PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

We desire to make a correction that in last issue, somehow crept surreptitiously into the columns of the Review. Mr Wm McBride was floor manager at the fine orderly dance held here. He is fully occupied now and with authority to look after the continued good name of Priceville, from headquarters in O. Sound and backed up here with strong moral support.

Another is the creator of that noted birthday cake, Miss Bertha James, the last year winner of the food fruit cake at the show here. Honor to whom honor is due.

St Columba choir journeyed to Salem's Anniversary Sunday night, and contributed an anthem "Exalt the Lord, exalt Him", by Earle, while that favored singer, Mrs H. B. McLean, sang a fine solo, "Eventide" in sweet voice and tonal qualities. The local male quartette of the Salem Church also gave a selection.

Mr and Mrs Fred Karstedt paid a visit to Mr and Mrs John McRae at Owen Sound, where they are spending the winter with their son, and found them quite comfortable.

The Misses James have been losers by the useless curs of the locality, in having three of their lambs killed by dogs and a sheep so badly worried, that it has since died.

On Wednesday night a miscellaneous shower was tendered Mr and Mrs Wm McKenzie at home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs George Campbell. A large crowd was present and the evening was spent in dancing and cards. At an appropriate time, a large basket was carried to the kitchen and the bride and groom unwrapped the gifts. Miss Margaret Black read the good wishes. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts and later, lunch was served.

Miss Christine Magee, teacher at Stone's Line, spent the week end at Miss Jean Hincks.

Mr and Mrs Amos Smith and son Clarence, Meaford, Mr and Mrs Sam Gilbert, Vandeuser, visited Sunday at Alex Carson's.

Mr and Mrs Angus McCannel returned home Sunday after the past week spent at And. Hincks.

Mr Murray McMillan visited with Toronto friends last week.

Mr Chas Ferguson had the misfortune to lose one of his barns by fire Saturday night. Some of his implements were also destroyed.

Mr C. E. Hincks, Mr and Mrs Alf. Hincks, Toronto; Mr and Mrs Arch. McCaig, visited Sunday at A. L. Hincks.

Mr and Mrs Wilfrid Watson and daughter Betty, visited recently with Collingwood friends.

Mr and Mrs Thos Hincks and their daughter Florence, Toronto, spent the week end with friends here.

Mr and Mrs Dave Long and family of Holstein, were recent guests at Mr Ben McKenzie's.

Mr and Mrs Angus McCannel, Mr. and Mrs A. Hincks, spent Friday with Collingwood friends.

Keep in mind, that on Sunday, Nov 5th, Rev. Norman McDonald will preach the Gaelic at the morning service.

On Tuesday the W. M. S. and Willing Helpers held their monthly meeting at church with 26 ladies present. Mrs Jno Nichol presided, Miss Nellie McLean presiding at the organ. After the usual opening exercises, Rev N. McDonald gave an excellent address on St Columba and was much enjoyed. Mrs Hincks gave the topic, "Marching Onward"; Mrs Angus Hooper gave a humorous reading "Buying a Dress"; Miss Alma McLean, a reading on "Thanksgiving"; It was decided to have a concert on Friday, Nov. 10, under the auspices of the Willing Helpers.

Mrs Sutherland, Mrs Colin McLean, Mrs A. L. Hincks, along with the executive, Mrs Jno Nichol and Mrs. Boice, were appointed to act on the program com. Lunch will be served.

Mr and Mrs Jim Henry and baby, and Mrs Henry, Toronto, spent the week end at Mr Don. Stewart's.

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file, Oct 24, 1918 The Victory loan campaign opens next Monday and to-day fifty canvassers from all parts of Grey Co. are in conference at Central Office, O. Sound. District No. 7 comprises the Town of Durham, part of Tp. of Ben th. k, part of Tp. of Glenelg and part of Egremont. The canvassers for this district are: Messrs A. H. Jackson, Jno. M. Findlay, John R. Philip, Allan McDougall, Wm A. Livingstone, A. B. McArthur, Robt McFarlane, A. W. Lauder.

Church goers who enjoy the House of God, had a dreary time of it on Sunday last in Durham and many other places, where the edict of the Boards of Health had forbidden assemblages of all kinds, in an effort to combat the influenza.

The marriage was solemnized recently in England, of Nursing Sister Marion King, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs A. King, Quebec Ave., Toronto, to Capt. C. D. Farquharson, C. A. M. C. Both bride and groom are regular members of the medical and nursing staffs of Taplow Military Hospital.

S. S. No 14, Normanby, (Blythe's school) has its quota of diligent workers, who meet every two weeks for sewing at the homes of different homes in the section. A list of their activities for the past six months, delivered to Durham Red Cross Society, is as follows: 38 day shirts 8 hospital shirts 22 operating gowns, 32 suits pyjamas 15 doz. handkerchiefs 26 towels 16 1/2 doz. personal property bags 7 doz. wash cloths 4 trench caps 12 pair bed socks.

Collectors amounted to $28.93. Mrs John Marshall is president, Miss Ella Lewis, Sec'y Treas.

Born, in Durham, Oct. 19, to Mr. and Mrs Bert Saunders, a son.

In Walkerton a number of the young ladies who have taken the V. A. D. course in nursing, have volunteered their services as nurses in town to cope with the flu.

The Women's Institute at its last meeting, ordered $20 worth of stationery for its members to send to overseas friends and relatives in Christmas boxes.

26 YEARS AGO

From Review file, Oct 22, 1908 In our rush the first of last week, we entirely overlooked mention of Insp. Campbell's success in obtaining his B. A. degree.

A presentation and address to Miss Maggie Farr, 2nd con., Glenelg, took place on Tuesday last, emblematic of the respect held towards her by her life-long neighbors, from whom she is soon to be separated.

Contractor Hugh McDonald this Thursday, had the first sod dug for the new Armory in Durham. The Armory is a fact, planned for in 1907, and if delay has taken place, the fault did not lie with the Department.

We find it impossible, even with an enlarged paper, to give all the campaign notes we have on H. H. Miller's successful campaign. Everywhere there is optimistic feeling that Miller will beat his majority of 316, taken four years ago.

Born, in Durham, Oct. 18, to Mr. and Mrs C. C. Elvidge, a son. Congratulations to Mr Chas. Robson, who last Wednesday in Toronto was united heart and hand with Miss Barbara McNab.

Mr V. Hahn, we hear, has received a threatening letter, unsigned, trying to intimidate him, and make him cast his vote for Ball.

Monday last, while threshing was in progress at Mr B. Hartford's, Mr Robt. Fisher met with an accident, which is likely to prove fatal. He trusted his weight on a board between feed table and mow, and it giving way, he fell on his head, injuring some vital part.

MARKDALE MAN WILED BY GYPSY WOMAN

Russell Hill, driver for the Markdale Creamery, was a victim of the wiles of a Gypsy woman on Friday last, as the result of which he is out several dollars. Mr Hill was in the vicinity of Feverham, Oprey Tp., in connection with his duties and as he was about to enter the gate leading to a farm house, was accosted by a gypsy woman, dressed in all the gaudy colors of her race, asking if he did not wish to have his fortune told for 25c.

Mr Hill was interested, handed over the quarter, which the woman made some palaver over and then inquired casually if he had any more money and how much. He complied and according to story, the gypsy said if she were permitted to bless it good luck might come to him. Several envelopes with small sums which were to go to Creamery patrons were allegedly placed in her hands, and again she exercised her powers and made signs as if she were blessing the money. She not only blessed it, but in some way appropriated it. In a few minutes the driver discovered the swindle, but the swindler was gone.

WELKER - WILSON

"Rosedale Farm," near Wiseton, Sask., was the scene Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 17, of a pretty wedding, when the marriage of Miss Clara Madeline Wilson, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Arthur Wilson and Mr. Vernon Welker of Saskatoon, was
