THE ROLL CALL

T. J. TURNER

A death that .s closely connected with a South Grey family, - the Boyce's of Bentinck Township, is that of T. J. Turner, of Swan Valley Sask., who was married to Agnes Boyce, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyce of Elmwood. He passed away last week after a lingering illness of eight and a half months, resulting from a paralytic

The late Mr. Turner was born on October 24th, 1854, at Penrith, Cumsecond son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Turner. When eight years of age he came with his parents to Canada, settling on a farm near the village of Orton, Ontario, twenty miles from Guelph. On April 8th, 1875, he married his cousin, Mary Turner. Nine children were born to this union Two daughters, one two years and the other seven years old, are buried in Eden Grove cemetery, Ontario. In after years he moved with his family to near Grand Valley and there he conducted the Methodist Church choir for thirteen years.

In the year 1898 he came west and took up a homestead near Minitonas. He was recognized as being the first live-stock shipper in the Valley and won the esteem of a large circle of
