I was once at an international din-famous raconteur. He told, with much detail, a story of a farmer who had two sons, one good and prudent, the other a spendthrift. On his death he left the farm to the good young man and the other brought legal action to break the will. The suit lasted for years, the lawyers' fees eating up the property, until the fences, house and barns became dilapidated.

"I, myself, don't possess them," he

Over a game of cards in a cafe, Ban- scientists who have succeeded in iso peaking of the budding geniuses aste had a furious quarrel with his lating what they believe gives every recalls a story about Anatole France, opponent. In his rage he threw off evidence of being the true leprosy Dr. McKinley and Dr. Elizabeth Verder, an associate, in experiments the onlookers, "or I shall do some- also have developed a method by which fresh strains of the organism Nobody moved to interfere. Non- can be started at any time from lep-Not since the discovery of hich was Anatole France': real don't hold people back in this cafe, Chaulmoogra oil treatment, ten years ago, has a development in the field of leprosy been regarded by physicians George Horton, for over thirty as of such importance as the isolayears in the American Consular ser- tion of the germ after sixty years of Since the end of the World War, vice, tells some amusing stories about effort. In 1872 a Norwegian bacteriomany are the ex-royal personages, his experiences abroad in his book, logist discovered the germ believed especially when hailing from Central "Recollections Grave and Gay." Mr. to be responsible for leprosy, closely Europe and Russia, who, in the effort Horton's first post was Athens, where resembling that of tuberculosis. But to earn an honest penny, have had to in 1893, he got to know King George the mere establishment of the fact that leprosy was a germ disease was of little value in its conquest until Lady Bountiful Dies oratory and studied.

TRUTH. In proportion as we love truth more "so far as I know, no other reduced support to the Greek industry. In anxious to know what it is which royal big-wig except mysel: has ever due course an invitation to the royal leads our opponents to think as they ball was the reward. There, King do. We shall begin to suspect that George commended her silk efforts. | the pertinacity of belief exhibited by she left a fortune of nearly a million "My little shop was in Vienna," "Your Majesty," she said, "the so- them must result from a perception portion of truth we have found with before baby comes. • Layette.

• Baby's bath, sleep, airing, sunning, bowel habits. • Weight, beight charts. • Breast feeding,
• Bottle feeding—latest findings. • Supplementary foods. • Pages for baby's own biography. Write THE BORDEN CO., LIMITED, Yardley House, Toronto, for FREE copy.

Only a clean

inside can give you a clear skin.

You need Eno

every morning.

FRUIT SAL.

Eagle Brand "One evening, the owner of the CONDENSED Milk farm, sitting on his porch and looking out over his mortgaged fields murmured: "'When I think of it all, I'm sometimes sorry that Pa died.' "The titter that broke out among the few Americans present was quickly suppressed by the look of horror on the faces of others, and the remark of a serious-minded Frenchman: ""I have always understood."

said, 'that respect for parents was not so thoroughly inculcated in the

1. inds of children in America, as in other countries." Ernest Rhys recalls in his reminiscences how when Oscar Wilde once met Oliver Schreiner-author of "The Story of An African Farm" - who was living in the Whitechapel district of London, he asked her why in the

"I live in the East End," she said, "because the people don't wear masks." "And I," rejoined Oscar, "live in world she went to live in the East

Engineering Works

Kennington, England, Business Handled Solely by Women Workers

Women Conduct

The only engineering world in the world run entirely by women-from proprietor to office girl-is at Kennington, England. Not only is every employe a woman, but much of the work is manufacturing the engineering inventions of women. This unique business was r'arted by a woman, and at no time in its history has any man been connected with it. Its founder, manager, organizer and the inventor of some of the products is Miss A. Ashberry.

Many Rebuffs.

"It was difficult to get the business going," she said. "Once, just after we had started. I went to a manufacturer's office for an order, but was turned out with his 'What! let women engineers do it? Not likely!' "But I kept at him and he is now one of our best customers. "I had many rebuffs like that early one, and, for some time, it looked as though we were going to fail. I had to reduce my staff of girls from four to two. Then the tide began to turn and now we employ twenty girls as engineers." Some of the girls left offices and shops to learn engineering. One was a speedway rider, another was a road Cure Now a Step Nearer scout in a women's motoring organi-wireless sets and domestic use. A Museum Piece.

The factory now makes delicate air nounced by the Leonard Wood Mem- companies, and turned parts for ships.

Some time ago Miss Ashberry was approached by the British Broadcasting Corporation to make a special gramophone pick-up. She was given the work because the B.B.C. thought a woman would be the best to handle it, as the details were a confidential

"One model machine we made was considered such a fine production by it was presented to the Science Museum," said Miss Ashberry.

Among the great variety of products of the factory are razer blades, motor car clutches, hosiery machines, patent spanners, bacon-cutting machines and even a patent fly-trap invented by a woman.

The reporter watched girls clambering along shafting high in the roofs armed with grease guns, others deep in the intricacies of big machines, and still others quickly and efficiently turning out machined parts cut accurately to the thousandth part of an

the germ could be taken into the lab-Aged Hundred and Three "The woman whom everyone loved." once lovely daughter of a Tasmanian sheep farmer, entertaining on such a scale that her own mansion was not large enough That was Miss Mary Ann Smith, of Hove, Eng., whose will reveals that

She lived to the age of 103, and after many years on her father's ranch for the past 52 years dwelt alone, save for her maids, in her large home in the Drive, Hove. Her gentle disposition and her lavish generosity earned fame for her far beyond the seclusion of her palatial

Inheriting riches from her rancher father, in her younger days, Miss Smith delighted in giving great parties, and was the centre of local The will, dated September 13, 1892, provides for bequests to many institutions, the largest being $20,000 each to the Church of England Temperance Society and the London Temperance A sum of $12,000 is left on trust for forming a missionary staff for visiting shepherds and other occupants of the bush in Tasmania.

440,000,000 Books in Record

London.-One of the most remarkable books published by the British and Foreign Bible Society is being reissued. Entitled "The Gospel in Many Tongues," it gives specimens of 665 languages in which the society has published some portion of the Scriptures. Dr. Kilgour, the editorial superintendent, remarks that philologists will find in the specimens material for comparison of cognate or diverse forms of speech; but to the Bible Society they stand for nearly 440,000,-000 books, distributed all over the world during the last 128 years.

"Did Brown lose control of his "Completely; his wife uses it all

"To succeed one must have the will ISSUE No. 26—'33 to succeed."—Edouard Herriot.

Baked

Last week you had pd icing-this week pus spice cake with h patts for 1 egg whil sugar, 1/4 cup broken egg whites until th when the beater is p Add brown sugar, be top of cage batter; buts and bake in I $50 degrees F., until which will be in minutes if it is in square. Make twice larger cake. The follows: Cream 16 of add I cup brown sug to the creamed mix and I egg yolk well cups cake flour one ing. Then sift toge spoon salt, ½ teasp apoon baking pow cloves, 15 teaspoon i Alternately with 1/2 of square. For a large

Another attractive layers of cake, which after baking. The pecially good with a fee. The batter is inch deep in the grea are sprinkled on surface. The cake strips are not cui from the bowl.

This is the seaso

bath in the morning Have you ever rest are almost inev to feeling you need up as much as you poffee, to get start cold shower. But should, and don't. it doesn't work, to take a whole handi yourself dry. This the day right Too many wome just for relaxation. need relaxing after You need awakening the cold shower is Just a once-over wi as clear cut as it cold shower daily make the flesh firm Moreover, as a p any doctor will tell

You don't have

Bottles a Druggists are get attractive wrapping bottles upon us w Tablets and lozeni weighed out by the a blob of sealing-wi are made up in n ped up in a pamphil ty showing forth t remedies they end and toilet creams.

We are so much a *ccompaniments by generally thrown ply of reading mat

ly attached to the

TORONTO

VITIAINE ANUTIVES