PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The fence around the monument has again been treated to several coats of paint, by Messrs. Vic. Scheurman and Don. Reley, preparatory to the big day on Sunday afternoon at the Memorial Service. Steps are being taken to have a guard of honor. Bills show a fine program of speeches and music of the best from the Hanover band.

Bible Society meeting will be held on Friday evening in St. Columba Church when Mr. Wadland of Toronto will give a lecture on the "Romance of the Bible."

Preparations are being made for the reunion of Priceville's old timers. A cordial invitation is extended to any of our one-time citizens living in Toronto or elsewhere to a picnic to be held in school grounds on August 7th. The fun begins by walking a greasy pole at the dam at 1:30 p. m. After that there will be games of football, softball, mixed and all boys, foot races, etc. Highland music and dancing.

A large turn out of friends and neighbors paid the last tribute of respect at the funeral of Miss Sarah Hooper on Sunday last. The Rev. J. A. Moir conducted the services at the house and graveside. Nephews and nephews-in-law were pall bearers. Mr. W. G. Watson was funeral director. Miss Hooper had attained the age of nearly 93 and had been in good health until the last year or so. Her brother Abraham with whom she lived, is now the only surviving member of a once large family of six well set up men, and two sisters. She was buried in the Ebenezer cemetery near by, on the South Line.

A pleasant surprise was the experience of Mr. Alex McLean in the offer of a fine school without applying therefor. Merit is always appreciated. Congratulations.

Prof. Mack Eastman, a former teacher at Priceville, and Mrs. Eastman of Geneva, Switzerland, and their two small children, and Mrs. J. A. McLeod of Kingston, are in Meaford for a few days. Prof. Eastman, who has been spending some time in London, Ont., leaves next Wednesday for the west to attend the Pacific Relations gathering in Banff.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parker, Miss B. Wilson and Mr. Percy Conchpan, Toronto, motored up and spent a week end recently with Mrs. Everist. Little Shirley Parker has returned to Toronto after a month's visit with her grandparents.

On Thursday night the annual Presbyterian Garden Party was held on the school grounds and a good sized crowd was present. Markdale and Priceville teams played ball, the score was 28-14 in favor of the visitors. After the bountiful supper the play, "Welcoming Home Jimmy" was presented by the Faversham people and well acted and thoroughly enjoyed. The proceeds were nearly $50. Misses Kate and Elizabeth Campbell, of Montreal, came Monday for a holiday at the home of their brother, Mr. D. Campbell.

Miss Marjorie Meuser, of Owen Sound visited her sister, Mrs. Archie McCuaig, last week.

Mrs. Hopkins (nee Pearl McCuaig) of Pontiac, Mich., is holidaying here with her brothers and sisters.

Miss Sadie Carson spent last week at her sister's, Mrs. Art Richardson's. Master Donald and Dick Carson and sister, Bernice, are holidaying in Toronto.

Mr. David Hincks spent a few days visiting friends in Toronto, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mepham and Miss Delia MacPhail, of Toronto, spent a few days visiting at the home of Mrs. McMeekin's. Delia remained for a longer holiday.

Mrs. Wm. Bell returned to her home in Paisley after spending a few weeks visiting her brothers, Archie, Dan and Alex Stewart.

Misses Isabell McMillan and Almada Hincks spent last week at the Girls' Camp, Holstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean attended the 40th anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, Flesherton, on Sunday.

Miss Beth Hincks spent last week with her sisters, Mrs. Stanley Harrison and Mrs. Chas. Tucker.

On this August the first 1933 we are all suffering from the excessive heat and badly in need of rain. We have heard the distant rumble of thunder this morning. We have also heard many people wish for a thunder storm to cool the air. This is an extraordinary wish but goes to show that the heat is very extreme and everything is much in need of rain. Some have cut out in July, which, I think, is a record for this locality. There are still fields of hay to cut, but a fine crop of hay is mostly garnered in good condition.

On this first of August John Hill has invited all his neighbors to help raise his new barn. We also are invited to look on, and hope to enjoy. Watching the work go on and comparing it with the barn raisings of 40 or 50 years ago. Only a very few of the Old Brigade are left, but with Douglass McCall, Neil McLeod, Bill Campbell, Neil McMillan and Andrew Dow, who is the framer, and perhaps one or two others to look on we hope

Henry Brigham Crosses the Bar

Veteran Bentinck Resident Dies on Saturday, at his home, surrounded by several of his family.—A Useful and Honorable Life Terminated.

Like onto a ripe sheaf of wheat, growing in the fields surrounding his Allan Park home, ready to be garnered in the summer's harvest, might the death of Henry Brigham of Allan Park be characterized, which took place on Saturday last. A life of good works and deeds completed, should not be the occasion for regret, but rather one of a quiet thankfulness, such a remarkable and goodly age has been achieved. Mr. Brigham was 95 years of age and with the exception of the past few weeks has been consistently healthy and bright, always a pleasure to be interviewed. In his passing Bentinck has lost one of its earliest residents.

The Brigham's have played an important part in the development of this section of South East Grey. All these years he has been respected as a citizen and neighbor and Canada is the richer today for the part he played in her growth.

Mr. Brigham was born in Pocklington, Yorkshire, England, on April 12, 1838, and came to this country with his parents in 1844, settling first near Hamilton, later moving to near Brantford, where he married and learned the trade of blacksmithing. For some years in Brantford he was associated with the late James Burt of Durham, in the iron and steel industry. In the year 1861 he came up to Allan Park and opened a blacksmith shop on the rough trail between the hamlets of Hanover and Durham.

His business grew rapidly for in these good old days long before the auto, when the buggies and wagons bumped over the rough corduroy roads a blacksmith was an important figure in the community. Sometimes he had 6 or 7 helpers in his shop.

In the growing hamlet the need of lumber was beginning to be felt, so with Mr. Goodeve, he built the first saw mill in Allan Park, later buying Mr. Goodeve out and running it himself for some 25 years. He also owned considerable lands around Allan Park at different times.

He took a prominent interest in the civic affairs of his district in the early days and was first elected as deputy reeve for his township, Bentinck, in 1871, a position he held for many years. He also served as County Commissioner for Bentinck and Glenelg for many years.

He was married three times, his first and second wives being twin sisters, Rebecca and Rose Kenney, of Dundas, Ont. His last marriage took place 11 years ago.

There were nine children born to him, as follows: William, Hanover; Catherine (Mrs. Cross) died three years ago; Bella, Mrs. Wm Livingstone, Hanover; Thos. Allan Park, where he died; John, Souris, Man.; Robert of Hanover; Herbert, of Hanover; Lizzie, Mrs. J. Livingstone, of St. Paul's, near Stratford; Susie, Mrs. Robert Burnett, who died April 7, 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. John Durant and Miss Mabel Orchard of Mount Forest visited recently with the McNally and Glenrosier families. Miss Jean Clark spent last week with her friend Miss Ruby Staples. Miss Reta Glenross visited last week with friends in Mount Forest. Mr. J. G. Firth visited in Ailsa Craig over the week end. Misses Helen and Jennie Morton returned with him. They will holiday here for some time.

Mr. John Ritchie of Egremont spent a few days recently with his cousin, Mr. Daniel Ritchie. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. Mortley, Little Charles and Evelyn returned with them to visit for two weeks. Mrs. Arthur Greenwood and little daughters, Clara and Gladys, of Durham, spent the latter part of last week at the home of Mr. J. G. Firth.

A number from this community attended the funeral of the late Robert Corlett, Dornoch on Saturday last.

Rocky Saugeen Mrs. Bert Taylor and two children, from Barrie are spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. A. Thompson. The sympathy of the district is extended to Jas. Lawrence in the loss of his barn by fire on Saturday. Mr. Wm Hill is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. G. Turnbull.

Mr. and Mrs. Lance Rumble, Toronto, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lawson. Mr. James Lawrence spent a week with his son Allister in Tilbury. Miss Catherine McLean spent the Tendered a Reception The home of Mr and Mrs Robert Parslow, at Priceville, was the rendezvous of a number of their friends on Friday, 21st July, who gathered to convey felicitations on their recent marriage. As a tangible expression of their high regard, the visitors presented Mr and Mrs Parslow with a handsome chair. The speaker on the occasion conveyed the good wishes of those assembled. Later the guests enjoyed a delicious supper.
