THE ROLL CALL

(Continued from Page 1) them were born a family of nine, three of them dying in infancy. Mr. Wilson passed away 7 years ago and a daughter Annie, Mrs. Samuel Black died 20 years ago. The surviving family members are: Samuel, at Starkevear, Sask.; Janet, Mrs. James Banks, of Riverview; John James, of Invermay, Sask.; Mary H., Mrs. Albert Middleton and Elizabeth Olive, Mrs. Wm. Bourne, both in Durham. The funeral service was held on Saturday from her daughter's residence, and was largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. W. H. Smith had charge of the services at house and grave, and gave many comforting thoughts to mourners and friends. Relatives and friends present at the funeral from a distance were: two grand-daughters, Misses Norma Black, Gulph and Rita Wilson, Toronto; Thos. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Owen Sound; Mrs. Wm. Hillis, Mrs. Shipley, Mrs. Graham, Owen Sound. The pall bearers were neighbors and old friends of the deceased: Messrs. R. H. Ledingham, John Aldred, Lachie McLean, James Healin, Joe Edmonds, Wm. McCulloch. A beautiful pillow rested on the casket and also a wreath

from Miss Reta Wilson. Two grand-daughters, Misses Mary E. Bourne and Marjory Middleton were flower bearers.

DEATH OF H. A. KELSEY

The death of Mr. Herbert Allen Kelsey, a veteran of the Great War occurred at his home in Hanover Saturday morning in his 61st year. He was born in Durham and had been ailing for many months, presumably as a result of injuries received overseas. He was twice married in the United States, his second wife's name being Sarah Della, who survives him along with one daughter, Lucille, (Mrs. W. A. Oldham) of Lakemore, Ohio, and four sons, George and Norman of Walkerton, Fred of Detroit, and Bruce at home.

When the war broke out he went overseas with the 57th of Niagara and served in France from 1915 to 1918, being gassed in one of the battles from which he has suffered ever since.

He was a photographer by trade and came to Hanover from Wlarton some four years ago. The funeral services were held from the Salvation Army Chapel, Hanover, 2 p. m. Monday, July 24th, interment taking place in the Durham cemetery.

FRASER — GREENWOOD

An interesting wedding took place in Markdale, Wednesday, July 19th, when, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Rutledge, her aunt, Miss Ethel R. Greenwood, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Greenwood, Durham, and Mr. George M. Fraser, Chatsworth, were united in marriage. Rev. H. S. Warren, of Markdale, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. H. L. Greenwood, wore a gown of light blue silk crepe and carried a bouquet of white roses, baby breath and fern. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of groom. Mrs. D. G. Campbell of Devil's Lake, North Dakota, sister of bride was maid of honor, and the groom was assisted by his brother, Thos. Fraser. Mrs. Jas. Shaw, Hamilton, played the wedding march and little Colleen Samson, cousin of bride, was flower-girl. The decorations of the room included roses, sweet peas and ferns, tastefully arranged.

After congratulations a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The five-storey-bride's cake was decorated with silver trimmings. In the evening the happy couple left by motor for a trip to Muskoka, the bride wearing a gown of baby blue flowered crepe with accessories to match. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Chatsworth.

The groom's gift to the maid of honor was a leather purse, to the bridesmaid a set of cuff links and to the pianist a white gold pendant. Among the guests from outside points were Mrs. D. W. Campbell and son, Akron, Mich; Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Campbell, Eileen and Lloyd, of Devil's Lake, N. D.; Mrs. Fraser, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fraser and Mr. and Mrs. Merriam of Chatsworth; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Greenwood, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kerr, Allan Park; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moffat, Edge Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin and Arthur, Priceville; Mr. and Mrs. F. Twanley and Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards and Miss Mina, Traverston; Miss Rachel McGregor, Chatsworth.

BRUNT — SMITH

The marriage took place Saturday afternoon last in Toronto, at the home of bride's mother, of Constance Nellie, daughter of Mrs. Smith and the late Mr. James H. Smith, to Gerald Kenneth Brunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brunt of Bentinck Tp. Rev. Dr. W. D. Smith, uncle of bride, officiated. Miss Bernice Smith, sister of bride, played. Mrs. Ralph Smith sang. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Byron Smith, wore a gown of white crepe. Her white tulle veil was caught in cap effect and she carried butterfly roses and baby's breath. The couple were unattended. Later the couple left on a motor trip, the bride travelling in a grey wool crepe suit with matching accessories. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Brunt will live in Bradford.

HEAT WAVE GOT UNDER THE SKIN

South Grey, and in fact all of Ontario sweltered for about a week from the frenzied heat wave that did not abate until Tuesday of this week. Ontario citizens and crops suffered intensely when the thermometer rose to new heights. Durham may not have achieved a place in the front pages of dailies as a record-maker but it certainly had a place in the sun the past week. Every conceivable action was taken to acquire the calm and undisturbed peace that cool weather brings and the old swimmin' hole was the most popular spot in town. The thermometer flirted around the 100 mark and in the sun soared to over 100 degrees.

The heat was particularly trying on the aged and sick and several prostration cases resulted. Alarmed by the six and eight weeks' drought, farmers in many sections of the country fear for their crops. If rain is not forthcoming farmers predict the root crop, including potatoes and turnips will be a failure. Rivers and brooks are exceedingly low and the Saugreen has not been at so low a level for many a day.

Wherever the rain clouds went Tuesday they would be welcome, but they certainly didn't come to Durham. Gardens are but a threat of their former glory and the fruit crop is suffering as a result. Weather prognosticators state that August will also carry two heat waves, one from the 7th to 11th and the other from 20th to 24th. Let us hope they're badly out, for the coldest-blooded citizen has had their fill of the heat wave this July.

PREMIER HENRY MAKES GUARDED STATEMENTS

Premier Henry stated in his Durham speech on Friday last, that he was sorry he could not go into detail on the "not too distant future," and that under himself or some other leader, "Sane, progressive, constructive, Conservative would be triumphantly returned." This is a pretty fair admission that Premier Henry feels the rope tightening around his throat as to the possibility of his sitting in the seats of the mighty next session of the Legislature. When a man has to qualify his statements, his day is setting as a political leader.

There are many wheels inside of other wheels unknown to the general public, which causes a leader to instinctively feel the slipping of his feet, and Premier Henry of all men, has reason to say, "Save me from my friends."

FERGUS HOLDING ITS 100th ANNIVERSARY PARTY

The Town of Fergus is doing itself proud these days in the publicity it is receiving over the attainment of its one hundredth birthday this month. From August 5th to 9th there will be five glorious days of celebration, which will give the town a good boost into the next hundred years of its existence. Fergus has every reason to be proud of its heritage for its pioneers have been of the very best stock and built the town with an eye to the future.

The Scotch characteristics of the pioneers have never left the people and to-day more jokes at the expense of Fergus and its cautious and canny citizens go the rounds than of any other centre in this part of Ontario. One hundred years ago, a Scottish gentleman of means, Adam Fergusson, travelled over Eastern Canada and the United States, looking for an ideal location for a new town. He found what he sought in Nichol Township in Upper Canada, and in partnership with James Webster he bought 1,000 acres and started a town at the Little Falls on the Grand River. They named it "Fergus" after the first King of Scotland, and built a church, school and mills.

The early settlers were hand-picked. They were almost invariably Scotch by birth, and men of money and education. They gave Fergus such an excellent start that, after the ups and downs of a hundred years, Fergus is still a leader among the Villages of Ontario in education, wealth, location, beauty, religion industry and sport. It is worthy of a visit any time. Adam Fergusson became a member of the Executive Council and added an Honourable to his name and James Webster became a Member of Parliament and a Registrar. Now the fourth and fifth generations are preparing to celebrate the doings of the pioneers of the Fergus Settlement.

REVIEW PEOPLE BACK TO THEIR WORK

Well, folks, we are back at the printing again, and even while the same pep and vim may be lacking, the desire is as strong as ever to give the readers of this grand family journal service. When we cease to do that, we will suspend publication. This is the first time the Review has taken a holiday to build up from a car accident. The thought of an automobile accident keeping us back, say 25 years ago, well, we just don't imagine such things. But like Pat with the hanging, you get used to several things that did not enter our cranium 25 years ago. We are, as stated at first, not yet hitting on all four cylinders and won't be for a few weeks, but with a little patience and extra help in the office we hope to see this thing through.

The writer of this article was in the Durham Hospital for 9 days. The thought uppermost in our mind previous to our visit was that it was only a place for the really sick or down-and-outs. We have decidedly changed our mind. To us the days were never long and were decidedly interesting. It was our first hospital experience and while we are not counting another experience of that of the 14th of July, would have no aversion to returning if the case required it to be so.

Durham hospital carries a personal and home atmosphere that is found in few Ontario hospitals, we would imagine. True the place is run as an institution, by clockwork, but there is that subtle something that brands it more than a mere official home. Perhaps it is the ministrations and constant oversight of the matron, Nurse "Greatheart" Fettes; perhaps it is the bright and wholesome nurses on the staff, who will do anything within reason for the patient; perhaps it is the spotlessly clean wards and appetizing meals that are served. Whatever it is, the impressions left of our visit, are everything that is kind and sincere. Durham, we hope, realizes what a boon to the town is this institution.

One thing that struck us forcibly, was the absence of a ding-dong or striker on the large wall clock in the main corridor, striking off the hours. A patient tossing through the night is not helped any by hearing the lengthening hours struck off.

We are not sure if this hospital time-piece had an operation upon its loud-speaker or not, but it had this virtue about it,—it did not broadcast everything it knew.

The new wing looks beautiful with its polished hardwood floors, but it also makes it more difficult for the nursing staff. Let anyone try to stand on hardwood floor the day long and see if their feet stand the strain day after day. A strip of battleship linoleum down the long corridors would ease the strain much, we would imagine.

We are glad to be able to see things now from another perspective to that of two weeks ago, and realize now we are heir to great many blessings that we glubly pass over every day in daily routine.

BOULDER REMOVED ON 16th CON., EGREMENT

The best news we heard for some time after our accident, was to the effect that the boulder that tried to use us up and nearly managed, on the 16th con. of Egremont Twp., has been shattered by a stick of dynamite and is now functioning no more as a wayside (?) ornament. It was a big one, 9 ft. by 7 ft. and the side that the Review car approached had no gradual incline as had the reverse side, but a sudden ascent. If the car had hit it from the other side, things might not have turned out so disastrously. We understand Jas. Lewis, the road foreman, is staking the curves in the road at this point, so they will no longer be curves. We could wish no one a similar experience over this boulder and are glad to know it is removed from all future danger.

MULOCK

Rev. and Mrs. John Galloway and son, Robert left on Monday for Midland on a three weeks' vacation. In the absence of the pastor the following arrangements have been made. The services on Sunday, August 6th, will be conducted by Mr. Gordon Mervyn, B. A. of the Fort Frances Highland Vocational School teaching staff. Sermon topics will be as follows: 11 a. m. Children's Sermon, "The President and his Mother." Sermon topic, "He ordereth all things well." 7:30 p. m. Sermon topic, "Crystallized Christianity." Those assisting in the services will be Miss Jean Wolstencroft, of Flesherston, violinist and vocal soloist and Miss Mary Hazlett, of Allan Park, vocal soloist. The service in the North Glenelg Baptist Church will be held as usual at 3 p. m. There will be no services in either church on August 13th or 20th.

This community extends congratulations to Mr. G. Brunt, B.A. son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brunt of this place, whose marriage to Miss Constance Smith, daughter of Mrs. Smith and the late James H. Smith of Toronto took place at the home of the bride's son, Roy, motored to Toronto to attend the wedding.

Mrs. W. H. Patterson and daughters, Mrs. A. Foster and the Misses Patterson, of Priceville, were week end visitors with Mrs. Wm. Fulton. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McLean of Barrie and Mrs. Charles Moore of Durham visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Boyce visited with friends in Owen Sound on Sunday.

Mr. A. Redford and daughter, Miss Eva Redford, of Durham, attended the morning service in the Baptist church and visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. Redford of Lamsh.

Instead of writing that weekly letter to distant friends, why not have the Review tell them the news of the district. Save yourself the trouble of worrying over what to say each week for $2.00 for a whole year.

DORNOCH

Mrs. Shewell left on Wednesday to visit for awhile with her daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Livingstone spent Sunday at Shelburne. Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McIntosh, Niagara Falls, are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Dargavel, with Mr. and Mrs. Dargavel and family. Mrs. E. D. Dargavel and Niagara Falls, spent two weeks at the ice-cream and candy.

The funeral of the late R. J. Corlett was held in Dornoch Church on Saturday. The church was packed, many standing outside. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss of a kind and loving father and husband. The remains of the late Mr. F. Shewell were laid to rest on Friday morning in St. Pauls cemetery. A large number gathered to pay their last respects to another of the old landmarks. The family have the sympathy of the whole neighborhood, especially his widow, who will miss him more than words can describe. She is left alone. It is hard to see what one has gathered together in all one's lifetime sold, and the old home go into other hands. But such is life.

Mr. Irving Picard and mother, Mrs. J. H. Klein motored up from Toronto on Saturday to remain until Sunday afternoon. Mrs. E. Picard and son and friend also five children of H. J. Picard accompanied them back. The latter spent two weeks in the Picard summer home.

Rev. Mr. Little, Alliston, occupied the pulpit on Sunday and gave a splendid sermon.

The Sunday School picnic will be held in Mrs. D. Crozier's bush, north of Dornoch, on Thursday afternoon. We are hoping the weatherman will favor us with fine weather for the children's sake.

Mrs. E. Dargavel entertained a few of her friends on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mary McIntyre and girl friend from Toronto, are spending a week or more with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. McIntyre.

The people around Dornoch are more than pleased to see the road men starting to pave the road from Dornoch down. The woman folk will be delighted to have the dust kept down, which they have been scraping from their house for years. So glad to have a change from dust to cement.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Coffield and two sons, Detroit, are visitors with Mrs. J. Barry.

HAMPDEN

Sorry to learn of the misfortune which befell the staff of the Review recently. Hope they are all on a fair way to recovery 'e'r this.

The intense heat and hot winds of the past few weeks have made the pasture and spring crops suffer. The potato crop and other roots are in much need of rain. The corn fields and weeds are about the only things that are thriving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laidlaw, of Pittsburgh, Penn., arrived at the Geddes' home last Monday to have a few weeks' holiday.

The Misses Alvira Hickling, Walkerton, and Muriel Fawcett of Tara are spending their holidays at the Hickling home.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowther with son, Wilfred, also grandson, Junior, of the Niagara, Penn., together with the Misses Barbara and Bella Byers of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Joe Nichol (nee Hattie Byers) and two sons, James and Joe of North Battleford, Sask., motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh, Fulton last week end for a holiday. The ladies are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Byers of this place. What a pleasant reunion after an absence of a few years. The Crowther family returned to their home on Monday the others remaining for a few days.

The Misses Davidson of London visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hickling last Tuesday. Mrs. McLean returned with them to visit with her sister, Mrs. Davidson.

Miss Mabel Sharp of Durham visited the Sharp families of this locality recently.

Mrs. Wes. Boddy and daughter, Isabelle, are spending a few weeks' holiday at Dunkeld and Glamis, Bruce County.

The bathing beach is more popular than ever while the hot wave lasts. A new diving board has replaced the old and bathers come from far and near to try the pleasant waters of the Beauty Saugreen.

Berry picking is the one thing that seems to have lost its attraction of former years. Too dry a season has made them small and not so plentiful. There is also a difficulty in finding the right place.

Miss Eleanor Mather, of Priceville, visited with the Henderson family recently.

HAMPDEN GARDEN PARTY

A very successful affair was held on the spacious and beautiful lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Byers, July 29th, when the East and West softball teams tried out another game, the score 5-15 in favor of the West with Mr. Schaab of Allan Park as referee. After a splendid program was dispensed with Rev. A. B. Cooper of Hanover acting as chairman in the absence of Rev. W. H. Smith of Durham. The Victoria quartette of Hanover opened with their usual good form. The evening's entertainment followed by the chairman's address; then duets by the Henderson girls, Betty and Jean also Nellie Byers and Bernette

Kraft were sweetly given. A recitation by Miss M. Sharp of Durham was well received. The Allan Park orchestra filled in a few numbers and Mr. David Robinson of Edge Hill spoke a few words. The Misses Violet and Ruth Fursman gave musical duets which are always a pleasure to hear and with the singing of the National Anthem closed a lengthy program. A fishing pond was one of the attractions later, with Mr. Harold Haskitt of Allan Park attending to the ice-cream and candy.

Although with a very dark and cloudy sky with a thunder storm threatening the evening was pleasant and many congratulatory remarks were made of the untiring efforts of the committee in charge also to Mr. and Mrs. Byers for lending their beautiful grounds for the occasion. A beautiful lunch with coffee was served after the program.

WELBECK

Berry picking has been the order of the day for the past week, the crop being of a splendid quality in spite of the dryness.

A shadow of gloom was cast over the community on Thursday evening when the news was flashed around, that Mr. Robt. J. Corlett had passed away. The critically ill for some time the end came sooner than expected. Our deepest sympathies are extended to Mrs. Corlett and family in their sad loneliness.

Visitors last week at Mr. D. A. Campbell's were: Rev. Mr. Little and daughter, Alliston, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Campbell, Fergus, Mr. Strauchan and family, Mrs. Donald Campbell of Goderich.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ledingham and family were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence, Durham. Mrs. Lawrence returning with them for a few days' visit with her daughter.

Miss Vera Watts, Berkeley, spent a week with her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. A. Stafford.

Mrs. D. Knapp and son, Chesley, Misses Madge Stafford and Vera Watts were visitors at Mr. Fred Heift's during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stafford and daughter, Madge, Messrs. Stanley and Crawford Sharpe motored to Berkeley on Sunday and spent the day with the Watts family.

Mr. Bernard Sweeney, who has been employed with Mr. Percy Ledingham for the past three months, left for Detroit on Monday where he expects to get employment with his brother, John.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow Riddell and family who have been holidaying at his parental home, left last week for North Bay where they will spend a time with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill.

WINS GOLD MEDAL

Ruth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Trueman, of Chesley, won the gold medal donated by Inspector Game for the highest standing in his inspectorate, which consists of all the schools in East Bruce, Sullivan in Grey County, and Howick township in Huron County. Ruth is only 13 years old.
