Holstein Fair Excels in Exhibits

FINE DAY AND FINE CROWD

"The best fair in years" is the pronouncement of most of the large crowd, who attended the annual Egremont exhibition in Holstein last Friday.

The hall was filled to capacity, the baking and flowers overflowing their bounds into the south side of lower hall, where fruit, though of good quality, was not so plentiful as formerly.

In the Park the stock classes sawed competition and a bumper entry list. So many horses were shown that it was almost six p.m. before judging was completed.
