A joint meeting of the Priceville and Swinton Park Congregations will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 5th, for the purpose of giving a call to a minister. Threshing is the order of the day. Machines are very plentiful. Mr. Albert Williams of Eugenia is threshing on the North Line.

On Wednesday night a farewell party was tendered Miss Monica Lambert at the home of Mrs. McMeekin, before her departure from our midst. The evening was spent in games and music, after which Miss Donaldia Nichol read an address and Miss Nellie McLean made the presentation of a camera and pair of silk hose, and Miss Olive McMeekin presented her with a gorgeous bouquet of gladst from Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn. Although she was completely taken by surprise, Miss Lambert made a fitting reply, after which a fine lunch was served to all.

The following is the address: Dear Monica: We, your friends, have met tonight to spend a few pleasant hours in your company. We are indeed sorry to know that you are leaving us so soon. We all agree that you have been invaluable, in practically every organization in the church. The choir particularly will miss you. You were always willing to help at a moment's notice and ever trustworthy.

But we do not wish to dwell on regrets, rather we wish you the very best success in your new venture. We feel sure that your sunny disposition will gladden the hearts of many little sufferers. We will all look forward to welcoming you during your holidays. As a token of our esteem we ask you to accept these little gifts, as a remembrance of us.

Signed on behalf of your many friends,
Olive McMeekin
Nellie McLean
Donaldia Nichol

C. G. I. T. BANQUET MOTHERS
The C. G. I. T. held a Mother and Daughter Banquet on Friday night in the Presbyterian church in honor of the six girls who are leaving shortly from Priceville: Misses Sadie Carson, Eida Frook, Monica Lambert, Florence McPhail, Almada and Jean Hincks. Over forty were present.

The tables were beautifully decorated in red and white. Toasts were proposed to C. G. I. T. Groups by Miss Sutherland and replied to by Misses Margaret McArthur; to Our Mothers by Eida Frook and responded to by Mrs. Jno. Nichol. Toast to the Girls leaving by Jessie Nichol was replied to by Monica Lambert. To the girls at Home by Almada Hincks and responded to by Annie McIntyre.

Four of the girls then served lunch and waitresses and all enjoyed a short program consisting of: Instrumental music by Monica Lambert; Speech on 'The Ship of Life' by Jean Hincks; Readings by Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Brown. A sing-song. Mrs. MacMillan gave an account of the Sunday School class since 1915 when the older of these girls were among its first members and of the class branching out into C. G. I. T. work in 1930. She spoke of her pride in these girls who were leaving and of the joy in sending forth clear bright and upright girls.

She closed with three stanzas of Julia Baker's 'Mizpah.' Mrs. Campbell, Misses Nellie McLean, Jessie Nichol and Isabelle McMillan sang the prayer 'Be at Rest' as a parting wish from those at home.

After a short silence all were asked to draw their favours and all forgot their age with a host of balloons for a few minutes. An instrument was found in slips of paper bearing the name of each one present with their supposed life and occupation ten years hence.

A short sing-song, and a toast to King and Country by Miss Donaldia Nichol brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

MISS JANE WRIGHT
The funeral of the late Miss Jane Wright took place on Saturday last. A very successful teacher for many years, her ever-widening influence will be felt in the future as well as at present. Her works do follow her, as her pastor, Rev. J. A. Moir, said in his fine sermon of admonition and consolation. Her over forty years of teaching has left its mark in various parts of Ontario. Eight years in Priceville, thirteen at St. Annes, nine at Sparrow Lake, are three of the larger terms taught.

There is left of this well-educated family: Mrs. Tuck, who, with her daughter, lives in Winnipeg; Samuel, a brother; Mima here at the old home and Emily (Mrs. Hutton) who with her son, Arthur, and daughter, Marguerite, were present and at the last sad rites, as were also a nephew Harry Patton and his wife and three children and Bert. She died at the ripe old age of 82 years.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Peter Muir, Robt. Parslow, Arch. McArthur, Archie Conkey, Hector McLean, Wm. McBride and Frank Reiley. W. G. Watson was funeral director.

W. M. S. GARDEN PARTY
On Friday evening last, a very pleasant, neighborly lawn social was put on by the W. M. S. of the United church at the fine home of Mr. John Stothart. The verandah and grounds were finely lighted by tiny, varicolored electric lights.

The program was given by local talent, and was favored and graciously received. Rev. J. A. Moir in the capacity of chairman filled the position very creditably. Glee was rendered by the choir; a mixed quartette; and duets by Mrs. H. B. McLean and Miss B. Weir, Miss B. James and W. W. Ramage and also by Mrs. McLean and W. W. Ramage. Two readings were given by Miss Parslow. Miss Anna McLean took the obligate solo in a choir selection and contributed a solo 'My Task' in fine voice, and pure tonal quality to the delight of the audience, in this, her debut.

A fine lunch was served at the close. The women had the upper hand—as they almost always have!—and decked up some of the men-folks in fine white capacious aprons, and turbans (I guess they call 'em) on the waiting and made them do the washing or walking—while the assemblage waited patiently for their choice of tea, coffee or viands. A vote of thanks was tendered all.

Miss Catherine Cummings, a pleasant, sociable young lady from Ottawa, is spending an enjoyable holiday with her friend, Mrs. Alex McLean, (nee Janet McDonald).

Misses Lizzie and Catherine Campbell left Montreal, are spending a few days at the home of their brother, Mr. Dan Campbell, on the 2nd of Artemesia, leaving Wednesday for Montreal, after a month's holiday here.

Miss Myra McLean, teacher in Toronto, arrived here on Monday on a short visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah McLean, who is not quite so well as formerly.

Mr. Johnnie McVicar arrived home on Monday from the amateur swim on Saturday at Toronto. He came in 12th in one of the events of 100 competitors. Attaboy Johnnie.

The Presbyterians meet on Tuesday night to call a Mr. McDonald from Skye as their minister.

The Memorial organization is also winding up getting ready for next year's popular event.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLean and son, Alex, arrived home from the Exhibition Sunday night.

We are pleased to report that Mr. J. McKee is improving, tho' slowly.

Love, when it was learned that he was very ill in Durham hospital. George was at church a week ago with Mrs. Love and family, all looking so well and happy. We are hoping for good news of George.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Robert Knox were the cousins from Guelph. At James Hardy's were: Miss Flossie Hodgkinson, Addie Copeland and Alex Shearson, all of Bethel. At Bob Lane's were Mr. and Mrs. John Lane and Earl, also Mr. and Mrs. James Sturrock and three sons. At Ed. Haw's, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Phillip and children of Toronto.

On Wednesday George Haw and W. McEachnie intend going to Toronto to take part in the Old Fiddlers' Contest.

Miss Jessie Lane is taking in the Ex. and visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy Sr., are visiting with the Lawrences and Blackstones in Stratford, at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hardy will take in the Ex at the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norman, the newly-weds returned on Saturday after a week motoring in the North country which they enjoyed. They left on Monday to put in order their new home purchased in Toronto, as next week Jack will again take up his work, school teaching. No doubt they will spend many week ends at the old home, G. W. Parslow's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aldcorn and their daughters and families attended a reunion of the Brown family at Salem on Wednesday last. Mrs. Aldcorn was one of the Browns years ago. The afternoon was spent viewing the Elora rocks and playing ball in the park. Dinner and supper were served on the lawn at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jameson at Salem. Mrs. Jameson also was a Brown and with her the thought of a gathering of the clan originated. She sent out a hurried call and about 55 responded. After supper the Jamesons were thanked for their hospitality, and steps were taken to make this a yearly event. Mr. Jameson was elected president; Annie Douglas of Gorrie, secretary; Elva Brown, Fordwich, treasurer. A collection was taken up and well responded to. Tom Aldcorn, Toronto, Gordon Brown, Gorrie, and Ed. Heard of next year, were elected to look after next year's gathering, it to be held at the old Brown home, Howick Township, on the 17th of July, being the 80th birthday of Mr. Wm. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Norman returned from their honeymoon trip on Saturday and are receiving congratulations from their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reid and Miss Jessie Merchant, of Ypsilville, were guests at the home of Mr. W. R. Scott while attending the anniversary services on Sunday.

Misses Jean and Bernice McTaggart were guests of their aunt, Mrs. Henry Christie.

Preparations to re-surface the county road have commenced. The stone crushing machinery has been set up on Mr. John Ferris' property.

Very successful anniversary services were held at the United church on Sunday. Large congregations listened attentively to Mr. F. Young, who made an earnest appeal to each individual present to set a higher Christian standard of living and to measure up to that standard, exemplified by Christ on the Cross. A variety of excellent music was enjoyed including a duet by Mrs. Hockridge and Miss Dell Harrison, a trio by the Jack children, a ladies' quartette and a trio by Misses Sylvia and Ena Acheson and Mrs. Earl Walton. Two selections by the Salem male quartette and two anthems by the local choir. Floral blooms and ferns lent of their beauty for decoration.

The play presented by the Dromore Young People on Monday evening was well patronized and was of a high order. There were no dull moments and the spice of humor kept the audience interested and happy. Some of the cast were just born for the characters they portrayed. Splendid readings by Misses Mad and Acheson and Miss Ruth Dingwall and an orchestra comprised of Messrs. Geo. Shand, W. and Mac Hendry accompanied by Mrs. Frank Hendry were well received.

Mr. Elwood Kinsman and friend returned Saturday after spending a few days in St. Marys.
