I love the wind. Sometimes it plays red star in the centre. As softly in the trees As though a lady gently touched

They gently stir and sway-That means the wind would have me searched in vain for days.

Our old piano keys.

And come outdoors and play!

friends

That every child can see, But best of all I love the wind-It says so much to me!

The Lost Bedquilt.

when her father bought a piano for she caught sight of something bright her older sister, and when she saw sticking out of a hole just above her ested. Yet I signed the petition. I the large box that the plane was pack- head in an old gnarled tree. She know it will cost some money. Some ed in she was more interested than went closer and looked carefully. The of my neighbors are doing the same ever. She knew right away that the thing was red and green and white thing to-night. The time will come house, and she begged so hard for it look. that her father had it carried down | Caroline gave a little jump, caught into the orchard and set up, just like hold of the bright object and jerked sign it. It's a poor sport who won't Bible—at any rate most of us to-day a real house, on a foundation of it out of the opening. It was the use the golden rule after the other do not; and the stern, rugged, vigorin place, and there was a roof of She was so pleased to find her keep it dry.

ings were a dolls' bed, bureau and Presently she saw something appear table, and a little chair for herself, at the edge of the empty hole-somecolored patchwork quilt that her spots on it. It might have been alspread on the dolls' bed, where it of Mr. Frisky Tail. looked very pretty with its pattern! Her heart smote her. She rememdays she and the dolls had birds and looks so sad.' the canning season came, Caroline where he sat and chattered at her. She gathered bright berries and lit- back into the hole she waved her tle wild apples and cooked them in hand to him. water in the sun on the orchard wall. "There's your cuilt," she said After that she put them into bottles "Now do stop scolding!" and then labeled the bottles and set her playhouse. ber Caroline decided to go over to a work quilt was to be seen. The third near-by field and see whether she time she went even that had disapcould find a few more late apples to peared. can. She put her playhouse in order But the dolls were well content before she left; and as she turned to with the blue cheesecloth quilt; and go she noticed with pleasure how pret- all winter Caroline liked to think of ty the patchwork quilt looked on the a certain warm nest in the woods that dolls' bed. A ray of sunlight was she had helped to furnish.

Zulus Are Loyal. The chief of the Zulu nation, his for the British King, for whom they King and country." now profess unbounded loyalty, though it is not many years ago that the Zulus were mortal enemies of the stration, reports a Durban, Natal, dis- hung door, patch, and the building was packed What lies in the storehouse behind, petitions. with courtly, dignified Zulus, some of Whether gems or mere rubbish, is them in frock coats and wearing hidden no more. Oriental. medals received for bravery in the world war, but others, also be-medalled for valor in Europe, had reverted in the world in the manufacture of Chief Manzolwandhli, son of Cete- and the per capita distribution.

When she came back an hour later the patchwork quilt was gone. Though she turned everything upside down, she could not find it. What could At dawn it blows my curtains pink; have happened to it? No one ever a ditch cleaned or straightened up. Till the great boughs shout defiance came to that spot except herself. She

One frosty day in November, when the nuts were rattling merrily to the ground, Caroline ran down to the Result—a fight. Later they may Trim, tapered like a lance— The stars and moon and sun are woods to gather chestnuts. The shortest way was through the orch- done. Because the first crowd made ard, for the best chestnut trees grew them pay for what they didn't want,

"I must take only a pocketful," she said to herself. "It wouldn't do to rob Mr. Frisky Tail." Caroline was very much interested As she turned to leave a little later tarred paper and oilcloth curtains to treasure that she did not stop to Caroline moved into the little house, run as far as the orchard a thought bag and baggage, and all summer struck her. She crept softly back to long she played there. The furnish- the woods and hid behind a tree. The thing that she valued most was a thing gray, with two round black grandmother had made at the age of most any squirrel's face, but to Caroeight. The quilt was always neatly line it looked very much like the face

On rainy days Caroline sat snug in the quilt. "I can't take it away from her little house and listened to the him," she said. "He had tucked it rain on the orchard leaves; on fine into his house so nicely, and now he bees for company, and now and then She found a long stick and ran a gray squirrel, which came peering back to the tree. The squirrel dartabout, full of curiosity. Caroline ed out of the hole when she came named the squirrel Frisky Tail. When near and dashed to the top branch played that she was canning, too. When Caroline had pushed the quilt

Then she went home and made her them away on the pantry shelves of dolls a tufted blue guilt of cheesecloth. When she next went to the One day toward the end of Septem- woods only one corner of the patch-

the British, as the representative of does not pay financially not to come "for the beneficent British rule," world war, they were ready to give and see how it works. Governor-General, and through him, ed, and were prepared to die for their that assistance again whenever need-

The tongue is the key of the mind, had received the worst of it. So at on "the sweetest girl in the world" for There was an enthusiastic demon- And whenever it opens the secret- prayer time she was resentful and un- many months, but, being bashful, his

> Canada is now the second nation people nice." automobiles, number of cars owned

Romantic Story of Marquis Wheat.

interesting as a plot of a novel, says of wheat from Danzig, the chief outa writer, for the hundreds of millions of bushels that are now grown annu- wheat in the seventies, but it was slow ally on the continent of North Am- to ripen, and the early frosts blackerica are descended from a few isolat- ened many a first-class field of it. In

In 1841 a Scotchman who had been ed it with more than fifty other varworking for David Fife, near Peter- jeties, but failed to solve the problem. borough, Ontario, returned to his na- The flour thus produced was too yeltive country under promise to send to low for the market. In 1903, however, his employer a Scottish bonnet, or his son, Dr. Charles E. Saunders, Glasgow he bought the bonnet, and that his father had crossed with Hard while taking a stroll along the Broom- Calcutta, and in the following year ielaw came upon a boat unloading a succeeded in growing twelve plants. bonnet with a sample of the wheat seed, but it ripened early, and the and sent it to his friend Fife in grains were plump. He named it Mar-

Fife sowed the seed in the spring Canada, the Marquis of Lorne. den, and only three heads came to spared-twenty-three pounds- was friend's gift, Fife saved the wheat, Indian Head, Saskatchewan. It lived and in 1343 had a pint of seed, which up to expectations, and two years by 1870 Red Fife, as this new wheat tributed to Canadian farmers. Their was called after its color and its own- reports were enthusiastic. The early er, became a favorite in Ontario. It wheat, so long sought, had been found. was also known as Scotch Fife and as Since then its fame has spread widely. Glasgow wheat-though it was not and Marquis wheat is now grown not grown in Scotland, and the experts, only in Canada, but in Minnesota and when they examined it, pronounced it the Dakotas, where rust has hitherto a Galician variety. Investigation prov. played havoc, and where early har-

Red Fife was the staple Canadian 1888 a botanist named Saunders cross-

out cattle broke into his gar- In 1907 all the seed that could be Being interested in his sent to the experimental station at

Neighborhood Co-operation.

Farmers are often said to be the A tree to honor soldiers? most independent folks on earth. In | Choose it not carelessly; reality we are that all right, but with For the elm, though tall and stately, the first syllable detached from that Is a lady sort of tree word. We're dependent.

Not so far from here there is a lawsuit hanging fire that has cost one wealth landowner about $10,000, others concerned with the same suit shining through a crack right on the Lawyers richer-yes. The ditch could have been dug many times over for the amount of cash already spent. A good tree for a soldier And there are dozens of similar cases | Sure is the stalwart oak, all over the country.

> Others do not see that it will benefit them any, and so they fight it. They admit that it will benefit the And if the twinkling poplar community, but it would cost them more than they would be benefited. It yet is worthy, guardingsult-another fight.

To-night a neighbor was here with a petition on a township school matwhen we may want a petition signed fellow used it first. In our neighborhood there is an the Scriptures is as fruitful a model open ditch that has to be cleaned every for literature as it is for life. But the few years. So far we have arranged case with Shakespeare is altogether between us jointly to hire a surveyor different. His plays are an exhaustless to lay the job out and figure out the mine of delight for those who love portion that each one of us is to clean imaginative beauty, but they are bad out. And so far it has always been models for a young writer. Shakesdone. Either we do the actual work pears was the richest and most fertile ourselves or we hire a ditcher to do poet the world has ever known. But it for us. There are some men who his merits are inimitable. are benefited more than others, and If the young author is determined to some who could get along very well pick out special models, he cannot do with no ditching done. Yet these better than to choose the classical fall in line, and we have a satisfac- prose of the eighteenth century; prose tory deal every time.

years. I know of several farmers ous styles and temperaments. who refused to sign a stone road But more important than any study a road. Some time I may want a pen to paper.

Even though it is morally right, it Zulu royal blood, voiced his thanks and go with the needs of your neighwhile Chief Mini declared that as "the neighbors very well, though some Zulus had given assistance in the folks try to. Wait till you get sick

As a Special Favor. There had been a difference of opinion in the preacher's family, and youthful Elizabeth thought that she happy, but she went through her usual suit progressed slowly.

all the bad people good. And, God, ed she pointed to the rose in his coat

Poor Father!

Billie: "Pa, what's a dirigible?" Father: "Now, Willie, haven't I told you not to irrigate your poor father with your questions, and prosecute him with your impositions just as if he were a cyclorama of inflammation!" he called back from the front door.

Memorial Trees.

Droped round with lovely fringes as lady likes to be.

And the willow, ah, the willow and the suit is not yet settled. Many Too full of tears, too drooping Old churchyards knew so long, Is for a scul so strong. are poorer by hundreds of dollars. It left, on a poppied hillside, young has threshed as high as 45 bushels to lips scarce hushed from song.

Strong from the time its leaflets One man or a set of men may want Their acorn she th have broke to the north wind's mighty they expect to even things up. Re- Then choose we for our soldier Green boughs where songs may be A stem erect, befitting His body's gallantry,

> Recall the pains of France. with poplar shades advance.

The Bible and Shakespeare.

Many young writers hear that Lin-that does not pretend to lofty imag-No matter whether we want to or ination, but that is eminently simple not, we've got to consider the other supple, easy and vigorous, the prose fellows' improvements. In any work of Swift, Addison or Goldsmith. Yet of this kind the tax that pays it is far better than any particular models collected from farms in the county is a wide reading of great writers of and township that are not benefited. very different types. Turn from Yet the same farms want improved Chaucer to Thackeray. Mix Dryden roads or ditches, and your farm helps with Dickens. And let a sure and to pay. It is only helping each other adequate English of your own flow and distributing the cost over more out of the blending of the most varipetition because they didn't have any of models is the training and disciplin- brations of the membrane, the re- you don't have a self-starter a crank use for a road at that point, or not ing of your own mind. The greatest much use. Yet later, when there was needs of a writer of the present day, a screen. Deaf-mute pupils soon learn a road they did have use for, and of any day, are brevity and lucidity; to recognize sounds by the designs. they circulated a petition, they ex- and the one essential preliminary to pected everyone to sign for accom- writing clearly is to think clearly. The greatest writer of the world, from this This is what I like to hear a man point of view, said that the two main say, and this one has signed three elements of style are precision and or four road improvement petitions color. Color is the gift of God. But that will cost him extra taxes but precision can be learned, and the way give him very little benefit: "Yes. I'll to learn it is to think out your subject the inexhaustable record of human should be with Him, and that He

in thy heart and write."

Thought He Needed Roses. A shy young man had been calling Our Lord in His humanity loved His sion that we need now.

Finally she decided she ought to set "O Lord," she finally prayed, "make things going, so the next time he call- blessed fellowship which, since Chris- not hurt their souls.

A crimson flush spread over his countenance, but the exchange was made. Then he grabbed his hat and started to leave the room. "Where are you going?" she asked,

"To the-er-florist for more roses,"

The Rabbit: My offensive equipment being practically nil, it remains ed that the vessel in the Glasgow vests prevent losses through frost, for me to fascinate him with the power of my eye!

Production by Canadian Indians.

The value of the crop taken off the take greater interest in modern and Greater Production farms on the Indian reserves in the prairie provinces this year will be worth, it is estimated, that they will surpass the output of $2,500,000, and the profits on the op- 1919, which was gratifying and fully erations will run to well over $1,000. 000. Wheat on these farms in Alberta the acre and graded No. 1 Northern. the campaign can be seen in the man-Thus, in times of peace, is the Domin- ner in which the Indians increased ed as a war measure.

the attention of the Government, anx- and in 1919, of 65 per cent. The total which must be satisfactorily settled portion of land on the Indian reserves farms was 941/2 per cent. In addition tile and productive is not sufficient in the west was under cultivation. to the crop, the increase in the num- to induce him to make a new home Arrangements were accordingly made ber of cattle raised was substantially there. He looks to transportation to lease these reserves for cultivation higher. want something of the same sort One who has marched white highways at the disposal of the Inspector of In- Canada's western Indians, the figures He must have consideration for his ter. So far as being a patron of the When (slighting bronze and sculpture) Indian population of the reserves were 685 Indians, of whom 142 are farming. One of the uppermost considera-

> From the point of view of the money 160 acres each privately tilled. er still from the point of view of bene- tribe, exclusively, is for the year, 150,fiting and encouraging the Indians to 000 bushels.

Hearing With the Eyes.

which visualize the sound of human These are for the instruction and atus, called a vocal phonoscope, has a

The exact returns for 1920 are not justified the experiment. In 1919 the number of acres operated under the katchewan was 20,448. The effect of ion benefiting from a work inaugurat- production on their own farms. The extent of acreage cropped in 1918 and an appropriation of $300,000 put | As an example of the activities of ity of school, social conditions, etc. dian Agencies to be used in encourag- of the Blackfeet reserve at Gleichea wife and children, if his land selection ing the Indians to greater production may be mentioned, on which area be far from settlement; he must conof grain and cattle. Machinery and Greater Production farms, two in sider the education of his children and horses were purchased, reserves fenc- number, were established, cultivating their future prospects. There are a ed where necessary, buildings erected, 8,000 acres. The reserve consists of hundred points which must be threshand sed and livestock secured. The 175,000 acres and has a population of ed out. called upon for every effort and nobly and 120 are in the two boarding tions in the mind of an intending setresponded by putting in long hours schools of the reserve. A total of 8, ther is that of medical attention and on the Greater Production farms and 500 acres are under cultivation ex- hospital accommodation. Farm life, speeding up production on their own clusive of the Greater Production especially in its pioneer stages, is These Greater Production farms, as erated, by the same labor, and owned annoyances, and inevitable spells of ful and, in addition, have encouraged threshing machines, seven large trac- and help within reasonable distance. work and effort on the farms the In- tors as well as much privately-owned | Manitoba Leads Rural Health Nursing. dians already had under cultivatifu. farm machinery, on the 147 farms of

The estimated production on this re-

Inventions have just been perfected

circular frame over which a thin mem-

it. To this plate is attached a tiny flected ray of light draws designs on comes in handy!"

Two Sides of Life.

Self-Starter Needed.

Father (upstairs): "It is time for that young man to go home." Young Man: "Your father is a

Bearers of the Gospel.

These twelve Jesus sent forth, and James, going first to their own homes extremely low rate tax, only one discommanded them, saying, Go not into and then to their brethren of the trict paying more than $4.80 per sign that petition. You fellows need clearly and accurately before you put the way of the Gentiles, and into any Jews. The foundation for the Chris- quarter section. For this small amcity of the Samaritans enter ye not; tian church, which would so soon com- nual expense, ratepayers in municipal First, train yourself to the habit of but go rather to the lost sheep of prise the Gentile world, was to be hospital districts are guaranteed hosexpressing everything simply, ener- the house of Israel .- St. Matt. 10, 5. laid among the people of Abraham, pital service for their wives and famgetically and directly. Then fix your St. Mark tells us that Christ or- Isaac and Jacob, to whom the pro- ilies at all times at the rate of one whole soul on the great book of life, dained the Twelve Apostles "that they mises were made. Christ's Instructions to Us. passion and emotion and experience. might send them forth to preach" Note, first, how the apostles were 31st of the present year, one hospital There was never a better precept for (St. Mark 3, 14). It must have been to throw themselves into the work. had 1,281 hospital days, and others an author than the intense, transfigure a denial as well as a joy when He Nothing must impede them, no per- 1,353, 995, 538, 863, and 923. The hossent them forth; a denial, in that He sonal interest or burdensome plans pitals already in operation account for "'Fool,' said my muse to me, 'look would be left without their compan- must delay them. They must leap, as 192 hospital beds, and this number will ionship, which was dear to him; a it were, to the task as if sent out in be materially increased before the joy, in that they were to go out and haste to deliver great news. It is this end of the year with other units in proclaim the coming of the kingdom. enthusiasm for the world's conver- operation. companions (St. John 13, 1) and de- Again, they were not to be afraid. types. The first or average type is sired to have them with Him as He They would be called upon to suffer, designed for a well developed com-

if you can, please make all the good and said, "I'll give you a kiss for the church and human brotherhood, of those who go out to preach is amp- wards, and sun parlor. Next is the tianity was established, has created Thirdly, the value in Christ's sight room, sterilizing room, nursery, three ly proven by the Master's words, type which serves its supporters in God cares for little birds, though they the district where there is no physibe sold so cheaply in the market clan. This is staffed by graduate The apostles had the double privi- place. How much more must He care nurses at the head of which is a lady lege of learning from Christ and then for His own children as they go out superintendent. The third type, such going out to preach. It was typical to bring back home the Father's wan- as is situated in mining and other inof the Christian life. We are to com- dering sheep! The love of Jesus for dustrial distrets, is not only designed mune with God and in our individual the twelve is one of the glories of to be of service to the town and urban life learn of Him and find joy in the the gospel, and it brings Him very ratepayers, but is equipped with the rning, and then we are to do our near to every man who tries to make necessary paraphernalia for aggravatwork under the guidance of the Holy the world better because he has ed accident cases. Spirit, bringing to others the truth caught a vision from Heaven.

> Jesus in the Quiet Hour. It is un- about a cup of cold water given to hospital. When the Minister of Health worthy for us to have the Quiet Hour a little one. We long to do some is assured of the district's financial and hear Christ speak to us and then great thing-to sweep a multitude ability to support the project, he apfail to go at His command and tell into the Kingdom, to make the world points a hospital board who select a men of His love. We must not ne- good in a day, to subdue human pas- site and prepare a scheme for the glect either of these privileges. They sions and conquer cruel tongues. And proposed hospital. This being approvboth go together. Back and forth the finding that we cannot, we are ed, the building is proceeded with, the disciples went, now having the com- ashamed. But here is a feeble soul board having the power to borrow panionship of Jesus, and now going as to whom we can speak a word of money and iscue debentures. messengers to tell men that the Mes-comfort, with whom we can have a Though it is only two years since little prayer and the Master sees the first of these hospitals came to be It seems a little strange that and blesses. So holy is the illustra- built, they are now scattered over the Christ told them to confine their tion, that whenever any one gives me face of the prairie and prove a great preaching at first to the Jews. They a glass of water it seems like a benefit to agricultural settlers. Many were not to go to the Gentiles or to sign of hidden grace. We can do no sick people, who would otherwise have the Samaritans who had separated great things as men measure great- had to endure a long journey into one themselves from the Jews dwelling ness. Nay, we may seem to fail in of the larger centres, have been mediin Judea and Galilee, but they were men's eyes as they turn from us. cally attended and nursed back to to go to the lost sheep of the house But if in Heaven some little child health within thier own neighborof Israel. They were to begin at shall come and take our hand and hoods. Already many young Canhome. And so must we. It is not say, "You helped me once long ago adians have made their first appeareasy to lead to Christ and His wor- on earth," what will all the pains and ance in the world within the walls of ship and service those of our own sorrows and disappointments of the these rural hospitals. They are a dishouseholds, but we must begin there. world-life matter? To love Christ, tinct national asset, and a source of Missionary work in foreign fields to tell the gospel story and to help extreme consolation to Canada's farming must not be neglected, but we must somebody to come to Him-that is to ing populace. first do all we can to make Canada a go out as the apostles did and to Christian land, and I love to think know that Jesus sends us .- Rev. F. of these men, Peter and John and W. Tomkins. motive.-George Eliot.

HOSPITALS FOR RURAL DISTRICTS

yet available, but there is no doubt MANITOBA LEADS THE N. AM. CONTINENT

government plan in Alberta and Sas- Entire Dominion is Waking Up to the Advantage of This

National Asset. A farmer contemplating settlement In the early part of 1918, it came to showed an increase of 241/2 per cent., in a new country has many requisites ious to bring about the greatest pos- increase of acreage by individual In- for him before he undertakes the ultisible production, that only a small pro- dians and on the Greater Production mate step. The fact that land is ferfacilities, available markets, prexim-

Each province of Canada maintains a Department of Public Health, and son, as a means of correcting their some but recently established have alown sound production. They soon be- ready proved their worth and are procome quite expert in producing simi- gressing along most advanced lines. In Alberta, a Municipal Hospitals Act was passed in 1917 and came into active effect in 1918. During the two years the work has gone on in a manner characteristic of the vigorous energy of the Canadian west. The hospital districts where schemes have been ratified comprise an area of 242 townships, including six towns and ten villages. There are eight nunicipal hospitals operating, whilst ten other districts have been organized and are completing arrangements to## wards operation.

Guaranteed Hospital Service. All service at these hospitals since preached and worked miracles. He but no matter, for their names were munity where there is no necessity was lonely, He loved men, and that written in Heaven and cruel men could for outside or district nursing. It contains superintendent's office, operating we have ben taught. We cannot ne- And then finally Christ declares Any district which contains suffiglect either side of life. It is im- that even the smallest deed of kind- cient assessable land and a sufficiently possible to work happily and profit- ness has a blessing. I have found large number of ratepayers, may reably unless we have first been with great comfort in those last words quest the establishment of a municipal